

THE SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

May 5, 2024, 11:15am

Not death, not life, not things to come not height or depth or anything in all the world
NOTHING can separate us from God's love

Welcome to Trinity Church

Welcome to Trinity Church Wall Street, a vibrant and growing Episcopal parish of more than 1,500 members. Over the past 325 years, the fabric of Trinity has been woven by the Spirit from the lives and gifts of diverse people; their desire to live their faith through worship, service, study, and stewardship; and the ever-evolving life of New York City itself.

Our parish is guided by its mission to share God's love for all people. Together, we seek to build relationships with one another and with our neighbors, to cultivate compassion, to deepen our knowledge and spiritual practices, to work for justice rooted in essential human dignity, and to live as conscientious contributors to the life of our city and the Anglican Communion worldwide. As we grow together in service and love, we know ourselves, first and foremost, as followers of Jesus.

We are delighted to welcome you today; thank you for the gift of your participation and prayers. If you are new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy. All are warmly invited to join us for Coffee Hour at Parish Hall—behind the church and over the bridge.

About this Service

Eastertide

Easter is the highest holiday of the Christian year—a celebration of the event that defines our Church: the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, fulfilling the scriptural foretelling of the Messiah. Like spring itself, the Paschal feast brings the promise of new life. The Easter Season, also known as Eastertide, will continue for 50 days until Pentecost, which occurs on May 19 this year.

After weeks of preparation and reflection, more joyful elements return to the liturgy. The confession is dormant throughout this jubilant season. Gloria, a song of praise, replaces the Kyrie, a supplication for mercy; and the word alleluia (“Praise the Lord”)—which has not been spoken during the past 40 days of Lent—is proclaimed enthusiastically, and will remain in acclamations and dismissals throughout Eastertide.

The Collect of the Day

BCP p. 225

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Word of God

The First Reading

Acts 10:44–48

Reader A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word. The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles, for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter said, “Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?” So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay for several days.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 98

BCP p. 727

Leader Sing to the LORD a new song, *
for he has done marvelous things.

People With his right hand and his holy arm *
has he won for himself the victory.

Leader The LORD has made known his victory; *
righteousness has he openly shown in the sight of the nations.

People He remembers his mercy and faithfulness to the house of Israel, * and all the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.

Leader Shout with joy to the LORD, all you lands; *
lift up your voice, rejoice, and sing.

People Sing to the LORD with the harp, *
with the harp and the voice of song.

Leader With trumpets and the sound of the horn * shout with joy before the King, the LORD.

People Let the sea make a noise and all that is in it, *
the lands and those who dwell therein.

Leader Let the rivers clap their hands, *
and let the hills ring out with joy before the LORD,
when he comes to judge the earth.

People In righteousness shall he judge the world * and the peoples with equity.

The Second Reading

1 John 5:1-6

Reader A Reading from the First Letter of John.

Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the parent loves the child. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we obey his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whatever is born of God conquers the world. And this is the victory that conquers the world, our faith. Who is it that conquers the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

This is the one who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the one that testifies, for the Spirit is the truth.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual

Please stand and turn to face the Gospel as it passes.

Al - le-lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le-lu - ia!

Choir Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Choir All the paths of the Lord are love and faithfulness

The Holy Gospel

John 15:9-17

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Jesus said to his disciples, "As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

"This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Phillip A. Jackson
Rector

The Nicene Creed

BCP p. 358*

Please stand.

Celebrant Let us stand and profess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

CW:TS p. 432*/p. 434*

Leader In hope and gladness, let us pray to God, the Creator of all.

Silence

That our risen Savior may fill us with the joy of his glorious and life-giving resurrection, we pray to the living God.

People Hear our prayer.

Leader That those who serve in the Church throughout the world—especially Michael our Presiding Bishop; Matthew, Allen, and Mary our diocesan bishops; and Justin the Archbishop of Canterbury—may be refreshed and encouraged by Christ’s victory, we pray to the living God.

People Hear our prayer.

Leader That the members of this congregation, and all who gather with us in prayer and song, may embrace and embody the good news of the resurrection, we pray to the living God.

People Hear our prayer.

Leader That the people of this nation and those to whom we look for governance—especially Joseph our president, Kathleen our governor, and Eric our mayor—may be subject to one another in Christian love, we pray to the living God.

People Hear our prayer.

Leader That war, famine, and disaster may cease in all the world, we pray to the living God.

People Hear our prayer.

Leader That those in need of sustenance, shelter, healing, or companionship may be blessed with provision, we pray to the living God.

People Hear our prayer.

Leader That, according to God’s promises, all who have died in the faith of the resurrection may be raised on the last day, we pray to the living God.

People Hear our prayer.

Celebrant Gracious God, keep the Church in the unity of the Spirit and in the bond of peace, and bring the whole created order to worship at the feet of your beloved Son; for he is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Peace

BCP p. 360

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The Offertory

“For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you.” —1 Chronicles 29:14

Offerings at Trinity are applied to the care of our neighbors; particularly to our food assistance ministries Compassion Meals and Compassion Market, and in support of other food banks across lower Manhattan. Last year we were able to provide more than 2.4 million meals for our food insecure neighbors. (trinitywallstreet.org/social-justice/food-assistance)

Please place your gift in the basket at the rear of the nave before or after the service, or visit trinitywallstreet.org/donate for additional ways to give. Gifts received are blessed immediately after the service with this prayer: Generous God, at your table we present this money, symbol of the work you have given us to do; use it, use us, in the service of your world to the glory of your name. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

O Sing to the Lord a New Song

Diane Whitacre (20th c.–21st c.)

O sing to the Lord a new song,
for He hath done marvelous things.
His right hand and His holy arm
have gained the victory for Him.
The Lord has made known His salvation;
has revealed His righteousness in the sight of the nations.
He has remembered His loving kindness,
and His faithfulness to the house of Israel;
All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Shout joyfully to the Lord, all the earth;
Break forth and sing for joy and sing praises to the Lord with the lyre and the sound of melody.
With trumpets and sound of the horn,
Shout joyfully before the King, the Lord.

Let the sea roar, and all it contains,
the world and those who dwell in it.
Let the rivers clap their hands,
let the mountains sing together for joy before the Lord!
He is coming to judge the earth;
He will judge the world with righteousness
and the peoples with equity.
The Lord has made known His salvation,
Break forth and sing for joy! Sing joyfully!

—Psalm 98

Censing of the Gifts

Please stand.

Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as incense.

—Psalm 141:2

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP p. 361/p. 379

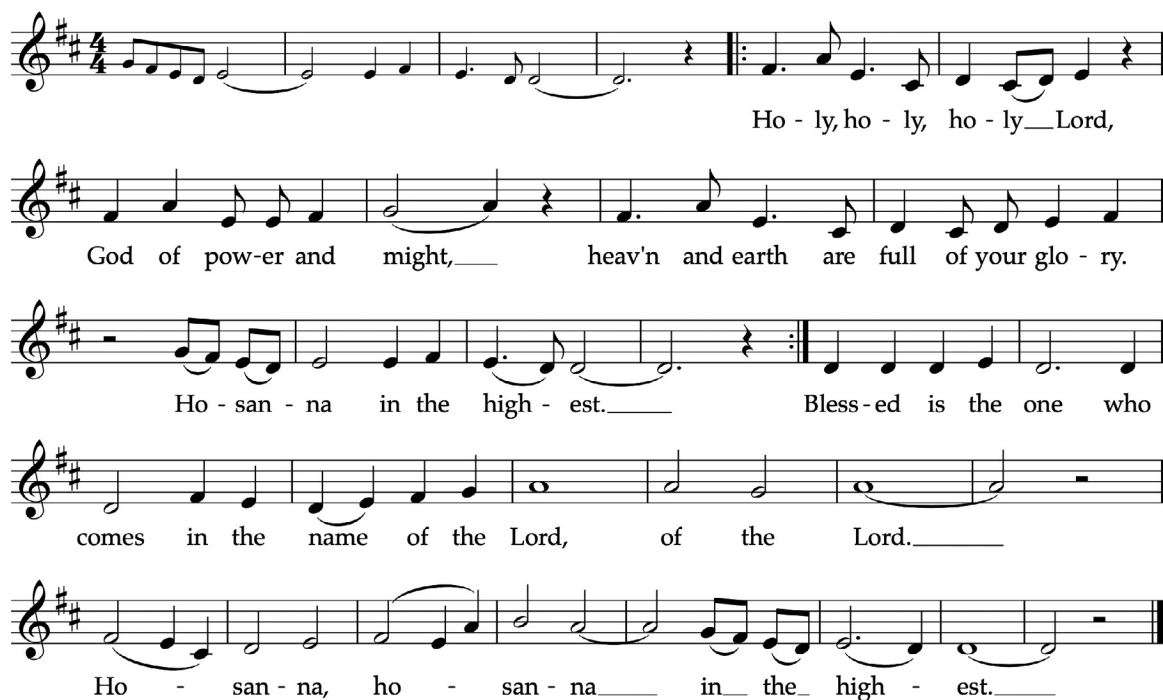

The musical notation consists of four staves, each with a treble clef and a flat key signature. The first staff is for the Celebrant and the second for the People. The third staff is for the Celebrant and the fourth for the People. The lyrics are: "The Lord be with you. And al - so with you. Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give God thanks and praise."

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; but chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,
God of pow-er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord, of the Lord.
Ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Music: Trinity Missa Brevis, Jonathan Woody (b. 1983)

Please continue standing or kneel.

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 364

Celebrant

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Invitation

BCP p. 364/St. Augustine (1 Corinthians)

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. Silence is kept.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Behold what you are.

People May we become what we receive.

Please be seated.

Clergy will distribute communion from stations in front of the altar. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, and eat it immediately. Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

Those who wish to receive wine should partake by sipping directly from the chalice (intincting, or dipping one's wafer into the wine, is no longer permitted). Please use your hands to gently assist the server in guiding the chalice to your lips.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

Communion Anthem

Greater Love Hath No Man

John Ireland (1879–1962)

Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death.

Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who, his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus;

ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

I beseech you brethren, by the mercies of God,

that ye present your bodies, a living sacrifice,

holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

—Song of Solomon 8:6–7, John 15:13, 1 Peter 2:24, 1 Corinthians 6:11, 1 Peter 2:9, Romans 12:1

All Almighty and everliving God,
we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you
as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Ascension Day Holy Eucharist

5:30pm, Trinity Church

At this service, we remember the ascension of Christ into heaven after he rose from the dead. Ascension Day also marks the anniversary of the consecration of the current Trinity Church building in 1846.

Friday, May 10

Principles of Peacemaking

5:30–8pm, St. Paul's Chapel

Our world has rarely felt more polarized. Yet we have both agency and an opportunity to help our communities better address pressing issues through peacemaking. This summer and fall, Trinity will hold a series of workshops with Telos Group, an internationally known organization whose mission is to form communities of American peacemakers across lines of difference. Learn more at this evening program with Telos Group president and co-founder Gregory Khalil. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/peacemaking.

Married Life

6:30–9pm, Trinity Commons

Every person wants to feel loved, understood, and appreciated. This six-week series for couples will focus on developing tools and techniques to increase connection, resolve conflict, and support healthy companionship. Sessions will be led by Trinity clergy and trained facilitators from PSI. No session May 24. Registration requested; register at trinitywallstreet.org/marriedlife. For questions, reach out to PastoralCare@trinitywallstreet.org.

Saturday, May 11

Reggie Workman: Pulling

7:30–9pm, St. Paul's Chapel

A woman pulls at the rope that creates a barrier between herself and the rest of the world—and finds resilience and transcendence. Join us for an evening of jazz performance, spoken word, and movement, created by legendary bassist Reggie Workman in collaboration with Ayana Workman and directed by Maya Milenovic Workman. This evening's concert will be captured on film for a forthcoming documentary. Learn more and RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/pulling.

NEXT SUNDAY

Trinity Young Adults Sunday Brunch
Sunday, May 12, 12:30–3pm, Trinity Commons
 Young adults in their 20s and 30s are invited to join the Trinity Young Adults group for brunch following the 11:15am service. If you'd like to join, meet in the back of the church following the service and we'll walk across the bridge to Trinity Commons. To RSVP and learn about future events, email TrinityChurchYoungAdults@gmail.com.

Breaking Bread
Sunday, May 12, 1–3pm, Trinity Commons
 The Breaking Bread gatherings use the imagery of table fellowship to explore reflective conversations that nurture our growth in God. Join for a time of nourishing community followed by a shared meal. Open to all. For more information, email PastoralCare@trinitywallstreet.org.

NOVUS NY: 20th Century Romantics
Sunday, May 12, 3–4:15pm, Trinity Church
 NOVUS NY presents a special program of innovative works that challenged the musical traditions of their time: Anton Webern's Langsamer Satz, Igor Stravinsky's Three Pieces for String Quartet, K019, and George Enescu's Octet in C Major, Op. 7. Learn more and RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/music.

COMING SOON

Environmental Justice Ministry
Monday, May 13, 6–7pm, Online
 The Environmental Justice ministry group examines and acts around the most pressing problems of climate change and environmental justice, through the lens of faith. At our May meeting, Vincent O. Leggett of the Blacks of the Chesapeake Foundation will present "Stories on the Land: The History and Preservation of a Black-Owned Beach." Leggett will speak about the effort to protect historic Carr's Beach in Maryland, one of only seven beaches ever listed in the Green Book, the preeminent guide for mid-twentieth-century African American travelers. Learn more and RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/environmentaljustice.

AIDS Walk NY
Sunday, May 19, Central Park
 Join Trinity's team for the annual AIDS Walk New York in support of AIDS treatment, research, and education. We'll meet for the 4-mile walk that begins and ends in Central Park. You can participate by walking with the team, and/or by donating or raising funds. The funds raised by AIDS Walk New York participants support much-needed HIV/AIDS services provided by GMHC and other HIV/AIDS service, social justice, and public health organizations in the tristate area. To learn more about joining Trinity's team or to donate, visit trinitywallstreet.org/aidswalk. For questions, reach out to Jayla Allen at JAllen@trinitywallstreet.org.

Neighborhood Support
Downtown Fund Town Hall
Monday, June 3, 2pm, Online
 Launched in 2023, the Neighborhood Support Downtown Fund supports projects that bring joy to our neighbors in Lower Manhattan, including public art and street fairs. Join Trinity Church Wall Street for a virtual Town Hall session to learn more about the Downtown Fund and hear from current gift recipients about how the Fund's support helped them create impact in their communities. Questions? Contact Alan De La Cruz at ADeLaCruz@trinitywallstreet.org.

Wade in the Water: Celebrating Blackness

June 11–13, Trinity Retreat Center

This retreat offers an opportunity for lay and ordained people from across the African diaspora to come together for prayer, rest, walks, and sharing stories. It's a time of healing and reflection, enjoying nature, gathering for farm-to-table meals, and participating in the retreat center's rhythm of daily prayer. Come away and rest; leave energized to love and serve, reconnected to who you are and to whose you are. Learn more at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Ethiopian Art and Spirit: Bridging Centuries and Cultures

June 14–16, Trinity Retreat Center

Guardian angels have long been used by the Christian faithful in Ethiopia and other religious traditions. The sacred work of liturgical artist Laura James employs the ancient Ethiopian Christian way of icon-making and expands on the collection of stories traditionally painted in this style. James is pleased to help Black people see themselves in their sacred texts, a place from which racialized people have curiously been excluded in the West. Participants will be guided to paint their own guardian angels. Learn more at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Jesus, Buddha, and the Shared Ground of Contemplation

June 18–20, Trinity Retreat Center

World religions scholar Huston Smith says that Jesus and the Buddha were the only two individuals in history who caused people to ask “What are you?” rather than “Who are you?” On this retreat, we will examine how the religions that have emerged from the teachings of these two spiritual giants can mutually enrich one another. With both conceptual learning and contemplative practice, this retreat will explore how interfaith dialogue moves beyond an exchange of ideas to practice and compassionate action. Learn more at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Eco-Spirituality: Liberating Creation June 28–30, Trinity Retreat Center

In Genesis, God calls creation “good” six times before humans are even created. In a season when that good creation is damaged and crying out, with the poor and oppressed often suffering most, we gather for a retreat exploring the ecological crisis through the lens of scripture and theology. From the retreat center's farm, forest, and riverbanks, we'll draw from the Book of Common Prayer's Baptismal Covenant to ponder how we can extend our Creator's liberating, redemptive activity to the natural world. Learn more at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Create. Contemplate. Write from the Heart.

June 28–30, Trinity Retreat Center

Life is like a river, often flowing strong and constant and at times hindered by obstacles, churned by storms, and diminished by drought. As we move through life, we gather experiences and create stories that need telling. How do we communicate those stories with honesty, courage, imagination, and a willingness to be surprised by grace? Come for personal writing time and leave with a deeper understanding of your life. Go Green!

Consider becoming a flexitarian. “A flexitarian will eat a varied diet, but there is an increased focus on consuming vegetables, whole grains, and fruits. Think of it as pro-plant, not anti-meat. There are no forbidden foods.” (Source: Silversneakers.com)

Congregational Voice

“I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well” (Psalm 139:14 ESV). We live in a world permeated by social media. There's the constant temptation to compare ourselves with others—wanting what others have, wearing what they wear, and doing what they do. But a life based on the opinions and lifestyles of others isn't God's best for you. Doing this will only deplete you. Today, let Jesus speak to the truth of who you are and who He created you to be. —Sheila Huggins
