God of Miriam and Moses, you are our help from age to age. Accept our worship, our living sacrifice, and transform us by your Spirit, that, being many members of one true body, we may dare to pray together in the name of Christ the Lord. Amen.
MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Every three years, the Episcopal Church convenes an international youth event so “that the energy of the youth of the Episcopal Church can continue to be utilized in active ministry as members of the Body of Christ.” This year, the 2017 Episcopal Youth Event welcomed nearly 1,400 participants, including the Rev. Winnie Varghese, Director of Justice and Reconciliation at Trinity Church Wall Street, who preached at the Closing Eucharist. The Eucharistic Prayer used at that EYE17 service was adapted by the youth participants, and it joins other liturgical elements featuring expansive language that we will use at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel during Sunday worship throughout the month of August. Expansive language evokes images that invite us to think of God in creative ways, and aptly highlights Trinity’s core value of inclusiveness.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

People Glory to God for ever and ever.
Hymn in Procession

Surely it is God who saves me, trusting him, I shall not Make his deeds known to the peoples; tell out his exalted fear. For the Lord defends and shields me and his saving Name. Praise the Lord, who has done great things; all his works his help is near. So rejoice as you draw water from salvation proclaim. Zion, lift your voice in singing; for with variation's living spring; in the day of your departure you have come to dwell, in your very midst, the reverence thank the Lord, his mercies sing, great and Holy One of Israel.

Words: Carl P. Daw, Jr. (b. 1944); para. of The First Song of Isaiah
Music: Thomas Merton, Ray W. Urwin (b. 1950)

Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Beloved God, as we approach your Presence, guide and stir us with your Holy Spirit, that we may become one body, one spirit in Jesus Christ our Savior.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Exodus 1:8—2:10
GWMV p. 173, adapted

Reader
A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

A new king was on the throne of Egypt and he didn't know Joseph or Joseph's family. The king (whom they called Pharaoh) noticed that there were more Israelite people than ever. He thought, “We'd better pay attention to them, or if there's a war they might fight against us.” So Pharaoh put taskmasters over them to make them slaves. But no matter how ruthless the Egyptians were, the Hebrew people just grew stronger. So Pharaoh commanded all the Egyptians, “If you see a Hebrew baby boy, throw it into the Nile, but let the girls live.”

Now a man and woman from the house of Levi got married and had a son; and his mother was able to hide him for three months. When she couldn't hide him anymore, she made a basket that would float, placed him in the basket, and put it in the river. She had his sister watch to see what would happen to him.

Pharaoh's daughter came to bathe in the river. She found the basket and opened it and saw the beautiful baby crying inside. Her heart sank. “This must be one of the Hebrews' children,” she said. Then the baby's sister, who had been watching from a distance, came closer and said, “Would you like me to find a Hebrew nurse for the baby?” Pharaoh's daughter said, “Yes—please!” So the girl went and got her mother, and the Pharaoh's daughter actually paid her to care for her own child! When the baby grew up, she took him back to the Pharaoh's daughter, who raised him as her son. She named him Moses, “because,” she said, “I drew him out of the water.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People
Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

Words and Music: Fintal O'Carroll (1922-1981) and Christopher Walker (b. 1947)
Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon  Jesus asked his disciples, “Who do people think I am? What are they saying about me?”

“Well, some of them say you’re John the Baptist, or Elijah, or one of the prophets,” said the disciples. Jesus asked them, “And who do you say I am?” Peter said, “You are the Messiah, the son of the living God.”

Jesus said, “God bless you, Simon, son of Jonah! You didn’t come to this idea on your own; my Father revealed it to you. I tell you, you are Peter, and on this Rock I will build my church—nothing will be able to destroy it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven; God will respect what you do here on earth.” Then Jesus ordered the disciples not to tell anyone he was the Messiah.

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813
The Prayers of the People

Reader
In peace and in faith, let us offer our prayers, saying, "Christ, have mercy."

For the peace of the world, for the welfare of the holy Church of God, and for the unity of all people, let us pray.

People
Christ, have mercy.

Reader
For our Bishops, and for all ministers and people, let us pray.

People
Christ, have mercy.

Reader
For our President, for the leaders of the nations, and for all in authority, let us pray.

People
Christ, have mercy.

Reader
For this city, for every city and community, and for those who live in them, let us pray.

People
Christ, have mercy.

Reader
For the good earth which God has given us, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it, let us pray.

People
Christ, have mercy.

Reader
For those who travel on land, on water, or in the air, let us pray.

People
Christ, have mercy.

Reader
That we may celebrate our core value of stewardship and truly become generous with our time, talent, and treasure, let us pray.

People
Christ, have mercy.

Reader
For those in sorrow, sickness, need, or any kind of trouble, let us pray.

People
Christ, have mercy.

Reader
For all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, and for all the departed, let us pray.

People
Christ, have mercy.

Reader
In the communion of saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life, to Christ our God.

People
To you, O Lord our God.

Add your own prayers, either silently or aloud.

Celebrant
Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, "Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you": Look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and give us the peace and unity of your heavenly City where with God and the Holy Spirit you live and reign, now and for ever.

All
Amen.
Confession and Absolution

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All Have mercy upon us, most merciful God;
in your compassion forgive us our sins,
known and unknown,
things done and left undone;
and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of Christ be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of Christ.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God and Creator.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is a right and truly joyful thing to give you thanks, holy and merciful Creator, through Jesus Christ our Lord. In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down from heaven, uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, giving to your church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the gospel to all nations.

Therefore we praise you, joining with your heavenly chorus of angels and archangels who sing this hymn to glorify your holy name:
Blessed and holy Creator: you made us in your image to roam your beautiful creation, to adventure among your people, and to praise you in honor and glory. But in our sinfulness we strayed from your path and from your light. Time after time you called us back into your goodness with prophets and visionaries, but we did not listen. Finally, you sent your only Son, Jesus Christ, to lead us from our sins and reconcile us to you so we might live in your light and love. Through Christ’s sacrifice on the cross, he illuminated your path for us to follow you with a full heart and soul, and to rightfully bring you praise and glory for ever.

On the night he was handed over to die upon the cross, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread and broke it, and sharing it among his friends he praised you and gave you thanks, saying, “Take and eat, for this is my body given to you. Do this in the remembrance of me.”

After the meal he poured wine, and sharing it with his friends he gave you thanks, saying, “Drink, for this is my blood of the new covenant, shed for the forgiveness of your sins and all sins. Whenever you drink it, do this in the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of your creation:

All

The peace of the world has died.
The peace of God has risen.
Our peace will come again.

Celebrant And now, Lord, we celebrate the redemption and forgiveness of our sins through this feast of thanks and praise in the name of your Son and our Savior Jesus. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us, your people, so that we may faithfully and wholeheartedly receive these sacraments and serve you in unity, justice and peace, and that we may find a joyful place in your celestial kingdom with your saints and prophets by our side.

All this we ask in your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor, praise, and glory is yours, Almighty God and Celestial Creator, for ever and ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All

Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.
Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant  Alleluia. Christ our Passover and Redeemer is sacrificed for us.
People  Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant  The Gifts of God for all Her People.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify a sacristan or usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music

Communion Hymn

Words: Shirley Erena Murray (b. 1931); Music: Omni die, melody from Gross Catolisch Gesangbuch, 1631; harm. William Smith Rockstro (1823-1895)
Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant God's blessing be with you, Christ's peace be with you, the Spirit's outpouring be with you, now and always.

All Amen.
Closing Hymn

Words: Jeremiah Eames Rankin (1828-1904), alt. John L. Hooker (b. 1944)
Music: Randolph, Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958), alt.

Dismissal

Deacon Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.
People Thanks be to God.

Flowers

Reconciliation—Dance Performance
1pm, September 10, St. Paul’s Chapel
The Trinity Movement Choir's dance designed to mark the 10th anniversary of the 9/11 attacks has come to have a broader meaning as audiences have applied the piece to cataclysmic events in their own countries and lives. But the message remains the same: there is a route from agony and numbness back to life, through openness to love that breaks the chain of revenge and injury. Free and open to all. Directed by Marilyn Green. Music by Jeff Repella. Information: Marilyn Green at marilyngreenart@gmail.com.

Ringing the Bell of Hope
8:45am, September 11, St. Paul’s Chapel
Trinity Wall Street remembers the anniversary of September 11, 2001 with the Ringing of the Bell of Hope. The Bell of Hope was given to New York City by London in 2002. Placed in St. Paul’s churchyard, it has been rung each year on 9/11 since the first anniversary. In addition, the bell has sounded in solidarity for other victims of terrible attacks and terrorism. It was created by the Whitechapel Bell Foundry in London’s East End, where the original Liberty Bell was cast in 1752.

Volunteers Needed: Intrepid Museum
10am, September 11, Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum
We’ll join forces with more than 2,000 volunteers representing more than 40 companies, interfaith groups, and organizations to help combat hunger by helping assemble more than half a million dry meals. As an official partner for this project, Trinity is seeking volunteers. There are two two-hour shifts available: 11am-1:30pm and 1-3:30pm. Please arrive 30 minutes prior to your shift to check in and go through security. Information and registration: Mandy Culbreath at mculbreath@trinitywallstreet.org.
BULLETIN BOARD

The Sisters are In

10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church

Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

Core Values: Stewardship

“Lord, teach me to be generous; teach me to serve you as you deserve.”—St. Ignatius of Loyola

In August, we are exploring the core value of stewardship. What does stewardship mean to you and how does this core value shape your day-to-day life? Send your thoughts to Fr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones at mbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org.

Here’s another opportunity for exploring and celebrating our core values:

Listening Hearts and Core Values Retreat
9am-5pm, September 30, Trinity Church

All are invited to this retreat as we use silence, song, creative engagement with Scripture, and contemplative sharing of reflections to examine what our core values mean for our community and our daily lives. Led by Listening Heart Ministries.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are excerpted from God’s Word, My Voice (GWMV) by Lyn Zill Briggs, which is a version of Biblical texts considered more accessible for children. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Wonder, Love and Praise (WLP), Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and My Heart Sings Out (MHSO); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW). The Eucharistic Prayer was adapted by Andrés González-Bonillas and the worship team of the 2017 Episcopal Youth Event, and is used with permission.
