God of Miriam and Moses, you are our help from age to age.
Accept our worship, our living sacrifice, and transform us by your Spirit, that, being many members of one true body, we may dare to pray together in the name of Christ the Lord. Amen.
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” — Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” — Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” — Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” — Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” — Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” — Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Every three years, the Episcopal Church convenes an international youth event so “that the energy of the youth of the Episcopal Church can continue to be utilized in active ministry as members of the Body of Christ.” This year, the 2017 Episcopal Youth Event welcomed nearly 1,400 participants, including the Rev. Winnie Varghese, Director of Justice and Reconciliation at Trinity Church Wall Street, who preached at the Closing Eucharist. The Eucharistic Prayer used at that EYE17 service was adapted by the youth participants, and it joins other liturgical elements featuring expansive language that we will use at Trinity Church and St. Paul's Chapel during Sunday worship throughout the month of August. Expansive language evokes images that invite us to think of God in creative ways, and aptly highlights Trinity’s core value of inclusiveness.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
Gloria

All
Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

Now a new king arose over Egypt, who did not know Joseph. He said to his people, “Look, the Israelite people are more numerous and more powerful than we. Come, let us deal shrewdly with them, or they will increase and, in the event of war, join our enemies and fight against us and escape from the land.” Therefore they set taskmasters over them to oppress them with forced labor. They built supply cities, Pithom and Rameses, for Pharaoh. But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and spread, so that the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites. The Egyptians became ruthless in imposing tasks on the Israelites, and made their lives bitter with hard service in mortar and brick and in every kind of field labor. They were ruthless in all the tasks that they imposed on them.

The king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiphrah and the other Puah, “When you act as midwives to the Hebrew women, and see them on the birthstool, if it is a boy, kill him; but if it is a girl, she shall live.” But the midwives feared God; they did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but they let the boys live. So the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and said to them, “Why have you done this, and allowed the boys to live?” The midwives said to Pharaoh, “Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women; for they are vigorous and give birth before the midwife comes to them.” So God dealt well with the midwives; and the people multiplied and became very strong. And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families. Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, “Every boy that is born to the Hebrews you shall throw into the Nile, but you shall let every girl live.”

Now a man from the house of Levi went and married a Levite woman. The woman conceived and bore a son; and when she saw that he was a fine baby, she hid him three months. When she could hide him no longer she got a papyrus basket for him, and plastered it with bitumen and pitch; she put the child in it and placed it among the reeds on the bank of the river. His sister stood at a distance, to see what would happen to him.

The daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her attendants walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid to bring it. When she opened it, she saw the child. He was crying, and she took pity on him, “This must be one of the Hebrews’ children,” she said. Then his sister said to Pharaoh’s daughter, “Shall I go and get you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?” Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Yes.” So the girl went and called the child’s mother. Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Take this child and nurse it for me, and I will give you your wages.” So the woman took the child and nursed it. When the child grew up, she brought him to Pharaoh’s daughter, and she took him as her son. She named him Moses, “because,” she said, “I drew him out of the water.”

The Psalm
Psalm 124
The St. Helena Psalter

Reader Let us read Psalm 124 in unison.

All If God had not been on our side, *
let Israel now say;
If God had not been on our side, *
when enemies rose up against us,
Then would they have swallowed us up alive *
in their fierce anger toward us;
Then would the waters have overwhelmed us * and the torrent gone over us;
Then would the raging waters *
have gone right over us.
Blessed be God, *
who has not given us over to be a prey for their teeth.
We have escaped like a bird from the snare of the fowler; *
the snare is broken, and we have escaped.
Our help is in the Name of God, *
the maker of heaven and earth.

The Second Reading
Romans 12:1-8

Reader A Reading from Paul’s letter to the Romans.

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect.

For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” And they said, “Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.” He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.” And Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.” Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

The Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813
In peace and in faith, let us offer our prayers, saying, "Christ, have mercy."

For the peace of the world, for the welfare of the holy Church of God, and for the unity of all peoples, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For our Bishops, and for all ministers and people, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For our President, for the leaders of the nations, and for all in authority, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For this city, for every city and community, and for those who live in them, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For seasonable weather, and for an abundance of the fruits of the earth, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For the good earth which God has given us, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For those who travel on land, on water, or in the air, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

That we may celebrate our core value of stewardship and truly become generous with our time, talent, and treasure, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For the aged and infirm, for the widowed and orphans, and for the sick and the suffering, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For the poor and the oppressed, for the unemployed and the destitute, for prisoners and captives, and for all who remember and care for them, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, and for all the departed, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For deliverance from all danger, violence, oppression, and degradation, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

That we may end our lives in faith and hope, without suffering and without reproach, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

In the communion of saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life, to Christ our God.

To you, O Lord our God.

Silence

Add your own prayers, either silently or aloud.
Celebrant Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, "Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you": Regard not our sins, but the faith of your Church, and give to us the peace and unity of that heavenly City where with God and the Holy Spirit you live and reign, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

All Have mercy upon us, most merciful God;
in your compassion forgive us our sins,
known and unknown,
things done and left undone;
and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer 1, adapted

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God and Creator.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is a right and truly joyful thing to give you thanks, Lord, holy and merciful Creator of our Universe and home, through Jesus Christ our Lord. In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them and to lead them into all truth; uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, giving to your church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the gospel to all nations.

Therefore we praise you, joining with your heavenly chorus of angels and archangels who sing this hymn to glorify your holy name:
Sanctus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of power and might, heaven and earth are full, full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest. Bless’d is the one who comes.
Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant  Blessed and holy Creator: you made us in your image to roam your beautiful creation, to adventure among your people, and to praise you in honor and glory. But in our sinfulness we strayed from your path and from your light. Time after time you called us back into your goodness with prophets and visionaries, but we did not listen. Finally, you sent your only Son, Jesus Christ, to lead us from our sins and reconcile us to you so we might live in your light and love. Through Christ's sacrifice on the cross, he illuminated your path for us to follow you with a full heart and soul, and to rightfully bring you praise and glory for ever.

On the night he was handed over to die upon the cross, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread and broke it, and sharing it among his friends he praised you and gave you thanks, saying, “Take and eat, for this is my body given to you. Do this in the remembrance of me.”

After the meal he poured wine, and sharing it with his friends he gave you thanks, saying, “Drink, for this is my blood of the new covenant, shed for the forgiveness of your sins and all sins. Whenever you drink it, do this in the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of your creation:

All  The peace of the world has died.
The peace of God has risen.
Our peace will come again.

Celebrant  And now, Lord, we celebrate the redemption and forgiveness of our sins through this feast of thanks and praise in the name of your Son and our Savior Jesus. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us, your people, so that we may faithfully and wholeheartedly receive these sacraments and serve you in unity, justice and peace, and that we may find a joyful place in your celestial kingdom with your saints and prophets by our side.
All this we ask in your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor, praise, and glory is yours, Almighty God and Celestial Creator, for ever and ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover and Redeemer is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for all Her People. Take them in remembrance and thanks that Christ has died for us, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with glory and praise.

Please be seated.

The ushers will bring you forward when it is time for you to receive. We receive communion at stations at the front of each aisle. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify a sacristan or usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints and someone will meet you there.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

All: God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

The Most Rev. Michael B. Curry, adapted

Celebrant: May the blessing of God—loving, liberating, and life-giving—be with you now and evermore.

All: Amen.
Closing Hymn

Words: John Marriott (1780-1825), alt.; Music: Moscow, Felice de Giardini (1716-1796); harm. The New Hymnal, 1916, based on Hymns Ancient and Modern, 1875, and Lowell Mason (1792-1872)

Reconciliation—Dance Performance
1pm, September 10, St. Paul’s Chapel
The Trinity Movement Choir’s dance designed to mark the 10th anniversary of the 9/11 attacks has come to have a broader meaning as audiences have applied the piece to cataclysmic events in their own countries and lives. But the message remains the same: there is a route from agony and numbness back to life, through openness to love that breaks the chain of revenge and injury. Free and open to all. Directed by Marilyn Green. Music by Jeff Repella. Information: Marilyn Green at marilyngreenart@gmail.com.

Ringing the Bell of Hope
8:45am, September 11, St. Paul’s Chapel
Trinity Wall Street remembers the anniversary of September 11, 2001 with the Ringing of the Bell of Hope. The Bell of Hope was given to New York City by London in 2002. Placed in St. Paul’s churchyard, it has been rung each year on 9/11 since the first anniversary. In addition, the bell has sounded in solidarity for other victims of terrible attacks and terrorism. It was created by the Whitechapel Bell Foundry in London’s East End, where the original Liberty Bell was cast in 1752.

Volunteers Needed: Intrepid Museum
10am, September 11, Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum
We’ll join forces with more than 2,000 volunteers representing more than 40 companies, interfaith groups, and organizations to help combat hunger by helping assemble more than half a million dry meals. As an official partner for this project, Trinity is seeking volunteers. There are two two-hour shifts available: 11am-1:30pm and 1-3:30pm. Please arrive 30 minutes prior to your shift to check in and go through security. Information and registration: Mandy Culbreath at mculbreath@trinitywallstreet.org.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are from the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982 and Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW). The Eucharistic Prayer was adapted by Andrés González-Bonillas and the worship team of the 2017 Episcopal Youth Event, and is used with permission.
