God of suffering and glory, in Jesus Christ you reveal the way of life through the path of obedience. Inscribe your law in our hearts, that in life we may not stray from you, but may be your people. Amen.
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”

—Matthew 14:14

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.”

—Philippians 4:8

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul's Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The season of Lent—from an Old English word that means “Spring”—lasts 40 days, from Ash Wednesday through Holy Saturday.

Traditionally, this time of year has been a period of solemn preparation, self-examination, and repentance. Remembering the time Jesus spent in the wilderness before beginning his ministry, some Christians adopt Lenten “disciplines”: giving up an item of food, taking on a prayer or devotional practice, taking a technology fast, or simply setting aside time each day to be present with God and those they love.

Although each Sunday is considered a “little Easter”—a time of joy and a rest from our fasting—services in this season take on a more thoughtful and quiet tone. We begin with a confession of all the ways we know we stand in need of God’s never-failing mercy.

We’re glad to have you here with us as we walk the road to Jerusalem together.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Bless God who forgives all our sins.

People Whose mercy endures for ever.

The ministers process in silence.
Penitential Sentence

Mark 12:29-31

Celebrant

Jesus said, “The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord your God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these.”

A Ritual of Reconciliation

BCP p. 352, adapted/EOW p. 56

Celebrant

Let us pray.

God of mercy and love, we confess to you and to each other that we have sinned against you, and opposed your will in our lives. We are truly sorry, and we ask you to forgive us.

People

Create in us a clean heart, O God.

Celebrant

We have not always loved you; We have not always treated others with mercy and compassion. We ask you to forgive us.

People

Create in us a clean heart, O God.

Celebrant

We’ve been proud, impatient, and angry. We’ve been jealous of those who have more than we do. We ask you to forgive us.

People

Create in us a clean heart, O God.

Celebrant

We’ve turned away when others needed our help. We’ve been unkind. We ask you to forgive us.

People

Create in us a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within us.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

People

Amen.

Hymn

Hymnal 439, v. 1

Words: American folk hymn, ca. 1835; Music: Wondrous Love, from The Southern Harmony, 1835

What wondrous love is this, O my soul, O my soul! What wondrous love is this, O my soul! What wondrous love is this that caused the Lord of bliss to lay a-side his crown for my soul, for my soul, to lay a-side his crown for my soul.
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Book of Jeremiah.

The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the LORD. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, “Know the LORD,” for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the LORD; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

Words: Latin, 8th c; Music: Jacques Berthier (1923-1994)
Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.” Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honor.

“Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say—‘Father, save me from this hour’? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name.” Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.” The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, “An angel has spoken to him.” Jesus answered, “This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.” He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan Christ, who on the cross forsook, like a lamb to slaughter led, We believe in God the Spirit; in one Church, below, above:

Earth and heaven sprang to being, all created things began, suffered under Pontius Pilate, he descended to the dead, saints of God in one communion, one in holiness and love.

We believe in Christ the Saviour, Son of God in human frame, We believe in Jesus risen, heaven's king to rule and reign, So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Saviour, Lord and friend, virgin born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came, to the Father's side ascended till as judge he comes again, we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

The Prayers of the People

NZPB p. 550

The refrain is sung twice by all before the prayers. Then it is sung once between each group as indicated.

Jesus, remember me, when you come into your kingdom.

Jesus, remember me, when you come into your kingdom.

Words: Luke 23:42; Taizé Community, 1981; Music: Jacques Berthier

Reader Jesus, remember us. Hear us as we pray.

For your Church around the world, we ask new life.
For all who minister faithfully to your people, we ask grace and wisdom.
For governors and rulers in this and every land, we ask your guidance.

All REFRAIN
Reader For Christians everywhere, we ask new unity in your name.
For our sisters and brothers of other faiths, we ask your divine blessing.
For people who have accepted spiritual disciplines in this holy season, we ask inspiration.
For those who cannot believe, we ask your faithful love.

All REFRAIN

Reader For this congregation, that we may have the courage and grace to live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship.
For people who suffer—who are hungry, lonely, oppressed, or in trouble—we ask your presence, healing, and protection.
For those who have died, and all those who mourn, we ask your mercy and comfort.

Silence

Celebrant Jesus, our only Savior, you renounced the way of ease for the way of truth and life. Draw us to seek God’s kingdom whatever the cost, for the sake of the true treasure in heaven.
Amen.

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

THE PEACE

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

WELCOME

Please be seated.

THE OFFERTORY

Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.

Special music occurs during the collection of the offering.
At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)

The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. You bid your faithful people cleanse their hearts, and prepare with joy for the Paschal feast; that, fervent in prayer and in works of mercy, and renewed by your Word and Sacraments, they may come to the fullness of grace which you have prepared for those who love you.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Celebrant  We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All  We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant  And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.
We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

Amen.

---

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,

  hallowed be thy Name,
  thy kingdom come,
  thy will be done,
  on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

  as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

  but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

  and the power, and the glory,
  for ever and ever. Amen.

---

Fraction

Celebrant Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music
Communion Hymn

1 There's a width in God's mercy like the width of the sea; there's a kindness in his justice.
2 There is no place where earth's sorrows are more felt than up in heaven; there is no place where earth's fall is most wonderful.
3 For the love of God is broader than the measure of the mind; and the heart of the Eternal Father.

1 Justice, which is more than liberty. There is welcome for the sinner, and more graces for the good; there is mercy.
2 Sins have such kindly judgment given. There is plenty of the blood that has been shed; there is joy for ful redemption.
3 If our love were faithful, we should take him at his word; and our life would be thanksgiving for the goodness of the Lord.

Words: Frederick William Faber (1814-1863), alt.; Music: St. Helena, Calvin Hampton (1938-1984)
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.
All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May Christ, who calls you to take up your cross, give you strength to bear your own and one another’s burdens; and the blessing of God almighty, holy and undivided Trinity, God in community, be with you and remain with you for ever.
All Amen.

Security Enhancements
On March 1, we began checking bags and using walk-through magnetometers (metal detectors) for visitors, staff, and parishioners to Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel.

We have been monitoring the new security process and are making some adjustments based on what we’ve experienced. Thank you for your patience as we attempt to make this a smooth process.

The back entrance of the church is now open to everyone during hours that the church is open to the public. Those using the back entrance will be subject to bag check and wanding.

Other entrances remain open as follows:
At Trinity Church, on weekdays, the Broadway entrance is open at 7am and the north vestibule is open at 9am; all those who enter pass through the magnetometer and have their bags checked. The south vestibule is used only as an exit.
On Sundays, the Broadway entrance is open at 7am; the north vestibule opens at 8:30am. The south vestibule continues to be the exit.
At St. Paul’s Chapel on weekdays and Sundays, the south Broadway door is an entrance, the north Broadway door is an exit, and the Church Street doors act as both entrance and exit.
If you have any questions, please see the Vicar.

EAST: Episcopal Asian Supper Table
6pm, St. Bartholomew's Church
The Episcopal Asian Supper Table (EAST) celebrates the dignity of Asian and Asian-American spirituality. Our monthly events are a welcoming space to share stories, seek God, and bridge diverse cultures. We are a growing ministry of the Episcopal Diocese of New York. The guest speaker for the March 22 meeting will be Rabbi Angela Buchdahl, senior rabbi of Central Synagogue in New York City and the first woman to lead the large Reform congregation in its 175-year history. An interfaith Holocaust memorial prayer service will precede her talk on her spiritual journey and a shared meal. St. Bartholomew's Church is located at 325 Park Avenue (at 50th Street). RSVP: EAST@dioceseny.org.

Writing God: Spiritual Journaling
6pm, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
Journal writing is a healing process and a journey of discovery along one's spiritual path. This group is a gathering of those willing, through writing, to dive deep into the “true self.” Information: spiritualjournaling@gmail.com or 646.556.5344.

Core Values: What's Next
In 2018, more Illuminating Values sessions are planned for the congregation, focusing on one value per month.

Inclusiveness: Wednesday, March 21, 6:30-8pm (Trinity Church, Manning Room)
Compassion: Thursday, April 26, 6:30-8pm (Trinity Church, Manning Room)
Social Justice: Monday, May 21, 6:30-8pm (2 Rector St., Parish Center)
Stewardship: Thursday, June 21, 6:30-8pm (2 Rector St., Parish Center)

In addition, Trinity Retreat Center will be the setting of retreats planned for each value and open to both congregation and staff.

Living Our Values Silent Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity's core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in everyday living. We'll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You'll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

Retreat dates and topics
April 20-22: Inclusiveness*
May 18-20: Compassion
June 1-3: Social Justice*
September 14-16: Stewardship
*Led by Listening Hearts Ministries

Pricing (double occupancy)
$50/night; for a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Learn more and register by contacting Keisha at kjoseph@trinitywallstreet.org.
Trinity Church Rejuvenation

Over the past several months, as the church design team has developed the scope for a possible interior rejuvenation, a team has mocked up portions of the church to test lighting, cleaning techniques, and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity’s architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s.

The tests have been enlightening. In the chancel, we have discovered an original stencil pattern that had been painted over. The team is trying to learn more about the stencil’s color and pattern. We’ve also discovered beautiful pink grout and striations in the brownstone.

The renovation team has completed the installation of lighter stained glass in six panes within a single window and a lighting system that will help determine how the change—in this case a lighter yellow—would affect the worship space.

During the week of March 12, the second-to-last pew on the southwest side of the church was removed so the rejuvenation team could access ducts that are currently blocked by the pew.

To learn more about additional discoveries, visit trinitywallstreet.org.

NEXT SUNDAY

Please note that there will be no Sunday School, Youth Group, Discovery for Families, Discovery Adult Education, or Gospel, Times, Journal, and You classes on Palm Sunday or Easter Day. Classes will resume April 8.

Palm Sunday
We’ll begin Holy Week with the joyous Palm Sunday services, including the 10:30am Blessing of the Palms at St. Paul’s Chapel before the chaotic donkey-led procession down Broadway to Trinity Church. See the sidebar on the next page and visit trinitywallstreet.org/events for more information about Palm Sunday, Holy Week, and Easter.

Annual Lenten Meditations Reading after the 11:15am service
Learn how to make palm crosses and hear readings from our annually published Lenten Meditations booklet, written by congregation, staff and clergy, immediately following the 11:15 service in the chancel and in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church. This event creates time and space for reflection and prayer in preparation for Holy Week. Light refreshments will be served.
Information: Toni Foy at rafoy@hotmail.com.
COMING SOON

Foundations
1pm, Sundays, April 8–May 6, Parish Center
A series for those seeking Adult Baptism or Confirmation, Reception, or Reaffirmation of Faith in the Episcopal Church. It is also a great opportunity to acquire a greater understanding of what it means to be an Episcopalian and Anglican for those seeking formal membership at Trinity Church and St. Paul's Chapel. Together we will learn about scripture, theology, prayer and much more. Join Trinity’s Vicar, the Rev. Phillip Jackson, and other clergy and staff for fun, fellowship, and interactive learning.

Save the Date: Harry Potter Weekend
July 6-8, Trinity Retreat Center
Bring your family with children ages 7 and older to a Harry Potter-themed camp led by Patricia Lyons and using principles from her book, Teaching Faith with Harry Potter. Parents and children will play (and grow) together, learn how to battle life’s dementors, cast some spells, and sample Harry Potter-themed treats. Families will also learn how the Harry Potter story reflects values that can be part of an imaginative and fun exploration of faith. Cost: $100 per adult, $50 per child (includes lodging/meals); $100 per family activity fee. Transportation is on your own. Reservations are not confirmed until payment is made. Financial aid available. Information: Wendy Barrie at wbarrie@trinitywallstreet.org.

BULLETIN BOARD

Easter Lily Donations Due Today
Lilies that will help decorate Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel for Easter may be dedicated for a suggested donation of $25. Donor names will be listed in the bulletins, and the flowers will be available for pickup after Easter. Contact flowers@trinitywallstreet.org for donation instructions and to submit your name for printing.

Pauli Murray Exhibit and Play
Exhibit closes March 21, St. Paul’s Chapel
Limited run of To Buy the Sun, April 5–7
In collaboration with the Pauli Murray Center for History and Social Justice, Trinity Church Wall Street presents an exhibit about the life of Pauli Murray, civil rights activist and the first African-American woman to be ordained an Episcopal priest. Visitors will have the opportunity to take a photo in front of the selfie wall and write their own lines of poetry. Additionally, 30 art students from nearby Leadership and Public Service High School are exhibiting triptychs that explore how others see them, how they see themselves, and how they want the world to see them. A play about Murray’s life, To Buy the Sun, will be presented in April. Information: artasadvocacy.org.

Stations of the Cross Art Exhibition
Through April 1, throughout Manhattan
People of all faiths and spiritualities are invited on a creative and contemplative journey through Manhattan to consider injustice across the human experience. Stations of the Cross presents a pilgrimage comprised of 14 art stations, from the Cloisters to the 9/11 Memorial. Each location presents a new work of art or adds a fresh perspective to an existing memorial, highlighting the contemporary relevance of the Passion, Jesus’ final hours. Traditionally, the Stations of the Cross have served to evoke empathy with those who suffer, as Jesus did, at the hands of injustice. This year’s exhibit focuses on the experience of immigrants and refugees, exploring feelings of despair, exploitation, abandonment, and hope. Information: artstations.org.

Background Screening Program
Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity now requires background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House
In 2017, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families, including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for “ray of light.” This winter, volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.
Vestry Election

The Annual Vestry Election will be held on April 3, 2018, Easter Tuesday, as specified under the 1697 Charter. All members of the congregation who are 18 years or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, have taken Holy Communion within the preceding year (April 2017-April 2018) and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year (April 2017-April 2018) are eligible to vote in Vestry Election. The register of eligible voters is available for inspection in the Office of the Rector, 120 Broadway, 38th floor, and a member of the congregation may confirm that his or her name is included on the register by emailing mhogan@trinitywallstreet.org. Registration can also be done on election day upon application to the Rector upon proving the above-mentioned qualifications.

In-person voting will be from 4pm to 8pm in Trinity Church. The ballots may also be submitted by mail. (Mail instructions are posted in Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel). Mail ballots must be received before 8pm on Tuesday, April 3.

The persons about whom information is given on this announcement are the nominated candidates for Church Wardens and Vestrymen made by the Parish Nominating Committee.

“Delight yourself in the Lord and He will give you the desires and secret petitions of your heart” (Psalm 37:4). I posted this verse on Facebook recently because I got a couple of breakthroughs this week and I’m grateful to God for them! —Patrice-Lou Thomas

Green Notes—Dunkin’ Donuts
Dunkin’ Donuts has announced plans to replace all polystyrene foam cups with a new, double-walled paper cup. The move complements Dunkin’ Donuts’ earlier commitments in the U.S. to have 80% of fiber-based packaging certified to the Sustainable Forestry Initiative Standard and to partner with the Rainforest Alliance to source certified coffee.

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1-10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “I JURO TEMPUS NON FOR AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, a Penitential Order, which begins on page 353 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP). Other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW) and A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB).
