God of the prophets,
you call us from evil to serve you.
Fulfill in us your commonwealth of justice and joy,
that the light of your presence
may be revealed to all nations,
to the glory of Jesus' name. Amen.
MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

In the Episcopal Church, the season of Epiphany bridges the liturgical seasons of Christmastide (a festive season) and Lent (a penitential season). As with the Season of Pentecost (also known as Ordinary Time), the number of Sundays in Epiphanytide is variable—from five to nine weeks—since the date of Easter changes each year. Also like Ordinary Time, the traditional color of vestments (the robes worn by clergy and the fabric dressings on the altar) is green.

Choral Prelude

Magi veniunt ab oriente

Clemens non Papa (1510-1556)

Magi veniunt ab oriente Jerusolimam quaerentes et dicentes: Ubi est qui natus est rex Judaeorum, cujus stellam vidimus? Et venimus cum muneribus adorare Dominum.

Learned men come from the East seeking Jerusalem and saying: Where is he that was born king of the Jews, whose star we have seen? And we have come with gifts to worship the Lord.

—Based on Matthew 2; Cantiones Ecclesiasticae, 1553

Introit

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Adorate Deum omnes Angeli ejus.
Worship God, all you his angels.

—Psalm 96:1

Acclamation

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Hymn in Procession

1. The Church's one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord;
2. Elect from every nation, yet one o'er all the earth,
3. Though with a scornful wonder men see her sore oppressed,
4. Mid toil and tribulation, and tumult of her war
5. Yet she on earth hath union with God, the Three in One,

1. She is his new creation by water and the word;
2. Her charter of salvation, one Lord, one faith, one birth;
3. By schisms rent and sunder, by heresies distressed;
4. She waits the consummation of peace for evermore;
5. And mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won.

1. From heaven he came and sought her to be his holy bride;
2. One holy Name she blesses, partakes one holy food,
3. Yet saints their watch are keeping, their cry goes up, "How long?"
4. Till with the vision glorious her longing eyes are blessed,
5. Oh happy ones and holy! Lord, give us grace that we

1. With his own blood he bought her, and for her life he died,
2. And to one hope she presses, with every grace endowed,
3. And soon the night of weeping shall be the morn of song,
4. And the great Church victorious shall be the Church at rest,
5. Like them, the meek and lowly, on high may dwell with thee.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All

Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

A Reading from the Book of Jonah.

The word of the Lord came to Jonah a second time, saying, “Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you.” So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days’ walk across. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day’s walk. And he cried out, “Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!” And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth. When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.
The Psalm

Psalm 62:6-11, 13-14

George Thalben-Ball (1896-1987)

The choir sings the refrain, then all repeat and sing as indicated.

Choir

For God alone my soul in silence waits; *
truly, my hope is in him.
He alone is my rock and my salvation, *
my stronghold, so that I shall not be shaken.
In God is my safety and my honor; *
God is my strong rock and my refuge.
Put your trust in him always, O people, *
pour out your hearts before him, for God is our refuge.

REFRAIN

Choir

Those of high degree are but a fleeting breath, *
even those of low estate cannot be trusted.
On the scales they are lighter than a breath, *
all of them together.
God has spoken once, twice have I heard it, *
that power belongs to God.
Steadfast love is yours, O Lord, *
for you repay everyone according to his deeds.

REFRAIN

The Second Reading

1 Corinthians 7:29-31

Reader

A Reading from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians.

I mean, brothers and sisters, the appointed time has grown short; from now on, let even those who have wives be as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no possessions, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away.

The Word of the Lord.

People

Thanks be to God.

Reader

After the reading of the Gospel, all children are invited to follow the cross to Children’s Chapel. They will return at the Peace.
Please stand as you are able.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news."

As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, "Follow me and I will make you fish for people." And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Prayers of the People

Reader I ask your prayers for God’s people throughout the world; for our Bishops Andrew, Mary, and Allen; for this gathering; and for all ministers and people.

Pray for the Church.

Silence

Reader I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among nations; and for the well-being of all people.

Pray for justice and peace.

Silence

Reader I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison.

Pray for those in any need or trouble.

Silence

Reader I ask your prayers for all who seek God, or a deeper knowledge of God.

Pray that they may find and be found by God.

Silence
Reader  I ask your prayers for this congregation, that we may have the courage and grace to live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship.

Pray that we may live into our mission and vision to the fullest.

Silence

Reader  I ask your prayers for the departed.

Pray for those who have died.

The congregation offers prayers and thanksgivings, either silently or aloud.

Reader  Praise God for those in every generation in whom Christ has been honored.

Pray that we may have grace to glorify Christ in our own day.

Silence

Celebrant  Hasten, O God, the coming of your kingdom; and grant that we your servants, who now live by faith, may with joy behold your Son at his coming in glorious majesty; even Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate.

All  Amen.

Confession and Absolution
BCP p. 360

Deacon  Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

All  Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant  Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All  Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer B

BCP p. 367/378

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Sung by all.

Hymnal S 130
Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.
Celebrant

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant  And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All
Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant  Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People  Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant  The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

The ushers will bring you forward when it is time for you to receive. We receive communion at stations at the front of each aisle. Those wishing to kneel should go to the south rail by the pulpit. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints and someone will meet you there.
Communion Anthem

Ave verum corpus
William Byrd (1543-1623)

Ave verum corpus, natum de Maria Virgine; vere passum, immolatum in cruce pro homine; cujus latus perforatum unda fluxit sanguine; esto nobis praegustatum mortis in examine. O dulcis, O pie, O Jesu Fili Mariae; miserere mei. Amen.

_Hail, true Body, born of the Virgin Mary, who has truly suffered, was sacrificed on the cross for mortals, whose side was pierced, whence flowed water and blood: Be for us a foretaste of heaven during our final examining. O Jesu sweet, O Jesu pure, O Jesu, Son of Mary, have mercy upon me. Amen._

—att. Pope Innocent VI (1295-1362)

Silence follows the anthem.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Almighty and everliving God,
we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you
as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant The blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever.

All Amen.

Flowers

The flowers are given today in loving memory of Walter T. Oerlemans, who left this world January 20, 2017. He was a faithful greeter and ever-questioning believer. He walked up the stairs and sat in the last pew every Sunday, until he was not able to walk anymore. He is remembered, loved and missed by his family each and every day.

Share life events by dedicating altar flowers to celebrate a birthday, wedding, anniversary, or birth of a child, or to commemorate a departed loved one. E-mail flowers@trinitywallstreet.org for more information.

Flowers decorate Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel throughout the week. On Thursdays after the 12:05 service, remaining flowers may be taken home by parishioners. Please see a sacristan for assistance.

Core Values: What's Next
In 2018, more Illuminating Values sessions are planned for the congregation, focusing on one value per month. In addition, Trinity Retreat Center will be the setting of retreats planned for each value and open to both congregation and staff.

Values in Action and Discernment Retreats
Open to all Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

Come spend a weekend surrounded by the beauty of nature as we delve deeper into our core values.

Using poetry, art, silence, meditation, music, and a desire to expand our living of Trinity's core values, the staff of the retreat center, the Rev. Daniel Simons, Dr. Kathy Bozzuti-Jones, the staff of Listening Hearts Ministries, and the Rev. Dr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones will lead participants through six retreats to explore each of Trinity's six core values.

There will be plenty of time for fun and community as we spend time at a welcoming table—and interacting with the Trinity donkeys—and are transformed and equipped to bring forth our mission.

Retreat dates and topics
February 23-25: Faith

Trinity Church Rejuvenation
Over the past several months, as the church design team has developed the scope for a possible interior rejuvenation, a team has mocked up portions of the church to test lighting, cleaning techniques, and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity’s architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s. The scaffolding that used to reach the ceiling and upper walls in the chancel and on the west side of the nave have been taken down.

The tests have been enlightening. In the chancel, we have discovered an original stencil pattern that had been painted over. The team is trying to learn more about the stencil’s color and pattern. We’ve also discovered beautiful pink grout and striations in the brownstone.

Roughly 15-foot-tall scaffolding units, installed on two columns in Trinity Church on January 8 and 9 to give workers access for cleaning, are scheduled for removal January 26. The columns in question are the first two directly in front of the gift shop/welcome desk on the south side of the church.

Exterior scaffolding installed on the southern wall of the church has provided access to one of the yellow stained-glass windows in the clerestory, the upper part of the nave that is clear of the roof and allows light into the church. The yellow tint was added in 1967. Beginning the week of January 21, members of the renovation team will install lighter stained glass in six panes within a single window to correspond with the vision of Trinity’s original architect, Richard Upjohn. As with the paint color mock ups, this is a test to see how the change—in this case a much lighter yellow—would affect the worship space.

implement bag checks and wanding for everyone who enters Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel in January. We are continuing to work with our security provider on the details, and will provide more information as those details are available. If you have any questions, please see the Vicar.

One of Us: Deborah Danner
6am, Tuesday, January 30
Join other parishioners in observing the opening day of the trial of the officer accused of fatally shooting former Trinity parishioner Deborah Danner in October 2016. We will meet at the Parish Center at 6am and travel to the Bronx together. An information session is planned for 1pm, Sunday, January 28. Information: action@trinitywallstreet.org.

Memorial Service for Maria Menna Perper
10am, Friday, February 2, Trinity Church
Maria Menna Perper, beloved parishioner, died December 5 at the age of 73 after a long illness. A memorial service will be held in Trinity Church followed by a reception at the Parish Center (2 Rector Street).

ParentSpace
6pm, Fridays, February 2, 9, Parish Center
Join therapists from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute to explore and discuss how to support your child, age appropriately, as they learn to handle the difficult emotions of daily life—frustration, anger, disappointment, etc.—as well as the emotions of living in a tumultuous and uncertain world. Feb. 2: Parenting Through the Ups & Downs of Daily Life, facilitated by Kate Curtis, LMHC, CASAC; and Feb. 9: Parenting in an Uncertain World, facilitated by Jessica Heller, MPS, ATR-BC, LCAT. Dinner provided. Childcare available upon request. RSVPs are required to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity Institute Opening Night
7-9pm, February 2
Even if you’re not registered for the Trinity Institute: Values in Action conference, you can attend the opening night free of charge. The Most Rev. Michael B. Curry preaches at opening worship, followed by a keynote address by Pulitzer-Prize winning journalist Jose Antonio Vargas. The conference will offer participants skills, ideas, inspiration, and a greater capacity to take action against injustice, rooted in your deepest values and effective partnerships. Learn more at TI2018.org.

NEXT SUNDAY
One of Us: Information Session
1pm, Trinity Church, Manning Room
An information session for those interested in attending the January 30 opening of the trial of the police officer accused of murder in former parishioner Deborah Danner’s death. There will be space for prayer, advocacy, and preparation. Information: action@trinitywallstreet.org.

A Litany of Atlanta
1:30pm, Sunday, February 4, St. Paul’s Chapel
A Litany of Atlanta is a documentary theater work in progress conceived by Trinity parishioner Ruth Antoinette Foy using W.E.B. Du Bois’ poem A Litany of Atlanta as the foundation for a theater piece that weaves a story of devastation, pain, despair, and hope from reconstruction to present. J. Chester Johnson’s Elaine Race Massacre and Day of Repentance (Litany of Apology and Repentance for the Episcopal Church’s role in slavery) is a major element of this piece. Other contributions are from Langston Hughes and Mark Bozzuti-Jones, among others. Included with this year’s presentation will be Meditations on Civil Rights Activists by J. Chester Johnson. This staged reading is a Congregational Arts Black History Month project, in collaboration with the Task Force Against Racism. There will be a talk back directly following the performance. Light refreshments will be served. RSVP to Toni Foy: rafoy@hotmail.com.

Trinity Men: Super Bowl Party
5pm, February 4, 10 Barclay Street, 3rd Floor
Join Vicar Phil Jackson, and other men from Trinity to watch the Super Bowl together. Hosted by Martez Moore. Space is limited and RSVPs are required to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

DOS WORLDS
February 9-11, St. Paul’s Chapel
DOS WORLDS is a multimedia piece that through movement, theatre and film explores the story of rejection and the search for transcendent unity between people who have lost something which they believe they will never regain. Performances at 7pm February 9-10, and 3pm February 11. Workshop for all ages at 3pm, February 10. Information: Melissa Hayes at mhayes@trinitywallstreet.org.

Stations of the Cross
February 14-April 1
Opening Reception 6pm, Feb. 15, Trinity Church
“Stations of the Cross” is a public art project comprised of 14 “art stations” located across Manhattan, from the Cloisters museum to the 9/11 Memorial. The exhibition breaks open the journey of Jesus, inviting people of all faiths to consider injustice and pain across the human experience. The focus for 2018 is the experience of immigrants and refugees. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/stations.

Winter Work Weekend
Feb. 16-18, Trinity Retreat Center, West Cornwall, CT
Come to work and worship as we partner with the Cornwall Conservation Trust to groom and rebuild trails in the forest surrounding the center. Attendees should be prepared to engage in a day of rigorous activity. Your stay and meals are free of charge. Availability is limited. Book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Pauli Murray Exhibit
February 17 – March 21, St. Paul’s Chapel
March 1, Opening Reception
In collaboration with the Pauli Murray Center for History and Social Justice, Trinity Church Wall Street will present an exhibit about the life of Pauli Murray, civil rights activist and the first African-American woman to be ordained an Episcopal priest. A play about her life, To Buy the Sun, will be presented in April. Information: artasadvocacy.org.

BULLETIN BOARD
Renew or Increase Your Stewardship Pledge
Please remember to renew (or increase) your stewardship pledge for 2018 if you have not done so yet. If you make regular or occasional donations, please consider making a recorded financial pledge. Trinity accepts annual pledges of any amount. If you have already made your pledge for 2018, we thank you. You can pick up stewardship brochures, pledge cards, and return envelopes near the entrances of Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel, or pledge online at trinitywallstreet.org/give. Information: Willem Brans, Director of Development, at wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.9692.

Follow the Trinity Pilgrims, Now in Ethiopia
Today the Trinity pilgrimage to Ethiopia arrives in the ancient pilgrimage town of Lalibela (Google it!). You can follow their journey online at inthemomentreflections.net and on Instagram at @countrypriest.

Background Screening Program
Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity is now requiring background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House
Earlier this year, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families, including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for “ray of light.” This fall and winter, volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities including some renovation work in January 2018, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

Considering a Planned Gift to Trinity?
Do you have a Will? If so, please consider remembering Trinity Church Wall Street in your estate plans. You can make an important and lasting contribution to Trinity’s financial foundation, extending the parish’s ministry in our neighborhood and throughout the world in future years. By informing Trinity of your intentions, you will be invited to join The Trinity Charter Society. The names of Charter Society members are inscribed in the Trinity Memorial Book on permanent view in the Chapel of All Saints, and members also receive invitations to special events. (One is coming up this spring.) If you have provided for Trinity in your Will or through another type of planned gift and would like to become a member of The Trinity Charter Society, please contact Willem Brans, Director of Development, at 212.602.9692 or wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org.

Justice for Sergio
Sergio Reyes, a senior at Leadership and Public Service High School, one of Trinity’s neighbors, was shot and killed by police after allegedly holding up a bodega with a fake gun in February 2017. Sergio’s classmates, members of Trinity’s new Advocacy Apprentice program, created a three-part podcast to honor their friend and explore the narratives and social forces surrounding the events that led to his death. Primarily designed for high school students in local public schools, Advocacy Apprentices work on projects to address current justice issues in New York City through storytelling, visual art, community engagement, and service projects. Hear the podcast at trinitywallstreet.org/sergio.

Add Trinity to Your Calendar!
Now you can add Trinity’s events to your digital calendar and never miss another program or service. On any upcoming event found at trinitywallstreet.org/events, look for the “Add to Calendar” button above the time and location details. Click the button and choose your digital calendar—iCalendar, Google Calendar, Outlook, Outlook online, or Yahoo! Calendar. Need help? Information: worshipbulletin@trinitywallstreet.org.

Episcopal Credit Union Surveys
The Episcopal Diocese of New York and Trinity Church Wall Street are working to establish a credit union for those who are served by diocesan ministries and/or attend diocesan churches. A vital step in establishing a credit union is surveying those who would be eligible to participate in the credit union. Please complete a survey to help us establish this service. Information: Winnie Varghese at wvarghese@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Lina Lowry Library
Hours: 12-3pm, Monday, Tuesday, and Friday
Did you know there’s a library at the Parish Center? Come visit! Located in the Parish Center’s Large Conference Room, the library is named in memory of beloved parishioner Lina Lowry. All members of the parish may borrow books from the library, which include religious and sacramental works, biographies and autobiographies, ancient and modern texts, children’s books, and much more.

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted.
