God, whose fingers sculpt sun and moon
and curl the baby’s ear;
Spirit, brooding over chaos
before the naming of day;
Savior, sending us to earth’s ends
with water and words:
startle us with the grace, love, and communion
of your unity in diversity, that we may live to the praise of your majestic name. Amen.
MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Today is Trinity Sunday, the third Principal Feast of the Episcopal Church occurring during the past month, and the patronal feast day of the Trinity Church Wall Street parish. On Trinity Sunday, the Collect and Preface—prayers specific to the day—invite us to contemplate the three-fold nature of God: manifested as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and yet one unified Being. Trinity Sunday is always observed on the first Sunday after the Day of Pentecost; Thomas Becket was consecrated Archbishop of Canterbury on that day in 1162. Historically, from the 12th until the early 20th century, the Sundays after Pentecost were counted as the Sundays after Trinity.

Hymnal S 280
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Book of Genesis.

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, “Let there be light”; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

And God said, “Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.” So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

And God said, “Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear.” And it was so. God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, “Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it.” And it was so. The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind, and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.
And God said, “Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth.” And it was so. God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

And God said, “Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky.” So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good. God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.” And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

And God said, “Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind.” And it was so. God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

Then God said, “Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.”

So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.”

God said, “See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.” And it was so. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude. And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation. These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

O LORD our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!
Out of the mouths of infants and children *
your majesty is praised above the heavens.
You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, *
to quell the enemy and the avenger.
When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, *
the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,

What is man that you should be mindful of him? *
the son of man that you should seek him out?
You have made him but little lower than the angels; *
you adorn him with glory and honor;
You give him mastery over the works of your hands; *
you put all things under his feet:
O LORD our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!

The Second Reading

2 Corinthians 13:11-13

Reader

Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

The Word of the Lord.

People

Thanks be to God.

Reader

After the reading of the Gospel, all children are invited to follow the cross to Children’s Chapel. They will return at the Peace.

Hymnal 409

Please stand as you are able.

1 The spacious firmament on high,
with all the blue ethereal sky,
and spangled heavens, a shining frame,
their great Original proclaim.
The unwearied sun from day to day
whilst all the stars that round her burn,

2 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
the moon takes up the wondrous tale,
and nightly to the listening earth
repeats the story of her birth:
In reason’s ear they all rejoice,

3 What though in solemn silence all move round the dark terrestrial ball?
What though no real voice nor sound
among their radiant orbs be found?

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 28:16-20

Deacon
The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon
Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

Confession and Absolution  BCP p. 360

Deacon  Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

All  Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant  Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All  Amen.

All Creatures of Our God and King, arr. Julian Wachner

All creatures of our God and King, lift up your voice and with us sing: alleluia, alleluia!
O brother sun with golden beam, O sister moon with silver gleam,
O praise ye! O praise ye! Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
O brother wind, air, clouds and rain, by which all creatures ye sustain, O praise ye, alleluia!
Thou rising morn, in praise rejoice! Ye lights of evening, find a voice.
O praise ye! O praise ye! Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
O sister water, pure and clear, make music for your Lord to hear: alleluia, alleluia!
O brother fire who lights the night, providing warmth, enhancing sight.
O praise ye! O praise ye! Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heav’nly host; praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

At the Presentation
Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Eucharistic Prayer A

BCP p. 361/380

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For with your co-eternal Son and Holy Spirit, you are one God, one Lord, in Trinity of Persons and in Unity of Being; and we celebrate the one and equal glory of you, O Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Hymnal S 128

Music: William Mathias (1934-1992)

Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.
Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
    who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

The ushers will bring you forward when it is time for you to receive. We receive communion at stations at the front of each aisle. Those wishing to kneel should go to the south rail by the pulpit.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints and someone will meet you there.

Communion Anthem

Faire is the Heaven

William Henry Harris (1883-1973)

Faire is the heaven where happy soules have place
In full enjoyment of felicitie;
Whence they doe still behold the glorious face
Of the Divine, Eternall Majestie;
Yet farre more faire be those bright Cherubins
Which all with golden wings are overdight,
And those eternall burning Seraphins
Which from their faces dart out fiery light;
Yet fairer than they both, and much more bright,
Be th’Angels and Archangels, which attend
On God’s owne Person without rest or end.
These then in faire each other farre excelling
As to the Highest they approach more neare,
Yet is the Highest farre beyond all telling,
Fairer than all the rest which there appeare,
Though all their beauties joynd together were;
How then can mortall tongue hope to expresse
The image of such endlesse perfectnesse?

—Edmund Spenser (1552-1599)

Silence follows the anthem.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

All: Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant: May God the Holy Trinity make you strong in faith and love, defend you on every side, and guide you in truth and peace; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All: Amen.
Closing Hymn

Words: John of Damascus (8th cent.); tr. John Mason Neale (1818-1866), alt.
Music: St. Kevin, Arthur Seymour Sullivan (1842-1900); arr. Julian Wachner

1 Come, ye faithful, raise the strain of triumphant gladness!
2 'Tis the spring of souls to-day; Christ hath burst his prison,
3 Now the queen of sons, bright with the day of splendor,
4 Neither might the gates of death, nor the tomb's dark portal,

God hath brought his Israel into joy from sadness:
and from three days' sleep in death as a sun hath risen;
with the royal feast of feasts, comes its joy to render;
nor the watchers, nor the seal hold thee as a mortal:

loosed from Pharaoh's bitter yoke Jacob's sons and daughters, all the winter of our sins, long and dark, is flying comes to glad Jerusalem, who with true affection
but today amidst thine own thou didst stand, bestowing led them with unmoistened foot through the Red Sea waters, from his light, to whom we give laud and praise undying,

welcomes in unwearied strains Jesus' resurrection.
that thy peace which evermore passeth human knowing.
Dismissal

Deacon     Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People     Thanks be to God.

Trinity Cares—In Your Neighborhood
1:30pm, Bedford-Stuyvesant, Brooklyn
Our first Trinity In Your Neighborhood will be hosted by parishioner Paul Donahue in his neighborhood. Trinity In Your Neighborhood is an opportunity to get to know parishioners who are also neighbors. Gatherings may be as simple as coffee nearby or a potluck meal in someone’s home or building. If you live in Bed-Stuy and would like to attend, or if you’d like to start a gathering in your neighborhood, email Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.0753.

NEXT SUNDAY
Formation Year-End Celebration
10am, St. Paul’s Chapel
We will thank our teachers and congratulate our graduates at this intergenerational party with live Caribbean music and dancing, including a performance by the Movement Choir! A van leaves Trinity Church for St. Paul’s at 9:45am. Information: Summerlee Staten at sstaten@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity Knitters
12:30-2:30pm, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
All knitters and crocheters and those who wish to learn are encouraged to attend. We provide yarn, needles, patterns, and expert instruction. Learn how to knit or crochet prayer shawls and items for housebound, returning veterans, seamen, and others in need. Free and open to all. Information: Janet MacMillan at macmilj@yahoo.com.

Core Values: Compassion

“Compassion constitutes a radical form of criticism, for it announces that the hurt is to be taken seriously, that the hurt is not to be accepted as normal and natural but is an abnormal and unacceptable condition for humanness.” —Walter Brueggemann

In June, we will explore the core value of compassion. What does compassion mean to you and how does this core value shape your day-to-day life? Send your thoughts to Fr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones at mbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org, or share your thoughts with fellow parishioners, clergy, and staff at an upcoming Illuminating Core Values session:

•   Compassion
    Thursday, June 22, 6:30-8:15pm, Trinity Church, Manning Room
•   Social Justice
    Tuesday, July 18, 6:30-8:15pm, Trinity Church, Manning Room
•   Stewardship
    Thursday, August 17, 6:30-8:15pm, Trinity Church, Manning Room

Other opportunities for exploring and celebrating our core values include:

Celebrating Core Values
1pm, Sunday, June 18, Trinity Church
Join the Rev. Phil Jackson, Fr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones, Julian Wachner, Deirdre Good, Kathy Bozzuti-Jones, Kim Stott, Bob Zack, Felicia Eve, Roy Burrowes, the Movement Choir, The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, and more as we explore and celebrate Trinity’s core values together. Lunch will be provided. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/corevalues.

Listening Hearts and Core Values Retreat
9am-5pm, September 30, Trinity Church
All are invited to this retreat as we use silence, song, creative engagement with Scripture, and contemplative sharing of reflections to examine what our core values mean for our community and our daily lives. Led by Listening Heart Ministries.
Celebrating Core Values
1pm, Trinity Church
Join the Rev. Phil Jackson, Fr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones, Julian Wachner, Deirdre Good, Kathy Bozzuti-Jones, Kim Stott, Bob Zack, Felicia Eve, Roy Burrowes, the Movement Choir, The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, and more as we explore and celebrate Trinity's core values together. Lunch will be provided. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/corevalues.

Lecture-Recital
2pm, St. Paul's Chapel
Violist Junah Chung and pianist Barbara Podgurski perform music by Bloch, Hindemith, Beethoven, and Bruch. Reception follows. Admission is free. Sponsored by Trinity Congregational Arts Allegro. Information: dehope@ix.netcom.com or mikako.kumagai@gmail.com.

COMING SOON
Care for Caregivers
10:30am-2:30pm, June 24, Parish Center
Join the Rev. Kristin Miles and art therapist Jessica Heller of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute for an afternoon of reflection and replenishment for caregivers. Together we will take a moment in our day to be replenished in the sharing of a meal, in the catching of our breath, in the comfort of prayer, and in the practice of resting in the presence of God. We will reflect on the spirituality of caregiving and the importance of self-care through supportive discussion, meditation, and creative expression. RSVPs appreciated by June 19 to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Summer Sundays Begin (and Sailing!)
10am, June 25-Sept. 10, St. Paul's Chapel
The theme of our intergenerational education hour this year is Creation Care. In our first four weeks, we'll explore the gift of water, so we are going sailing! On June 25, at 11am after the education hour, you are invited on a two-hour ecological tour of New York Harbor on board the 19th-century restored schooner Pioneer, leaving from South Street Seaport. Pioneer has a limited number of seats, so please RSVP to Summerlee Staten at sstaten@trinitywallstreet.org by June 18 with a firm commitment to reserve your place.

Community Bible Study
1pm, Sundays, June 25-Sept. 10, Trinity Church
Open and inclusive, weekly summer Sunday Bible study takes place throughout the summer while regular Discovery classes are on break. Whether you're a Bible scholar, just opening the book for the first time, or anywhere in between, your voice is welcomed and encouraged. Led by the Community Bible Study team, informal classes encompass group reflection on one or more of the readings for the day. Drop-ins welcome! The first study, on Sunday June 25, will be an introduction led by Bob Scott, director of Faith Formation and Education. Information: ChristianFormation@trinitywallstreet.org.

Pride March
12:30-1:30 pm, June 25, Parish Center
The Trinity LGBT Integrity Group and friends gather at the Parish Center for a reception and meet-up before marching with the Episcopal Diocese of New York and other Episcopal congregations. March time: 2-6pm. Information: TrinityIntegrityGroup@outlook.com.

Breaking Bread
1pm, June 25, Trinity Church, Manning Room
When life's blustery winds push against your sides, what spiritual practices keep you on God's course and move you purposefully forward? In our Breaking Bread time together, loving conversations can prompt us toward transformative moments. We invite you to join us for community eating as we break bread and find Christ in our life together in community, ministry, and activity through loving conversations with each other. Information: Regina Jacobs at gingerbeer@optonline.net; Kathy Bozzuti-Jones at kbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org.

Mission & Service Trips
Next Trip: New York City, July 14-Aug. 11 (Fridays) Commissioning: Sunday, July 9
Want to make a difference? Want to participate in an activity that can create true and lasting change? Consider applying for an upcoming trip to visit Trinity’s mission partners. Members of the Trinity community and friends engage in service to build partnerships and relationships through hands-on work. A trip to Panama originally planned for earlier in the year has been rescheduled to September 20–25. Deadline for application is June 30. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/mission.
Trinity Retreat Center Preview Picnic
12-4pm, July 29, West Cornwall, CT
Visit the retreat center and get a sneak peek of renovations under way and talk to directors Heidi and Joe Rose and the Rev. Daniel Simons about the progress that has been made at the center as it moves closer to reopening. Tour the center’s renovation projects and meet the new farm animals. Trinity will provide transportation, a hearty lunch, and family-friendly activities. Free and open to all. RSVP by July 15 at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Pilgrimage to Ethiopia
January 15–23, 2018
There are still several places open for the January pilgrimage to Ethiopia for the Epiphany celebrations, and there is a registration discount of $50 before July 15th. After that date participation will be on an as-available basis. Contact Fr. Daniel at dsimons@trinitywallstreet.org to reserve your place.

BULLETIN BOARD
Farewell Bob Zito!
Today we say farewell to the Rev. Deacon Bob Zito and thank him for his ministry at Trinity. Since 2010, Bob has served as Trinity’s deacon, as well as leading The Broad Way Bible study on Monday afternoons. This August, Bob will begin an appointment as Assistant Professor of Business Law at Marist College. He and Dana will live in New Paltz. Come wish them well at the Trinity picnic after the 11:15am service.

Celebrating our Graduates
Today the Trinity Youth Chorus would like to recognize graduating Senior Chorister Erica D’Anconca. Erica has been a member of the Trinity Youth Chorus for the past four years and will be attending Carnegie Mellon University next fall to major in Vocal Performance.

Volunteers needed: CSA
June-October
Brown Bag Lunch is adding fruits and vegetables to the menu! This summer Trinity is buying shares in two local Community Supported Agriculture concerns to provide fresh food to those who cannot afford it. Volunteers are needed to pick up the food each week and bring it back to Trinity for distribution. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/brownbag.

Parish Choir Forming
Trinity is organizing a Parish Choir, a semi-professional-level choir that will sing for Thursday Evensong and the 9am Sunday service at Trinity. Commitment includes rehearsals at 3pm Thursdays and 8:30am Sundays. Auditions are available by appointment. The choir meets seasonally: the next session will run September 24–November 19. This choir joins the rich musical history at Trinity including the Trinity Choir of Men and Boys, The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, the Trinity Youth Chorus, and the Family Choir. Information: Josh Slater at jslater@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Trinity Charter Society
On May 30, five new members were inducted into The Trinity Charter Society: Gabriel Bonadie, the Rev. Canon James G. Callaway, Dr. Mary Chilton Callaway, Alfred DiRaffaele, and Shirley Quashie. Society members have declared their support of Trinity’s future ministry and mission by remembering Trinity Church Wall Street in their estate plans. If you have included Trinity in your will or in another type of estate planning vehicle, or if you would like more information about The Trinity Charter Society, please contact the Fund Development office: wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org; 212.602.9692.

The Sisters are In
Weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!” The sisters are in most weekday mornings or afternoons before or after the 12:05pm service.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/giftshop.

Flower Donations

Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Prayer Requests

Prayer requests may be found on a separate card printed weekly and located at the back of the churches. The list is cleared at the end of each month. To add names to the list, email worshipbulletin@trinitywallstreet.org.

AIDS Walk NY

Trinity’s AIDS Walk NY team had a fantastic time walking on May 21. If you missed the walk, there’s still time to donate. To give, call 212.807.WALK and ask that your donation be credited to Trinity’s team number 9797.

Congregational Voice

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight. In all your ways acknowledge him and he will make straight your paths” (Proverbs 3:5-6). I always refer to this verse because I have a tendency of analyzing and doing my plans, but don’t rely on God’s plan. My path will be directed by Him and I will obey. God is my co-pilot. —Marilyn King
