Through the storms of life, O God, you are with your people in the person of Jesus your Son. Calm our fears and strengthen our faith that we may never doubt his presence among us but proclaim that he is your Son, risen from the dead, living for ever and ever. Amen.
MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —MATTHEW 14:14

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Every three years, the Episcopal Church convenes an international youth event so “that the energy of the youth of the Episcopal Church can continue to be utilized in active ministry as members of the Body of Christ.” This year, the 2017 Episcopal Youth Event welcomed nearly 1,400 participants, including the Rev. Winnie Varghese, Director of Justice and Reconciliation at Trinity Church Wall Street, who preached at the Closing Eucharist. The Eucharistic Prayer used at that EYE17 service was adapted by the youth participants, and it joins other liturgical elements featuring expansive language that we will use at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel during Sunday worship throughout the month of August. Expansive language evokes images that invite us to think of God in creative ways, and aptly highlights Trinity’s core value of inclusiveness.

Choral Prelude

Fix me, Jesus

Oh, fix me, Jesus, fix me.
Fix me for my long, white robe,
fix me for my starry crown,
Fix me, Jesus, fix me.
Fix me for my dyin’ bed.
Oh, fix me, Lord,
Fix me, Jesus, fix me.

1. When the storms of life are raging,
2. In the midst of tribulations,
3. In the midst of faults and failures, Stand by me,
4. In the midst of persecution,
5. When I'm growing old and feeble,

1. When the world is tossing me
2. When the hosts of hell assail,
3. Stand by me, stand by me; When I do the best I can,
4. When my foes in battle array
5. When my life becomes a burden,
Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
Gloria

1. Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

2. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

3. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;

4. You are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

5. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Genesis 37:1-4, 12-28

Reader A Reading from the Book of Genesis.

Jacob settled in the land where his father had lived as an alien, the land of Canaan. This is the story of the family of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was shepherding the flock with his brothers; he was a helper to the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father’s wives; and Joseph brought a bad report of them to their father. Now Israel loved Joseph more than any other of his children, because he was the son of his old age; and he had made him a long robe with sleeves. But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably to him.

Now his brothers went to pasture their father’s flock near Shechem. And Israel said to Joseph, “Are not your brothers pasturing the flock at Shechem? Come, I will send you to them.” He answered, “Here I am.” So he said to him, “Go now, see if it is well with your brothers and with the flock; and bring word back to me.” So he sent him from the valley of Hebron.

He came to Shechem, and a man found him wandering in the fields; the man asked him, “What are you seeking?” “I am seeking my brothers,” he said; “tell me, please, where they are pasturing the flock.” The man said, “They have gone away, for I heard them say, ‘Let us go to Dothan.’” So Joseph went after his brothers, and found them at Dothan. They saw him from a distance, and before he came near to them, they conspired to kill him. They said to one another, “Here comes this dreamer. Come now, let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits; then we shall say that a wild animal has devoured him, and we shall see what will become of his dreams.” But when Reuben heard it, he delivered him out of their hands, saying, “Let us not take his life.” Reuben said to them, “Shed no blood; throw him into this pit here in the wilderness, but lay no hand on him”—that he might rescue him out of their hand and restore him to his father. So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe, the long robe with sleeves that he wore; and they took him and threw him into a pit. The pit was empty; there was no water in it.

Then they sat down to eat; and looking up they saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead, with their camels carrying gum, balm, and resin, on their way to carry it down to Egypt. Then Judah said to his brothers, “What profit is it if we kill our brother and conceal his blood? Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and not lay our hands on him, for he is our brother, our own flesh.” And his brothers agreed. When some Midianite traders passed by, they drew Joseph up, lifting him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. And they took Joseph to Egypt.

The Psalm

Psalm 105:1-2, 17-22, 45

tr. Stephen Elvey (1805-1860)

The choir sings the refrain, then all repeat and sing as indicated.

Choir We give you thanks, O God, and call upon your Name; *
we make known your deeds among the peoples.

We sing to you; we sing your praise *
and speak of all your marvelous works.

You sent a man before them, *
Joseph, who was sold as a slave.

They bruised his feet in fetters; *
his neck they put in an iron collar.

All REFRAIN

Until his prediction came to pass, *
your word, O Most High, tested him.

The king sent and released him; *
the ruler of the peoples set him free.

He set him as a master over his household, *
as a ruler over all his possessions,
To instruct his princes according to his will *
and to teach his elders wisdom.

Hallelujah!

All REFRAIN

The Second Reading

Romans 10:5-15

Reader A Reading from Paul’s letter to the Romans.

Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that “the person who does these things will live by them.” But the righteousness that comes from faith says, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’” (that is, to bring Christ down) “or ‘Who will descend into the abyss?’” (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).

But what does it say? “The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart” (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, “No one who believes in him will be put to shame.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

Hymnal 512

Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able.

1 Come, gracious Spirit, heavenly Dove, with light and comfort from above; be thou our guardian, thou our guide; o’er every thought and step preside.
2 The light of truth to us display, and make us know and choose thy way; plant holy fear in every heart, that we from thee may never depart.
3 Lead us to Christ, the living Way, nor let us from his precepts stray; lead us to holy joy for ever there; lead us to God, our final rest, to be with him for ever blest.
4 Lead us to heaven, that we may share fullness of love thy face, that we may live with thee for evermore.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon
Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. And early in the morning he came walking toward them on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, “It is a ghost!” And they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, “Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid.”

Peter answered him, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.” He said, “Come.” So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came toward Jesus. But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, “Lord, save me!” Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, “You of little faith, why did you doubt?” When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, “Truly you are the Son of God.”

Silence follows the sermon.

The Creed
Please stand as you are able.

We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan Christ, who on the cross for sinners, like a lamb to suffer leads, we believe in God the Spirit; in one Church, below, above:

earth and heaven sprang to being, all created things began, saints of God in one communion, one in holiness and love.

We believe in Christ the Savior, Son of God in human frame, we believe in Jesus risen, heaven’s king to rule and reign, so by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Savior, Lord and friend, virgin-born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came.

to the Father’s side ascended till as judge he comes again.
we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813
In peace and in faith, let us offer our prayers, saying, “Christ, have mercy.”

For the peace of the world, for the welfare of the holy Church of God, and for the unity of all peoples, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For our Bishops, and for all ministers and people, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For our President, for the leaders of the nations, and for all in authority, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For this city, for every city and community, and for those who live in them, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For seasonable weather, and for an abundance of the fruits of the earth, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For the good earth which God has given us, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For those who travel on land, on water, or in the air, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

That we may celebrate our core value of stewardship and truly become generous with our time, talent, and treasure, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For the aged and infirm, for the widowed and orphans, and for the sick and the suffering, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For the poor and the oppressed, for the unemployed and the destitute, for prisoners and captives, and for all who remember and care for them, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, and for all the departed, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For deliverance from all danger, violence, oppression, and degradation, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

That we may end our lives in faith and hope, without suffering and without reproach, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

In the communion of saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life, to Christ our God.

To you, O Lord our God.

Silence

Add your own prayers, either silently or aloud.

Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, “Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you.” Regard not our sins, but the faith of your Church, and give to us the peace and unity of that heavenly City, where with God and the Holy Spirit, you live and reign, now and for ever.

Amen.
Confession and Absolution

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

All Have mercy upon us, most merciful God; in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer 1, adapted

Celebrant It is a right and truly joyful thing to give you thanks, Lord, holy and merciful Creator of our Universe and home, through Jesus Christ our Lord. In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them and to lead them into all truth; uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, giving to your church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the gospel to all nations.

Therefore we praise you, joining with your heavenly chorus of angels and archangels who sing this hymn to glorify your holy name:

Sanctus

Hymnal S 130
Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant  Blessed and holy Creator: you made us in your image to roam your beautiful creation, to adventure among your people, and to praise you in honor and glory. But in our sinfulness we strayed from your path and from your light. Time after time you called us back into your goodness with prophets and visionaries, but we did not listen. Finally, you sent your only Son, Jesus Christ, to lead us from our sins and reconcile us to you so we might live in your light and love. Through Christ's sacrifice on the cross, he illuminated your path for us to follow you with a full heart and soul, and to rightfully bring you praise and glory for ever.

On the night he was handed over to die upon the cross, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread and broke it, and sharing it among his friends he praised you and gave you thanks, saying, “Take and eat, for this is my body given to you. Do this in the remembrance of me.”

After the meal he poured wine, and sharing it with his friends he gave you thanks, saying, “Drink, for this is my blood of the new covenant, shed for the forgiveness of your sins and all sins. Whenever you drink this, do this in the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of your creation:

All  The peace of the world has died.
The peace of God has risen.
Our peace will come again.

Celebrant  And now, Lord, we celebrate the redemption and forgiveness of our sins through this feast of thanks and praise in the name of your Son and our Savior Jesus. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.
Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us, your people, so that we may faithfully and wholeheartedly receive these sacraments and serve you in unity, justice and peace, and that we may find a joyful place in your celestial kingdom with your saints and prophets by our side.

All this we ask in your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor, praise, and glory is yours, Almighty God and Celestial Creator, for ever and ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
    who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for all Her People. Take them in remembrance and thanks that Christ has died for us, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with glory and praise.

Please be seated.

The ushers will bring you forward when it is time for you to receive. We receive communion at stations at the front of each aisle. Those wishing to kneel should go to the south rail by the pulpit.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints and someone will meet you there.

Let us therefore, bowing low, venerate so great a sacrament; and let the old law give way to the new rite; let faith afford assistance to the deficiency of the senses. To the begetter and the begotten let there be praise and jubilation, salvation and honor, and power and blessing; and to the One proceeding from both let there be equal praise. Amen.

This webinar will provide the latest updates on the travel ban, refugee funding, and upcoming opportunities to engage in advocacy and outreach in support of refugee resettlement. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/action.

Trinity In Your Neighborhood
beginning Saturday, August 26, Staten Island
Members of the congregation are hosting gatherings in their neighborhoods to get to know parishioners who are also neighbors. Gatherings are as simple as coffee nearby or a potluck meal in someone's home or building. The first gathering, held in June, was a lovely meal in the Bedford-Stuyvesant area of Brooklyn. The next gatherings include a backyard cookout at 3pm, Saturday, August 26, in Staten Island; tea, refreshments, and company into the evening in Greenwich Village beginning at 4pm, Sunday, October 1; and dinner in Jersey City at 7pm, Saturday, October 14. To attend, RSVP to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org. If you are interested in hosting or attending gatherings in other neighborhoods, contact Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

Pilgrimage to Ethiopia
January 15–23, 2018
The January pilgrimage to Ethiopia for the Epiphany celebrations is nearly full. If you are hoping to go, please contact Fr. Daniel at dsimons@trinitywallstreet.org to secure your place.

BULLETIN BOARD

Haiti Scholars Fund Drive Exceeds Goal!
Thanks to the generous response from parishioners and friends of Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel, the campaign for Haiti Scholars for Success has raised $10,289.18, exceeding the $10,000 goal. On behalf of the Vestry, Church-Wardens, Rector, the Sisters of St. Margaret, and scholarship recipients, a heartfelt thanks to everyone whose donations made this campaign a resounding success. All gifts of any amount go directly towards helping students in Haiti pay their annual school fees and thus attend school this coming year. By donating, you are enabling students in Haiti to reach their full potential through education—the key to lifting Haiti out of poverty in future years. This is a living example of Trinity’s core value of compassion in action. Blessings to everyone for your compassionate generosity! Information: trinitywallstreet.org/haitischolars.
SCHOLARSHIPS FOR SUCCESS
Give the gift of education to students in Haiti. Donate today to change a child’s life.

Since the devastating 2010 earthquake in Haiti, the Sisters of St. Margaret and parishioners of Trinity Church Wall Street have given scholarships to Haitian students of all ages who could not afford an education. As the new school year approaches, our goal is to raise $10,000 to cover the school fees for 13 students in our program.

You can donate by writing a check to Trinity Church Wall Street (Haiti Scholarships in the memo line) and dropping it in the giving boxes at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel; donating online; or giving to the plate offering during services on July 30.

Give online and learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/HaitiScholars.

Join
THE TRINITY CHARTER SOCIETY

Be part of a legacy that spans three centuries when you include Trinity Church Wall Street in your will or estate plans.

In addition to ensuring the continued impact of the parish’s ministry in our neighborhood and throughout the world, members of The Trinity Charter Society have their names inscribed in the Trinity Memorial Book in the Chapel of All Saints and receive invitations to special events.

To make a bequest or for more information, please contact Willem Brans, Director of Development, at 212.602.9692 or wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org.
Stewardship Pledges Set New Records
The 2017 Stewardship Appeal recently broke the record for the highest number of pledges—173—and the highest dollar total ever—$362,255—in Trinity’s history. A great thank-you to all the parishioners and friends of Trinity who have made a formal stewardship pledge for 2017. If you donate to Trinity but have not pledged, you can still join this successful effort by making your formal pledge, even in mid-year. Stewardship pledge cards and return envelopes are available at the entrances of Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel, or you can pledge online at trinitywallstreet.org/give. Information: wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.9692.

Volunteers needed: CSA through October
Brown Bag Lunch is adding fruits and vegetables to the menu! This summer Trinity has bought a share in a local Community Supported Agriculture concern to provide fresh food to those who cannot afford it. Volunteers are needed to pick up the food each week and bring it back to Trinity for distribution. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/CSA.

Trinity Retreat Booking
Parish groups are invited to request Trinity Retreat Center reservation dates from fall of 2017 through late summer 2018. Submit reservation requests at trinityretreatcenter.org. Trinity Retreat Center will reach out to confirm dates no later than a month after submission. Email questions about rates or reservations to retreat@trinitywallstreet.org.

Core Values: Stewardship
“Lord, teach me to be generous; teach me to serve you as you deserve.” —St. Ignatius of Loyola

In August, we are exploring the core value of stewardship. What does stewardship mean to you and how does this core value shape your day-to-day life? Send your thoughts to Fr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones at mbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org, or share your thoughts with fellow parishioners, clergy, and staff at an upcoming Illuminating Core Values session:

• Stewardship
  Thursday, August 17, 6:30-8:15pm, Trinity Church, Manning Room

Here’s another opportunity for exploring and celebrating our core values:

Listening Hearts and Core Values Retreat
9am-5pm, September 30, Trinity Church
All are invited to this retreat as we use silence, song, creative engagement with Scripture, and contemplative sharing of reflections to examine what our core values mean for our community and our daily lives. Led by Listening Heart Ministries.

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1-10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a "mighty angel" with a "face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire," straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel's feet appear the words "JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS" which translate as "I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay," referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are from the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), and Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW). The Eucharistic Prayer was adapted by Andrés González-Bonillas and the worship team of the 2017 Episcopal Youth Event, and is used with permission.
