O perfect Love,
whose compassionate power transforms sin into health
and temporal dust into eternal glory:
grant us a gracious faith,
so that like Joseph, when he was sold into slavery,
we may face our trials with confidence,
and become a blessing
to friend and enemy alike in Jesus' name. Amen.

MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area for prayers at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

“Epiphany” is a word of Greek origin and refers to an appearance, a displaying, a showing forth, a making clear or public or obvious. On this day, Christians celebrate the making known of Jesus Christ to the world. Several events in the Gospels record how Jesus was made known publicly, how he was shown or presented to the people: his birth, the coming of the Magi, his Baptism, and his first miracle at the wedding in Cana.

On the following Sundays, called Sundays after the Epiphany, our attention will be on Jesus’ public preaching of the kingdom he comes to inaugurate. On the Last Sunday after Epiphany, March 3, 2019, the Sunday before Ash Wednesday, we will read the account of the Transfiguration, the climax of the first phase of our Lord’s public ministry.

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Arise, shine, and give God glory.

People Our light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon us.
Opening Hymn

Hymnal 657, vv. 1, 3

Words: Charles Wesley (1707-1788); Music: Hyfrydol, Rowland Hugh Pritchard (1811-1887)
Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Glory to God in the Highest

Hymnal S 280, adapted

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O Lord, you have taught us that without love whatever we do is worth nothing; Send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts your greatest gift, which is love, the true bond of peace and of all virtue, without which whoever lives is accounted dead before you. Grant this for the sake of your only Son Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

A Reading from the Book of Genesis.

Genesis 45:3-11, 15

Joseph said to his brothers, “I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?” But his brothers could not answer him, so dismayed were they at his presence. Then Joseph said to his brothers, “Come closer to me.” And they came closer.

He said, “I am your brother, Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt. And now do not be distressed, or angry with yourselves, because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life. For the famine has been in the land these two years; and there are five more years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest. God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant on earth, and to keep alive for you many survivors. So it was not you who sent me here, but God; he has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

“Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, ‘Thus says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not delay. You shall settle in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near me, you and your children and your children’s children, as well as your flocks, your herds, and all that you have. I will provide for you there—since there are five more years of famine to come—so that you and your household, and all that you have, will not come to poverty.’ ” And he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them; and after that his brothers talked with him.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.
The Psalm

Psalm 37:1-4, 7-8, 41-42

Reader

Let us read from Psalm 37 in unison.

All

Do not fret yourself because of evildoers; *

do not be jealous of those who do wrong.

For they shall soon wither like the grass, *

and like the green grass fade away.

Put your trust in God and do good; *

dwell in the land and feed on its riches.

Take delight in God, *

who shall give you your heart's desire.

Be still before God; *

for God wait patiently.

Do not fret yourself over the one who prospers, *

the one who succeeds in evil schemes.

But the deliverance of the righteous comes from God * who is their stronghold in time of trouble.

God will help them and rescue them; *

the Holy One will rescue them from the wicked and deliver them, because they seek refuge in God.

The Second Reading

1 Corinthians 15:35-38, 42-50

Reader

A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

Someone will ask, “How are the dead raised? With what kind of body do they come?”

Fool! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. And as for what you sow, you do not sow the body that is to be, but a bare seed, perhaps of wheat or of some other grain. But God gives it a body as he has chosen, and to each kind of seed its own body.

So it is with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable. It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. It is sown a physical body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual body.

Thus it is written, “The first man, Adam, became a living being”; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. But it is not the spiritual that is first, but the physical, and then the spiritual. The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven. As was the man of dust, so are those who are of the dust; and as is the man of heaven, so are those who are of heaven. Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we will also bear the image of the man of heaven. What I am saying, brothers and sisters, is this: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People

Thanks be to God.
Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon: Jesus said, "I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you."
“If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

“Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven; give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Hyfrydol, Rowland Hugh Prichard (1811-1887)
The Prayers of the People

Reader Let us pray that the light of Christ may be seen in us and in the life of the Church.

You have called us into the family of those who are the children of God. May our love for our sisters and brothers in Christ be strengthened by your grace.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People Make us bearers of your light.

Reader You have called us to be a temple where the Holy Spirit can dwell. Give us all clean hands and pure hearts so that together with Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our Bishops; and all the bishops, clergy, and people, our lives will reflect your holiness.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People Make us bearers of your light.

Reader You have called us to be a light to the world, so that those in darkness may come to you. Give us the grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship; and the wisdom to discern where you are leading us in our commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership, and Capacity. May our lives shine as a witness to the saving grace you have given for all.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People Make us bearers of your light.

Reader You have called us to be a city planted on a hill, witnesses to the humanity we share with all people. Guide the leaders of all the nations, especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor, to make wise decisions for the welfare of people everywhere.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People Make us bearers of your light.

Reader You have called us to be members of your body, so that when one suffers, all suffer together. We ask for your comfort and healing power to bring hope to those in distress.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People Make us bearers of your light.

Reader We pray for all who have died. Receive them into the bliss of eternal life with you and prepare us to feast at the table in your presence, where we will be united with you for ever.

Jesus, Lord of the Church,

People Bring us to your kingdom of light and peace. Amen.
Confession and Absolution

Deacon We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Jesus Christ, Light of the world, we hide in the darkness of our arrogance and indifference; illuminate the darkness in our hearts.

Lord, have mercy.

People Lord, have mercy.

Deacon Jesus Christ, Light of the world, we refuse to see the signs of your presence all around us; open our eyes to your saving love.

Christ, have mercy.

People Christ, have mercy.

Deacon Jesus Christ, Light of the world, we are slow to respond to your call to follow and serve you; draw us ever more closely to you and your light.

Lord, have mercy.

People Lord, have mercy.

Celebrant Almighty God, who forgives all who truly repent, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in life eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The organist plays an improvisation while the ushers collect the offering.
At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?–1561?)

The Great Thanksgivings

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind.

And now we give you thanks because, in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore, as the morning stars sing your praises, we join the heavenly chorus and all creation as we shout with joy:
Holy, Holy, Holy

Music: from Mass for a Soulful People, Grayson Warren Brown (b. 1948)

Celebrant

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering. Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: “Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this to remember me.”

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: “Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this to remember me.”

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ’s coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed, and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:
All  Dying, you destroyed our death.
Rising, you restored our life.
Christ Jesus, come in glory!

Celebrant  Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice and love. Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with [blessed ______, and] all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory are yours, now and for ever.

All  AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer  BCP p. 364

Celebrant  As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All  Our Father in heaven,
      hallowed be your Name,
      your kingdom come,
      your will be done,
      on earth as in heaven.
      Give us today our daily bread.
      Forgive us our sins,
      as we forgive those
      who sin against us.
      Save us from the time of trial,
      and deliver us from evil.
      For the kingdom, the power,
      and the glory are yours,
      now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction  BCP p. 364

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant  Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People  Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant  The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life's journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.
If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please come to the communion rail at the end of the service and a prayer minister will meet you.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Almighty and everliving God,
we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ;
and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you
as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May Christ, the Onlybegotten and Anointed One, be manifest in you, that your lives may be a light to the world: And the blessing of God almighty, Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-giving Spirit be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.
Closing Hymn

1. Great is thy faith-ful-ness, O God my Fa-ther, Great is thy faith-ful-ness! Great is thy faith-ful-ness!

2. Sun-mer and win-ter, and spring-time and har-vest,
   Morn-ing by morn-ing new mer-cies I see;

1. There is no shad-ow of turn-ing with thee;
   As thou hast been thou for-ev-er wilt be.

2. Sun, moon and stars in their cours-es a-bove,
   To thy great faith-ful-ness, mer-cy and love.

1. Thou chang-es not, thy com-passions, they fail not,
   1. Thou chang-es not, thy com-passions, they fail not,

2. Join with all na-ture in man-i-fold wit-ness,
   Join with all na-ture in man-i-fold wit-ness,
Dismissal

Deacon  Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.
People   Thanks be to God.

Core Values

In February we focus on the Core Value of Integrity

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity's core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You'll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones and John Deuel

May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley

July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve

September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall

November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)

For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.

Time’s Arrow
March 5-9, St. Paul's Chapel
Continuing Trinity's commitment to amplifying the voices of female artists across multiple mediums, this year's Time's Arrow festival juxtaposes old and new stories of the biblical figure Susanna. Exploring sensitive themes of our time, the festival includes the fully staged world premiere of the new opera Artemisia and concerts of Handel's Susanna. Artemisia tells the story of the Baroque artist who portrayed herself as Susanna in her famous painting Susanna and the Elders. All events are free. See schedule at trinitywallstreet.org/timesarrow.

Book Event for Families
6:15-7:30pm, Friday, March 8, Parish Center
Author Jason Flom will be on hand to read his book Lulu is a Rhinoceros and talk with parents about the book's themes of identity and acceptance. Supper and activities for children will be provided. For families with young children (8 and under). RSVP to christianformation@trinitywallstreet.org.
Family Day Field Trip
2-4pm, Saturday, March 9, Offsite
Families are invited to explore the Cathedral of St. John the Divine through either a creative and fun Medieval Arts workshop for ages 5-11, or the adventurous, behind the scenes Vertical Tour (123 feet up!) for ages 12-adults. Space is limited. RSVP to Wendy Barrie at wbarrie@trinitywallstreet.org with names of all attending and ages of children.

When Spirit Calls: A Healing Odyssey
1:15pm, Sunday, March 10, Parish Center
Joan Diver, author of When Spirit Calls: A Healing Odyssey, shares her journey of faith from the congregation of preacher and mystic Howard Thurman to the Episcopal Church and an Indian ashram—and from physical pain to spiritual awakening. Event includes reception and book signing. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/odyssey. RSVP: ChristianFormation@trinitywallstreet.org.

Youth Confirmation Classes
12:30-2:30pm, beginning March 10, Parish Center

Rehearsal for Confirmation will be held noon-2pm, Saturday, June 8, in St. Paul’s Chapel. Parents and godparents should plan to attend the June 8 rehearsal with their confirmands. Lunch is included at all of these events. To register for Confirmation, please email wbarrie@trinitywallstreet.org.

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers have poured the concrete in the south bay of the nave and installed HVAC ductwork in the south nave. Workers are continuing to review the conduit routes and the condition of the stained glass windows, and are continuing testing of the plaster in the clerestory. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Congregational Council Nominations
The Congregational Nominating & Leadership Development Committee is pleased to place the persons listed below for election to five positions on the Congregational Council. Candidates for the 2019-2022 Congregational Council are:

Karla Chee-a-tow, Alistair Cree, Prisca Doh, Martha Graham, and Alan Yu.

Furthermore, we are pleased to present the names of nominees to serve as delegates to the 2019 Diocesan Convention. Nominees for delegates to Diocesan Convention: Scott Evenbeck, Chelsea-Lyn Rudder, and Susan Ward.

Voting will take place at all four services on March 3, 2019. The results will be announced at the Annual Meeting of the Congregation for the election of Congregational Council members and delegates to the Diocesan Convention that afternoon in St. Paul’s Chapel.

Have a Great Service Project Idea?
Have an idea for an outreach or service project—small or large? Witness & Outreach invites ideas for new initiatives. Current Community Outreach programs include AIDS Walk, Kianga House, and Environmental Justice. Please see David Ward (djward71@yahoo.com) or Sharon Hardy (hardysha@gmail.com) to share your ideas and to get involved. We’ll help you think it through and make it a reality. We’re excited to hear from you!

Congregational Voice

“The Lord is my Shepherd” (Psalm 23) is one of my favorite verses. As a vocalist, I like to sing various settings of it. It’s not a “jump up and down” kind of praise. It’s internal and subdued. Psalms is my favorite book in the Bible. It contains prayers and praises. — Iris Felice Harris

SERVICE PARTICIPANTS

CELEBRANT, DEACON, AND PREACHER: The Rev. Frank Hakoola

MUSICIAN: Janet Yieh, Associate Organist

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church.

This service of Holy Eucharist conforms to Rite II, beginning on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. The bulletin cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP), proposed by the Consultation on Common Texts. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), Complete Anglican Hymns Old and New (CAHON), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
