O God, you delight not in pomp and show, but in a humble and contrite heart. Overturn our love of worldly possessions and fix our hearts more firmly on you, that, having nothing, we may yet possess everything, a treasure stored up for us in heaven. Amen.

Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Lent is the period of 40 days, not counting Sundays, beginning on Ash Wednesday and is a season of earnest self-examination and disciplined realignment in preparation for the celebrations of Easter. “Lent” comes from the Anglo-Saxon word lencten, which means "spring," the season when life burst forth from the chains of winter and new life springs up everywhere.

By observing the 40 days of Lent, we prayerfully enter into Jesus Christ’s faithful commitment to his ministry in the face of the temptations he experienced during his withdrawal into the desert for 40 days. By our disciplined observance of Lent we seek to imitate Christ by symbolically withdrawing from the world that tempts and seduces us by our commitment to self-examination, prayer, almsgiving and fasting. In the early centuries fasting rules were strict: one meal a day was allowed in the evening, and meat, fish, eggs, and butter were forbidden. Although these fasting rules have gradually been relaxed, the emphasis on penitential practice and almsgiving remains, together with a continuing commitment to fasting—from food, destructive behaviors and habits, and from all manner of feasting. One can think of the discipline of Lent as an invitation to give up habits and behaviors that break down and also to take on habits and behaviors that build up.

Sundays in Lent are not counted in the 40 days of Lent because every Sunday is a thanksgiving and celebration of the resurrection of our Lord, a “mini-Easter,” so to speak. On Sundays the weekday discipline and contrite spirit of Lent is tempered with joyful anticipation of the Resurrection.

Following the directions of the Episcopal Church in Lesser Feasts and Fasts 2006, our weekday celebrations of the Holy Eucharist will use the Collect, Lessons, and Psalm appointed for the Weekdays of Lent.

Collects and Readings

Thursday after Ash Wednesday

March 7

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings with your most gracious favor, and further us with your continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in you, we may glorify your holy Name, and finally, by your mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Deuteronomy 30:15-20; Psalm 1; Luke 9:18-25

Friday after Ash Wednesday

March 8

Support us, O Lord, with your gracious favor through the fast we have begun; that as we observe it by bodily self-denial, so we may fulfill it with inner sincerity of heart; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Isaiah 58:1-9a; Psalm 51:1-10; Matthew 9:10-17

The Entrance Rite

Procession

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.
The ministers enter in silence.

Acclamation

Celebrant\n
Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.

People\n
God’s mercy endures for ever.
Prayer of Preparation

BCP p. 217, adapted

Celebrant Almighty and everlasting God, you despise nothing you have made and forgive the sins of all who are penitent.

All Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our brokenness, may obtain of you, the God of all mercy, perfect redemption and forgiveness.

Celebrant Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Invitation to Keep a Holy Lent

BCP p. 265, adapted

Celebrant Dear People of God, in the name of the Church, as we give thanks to God for our redemption through our Lord Jesus Christ, I urge you to keep a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word.

Therefore, with penitent hearts, and as a mark of our mortal nature, let us now bow our heads before the Lord, our maker and redeemer.

Silence

Prayer

based on Psalm 51:17

Celebrant God is here.

People The Spirit of God is with us.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, you are the source of life and love. The sacrifice that pleases you is a broken spirit, a broken and contrite heart you do not despise. We therefore come to you in sorrow for our sins, for you are full of compassion.

Silence
Confession and Absolution

All God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

Canticle

from Canticle 14: A Song of Penitence

All O Lord and Ruler of the hosts of heaven, all things quake with fear at your presence;
they tremble because of your power.
But your merciful promise is beyond all measure;
it surpasses all that our minds can fathom.
You hold back your hand;
you do not punish as we deserve.
And now, O Lord, I bend the knee of my heart,
and make my appeal, sure of your gracious goodness.
I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned,
and I know my wickedness only too well.
Forgive me, Lord, forgive me.
Do not let me perish in my sin,
for you, O Lord, are the God of those who repent.
Unworthy as I am, you will save me,
and I will praise you without ceasing all the days of my life.
Amen.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Please be seated.
The Reader reads the lesson appointed for the day.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
People Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able.

Words: George Hunt Smyttan (1822-1870), alt.

The Holy Gospel

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to...
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Celebrant reads the Gospel appointed for the day.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

Silence follows the homily.
The Prayers of the People

Please stand as you are able.

Reader  O God of compassion and mercy, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
People  That we all may be one.

Reader  For those preparing for baptism and confirmation, for their teachers and sponsors, and for our parish community as we prepare to receive them into the household of faith;
People  That they and we will be filled with your Holy Spirit.

Reader  Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
People  That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Reader  We pray for Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary our bishops; and for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
People  That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Reader  We pray for Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, Bill our Mayor, and for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
People  That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Reader  Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People  That our works may find favor in your sight.

Reader  Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
People  That they may be delivered from their distress.

Reader  Give to the departed eternal rest;
People  Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Reader  We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
People  May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Reader  Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.
The People add their own thanksgivings and petitions.

Celebrant  Lord Jesus Christ, you came to call not the righteous but sinners to repentance: help us in this season of Lent to hear and respond to your call: that by your grace we may turn from whatever in our lives does not accord with your will, and walk in the ways of holiness and love, to the glory of God, our Rock and our Salvation.

All  Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering.
The organist plays an improvisation.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant Almighty God, you created the universe and all that it is in it, and humankind in your image. In compassion and mercy, your face is turned towards your world. In love you gave Jesus your Onlybegotten and Beloved One to rescue us from sin and death.

And now we give you thanks because you give us the spirit of discipline, that we may triumph over evil and grow in grace, as we prepare to celebrate the paschal mystery with mind and heart renewed.

Therefore, we join the hosts of heaven in the everlasting song of your glory:
Holy, Holy, Holy

Music: from New Plainsong; David Hurd (b. 1950)

Celebrant

To those who dwell in darkness Jesus came as your light. With words of hope he touched untouchables with love, and with signs of faith he washed the guilty clean.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this to remember me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this to remember me.”

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant

Send your Holy Spirit on us, as we obey his command to remember him, and upon these gifts, to make them holy. Gather into one in your kingdom all who share this bread and cup, so that we, in the company of all the saints, may praise you for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory are yours, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All Our Father in heaven,
  hallowed be your Name,
  your kingdom come,
  your will be done,
  on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
  as we forgive those
  who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
  and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
  and the glory are yours,
  now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant The bread which we break is a sharing in the Body of Christ.

People We being many are one bread, one body,
  for we all share in the one bread.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of grace and glory,
you have given Jesus Christ your Onlybegotten and Anointed One to be for us a sacrifice for sin and an example of godly life.
Empower us
by the grace of this Holy Communion to know Christ more clearly,
love Christ more dearly,
and follow Christ more nearly,
day by day.
Amen.

The Blessing

BOS p. 26, adapted

Celebrant May God look on you with compassion so that, rightly observing this holy season, you may learn to know God more fully, and to serve Christ with a more perfect will;
And the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity be with you and remain with you for ever.
All Amen.

Dismissal

BCP p. 366

Celebrant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The ministers and people exit in silence.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area.

Flowers

In observation of Ash Wednesday and our Lenten pilgrimage, arrangements of curly willow have been placed in the sanctuary. Their subtle rooting and gentle sprouting remind us of our commitment to spiritual growth in anticipation of the bursting forth of new life at Easter.

MARCH 5-9, 2019 · Free
The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, NOVUS NY, and Trinity Baroque Orchestra

Continuing Trinity’s commitment to amplifying the voices of female artists across multiple mediums, this year’s Time’s Arrow festival juxtaposes old and new stories of the biblical figure Susanna.

Exploring sensitive themes of our time, the festival includes the fully staged world premiere of Laura Schwendinger’s new opera Artemisia and concerts of Handel’s Susanna as Trinity continues its presentation of the composer’s oratorios. Artemisia tells the story of the Baroque artist who portrayed herself as Susanna in her famous painting Susanna and the Elders.

Core Values

In March we focus on the Core Value of Inclusiveness

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats

Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity's core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones and John Deuel
May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.

Family Day Field Trip
2-4pm, Offsite
Families are invited to explore the Cathedral of St. John the Divine through either a creative and fun Medieval Arts workshop for ages 5-11, or the adventurous, behind-the-scenes Vertical Tour (123 feet up!) for ages 12-adults. Space is limited. RSVP to Wendy Barrie at wbarrie@trinitywallstreet.org with names of all attending and ages of children.

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers have completed demolition in the back of the church in preparation for a new meeting room; a path of travel for conduits has been determined and workers are completing the installation of conduits; paint mock-ups are almost complete; and fabrication of the organ is on course. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Have a Great Service Project Idea?
Have an idea for an outreach or service project—small or large? Witness & Outreach invites ideas for new initiatives. Current Community Outreach programs include AIDS Walk, Kianga House, and Environmental Justice. Please see David Ward (djward71@yahoo.com) or Sharon Hardy (hardysha@gmail.com) to share your ideas and to get involved. We'll help you think it through and make it a reality. We're excited to hear from you!

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Lenten Meditations
Lenten Meditations booklets containing reflections and art contributed by parishioners, clergy, and staff have been mailed to parishioners and should arrive before Ash Wednesday. Additional copies will be available in Trinity’s Chapel of All Saints and St. Paul’s Chapel beginning Ash Wednesday, March 6. A reading is planned for Palm Sunday, April 14.

This service of Holy Eucharist contains elements of A Penitential Order, Rite II, beginning on page 351 of the _Book of Common Prayer_ (BCP). Scripture readings are from the _Revised Common Lectionary_ (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. The bulletin cover collect is from _Revised Common Lectionary Prayers_ (RCLP), proposed by the Consultation on Common Texts. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from _Enriching Our Worship_ (EOW), _Common Worship_ (CW), the _Book of Occasional Services_ (BOS), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from _The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF),_ and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.

In an effort to reach a broad audience, Trinity Wall Street records its services and events for broadcast on the internet. Your attendance at a service or event constitutes your consent to be included in any filming, photographing, audio recording, or broadcast and for any other use in whole or in part, including publicity and promotion. If you prefer to avoid being filmed, please sit in the back pews on the side aisles.

As part of Trinity Wall Street’s commitment to responsible stewardship of the earth’s resources, this publication is printed on paper that is manufactured with 100% post-consumer fibers.

Assistive Listening devices are available for this service and are located at the welcome table.
