God of deliverance and freedom, you taught the people of Israel to acknowledge that all things come from your bountiful hand.

Deepen our faith so that we may resist temptation and, in the midst of trial, proclaim that Jesus Christ is Lord, now and for ever. Amen.

RCLP p. 79
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Lent is the period of 40 days, not counting Sundays, beginning on Ash Wednesday and is a season of earnest self-examination and disciplined realignment in preparation for the celebrations of Easter. “Lent” comes from the Anglo-Saxon word lencten, which means “spring,” the season when life burst forth from the chains of winter and new life springs up everywhere.

By observing the 40 days of Lent, we prayerfully enter into Jesus Christ’s faithful commitment to his ministry in the face of the temptations he experienced during his withdrawal into the desert for 40 days. By our disciplined observance of Lent we seek to imitate Christ by symbolically withdrawing from the world that tempts and seduces us by our commitment to self-examination, prayer, almsgiving and fasting. In the early centuries fasting rules were strict: one meal a day was allowed in the evening, and meat, fish, eggs, and butter were forbidden. Although these fasting rules have gradually been relaxed, the emphasis on penitential practice and almsgiving remains, together with a continuing commitment to fasting—from food, destructive behaviors and habits, and from all manner of feasting. One can think of the discipline of Lent as an invitation to give up habits and behaviors that break down and also to take on habits and behaviors that build up.

Sundays in Lent are not counted in the 40 days of Lent because every Sunday is a thanksgiving and celebration of the resurrection of our Lord, a “mini-Easter,” so to speak. On Sundays the weekday discipline and contrite spirit of Lent is tempered with joyful anticipation of the Resurrection.

Following the directions of the Episcopal Church in Lesser Feasts and Fasts 2006, our weekday celebrations of the Holy Eucharist will use the Collect, Lessons, and Psalm appointed for the Weekdays of Lent.

Collects and Readings

Monday in the First Week of Lent

Almighty and everlasting God, mercifully increase in us your gifts of holy discipline, in almsgiving, prayer, and fasting; that our lives may be directed to the fulfilling of your most gracious will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Leviticus 19:1-2, 11-18; Psalm 19:7-14; Matthew 25:31-46

Tuesday in the First Week of Lent

Grant to your people, Lord, grace to withstand the temptations of the world, the flesh, and the devil, and with pure hearts and minds to follow you, the only true God; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Isaiah 55:6-11; Psalm 34:15-22; Matthew 6:7-15

Wednesday in the First Week of Lent

Bless us, O God, in this holy season, in which our hearts seek your help and healing; and so purify us by your discipline that we may grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Jonah 3:1-10; Psalm 51:11-18; Luke 11:29-32

Thursday in the First Week of Lent

Strengthen us, O Lord, by your grace, that in your might we may overcome all spiritual enemies, and with pure hearts serve you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Additions to Esther (Greek) 14:1-6, 12-14; Psalm 138; Matthew 7:7-12

Friday in the First Week of Lent

Lord Christ, our eternal Redeemer, grant us such fellowship in your sufferings, that, filled with your Holy Spirit, we may subdue the flesh to the spirit, and the spirit to you, and at the last attain to the glory of your resurrection; who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Ezekiel 18:21-28; Psalm 130; Matthew 5:20-26

Psalm 19:7-14

Reader Let us read from Psalm 19 responsively by half-verse.

Your law, O God, is perfect and revives the soul; *

People your testimony is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.

Reader Your statutes are just and rejoice the heart; *

People your commandment is clear and gives light to the eyes.

Reader The fear of you is clean and endures for ever; *

People your judgments are true and righteous altogether.

Reader More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold, *

People sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb.

Reader By them also is your servant enlightened, *

People and in keeping them there is great reward.

Reader Who can tell how often one offends? *

People Cleanse me from my secret faults.

Reader Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins;

let them not get dominion over me; *

People then shall I be whole and sound,
and innocent of a great offense.

Reader Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, *

People O God, my strength and my redeemer.

Psalm 34:15-22

Reader Let us read from Psalm 34 responsively by half-verse.

The eyes of God are upon the righteous, *

People and the ears of God are open to their cry.

Reader The face of God is against those who do evil, *

People to root out the remembrance of them from the earth.

Reader The righteous cry, and God hears them *

People and delivers them from all their troubles.

Reader God is near to the brokenhearted *

People and will save those whose spirits are crushed.

Reader Many are the troubles of the righteous, *

People but God will deliver them out of them all.

Reader God will keep safe all their bones; *

People not one of them shall be broken.

Reader Evil shall slay the wicked, *

People and those who hate the righteous will be punished.

Reader O God, you will ransom the life of your servants, *

People and none will be punished who trust in you.
Psalm 51:11-18

Reader Let us read from Psalm 51 responsively by half-verse.

Create in me a clean heart, O God,*
and renew a right spirit within me.

Reader Cast me not away from your presence,*
and take not your holy Spirit from me.

Reader Give me the joy of your saving help again,*
and sustain me with your bountiful Spirit.

Reader I shall teach your ways to the wicked,*
and sinners shall return to you.

Reader Deliver me from death, O God,*
and my tongue shall sing of your righteousness,
O God of my salvation.

Reader Open my lips, O God,*
and my mouth shall proclaim your praise.

Reader Had you desired it, I would have offered sacrifice,*
but you take no delight in burnt-offerings.

Psalm 138

Psalm 138

Reader Let us read Psalm 138 responsively by half-verse.

I will give thanks to you, O God, with my whole heart;*
before the gods I will sing your praise.

Reader I will bow down toward your holy temple
and praise your Name,*
because of your love and faithfulness;

Reader For you have glorified your Name *
and your word above all things.

Reader When I called, you answered me;*
you increased my strength within me.

Reader All the rulers of the earth will praise you, O God,*
when they have heard the words of your mouth.

Reader They will sing of the ways of God,*
that great is the glory of God.

Reader Although on high, God cares for the lowly * and perceives the haughty from afar.

Reader Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe;*
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;
your right hand shall save me.

Reader You will make good your purpose for me;*
O God, your love endures for ever;
do not abandon the works of your hands.
Psalm 130

Reader Let us read Psalm 130 responsively by half-verse.

Out of the depths have I called to you;
O God, hear my voice; *

People let your ears consider well the voice of my supplication.

Reader If you were to note what is done amiss, *

People O God, who could stand?

Reader For there is forgiveness with you, *

People therefore you shall be feared.

Reader I wait for you, O God; my soul waits for you; *

People in your word is my hope.

Reader My soul waits for you,
more than sentries for the morning. *

People more than sentries for the morning.

Reader O Israel, wait upon God, *

People for with God there is mercy.

Reader With God there is plenteous redemption; *

People God shall redeem Israel from all their sins.

The Entrance Rite

Procession

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.
The ministers enter in silence.

Acclamation

Celebrant Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.

People God’s mercy endures for ever.

Prayer of Preparation

Celebrant Almighty and everlasting God, you despise nothing you have made and forgive the sins of all who are penitent.

All Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our brokenness, may obtain of you, the God of all mercy, perfect redemption and forgiveness.
Celebrant Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Invitation to Keep a Holy Lent

Celebrant Dear People of God, in the name of the Church, as we give thanks to God for our redemption through our Lord Jesus Christ, I urge you to keep a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word.

Therefore, with penitent hearts, and as a mark of our mortal nature, let us now bow our heads before the Lord, our maker and redeemer.

Silence

Prayer

Celebrant God is here.

People The Spirit of God is with us.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, you are the source of life and love. The sacrifice that pleases you is a broken spirit, a broken and contrite heart you do not despise. We therefore come to you in sorrow for our sins, for you are full of compassion.

Silence

Confession and Absolution

All God of all mercy,

we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives.

We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created.

We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf.

Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.
Canticle

from Canticle 14: A Song of Penitence

All O Lord and Ruler of the hosts of heaven, all things quake with fear at your presence; they tremble because of your power. But your merciful promise is beyond all measure; it surpasses all that our minds can fathom. You hold back your hand; you do not punish as we deserve. And now, O Lord, I bend the knee of my heart, and make my appeal, sure of your gracious goodness. I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned, and I know my wickedness only too well. Forgive me, Lord, forgive me. Do not let me perish in my sin, for you, O Lord, are the God of those who repent. Unworthy as I am, you will save me, and I will praise you without ceasing all the days of my life. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant prays the Collect, a prayer appointed for the day. See p. 4 for Collect texts.
The Psalm

Please be seated.
The Reader and People read the Psalm appointed for the day. See pp. 5-7 for Psalm texts.

Reader  Let us read from Psalm ____ responsively by half-verse.

The First Reading

The Reader reads the lesson appointed for the day.

Reader  Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People  Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Claudia Frances Hernaman (1838-1898), alt.
Music: Land of Rest, American folk hymn; adapt. and harm. Annabel Morris Buchanan (1889-1983)

The Holy Gospel

Celebrant  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to...

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Celebrant reads the Gospel appointed for the day.

Celebrant  The Gospel of the Lord.

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.
The Homily
Silence follows the homily.

The Prayers of the People
Please stand as you are able.
Reader O God of compassion and mercy, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
People That we all may be one.

Reader For those preparing for baptism and confirmation, for their teachers and sponsors, and for our parish community as we prepare to receive them into the household of faith;
People That they and we will be filled with your Holy Spirit.

Reader Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
People That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Reader We pray for Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary our bishops; and for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
People That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Reader We pray for Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, Bill our Mayor, and for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Reader Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Reader Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
People That they may be delivered from their distress.

Reader Give to the departed eternal rest;
People Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Reader We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Reader Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

The People add their own thanksgivings and petitions.

Celebrant Lord Jesus Christ, you came to call not the righteous but sinners to repentance: help us in this season of Lent to hear and respond to your call; that by your grace we may turn from whatever in our lives does not accord with your will, and walk in the ways of holiness and love, to the glory of God, our Rock and our Salvation.

All Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering.
The organist plays an improvisation.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant Almighty God, you created the universe and all that is in it, and humankind in your image. In compassion and mercy, your face is turned towards your world. In love you gave Jesus your Onlybegotten and Beloved One to rescue us from sin and death.

And now we give you thanks because you give us the spirit of discipline, that we may triumph over evil and grow in grace, as we prepare to celebrate the paschal mystery with mind and heart renewed.

Therefore, we join the hosts of heaven in the everlasting song of your glory:
Holy, Holy, Holy

Music: from New Plainsong; David Hurd (b. 1950)

Celebrant
To those who dwell in darkness Jesus came as your light. With words of hope he touched untouchables with love, and with signs of faith he washed the guilty clean.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this to remember me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this to remember me.”

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant Send your Holy Spirit upon us, that we will faithfully remember our Lord's command, and upon these gifts, to make them holy. Gather into one in your reign all who share this bread and cup, so that we, in the company of all the saints, may praise you for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory are yours, now and for ever.

All AMEN.
The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
   hallowed be your Name,
   your kingdom come,
   your will be done,
   on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
   as we forgive those
   who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
   and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
   and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant The bread which we break is a sharing in the Body of Christ.
People We being many are one bread, one body,
   for we all share in the one bread.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life's journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of grace and glory,
you have given Jesus Christ your Onlybegotten and Anointed One to be for us a sacrifice for sin and an example of godly life.
Empower us
by the grace of this Holy Communion to know Christ more clearly,
love Christ more dearly,
and follow Christ more nearly,
day by day.
Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May God look on you with compassion so that, rightly observing this holy season, you may learn to know God more fully, and to serve Christ with a more perfect will;
And the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity be with you and remain with you for ever.
All Amen.

Dismissal

Celebrant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The ministers and people exit in silence.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area.

Flowers

To highlight our Lenten pilgrimage, arrangements of curly willow have been placed in the sanctuary.
Their subtle rooting and gentle sprouting remind us of our commitment to spiritual growth in anticipation of the bursting forth of new life at Easter.

Core Values

In March we focus on the Core Value of Inclusiveness

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity's core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You'll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones and John Deuel
May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

Sunday Suppers
3pm, St. Paul's Chapel
Members of the congregation of Trinity Church Wall Street and the neighboring community meet at St. Paul's Chapel for Sunday Suppers, an opportunity for parishioners and their downtown neighbors to share a family-style hot meal, conversation, fellowship, and fun. If you'd like to help, volunteers are needed to set up, greet, serve, lead tables, and clean up. To attend or volunteer, please email sundaysuppers@trinitywallstreet.org.

EVERY SUNDAY
Nursery Care (six months through age 5)
11am-1pm, St. Paul's Chapel
The nursery is found in the Chapel of Remembrance, the small room in the southwest corner of the Chapel.

The Gospel, Times, Journal, and You
10am, Parish Center, 56 Trinity Place
Youth Group Sundays
10am, 14 Vesey St. and Parish Center
Middle school and high school youth are invited to meet at the Parish Center for snacks, conversation, games, and projects. The Trinity Keep it Reel film team will also have an opportunity to work with their teaching artist at this time. High school youth, choristers, and friends—it is not too late to join the Trinity Youth film team. Contact Jenn Chinn at jchinn@trinitywallstreet.org or visit us on Sunday. On Whole Community Sharing Sundays, all youth will start at 14 Vesey St. at 10am for breakfast. At 10:30am they can stay for intergenerational programs, or head over to the Parish Center with volunteer and staff adults. Whole Community Sharing dates are: April 7 and 28, and June 16.

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers have completed demolition in the back of the church in preparation for a new meeting room; a path of travel for conduits has been determined and workers are completing the installation of conduits; paint mock-ups are almost complete; and fabrication of the organ is on course. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Have a Great Service Project Idea?
Have an idea for an outreach or service project—small or large? Witness & Outreach invites ideas for new initiatives. Current Community Outreach programs include AIDS Walk, Kianga House, and Environmental Justice. Please see David Ward (djward71@yahoo.com) or Sharon Hardy (hardysha@gmail.com) to share your ideas and to get involved. We’ll help you think it through and make it a reality. We’re excited to hear from you!

2019-2020 Discernment Process for the Election of Trinity Wall Street Vestry Members

The Annual Vestry Election will be held on April 23, 2019, Easter Tuesday, as specified under the 1697 Charter.

January 20, 2019 through April 23, 2019 is the period of discernment where potential Vestry members of Trinity parish are identified and proposed both for the 2019 election slate, as well as for future years. The discernment process is as follows:

• Any eligible member of the congregation* may submit recommendations to the Parish Nominating Committee. All recommendations were due in writing by February 3, 2019.

• The Parish Nominating Committee will review all recommendations for vacant Vestry positions for 2019-2020.

• During the week of April 8, 2019, a mail ballot form and accompanying biographical information, along with a pre-paid envelope will be mailed to all eligible parishioners.* The ballot and pre-paid return envelopes also will be available in St. Paul's Chapel and the Chapel of All Saints at each service starting on April 8, 2019, until the election.

• During the week of April 8, 2019, a mail ballot form, accompanying biographical information, along with a pre-paid envelope will be mailed to all eligible parishioners.* The ballot and pre-paid return envelopes also will be available in both St. Paul's Chapel and the Chapel of All Saints at each service until the election starting on April 8, 2019.

• Vestry Election Day is April 23, 2019. In-person voting will be from 4pm to 8pm in St. Paul's Chapel. Mail ballots must be received before 8pm on Tuesday, April 23. The results will be announced online at trinitywallstreet.org the next morning and at the Sunday services following the election.

* All members of the parish who are 18 years or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, have taken Holy Communion within the preceding year (April 2018-April 2019) and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year (April 2018-April 2019) are eligible to make recommendations and vote in the Vestry election. The register of eligible voters is available for inspection in the Office of the Rector, 120 Broadway, 38th floor and a member of the congregation may confirm that his or her name is included on the register by emailing mhogan@trinitywallstreet.org. Registration can also be done on election day by application to the Rector or Presiding Officer upon proving the above-mentioned qualifications.

Lenten Meditations

Lenten Meditations booklets containing reflections and art contributed by parishioners, clergy, and staff have been mailed to parishioners. Additional copies are available in Trinity’s Chapel of All Saints and St. Paul’s Chapel. A reading is planned for Palm Sunday, April 14.

Congregational Council Elections

The parish of Trinity Church Wall Street held its annual meeting and election of Congregational Council members Sunday, March 3. Elected to a three-year term were: Karla Chee-a-tow, Alistair Cree, Prisca Doh, Martha Graham, and Alan Yu. Also elected were Trinity’s delegates to the diocesan convention: Scott Evenbeck, Chelsea-Lyn Rudder, and Susan Ward. The Episcopal Diocese of New York will hold its convention November 8.

The service of Holy Eucharist contains elements of A Penitential Order, Rite II, beginning on page 351 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts come from the St. Helena Psalter. The bulletin cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP), proposed by the Consultation on Common Texts. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.

In an effort to reach a broad audience, Trinity Wall Street records its services and events for broadcast on the internet. Your attendance at a service or event constitutes your consent to be included in any filming, photographing, audio recording, or broadcast and for any other use in whole or in part, including publicity and promotion. If you prefer to avoid being filmed, please sit in the back pews on the side aisles.
