SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT
MARCH 17, 2019, 9:00AM

TRINITY CHURCH
THE CHAPEL OF ALL SAINTS
BROADWAY AT WALL STREET, NEW YORK CITY
MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area for prayers at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The English word “Lent” has Teutonic roots meaning the “spring season.” Since Anglo-Saxon times it has been used to refer to the forty days of fasting and self-denial which precede the celebration of Easter, and which fall in the season of spring. The early Church knew many such preparatory fasts: before Christmas, before Easter, before the feast of St. John the Baptist. The forty-day fast before Easter—Quadragesima as it was formerly known, from the Latin for “forty days”—is mentioned in the Canons of the Council of Nicea, so the Lenten observance was common practice by the fourth century.

Introduced by Ash Wednesday 46 days before Easter, Lent is a season of self-examination and repentance, prayer, fasting, and self-denial. Following the pattern of our Lord’s “forty days and forty nights” sojourn in the wilderness and also the 40 years of the Exodus, Lent lasts for precisely 40 days. Because Sundays are the weekly festivals of our Lord’s resurrection, the six Sundays that fall after Ash Wednesday including Palm Sunday are not included in the 40 days of Lent and are therefore called “Sundays in Lent” not “Sundays of Lent.”

Lent is preparation for the celebration of Easter when the Church reaffirms the baptismal promises by which it is incorporated into the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. This reaffirmation is a profoundly serious undertaking. It is commitment to life in Christ, dedication to faithful obedience to God's will, and a promise to love and serve the world in the name of Jesus Christ. So earnest an undertaking needs the spiritual preparation of prayer and fasting, repentance and self-denial, self-examination and the disciplined reading of Scripture. This is the vocation of a holy Lent which the Church lays upon all the faithful.

The Sundays in Lent do not share this more solemn and penitential focus of the weekdays of Lent. Rather the lessons and especially the Gospels appointed for the five Sundays in Lent are a bold proclamation of the gift of redemption, new life, and salvation which the passion and suffering of our Lord wins for us.

However, for most of us the demands of our workaday world make it very difficult for us to maintain regular daily worship as a priority. Since Lent is a weekday experience, the meaning and grace of Lent would be lost to us if there were not some Lenten notes to our Sunday celebrations. For this reason, our Sunday morning worship begins with a Penitential Order and the music of the Eucharist will be more solemn and reflective than usual.

May God grant us a holy Lent and bring us from the ashes of the beginning of Lent to the glory of a joyful Eastertide.

Prelude

6 Studien in kanonischer Form, Op. 56: VI. Adagio

Robert Schumann (1810-1856)

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.

People God’s mercy endures for ever.

Opening Hymn

Hymnal 149
Invitation to Keep a Holy Lent

Celebrant Dear People of God, in the name of the Church, as we give thanks to God for our redemption through our Lord Jesus Christ, I urge you to keep a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word.

Jesus said, “The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these.” (Mark 12:29-31)

Therefore, with penitent hearts, and as a mark of our mortal nature, let us now bow our heads before the Lord, our maker and redeemer.

Please continue standing as you are able.

Prayer based on Psalm 51:17

Celebrant God is here.

People The Spirit of God is with us.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, you are the source of life and love. The sacrifice that pleases you is a broken spirit, a broken and contrite heart you do not despise. We therefore come to you in sorrow for our sins, for you are full of compassion.

Litany of Penitence

Deacon For turning away from you, and ignoring your will for our lives;

People Forgive us;

save us and help us, O God.

Deacon For behaving thoughtlessly and selfishly, without thinking of you;

People Forgive us;

save us and help us, O God.

Deacon For failing you by what we do, and think, and say;

People Forgive us;

save us and help us, O God.
Deacon  For living as if we are ashamed to belong to Jesus Christ;
People  Forgive us;
         save us and help us, O God.
Deacon  We have our fill of sorrow.
         In the midst of life, we are in death;
         where can we turn for help?
People  Only to you, O Lord,
         who are justly angered by our sins.
Deacon  Eternal and merciful judge,
         both in life and when we come to die,
         let us not fall away from you.
People  We wholeheartedly repent of the evil we have done,
         and of the evil done on our behalf;
         We look for your grace to offer forgiveness,
         and to know that we are forgiven.

Declaration of Pardon

CW p. 97, adapted

Celebrant  May God who dearly loves the world, and sent Jesus Christ, the Onlybegotten and Beloved One to be our Savior, forgive your sins and make you holy to serve God in the world, through Jesus Christ our Liberator and Friend.

All    Amen.

Holy God, Holy and Mighty

Hymnal S 102

Sung three times.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, whose glory it is always to have mercy: Be gracious to all who have gone astray from your ways, and bring them again with penitent hearts and steadfast faith to embrace and hold fast the unchangeable truth of your Word, Jesus Christ your Son; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Book of Genesis.

The word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, “Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great.” But Abram said, “O Lord God, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?” And Abram said, “You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir.” But the word of the Lord came to him, “This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir.” He brought him outside and said, “Look toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them.” Then he said to him, “So shall your descendants be.” And he believed the Lord; and the Lord reckoned it to him as righteousness.

Then he said to him, “I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess.” But he said, “O Lord God, how am I to know that I shall possess it?” He said to him, “Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon.” He brought him all these and cut them in two, laying each half over against the other; but he did not cut the birds in two. And when birds of prey came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

As the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram, and a deep and terrifying darkness descended upon him. When the sun had gone down and it was dark, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces. On that day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, “To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.
The Psalm

Psalm 27:1-7, 9

Reader  Let us read from Psalm 27 in unison.

All   God is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I fear? *
       God is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?

When evildoers came upon me to eat up my flesh,*
       it was they, my foes and my adversaries, who stumbled and fell.

Though an army should encamp against me,*
       yet my heart shall not be afraid;

And though war should rise up against me,*
       yet will I put my trust in God.

One thing have I asked of you, O God;
       one thing I seek: *

       that I may dwell in your house all the days of my life,

To behold your fair beauty, O God,*
       and to seek you in your temple.

For in the day of trouble you shall keep me safe in your shelter; *
       you shall hide me in the secrecy of your dwelling and set me high upon a rock.

Therefore I will offer in your dwelling an oblation with sounds of great gladness; *

       I will sing and make music to you.

The Second Reading

Philippians 3:17—4:1

Reader  A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Philippians.

Brothers and sisters, join in imitating me, and observe those who live according to the example you have in us. For many live as enemies of the cross of Christ; I have often told you of them, and now I tell you even with tears. Their end is destruction; their god is the belly; and their glory is in their shame; their minds are set on earthly things.

But our citizenship is in heaven, and it is from there that we are expecting a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. He will transform the body of our humiliation that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, by the power that also enables him to make all things subject to himself. Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People  Thanks be to God.
Please stand as you are able.

1. Blessed be the God of Israel, who comes to set us free;
2. He from the house of David a child of grace has given;
3. On prisoners of darkness the sun begins to rise,

He visits and redeems us, he grants us liberty,
a Savior comes among us to raise us up to heaven,
the dawning of forgiveness upon the sinner's eyes.

The prophets spoke of mercy, of freedom and release;
Before him goes his herald, forerunner in the way,
He guides the feet of pilgrims along the paths of peace.

God shall fulfill his promise and bring his people peace.
the prophet of salvation, the harbinger of Day.
O bless our God and Savior, with songs that never cease.

Words: Michael A. Perry (b. 1942), alt.; para. of The Song of Zechariah
Music: Thornbury, Basil Harwood (1859-1949)

The Holy Gospel

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon Some Pharisees came and said to Jesus, “Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you.”
He said to them, “Go and tell that fox for me, ‘Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work. Yet today, tomorrow, and the next day I must be on my way, because it is impossible for a prophet to be killed outside of Jerusalem.’

“Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! See, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, ‘Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.’”

The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Prayers of the People

Reader As we continue our Lenten pilgrimage, preparing for the joyful celebration of Easter let us return to our God who is slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

God of renewal, remember your church throughout the world: especially Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our Bishops; and all those who shepherd your people: those ordained to serve, those called to leadership, and all your faithful people.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.

Reader God of forgiveness, remember people and nations everywhere: communities and nations threatened by violence and terror, cities devastated by war, peoples plagued with hunger and afflicted by diseases; and our own blessed land, struggling to break free from all that threatens and diminishes our common humanity. Guide our leaders—Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor—to make wise decisions for the common good.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.
Reader  God of rest, remember your people: those overburdened by anxiety and stress, those imprisoned by fear, and those who have lost their way to you.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People  Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.

Reader  God of salvation, remember our parish: that we may have the grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship; and the wisdom to discern where you are leading us in our commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership, and Capacity.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People  Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.

Reader  God of wisdom and grace, remember us on our Lenten pilgrimage: those who long to know you, those who hunger for your bread of life, those who thirst for your cup of salvation; and especially those preparing for Baptism and our Confirmands as they prepare to make an adult profession of faith.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People  Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.

Reader  God sustainer of all life, as we observe World Water Day, we thank you for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation; through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise; in it Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah. Make us mindful of our responsibility to be good stewards of the waters of the earth, and keep us faithful, that we will provide generously for those who need clean water and carefully preserve the blessing of water for the good of all.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People  Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.

Reader  God of resurrection, remember those who have died, especially those whom we still love but see no longer: receive them into the joy of eternal life with you.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People  Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.

Celebrant  O God, haven for the weary and home for the lost, in your great mercy sustain us with your grace, that walking with Jesus Christ our Lord, we will find our way home to live in the abundant grace you offer.

All  Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP p. 361, adapted/p. 379/CW p. 194, adapted

_Celebrant_ The Lord be with you.

_People_ And also with you.

_Celebrant_ Lift up your hearts.

_People_ We lift them to the Lord.

_Celebrant_ Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

_People_ It is right to give God thanks and praise.

_Celebrant_ It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

You bid your faithful people cleanse their hearts, and prepare with joy for the Paschal feast; that, fervent in prayer and in works of mercy, and renewed by your Word and Sacraments, they may come to the fullness of grace which you have prepared for those who love you.
Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Music: from New Plainsong; David Hurd (b. 1950)

Celebrant

Holy and gracious God, you created the universe and all that is in it, and humankind in your image. In compassion and mercy, your face is turned towards your world. In love you gave Jesus your Onlybegotten and Beloved One to rescue us from sin and death. Maker and giver of all, we give you thanks for every gift that comes from your love.

To those who dwell in darkness Jesus came as your light. With words of hope he touched untouchables with love, and with signs of faith he washed the guilty clean. The crowds came out to see him, yet at the end they turned against him.

On the night Jesus was betrayed he was at table with his friends to celebrate the freedom of your people. He blessed you for the food, took the bread, gave thanks, broke it and said: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you and for all. Do this to remember me.

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave thanks and gave it to them and said: Take and drink; this is my blood, shed for you and for all. Do this to remember me.

With this bread and this cup, we celebrate the cross on which he died to set us free. Defying death he rose again and is alive with you to plead for us and all the world.

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant

Send your Holy Spirit on us, that we will faithfully obey our Lord’s command, and upon these gifts, to make them holy.

Gather into one in your kingdom all who share this bread and cup, so that we, in the company of [_____________ and] all the saints, may praise you for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory are yours, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.
The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those
who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant The bread which we break is a sharing in the Body of Christ.
People We being many are one bread, one body,
for we all share in the one bread.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life's journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose. Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please come to the communion rail at the end of the service and a prayer minister will meet you.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Loving God,
we give you thanks
for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ’s Body and Blood.
Now send us forth
a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May God look on you with compassion so that, rightly observing this holy season, you may learn to know God more fully, and to serve Christ with a more perfect will;
And the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity be with you and remain with you for ever.

All Amen.

Wanted: Friendly Faces!

At Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel, we put welcome out front.

Your friendly face is needed to greet regular worshippers, guests, and visitors to the 9am, 9:15am, and 11:15am services on Sundays.

Greeters say hello, help direct worshippers into the buildings, and answer questions. A short informal training is offered on your first day.

Requirements include a commitment to one or two services a month and a background check.

For more information, contact Dane Miller at dmiller@trinitywallstreet.org.

Core Values

In March we focus on the Core Value of Inclusiveness

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats

Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones and John Deuel
May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are continuing to clean and repoint the stone columns and beginning construction of the exterior fence. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Early Deadlines
Because of high printing volume, the deadlines for printed announcements for the Palm Sunday (April 14) and Easter (April 21) bulletins have been moved to 5pm, Monday, March 25. Information: lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Have a Great Service Project Idea?
Have an idea for an outreach or service project—small or large? Witness & Outreach invites ideas for new initiatives. Current Community Outreach programs include AIDS Walk, Kianga House, and Environmental Justice. Please see David Ward (djward71@yahoo.com) or Sharon Hardy (hardysha@gmail.com) to share your ideas and to get involved. We’ll help you think it through and make it a reality. We’re excited to hear from you!

The Sisters are In

2019-2020 Discernment Process for the Election of Trinity Wall Street Vestry Members

The Annual Vestry Election will be held on April 23, 2019, Easter Tuesday, as specified under the 1697 Charter.

January 20, 2019 through April 23, 2019 is the period of discernment where potential Vestry members of Trinity parish are identified and proposed both for the 2019 election slate, as well as for future years. The discernment process is as follows:

• Any eligible member of the congregation* may submit recommendations to the Parish Nominating Committee. All recommendations were due in writing by February 3, 2019.

• The Parish Nominating Committee will review all recommendations for vacant Vestry positions for 2019-2020.

• During the week of April 8, 2019, a mail ballot form and accompanying biographical information, along with a pre-paid envelope will be mailed to all eligible parishioners.* The ballot and pre-paid return envelopes also will be available in St. Paul's Chapel and the Chapel of All Saints at each service starting on April 8, 2019, until the election.

• During the week of April 8, 2019, a mail ballot form, accompanying biographical information, along with a pre-paid envelope will be mailed to all eligible parishioners.* The ballot and pre-paid return envelopes also will be available in both St. Paul's Chapel and the Chapel of All Saints at each service until the election starting on April 8, 2019.

• Vestry Election Day is April 23, 2019. In-person voting will be from 4pm to 8pm in St. Paul's Chapel. Mail ballots must be received before 8pm on Tuesday, April 23. The results will be announced online at trinitywallstreet.org the next morning and at the Sunday services following the election.

* All members of the parish who are 18 years or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, have taken Holy Communion within the preceding year (April 2018-April 2019) and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year (April 2018-April 2019) are eligible to make recommendations and vote in the Vestry election. The register of eligible voters is available for inspection in the Office of the Rector, 120 Broadway, 38th floor and a member of the congregation may confirm that his or her name is included on the register by emailing mhogan@trinitywallstreet.org. Registration can also be done on election day by application to the Rector or Presiding Officer upon proving the above-mentioned qualifications.

Congregational Voice

“When a foreigner resides among you in your land, do not mistreat them. The foreigner residing among you must be treated as your native born. Love them as yourself for you were foreigners in Egypt. I am the Lord your God” (Leviticus 19:33-34 NIV). Do not mistreat the foreigners in your midst. How easily we forget that we are all God’s children and that we are all immigrants, refugees, and strangers. The call of God rings clearer and clearer: we are called to respect each other, and treat the least and last with dignity. May God give us the grace and courage to respond to the immigrants, the weak, the foreigner, and the poor with compassion. Let us start by loving those we see daily. —The Rev. Dr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones

SERVICE PARTICIPANTS

CELEBRANT, DEACON, AND PREACHER: The Rev. Bruce W. B. Jenneker

MUSICIAN: Forrest Eimold, Music Scholar

This service of Holy Eucharist conforms to Rite II, beginning on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. The bulletin cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP), proposed by the Consultation on Common Texts. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
