MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area for prayers at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The English word “Lent” has Teutonic roots meaning the “spring season.” Since Anglo-Saxon times it has been used to refer to the forty days of fasting and self-denial which precede the celebration of Easter, and which fall in the season of spring. The early Church knew many such preparatory fasts: before Christmas, before Easter, before the feast of St. John the Baptist. The forty-day fast before Easter—Quadragesima as it was formerly known, from the Latin for “forty days”—is mentioned in the Canons of the Council of Nicea, so the Lenten observance was common practice by the fourth century.

Introduced by Ash Wednesday 46 days before Easter, Lent is a season of self-examination and repentance, prayer, fasting, and self-denial. Following the pattern of our Lord’s “forty days and forty nights” sojourn in the wilderness and also the 40 years of the Exodus, Lent lasts for precisely 40 days. Because Sundays are the weekly festivals of our Lord’s resurrection, the six Sundays that fall after Ash Wednesday including Palm Sunday are not included in the 40 days of Lent and are therefore called “Sundays in Lent” not “Sundays of Lent.”

Lent is preparation for the celebration of Easter when the Church reaffirms the baptismal promises by which it is incorporated into the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. This reaffirmation is a profoundly serious undertaking. It is commitment to life in Christ, dedication to faithful obedience to God’s will, and a promise to love and serve the world in the name of Jesus Christ. So earnest an undertaking needs the spiritual preparation of prayer and fasting, repentance and self-denial, self-examination and the disciplined reading of Scripture. This is the vocation of a holy Lent which the Church lays upon all the faithful.

The Sundays in Lent do not share this more solemn and penitential focus of the weekdays of Lent. Rather the lessons and especially the Gospels appointed for the five Sundays in Lent are a bold proclamation of the gift of redemption, new life, and salvation which the passion and suffering of our Lord wins for us.

However, for most of us the demands of our workaday world make it very difficult for us to maintain regular daily worship as a priority. Since Lent is a weekday experience, the meaning and grace of Lent would be lost to us if there were not some Lenten notes to our Sunday celebrations. For this reason, our Sunday morning worship begins with a Penitential Order and the music of the Eucharist will be more solemn and reflective than usual.

May God grant us a holy Lent and bring us from the ashes of the beginning of Lent to the glory of a joyful Eastertide.

Invitation to Keep a Holy Lent

Celebrant Dear People of God, in the name of the Church, as we give thanks to God for our redemption through our Lord Jesus Christ, I urge you to keep a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God’s holy Word.

Jesus said, “The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these.” (Mark 12:29-31)

Therefore, with penitent hearts, and as a mark of our mortal nature, let us now bow our heads before the Lord, our maker and redeemer.

Silence

Please continue standing as you are able.

Prayer

based on Psalm 51:17

Celebrant God is here.

People The Spirit of God is with us.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, you are the source of life and love. The sacrifice that pleases you is a broken spirit, a broken and contrite heart you do not despise. We therefore come to you in sorrow for our sins, for you are full of compassion.

Litany of Penitence

CW p. 87/89, adapted

Deacon For turning away from you, and ignoring your will for our lives;

People Forgive us;

save us and help us, O God.

Deacon For behaving thoughtlessly and selfishly, without thinking of you;

People Forgive us;

save us and help us, O God.

Deacon For failing you by what we do, and think, and say;

People Forgive us;

save us and help us, O God.

Deacon For living as if we are ashamed to belong to Jesus Christ;

People Forgive us;

save us and help us, O God.

Deacon We have our fill of sorrow.

In the midst of life, we are in death; where can we turn for help?

People Only to you, O Lord, who are justly angered by our sins.
Confession

Celebrant Eternal and merciful judge, both in life and when we come to die,
let us not fall away from you.

People We wholeheartedly repent of the evil we have done,
and of the evil done on our behalf;
We look for your grace to offer forgiveness,
and to know that we are forgiven.

Declaration of Pardon

Celebrant May God who dearly loves the world, and sent Jesus Christ, the Onlybegotten and Beloved One to be our Savior, forgive your sins and make you holy to serve God in the world, through Jesus Christ our Liberator and Friend.

All Amen.

Holy God, Holy and Mighty

Sung three times.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, you know that we have no power in ourselves to help ourselves: Keep us both outwardly in our bodies and inwardly in our souls, that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, “I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up.” When the Lord saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, “Moses, Moses!” And he said, “Here I am.” Then he said, “Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.” He said further, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Then the Lord said, “I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt.”

But Moses said to God, “Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?” He said, “I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain.” But Moses said to God, “If I come to the Israelites and say to them, ‘The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,’ and they ask me, ‘What is his name?’ what shall I say to them?” God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM.” He said further, “Thus you shall say to the Israelites, ‘I AM has sent me to you.’” God also said to Moses, “Thus you shall say to the Israelites, ‘The Lord, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you: This is my name forever, and this my title for all generations.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People

Thanks be to God.
The Psalm

Psalm 63:1-8

Reader Let us read from Psalm 63 in unison.

All O God, you are my God; eagerly I seek you; *
my soul thirsts for you, my flesh faints for you,
as in a barren and dry land where there is no water.

Therefore I have gazed upon you in your holy place,*
that I might behold your power and your glory.

For your loving-kindness is better than life itself; *
my lips shall give you praise.

So will I bless you as long as I live * and lift up my hands in your Name.

My soul is content, as with marrow and fatness,*
and my mouth praises you with joyful lips,

When I remember you upon my bed,*
and meditate on you in the night watches.

For you have been my helper,*
and under the shadow of your wings I will rejoice.

My soul clings to you;*
your right hand holds me fast.

The Second Reading

1 Corinthians 10:1-13

Reader A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink.
For they drank from the spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ.
Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them, and they were struck down in the wilderness.

Now these things occurred as examples for us, so that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not become idolaters as some of them did; as it is written, “The people sat down to eat and drink, and they rose up to play.” We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did, and were destroyed by serpents. And do not complain as some of them did, and were destroyed by the destroyer. These things happened to them to serve as an example, and they were written down to instruct us, on whom the ends of the ages have come. So if you think you are standing, watch out that you do not fall. No testing has overtaken you that is not common to everyone. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tested beyond your strength, but with the testing he will also provide the way out so that you may be able to endure it.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon At that very time there were some present who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. He asked them, “Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were worse sinners than all other Galileans? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did. Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them—do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did.”

Then he told this parable: “A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. So he said to the gardener, ‘See here! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and still I find none. Cut it down! Why should it be wasting the soil?’ He replied, ‘Sir, let it alone for one more year, until I dig around it and put manure on it. If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.’”

The Prayers of the People

Reader       As we continue our Lenten pilgrimage, preparing for the joyful celebration of Easter let us return to our God who is slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

God of renewal, remember your church throughout the world: especially Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our Bishops; and all those who shepherd your people: those ordained to serve, those called to leadership, and all your faithful people.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People       Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.

Reader       God of forgiveness, remember people and nations everywhere: communities and nations threatened by violence and terror, cities devastated by war, peoples plagued with hunger and afflicted by diseases; and our own blessed land, struggling to break free from all that threatens and diminishes our common humanity. Guide our leaders—Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor—to make wise decisions for the common good.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People       Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.

Reader       God of rest, remember your people: those overburdened by anxiety and stress, those imprisoned by fear, and those who have lost their way to you.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People       Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.

Reader       God of salvation, remember our parish: that we may have the grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship; and the wisdom to discern where you are leading us in our commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership, and Capacity.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People       Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.

Reader       God of wisdom and grace, remember us on our Lenten pilgrimage: those who long to know you, those who hunger for your bread of life, those who thirst for your cup of salvation; and especially those preparing for Baptism and our Confirmands as they prepare to make an adult profession of faith.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People       Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.

Reader       God sustainer of all life, as we observe World Water Day, we thank you for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation; through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise; in it Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah. Make us mindful of our responsibility to be good stewards of the waters of the earth, and keep us faithful, that we will provide generously for those who need clean water and carefully preserve the blessing of water for the good of all.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People       Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.
Reader       God of resurrection, remember those who have died, especially those whom we still love but see no longer: receive them into the joy of eternal life with you.
            For this, remember your mercy, Lord:
People       Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.
Celebrant    O God, haven for the weary and home for the lost, in your great mercy sustain us with your grace, that walking with Jesus Christ our Lord, we will find our way home to live in the abundant grace you offer.
All          Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP p. 361, adapted/p. 379/CW p. 194, adapted

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us lift up our hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

You bid your faithful people cleanse their hearts, and prepare with joy for the Paschal feast; that, fervent in prayer and in works of mercy, and renewed by your Word and Sacraments, they may come to the fullness of grace which you have prepared for those who love you.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Holy, Holy, Holy

Music: from New Plainsong; David Hurd (b. 1950)

Celebrant

Holy and gracious God, you created the universe and all that is in it, and humankind in your image. In compassion and mercy, your face is turned towards your world. In love you gave Jesus your Onlybegotten and Beloved One to rescue us from sin and death.

Maker and giver of all, we give you thanks for every gift that comes from your love. To those who dwell in darkness Jesus came as your light. With words of hope he touched untouchables with love, and with signs of faith he washed the guilty clean. The crowds came out to see him, yet at the end they turned against him.

On the night Jesus was betrayed he was at table with his friends to celebrate the freedom of your people. He blessed you for the food, took the bread, gave thanks, broke it and said: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you and for all. Do this to remember me.

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave thanks and gave it to them and said: Take and drink; this is my blood, shed for you and for all. Do this to remember me.

With this bread and this cup, we celebrate the cross on which he died to set us free. Defying death he rose again and is alive with you to plead for us and all the world.

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant

Send your Holy Spirit on us, that we will faithfully obey our Lord’s command, and upon these gifts, to make them holy.

Gather into one in your kingdom all who share this bread and cup, so that we, in the company of [______________ and] all the saints, may praise you for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory are yours, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant The bread which we break is a sharing in the Body of Christ.

People We being many are one bread, one body,
for we all share in the one bread.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please come to the communion rail at the end of the service and a prayer minister will meet you.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.
All Loving God,
we give you thanks
for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
Now send us forth
a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May God look on you with compassion so that, rightly observing this holy season, you may learn to know God more fully, and to serve Christ with a more perfect will;
And the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity be with you and remain with you for ever.
All Amen.

Closing Hymn

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation
Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore him!
O my soul, praise him, for he is thy hope!
All that hath life and breath come now with thanks unto him.
Dismissal

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are installing a construction fence for the south awning. The reconditioning of the pews is coming along nicely—seats are being extended and the backs are being angled for comfort. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Core Values
In March we focus on the Core Value of Inclusiveness

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.
Early Deadlines
Because of high printing volume, the deadlines for printed announcements for the Palm Sunday (April 14) and Easter (April 21) bulletins have been moved to 5pm, Monday, March 25. Information: lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Pray for Our Pilgrims
March 28–April 8, Trinity's pilgrims will travel to the Holy Land to follow the footsteps of Jesus, visiting the places associated with his birth, ministry, and last days. Please pray for our pilgrims (see their names under the “In Our Prayers” section) and follow their journey on social media at #HolyLandPilgrimage.

Easter Lily Donations
Lilies that will help decorate Trinity Church and St. Paul's Chapel for Easter may be dedicated for a suggested donation of $25. Donor names will be listed in the bulletins, and the flowers will be available for pickup after Easter. Contact flowers@trinitywallstreet.org for donation instructions and to submit your name for printing. The dedication deadline is April 5.

Courageous and Just Video Series
Trinity has launched a new biweekly video series featuring Trinity's Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas. Dr. Douglas is interviewing leaders to explore critical issues facing today's church, our individual identities, and our shared life in society, beginning with author Austin Channing Brown, available now. The next video “A conversation with the Rev. Canon Broderick Greer” will be available Wednesday, March 27. Watch at trinitywallstreet.org/courageous.

Have a Great Service Project Idea?
Have an idea for an outreach or service project—small or large? Witness & Outreach invites ideas for new initiatives. Current Community Outreach programs include AIDS Walk, Kianga House, and Environmental Justice. Please see David Ward (djward71@yahoo.com) or Sharon Hardy (hardysha@gmail.com) to share your ideas and to get involved. We'll help you think it through and make it a reality. We're excited to hear from you!

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity's history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitygiftshopnyc.com.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Lenten Meditations
Lenten Meditations booklets containing reflections and art contributed by parishioners, clergy, and staff have been mailed to parishioners. Additional copies are available in Trinity’s Chapel of All Saints and St. Paul's Chapel. A reading is planned for Palm Sunday, April 14.
2019-2020 Discernment Process for the Election of Trinity Wall Street Vestry Members

The Annual Vestry Election will be held on April 23, 2019, Easter Tuesday, as specified under the 1697 Charter.

January 20, 2019 through April 23, 2019 is the period of discernment where potential Vestry members of Trinity parish are identified and proposed both for the 2019 election slate, as well as for future years. The discernment process is as follows:

- Any eligible member of the congregation* may submit recommendations to the Parish Nominating Committee. All recommendations were due in writing by February 3, 2019.
- The Parish Nominating Committee will review all recommendations for vacant Vestry positions for 2019-2020.
- During the week of April 8, 2019, a mail ballot form and accompanying biographical information, along with a pre-paid envelope will be mailed to all eligible parishioners.* The ballot and pre-paid return envelopes also will be available in St. Paul’s Chapel and the Chapel of All Saints at each service starting on April 8, 2019, until the election.
- During the week of April 8, 2019, a mail ballot form, accompanying biographical information, along with a pre-paid envelope will be mailed to all eligible parishioners.* The ballot and pre-paid return envelopes also will be available in both St. Paul’s Chapel and the Chapel of All Saints at each service until the election starting on April 8, 2019.
- Vestry Election Day is April 23, 2019. In-person voting will be from 4pm to 8pm in St. Paul’s Chapel. Mail ballots must be received before 8pm on Tuesday, April 23. The results will be announced online at trinitywallstreet.org the next morning and at the Sunday services following the election.

* All members of the parish who are 18 years or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, have taken Holy Communion within the preceding year (April 2018-April 2019) and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year (April 2018-April 2019) are eligible to make recommendations and vote in the Vestry election. The register of eligible voters is available for inspection in the Office of the Rector, 120 Broadway, 38th floor and a member of the congregation may confirm that his or her name is included on the register by emailing mhogan@trinitywallstreet.org. Registration can also be done on election day by application to the Rector or Presiding Officer upon proving the above-mentioned qualifications.

Congregational Voice
“I will praise thee for I'm fearfully and wonderfully made, marvellous is thy works and that my soul knoweth right well” (Psalm 139:14 KJV). This is my favorite verse because it reminds me that God made me with all the flaws in my life. My steps are ordered by Him. Whatever I go through regardless of how I feel or what it looks like, it's for my own good and in my making it, I'm more than a conqueror. He that is within me is greater than he that is against me, therefore I'm a winner. Sometimes we have to remind ourselves of this.

This service of Holy Eucharist is based on A Penitential Order: Rite II, beginning on page 351 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), All Desires Known (ADK) by Janet Morley, and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
