God of infinite goodness, throughout the ages you have persevered in claiming and reclaiming your people. Renew for us your call to repentance, surround us with witnesses to aid us in our journey, and grant us the time to fashion our lives anew, through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Lent is the period of 40 days, not counting Sundays, beginning on Ash Wednesday and is a season of earnest self-examination and disciplined realignment in preparation for the celebrations of Easter. "Lent” comes from the Anglo-Saxon word lencten, which means “spring,” the season when life burst forth from the chains of winter and new life springs up everywhere.

By observing the 40 days of Lent, we prayerfully enter into Jesus Christ’s faithful commitment to his ministry in the face of the temptations he experienced during his withdrawal into the desert for 40 days. By our disciplined observance of Lent we seek to imitate Christ by symbolically withdrawing from the world that tempts and seduces us by our commitment to self-examination, prayer, almsgiving and fasting. In the early centuries fasting rules were strict: one meal a day was allowed in the evening, and meat, fish, eggs, and butter were forbidden. Although these fasting rules have gradually been relaxed, the emphasis on penitential practice and almsgiving remains, together with a continuing commitment to fasting—from food, destructive behaviors and habits, and from all manner of feasting. One can think of the discipline of Lent as an invitation to give up habits and behaviors that break down and also to take on habits and behaviors that build up.

Sundays in Lent are not counted in the 40 days of Lent because every Sunday is a thanksgiving and celebration of the resurrection of our Lord, a “mini-Easter,” so to speak. On Sundays the weekday discipline and contrite spirit of Lent is tempered with joyful anticipation of the Resurrection.

Following the directions of the Episcopal Church in Lesser Feasts and Fasts 2006, our weekday celebrations of the Holy Eucharist will use the Collect, Lessons, and Psalm appointed for the Weekdays of Lent.

Collects and Readings

The Annunciation of Our Lord

Collect

Pour your grace into our hearts, O Lord, that we who have known the incarnation of your Son Jesus Christ, announced by an angel to the Virgin Mary, may by his cross and passion be brought to the glory of his resurrection; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Preface

Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Readings: Psalm 40:5-10; Isaiah 7:10-14; Hebrews 10:4-10; Luke 1:26-38

Tuesday in the Third Week of Lent

O Lord, we beseech you mercifully to hear us; and grant that we, to whom you have given a fervent desire to pray, may, by your mighty aid, be defended and comforted in all dangers and adversities; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 25:3-10; Song of the Three Young Men 1:2-4, 11-20a; Matthew 18:21-35

Wednesday in the Third Week of Lent

Give ear to our prayers, O Lord, and direct the way of your servants in safety under your protection, that, amid all the changes of our earthly pilgrimage, we may be guarded by your mighty aid; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 78:1-6; Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 5-9; Matthew 5:17-19

Thursday in the Third Week of Lent

Keep watch over your Church, O Lord, with your unfailing love; and, since it is grounded in human weakness and cannot maintain itself without your aid, protect it from all danger, and keep it in the way of salvation; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Friday in the Third Week of Lent

Grant us, O Lord our Strength, a true love of your holy Name; so that, trusting in your grace, we may fear no earthly evil, nor fix our hearts on earthly goods, but may rejoice in your full salvation; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 81:8-14; Hosea 14:1-9; Mark 12:28-34

Psalm Texts

Psalm 40:5-10

Reader  Let us read from Psalm 40 responsively by half-verse.

Great things are they that you have done, O God, how great your wonders and your plans for us; *

People  there is none who can be compared with you.

Reader  Oh, that I could make them known and tell them, *

People  but they are more than I can count.

Reader  In sacrifice and offering you take no pleasure *

People  (you have given me ears to hear you);

Reader  Burnt-offering and sin-offering you have not required, *

People  and so I said, "Behold, I come.

Reader  In the roll of the book it is written concerning me: *

People  "I love to do your will, O my God; your law is deep in my heart."

Reader  I proclaimed righteousness in the great congregation; *

People  behold, I did not restrain my lips, and that, O God, you know.

Psalm 25:3-10

Reader  Let us read from Psalm 25 responsively by half-verse.

Show me your ways, O God, *

People  and teach me your paths.

Reader  Lead me in your truth and teach me, *

People  for you are the God of my salvation; in you have I trusted all the day long.

Reader  Remember, O God, your compassion and love, *

People  for they are from everlasting.

Reader  Remember not the sins of my youth and my transgressions; *

People  remember me according to your love and for the sake of your goodness, O God.

Reader  Gracious and upright are you; *

People  therefore you teach sinners in your way.

Reader  You guide the humble in doing right *

People  and teach your way to the lowly.

Reader  All your paths are love and faithfulness *

People  to those who keep your covenant and your testimonies.

Reader  For your Name's sake, O God, *

People  forgive my sin, for it is great.
Psalm 78:1-6

Reader Let us read from Psalm 78 responsively by half-verse.

Hear my teaching, O my people; *
People incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

Reader I will open my mouth in a parable; *
People I will declare the mysteries of ancient times.

Reader That which we have heard and known,
People and what our forebears have told us, *

Reader We will recount to generations to come your praiseworthy deeds and your power, O God, *
People and the wonderful works you have done.

Reader You gave your decrees to Jacob
People and established a law for Israel, *

Reader That the generations to come might know,
People and the children yet unborn, *

Psalm 95:6-11

Reader Let us read from Psalm 95 responsively by half-verse.

Come, let us bow down and bend the knee, *
People and kneel before God, our Maker,

Reader For you are our God,
People and we are the people of your pasture and the sheep of your hand. *

People Oh, that today we would hearken to your voice!

Reader Harden not your hearts,
People as your forebears did in the wilderness, *

People at Meribah, and on that day at Massah,
when they tempted me;

Reader They put me to the test, *
People though they had seen my works.

Reader Forty years long I detested that generation and said, *
People “This people are wayward in their hearts;
they do not know my ways.”

Reader So I swore in my wrath, *
People “They shall not enter into my rest.”
Psalm 81:8-14

Reader Let us read from Psalm 81 responsively by half-verse.

Hear, O my people, and I will admonish you: *

People O Israel, if you would but listen to me!

Reader There shall be no strange god among you; *

People you shall not worship a foreign god.

Reader I am your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and said, *

People “Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.”

Reader And yet my people did not hear my voice, *

People and Israel would not obey me.

Reader So I gave them over to the stubbornness of their hearts, *

People to follow their own devices.

Reader Oh, that my people would listen to me, *

People that Israel would walk in my ways!

Reader I should soon subdue their enemies *

People and turn my hand against their foes.

The Entrance Rite

Procession

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.
The ministers enter in silence.

Acclamation

Celebrant Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.

People God’s mercy endures for ever.

Prayer of Preparation

Celebrant Almighty and everlasting God, you despise nothing you have made and forgive the sins of all who are penitent.

All Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our brokenness, may obtain of you, the God of all mercy, perfect redemption and forgiveness.
Celebrant Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
All Amen.

Invitation to Keep a Holy Lent BCP p. 265, adapted

Celebrant Dear People of God, in the name of the Church, as we give thanks to God for our redemption through our Lord Jesus Christ, I urge you to keep a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God’s holy Word.

Therefore, with penitent hearts, and as a mark of our mortal nature, let us now bow our heads before the Lord, our maker and redeemer.

Silence

Prayer based on Psalm 51:17 CW p. 79, adapted

Celebrant God is here.
People The Spirit of God is with us.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, you are the source of life and love. The sacrifice that pleases you is a broken spirit, a broken and contrite heart you do not despise. We therefore come to you in sorrow for our sins, for you are full of compassion.

Silence

Confession and Absolution EOW p. 56

All God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
All Amen.
All
O Lord and Ruler of the hosts of heaven, all things quake with fear at your presence;
they tremble because of your power.
But your merciful promise is beyond all measure;
it surpasses all that our minds can fathom.
You hold back your hand;
you do not punish as we deserve.
And now, O Lord, I bend the knee of my heart,
and make my appeal, sure of your gracious goodness.
I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned,
and I know my wickedness only too well.
Forgive me, Lord, forgive me.
Do not let me perish in my sin,
for you, O Lord, are the God of those who repent.
Unworthy as I am, you will save me,
and I will praise you without ceasing all the days of my life.
Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant  God be with you.
People    And also with you.

The Homily

Silence follows the homily.

The Prayers of the People

Please stand as you are able.

Reader O God of compassion and mercy, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;

People That we all may be one.

Reader For those preparing for baptism and confirmation, for their teachers and sponsors, and for our parish community as we prepare to receive them into the household of faith;

People That they and we will be filled with your Holy Spirit.

Reader Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;

People That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Reader We pray for Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary our bishops; and for all bishops, priests, and deacons;

People That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Reader We pray for Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, Bill our Mayor, and for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;

People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Reader Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Reader Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;

People That they may be delivered from their distress.

Reader Give to the departed eternal rest;

People Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Reader We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;

People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Reader Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

The People add their own thanksgivings and petitions.
Celebrant  Lord Jesus Christ, you came to call not the righteous but sinners to repentance: help us in this season of Lent to hear and respond to your call: that by your grace we may turn from whatever in our lives does not accord with your will, and walk in the ways of holiness and love, to the glory of God, our Rock and our Salvation.

All  Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant  The Lord be with you.

People  And also with you.

Celebrant  Lift up your hearts.

People  We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People  It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant  It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

Monday: The Celebrant says the Proper Preface appointed for the Annunciation of Our Lord (p. 4).

Other weekdays: The Celebrant continues with the Preface of Lent, below.

You bid your faithful people cleanse their hearts, and prepare with joy for the Paschal feast; that, fervent in prayer and in works of mercy, and renewed by your Word and Sacraments, they may come to the fullness of grace which you have prepared for those who love you.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Holy and gracious God, you created the universe and all that is in it, and humankind in your image. In compassion and mercy, your face is turned towards your world. In love you gave Jesus your Onlybegotten and Beloved One to rescue us from sin and death. Maker and giver of all, we give you thanks for every gift that comes from your love. To those who dwell in darkness Jesus came as your light. With words of hope he touched untouchables with love, and with signs of faith he washed the guilty clean. The crowds came out to see him, yet at the end they turned against him.

On the night Jesus was betrayed he was at table with his friends to celebrate the freedom of your people. He blessed you for the food, took the bread, gave thanks, broke it and said: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you and for all. Do this to remember me.

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave thanks and gave it to them and said: Take and drink; this is my blood, shed for you and for all. Do this to remember me.

With this bread and this cup, we celebrate the cross on which he died to set us free. Defying death he rose again and is alive with you to plead for us and all the world.

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Send your Holy Spirit on us, that we will faithfully obey our Lord’s command, and upon these gifts, to make them holy.

Gather into one in your kingdom all who share this bread and cup, so that we, in the company of [___________ and] all the saints, may praise you for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory are yours, now and for ever.

AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All  Our Father in heaven,
     hallowed be your Name,
     your kingdom come,
     your will be done,
     on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
   as we forgive those
   who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
   and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
   and the glory are yours,
   now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant The bread which we break is a sharing in the Body of Christ.

People We being many are one bread, one body,
   for we all share in the one bread.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

CW p. 392, adapted/St. Richard of Chichester, attr.

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of grace and glory,
you have given Jesus Christ your Onlybegotten and Anointed One to be for us a sacrifice for sin and an example of godly life.

Empower us
by the grace of this Holy Communion to know Christ more clearly,
love Christ more dearly,
and follow Christ more nearly,
day by day.

Amen.

The Blessing

BOS p. 26, adapted

Celebrant May God look on you with compassion so that, rightly observing this holy season, you may learn to know God more fully, and to serve Christ with a more perfect will;

And the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity be with you and remain with you for ever.

All Amen.

Dismissal

BCP p. 366

Celebrant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The ministers and people exit in silence.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area.

Flowers

To highlight our Lenten pilgrimage, arrangements of curly willow have been placed in the sanctuary.
Their subtle rooting and gentle sprouting remind us of our commitment to spiritual growth in anticipation of the bursting forth of new life at Easter.

Pray for our Pilgrims

March 28-April 8, Trinity's pilgrims will travel to the Holy Land and will follow the footsteps of Jesus, visiting the places associated with his birth, ministry, and last days. Pilgrimage transforms us as our physical journey parallels and reveals deeper spiritual discoveries within us. Pilgrimage changes the way we listen to and read the world, and the way it changes us also changes the communities to which we return.

Core Values
In March we focus on the Core Value of Inclusiveness

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

2019-2020 Discernment Process for the Election of Trinity Wall Street Vestry Members

The Annual Vestry Election will be held on April 23, 2019, Easter Tuesday, as specified under the 1697 Charter. January 20, 2019 through April 23, 2019 is the period of discernment where potential Vestry members of Trinity parish are identified and proposed both for the 2019 election slate, as well as for future years. The discernment process is as follows:

- Any eligible member of the congregation* may submit recommendations to the Parish Nominating Committee. All recommendations were due in writing by February 3, 2019.
- The Parish Nominating Committee will review all recommendations for vacant Vestry positions for 2019-2020.
- During the week of April 8, 2019, a mail ballot form and accompanying biographical information, along with a pre-paid envelope will be mailed to all eligible parishioners.* The ballot and pre-paid return envelopes also will be available in St. Paul's Chapel and the Chapel of All Saints at each service starting on April 8, 2019, until the election.
- During the week of April 8, 2019, a mail ballot form, accompanying biographical information, along with a pre-paid envelope will be mailed to all eligible parishioners.* The ballot and pre-paid return envelopes also will be available in both St. Paul's Chapel and the Chapel of All Saints at each service until the election starting on April 8, 2019.
- Vestry Election Day is April 23, 2019. In-person voting will be from 4pm to 8pm in St. Paul's Chapel. Mail ballots must be received before 8pm on Tuesday, April 23. The results will be announced online at trinitywallstreet.org the next morning and at the Sunday services following the election.

* All members of the parish who are 18 years or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, have taken Holy Communion within the preceding year (April 2018-April 2019) and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year (April 2018-April 2019) are eligible to make recommendations and vote in the Vestry election. The register of eligible voters is available for inspection in the Office of the Rector, 120 Broadway, 38th floor and a member of the congregation may confirm that his or her name is included on the register by emailing mhogan@trinitywallstreet.org. Registration can also be done on election day by application to the Rector or Presiding Officer upon proving the above-mentioned qualifications.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update

Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are installing a construction fence for the south awning. The reconditioning of the pews is coming along nicely—seats are being extended and the backs are being angled for comfort. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Early Deadlines

Because of high printing volume, the deadlines for printed announcements for the Palm Sunday (April 14) and Easter (April 21) bulletins have been moved to 5pm, Monday, March 25. Information: lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Pray for Our Pilgrims

March 28–April 8, Trinity’s pilgrims will travel to the Holy Land to follow the footsteps of Jesus, visiting the places associated with his birth, ministry, and last days. Please pray for our pilgrims (see their names under the “In Our Prayers” section) and follow their journey on social media at #HolyLandPilgrimage.
Easter Lily Donations
Lilies that will help decorate Trinity Church and St. Paul's Chapel for Easter may be dedicated for a suggested donation of $25. Donor names will be listed in the bulletins, and the flowers will be available for pickup after Easter. Contact flowers@trinitywallstreet.org for donation instructions and to submit your name for printing. The dedication deadline is April 5.

Courageous and Just Video Series
Trinity has launched a new biweekly video series featuring Trinity's Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas. Dr. Douglas is interviewing leaders to explore critical issues facing today's church, our individual identities, and our shared life in society, beginning with author Austin Channing Brown, available now. The next video “A conversation with the Rev. Canon Broderick Greer” will be available Wednesday, March 27. Watch at trinitywallstreet.org/courageous.

Have a Great Service Project Idea?
Have an idea for an outreach or service project—small or large? Witness & Outreach invites ideas for new initiatives. Current Community Outreach programs include AIDS Walk, Kianga House, and Environmental Justice. Please see David Ward (djward71@yahoo.com) or Sharon Hardy (hardysha@gmail.com) to share your ideas and to get involved. We'll help you think it through and make it a reality. We're excited to hear from you!

Congregational Voice
“I will praise thee for I’m fearfully and wonderfully made, marvellous is thy works and that my soul knoweth right well” (Psalm 139:14 KJV). This is my favorite verse because it reminds me that God made me with all the flaws in my life. My steps are ordered by Him. Whatever I go through regardless of how I feel or what it looks like, it’s for my own good and in my making it, I’m more than a conqueror. He that is within me, is greater than he that is against me, therefore I’m a winner. Sometimes we have to remind ourselves of this.

—Pastor Lorraine Alston

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a "mighty angel" with a "face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire," straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel's feet appear the words "JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS" which translate as "I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay," referring to the urgency of establishing the Church.

This service of Holy Eucharist contains elements of A Penitential Order, Rite II, beginning on page 351 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts come from the St. Helena Psalter. The bulletin cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP), proposed by the Consultation on Common Texts. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.

In an effort to reach a broad audience, Trinity Wall Street records its services and events for broadcast on the internet. Your attendance at a service or event constitutes your consent to be included in any filming, photographing, audio recording, or broadcast and for any other use in whole or in part, including publicity and promotion. If you prefer to avoid being filmed, please sit in the back pews on the side aisles.

As part of Trinity Wall Street’s commitment to responsible stewardship of the earth’s resources, this publication is printed on paper that is manufactured with 100% post-consumer fibers.
