God of patient love,
you await the return of the wayward and wandering and eagerly embrace them in pardon.
Through baptism you have clothed us with the glory of Christ and restored our inheritance:
give us generous hearts
to welcome all who seek a place at the table of your unconditional love.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Lent is the period of 40 days, not counting Sundays, beginning on Ash Wednesday and is a season of earnest self-examination and disciplined realignment in preparation for the celebrations of Easter. “Lent” comes from the Anglo-Saxon word lencten, which means “spring,” the season when life burst forth from the chains of winter and new life springs up everywhere.

By observing the 40 days of Lent, we prayerfully enter into Jesus Christ’s faithful commitment to his ministry in the face of the temptations he experienced during his withdrawal into the desert for 40 days. By our disciplined observance of Lent we seek to imitate Christ by symbolically withdrawing from the world that tempts and seduces us by our commitment to self-examination, prayer, almsgiving and fasting. In the early centuries fasting rules were strict: one meal a day was allowed in the evening, and meat, fish, eggs, and butter were forbidden. Although these fasting rules have gradually been relaxed, the emphasis on penitential practice and almsgiving remains, together with a continuing commitment to fasting—from food, destructive behaviors and habits, and from all manner of feasting. One can think of the discipline of Lent as an invitation to give up habits and behaviors that break down and also to take on habits and behaviors that build up.

Sundays in Lent are not counted in the 40 days of Lent because every Sunday is a thanksgiving and celebration of the resurrection of our Lord, a “mini-Easter,” so to speak. On Sundays the weekday discipline and contrite spirit of Lent is tempered with joyful anticipation of the Resurrection.

Following the directions of the Episcopal Church in Lesser Feasts and Fasts 2006, our weekday celebrations of the Holy Eucharist will use the Collect, Lessons, and Psalm appointed for the Weekdays of Lent.

Collects and Readings

Monday in the Fourth Week of Lent

O Lord our God, in your holy Sacraments you have given us a foretaste of the good things of your kingdom: Direct us, we pray, in the way that leads to eternal life, that we may come to appear before you in that place of light where you dwell for ever with your saints; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 30:1-6, 11-13; Isaiah 65:17-25; John 4:43-54

Tuesday in the Fourth Week of Lent

O God, with you is the well of life, and in your light we see light: Quench our thirst with living water, and flood our darkened minds with heavenly light; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 46:1-8; Ezekiel 47:1-9, 12; John 5:1-18

Wednesday in the Fourth Week of Lent

O Lord our God, you sustained your ancient people in the wilderness with bread from heaven: Feed now your pilgrim flock with the food that endures to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Thursday in the Fourth Week of Lent

Almighty and most merciful God, drive from us all weakness of body, mind, and spirit; that, being restored to wholeness, we may with free hearts become what you intend us to be and accomplish what you want us to do; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 106:6-7, 19-23; Exodus 32:7-14; John 5:30-47

Friday in the Fourth Week of Lent

O God, you have given us the Good News of your abounding love in your Son Jesus Christ: So fill our hearts with thankfulness that we may rejoice to proclaim the good tidings we have received; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Psalm Texts

Psalm 30:1-6, 11-13

Reader Let us read from Psalm 30 responsively by half-verse.

I will exalt you, O God,
because you have lifted me up*

People and have not let my enemies triumph over me.

Reader O my God, I cried out to you, *

People and you restored me to health.

Reader You brought me up, O God, from the dead; *

People you restored my life as I was going down to the grave.

Reader Sing to God, you servants of God, *

People and give thanks for the remembrance of God's holiness.

Reader For divine wrath endures but the twinkling of an eye, *

People divine favor for a lifetime.

Reader Weeping may spend the night, *

People but joy comes in the morning.

Reader Hear, O God, and have mercy upon me; *

People O God, be my helper."

Reader You have turned my wailing into dancing; *

People you have put off my sack-cloth and clothed me with joy.

Reader Therefore my heart sings to you without ceasing; *

People O God, my God, I will give you thanks for ever.

Psalm 46:1-8

Tuesday, April 2

Reader Let us read from Psalm 46 responsively by half-verse.

God is our refuge and strength, *

People a very present help in trouble.

Reader Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be moved, *

People and though the mountains be toppled into the depths of the sea;

Reader Though its waters rage and foam, *

People and though the mountains tremble at its tumult.

Reader The God of hosts is with us; *

People the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

Reader There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, *

People the holy habitation of the Most High.

Reader God is in the midst of the city;
it shall not be overthrown; *

People God shall help it at the break of day.

Reader The nations make much ado, and the realms are shaken; *

People God has spoken, and the earth shall melt away.

Reader The God of hosts is with us; *

People the God of Jacob is our stronghold.
Psalm 145:8-19

Wednesday, April 3

Reader Let us read from Psalm 145 responsively by half-verse.

You are gracious and full of compassion, *

People slow to anger and of great kindness.

Reader You are loving to everyone, *

People and your compassion is over all your works.

Reader All your works praise you, O God, *

People and your faithful servants bless you.

Reader They make known the glory of your realm *

People and speak of your power,

Reader That the peoples may know of your power *

People and the glorious splendor of your dominion.

Reader Yours, O God, is an everlasting reign; *

People your dominion endures throughout all ages.

Reader You are faithful in all your words *

People and merciful in all your deeds.

Reader You uphold all those who fall; *

People you lift up those who are bowed down.

Reader The eyes of all wait upon you, O God, *

People and you give them their food in due season.

Reader You open wide your hand *

People and satisfy the needs of every living creature.

Reader You are righteous in all your ways *

People and loving in all your works.

Reader You are near to those who call upon you, *

People to all who call upon you faithfully.

Psalm 106:6-7, 19-23

Thursday, April 4

Reader Let us read from Psalm 106 responsively by half-verse.

We have sinned as our forebears did; *

People we have done wrong and dealt wickedly.

Reader In Egypt they did not consider your marvelous works,

People nor remember the abundance of your love; *

People they defied you, O Most High, at the Red Sea.

Reader Israel made a bull-calf at Horeb *

People and worshiped a molten image;

Reader And so they exchanged their Glory *

People for the image of an ox that feeds on grass.

Reader They forgot you, their Savior, *

People who had done great things in Egypt,
Reader Wonderful deeds in the land of Ham, *
People and fearful things at the Red Sea.
Reader So you would have destroyed them,
People had not Moses your chosen stood before you in the breach, *
Reader to turn away your wrath from consuming them.

Psalm 34:15-22

Reader Let us read from Psalm 34 responsively by half-verse.
People The eyes of God are upon the righteous, *
Reader and the ears of God are open to their cry.
People The face of God is against those who do evil, *
Reader to root out the remembrance of them from the earth.
People The righteous cry, and God hears them *
Reader and delivers them from all their troubles.
People God is near to the brokenhearted *
Reader and will save those whose spirits are crushed.
People Many are the troubles of the righteous, *
Reader but God will deliver them out of them all.
People God will keep safe all their bones; *
Reader not one of them shall be broken.
People Evil shall slay the wicked, *
People and those who hate the righteous will be punished.
Reader O God, you will ransom the life of your servants, *
People and none will be punished who trust in you.

The Entrance Rite

Procession
At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.
The ministers enter in silence.

Acclamation

Celebrant Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.
People God’s mercy endures for ever.
Prayer of Preparation

Celebrant Almighty and everlasting God, you despise nothing you have made and forgive the sins of all who are penitent.

All Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our brokenness, may obtain of you, the God of all mercy, perfect redemption and forgiveness.

Celebrant Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Invitation to Keep a Holy Lent

Celebrant Dear People of God, in the name of the Church, as we give thanks to God for our redemption through our Lord Jesus Christ, I urge you to keep a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word.

Therefore, with penitent hearts, and as a mark of our mortal nature, let us now bow our heads before the Lord, our maker and redeemer.

Silence

Prayer

Celebrant God is here.

People The Spirit of God is with us.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, you are the source of life and love. The sacrifice that pleases you is a broken spirit, a broken and contrite heart you do not despise. We therefore come to you in sorrow for our sins, for you are full of compassion.

Silence
Confession and Absolution

All God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

Canticle

from Canticle 14: A Song of Penitence

All O Lord and Ruler of the hosts of heaven, all things quake with fear at your presence;
they tremble because of your power.
But your merciful promise is beyond all measure;
it surpasses all that our minds can fathom.
You hold back your hand;
you do not punish as we deserve.
And now, O Lord, I bend the knee of my heart,
and make my appeal, sure of your gracious goodness.
I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned,
and I know my wickedness only too well.
Forgive me, Lord, forgive me.
Do not let me perish in my sin,
for you, O Lord, are the God of those who repent.
Unworthy as I am, you will save me,
and I will praise you without ceasing all the days of my life.
Amen.
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant prays the Collect, a prayer appointed for the day. See p. 4 for Collect texts.

The First Reading

The Reader reads the lesson appointed for the day.
Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
People Thanks be to God.
Please stand as you are able.

Words: Robert Robinson (1735-1790), alt.
Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

The Holy Gospel

Celebrant  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to...

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Celebrant reads the Gospel appointed for the day.

Celebrant  The Gospel of the Lord.

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

Silence follows the homily.
Please stand as you are able.

Reader O God of compassion and mercy, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
People That we all may be one.

Reader For those preparing for baptism and confirmation, for their teachers and sponsors, and for our parish community as we prepare to receive them into the household of faith;
People That they and we will be filled with your Holy Spirit.

Reader Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
People That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Reader We pray for Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary our bishops; and for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
People That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Reader We pray for Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, Bill our Mayor, and for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Reader Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Reader Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
People That they may be delivered from their distress.

Reader Give to the departed eternal rest;
People Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Reader We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Reader Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

The People add their own thanksgivings and petitions.

Celebrant Lord Jesus Christ, you came to call not the righteous but sinners to repentance: help us in this season of Lent to hear and respond to your call: that by your grace we may turn from whatever in our lives does not accord with your will, and walk in the ways of holiness and love, to the glory of God, our Rock and our Salvation.

All Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering.
The organist plays an improvisation.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

You bid your faithful people cleanse their hearts, and prepare with joy for the Paschal feast; that, fervent in prayer and in works of mercy, and renewed by your Word and Sacraments, they may come to the fullness of grace which you have prepared for those who love you.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Holy and gracious God, you created the universe and all that is in it, and humankind in your image. In compassion and mercy, your face is turned towards your world. In love you gave Jesus your Onlybegotten and Beloved One to rescue us from sin and death.

Maker and giver of all, we give you thanks for every gift that comes from your love. To those who dwell in darkness Jesus came as your light. With words of hope he touched untouchables with love, and with signs of faith he washed the guilty clean. The crowds came out to see him, yet at the end they turned against him.

On the night Jesus was betrayed he was at table with his friends to celebrate the freedom of your people. He blessed you for the food, took the bread, gave thanks, broke it and said: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you and for all. Do this to remember me.

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave thanks and gave it to them and said: Take and drink; this is my blood, shed for you and for all. Do this to remember me.

With this bread and this cup, we celebrate the cross on which he died to set us free. Defying death he rose again and is alive with you to plead for us and all the world.

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Send your Holy Spirit on us, that we will faithfully obey our Lord’s command, and upon these gifts, to make them holy.

Gather into one in your kingdom all who share this bread and cup, so that we, in the company of [______________ and] all the saints, may praise you for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory are yours, now and for ever.

AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer
BCP p. 364

Celebrant
As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All
Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those
who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction
BOS p. 17

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant
The bread which we break is a sharing in the Body of Christ.

People
We being many are one bread, one body,
for we all share in the one bread.

Celebrant
The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children.
Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

CW p. 392, adapted/St. Richard of Chichester, attr.

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of grace and glory,
you have given Jesus Christ your Onlybegotten and Anointed One to be for us a sacrifice for sin and an example of godly life.
Empower us
by the grace of this Holy Communion to know Christ more clearly,
love Christ more dearly,
and follow Christ more nearly,
day by day.
Amen.

The Blessing

BOS p. 26, adapted

Celebrant May God look on you with compassion so that, rightly observing this holy season, you may learn to know God more fully, and to serve Christ with a more perfect will;
And the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity be with you and remain with you for ever.

All Amen.

Dismissal

BCP p. 366

Celebrant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The ministers and people exit in silence.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area.

Flowers

To highlight our Lenten pilgrimage, arrangements of curly willow have been placed in the sanctuary.
Their subtle rooting and gentle sprouting remind us of our commitment to spiritual growth in anticipation of the bursting forth of new life at Easter.

Pray for our Pilgrims

March 28-April 8, Trinity’s pilgrims will travel to the Holy Land will follow the footsteps of Jesus, visiting the places associated with his birth, ministry, and last days. Pilgrimage transforms us as our physical journey parallels and reveals deeper spiritual discoveries within us. Pilgrimage changes the way we listen to and read the world, and the way it changes us also changes the communities to which we return.

Core Values

In March we focus on the Core Value of Inclusiveness

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity's core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You'll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

COMING SOON
Reich Richter Pärt
April 6–June 2, The Shed, 545 W. 30th St.
Reich Richter Pärt plumbs the depths of a shared language between painting and music, exploring how each medium might affect our sensory experience of the other. The Choir of Trinity Wall Street performs Drei Hirtenkinder aus Fátima, Arvo Pärt’s chorale piece composed in response to paintings by Richter. Tickets at theshed.org.

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are installing a construction fence for the south awning. The reconditioning of the pews is coming along nicely—seats are being extended and the backs are being angled for comfort. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Sunday Parking Validation
Parishioners who park for 3 hours or less at the Barclay Street garage on Sundays while attending services at St. Paul's Chapel may have their parking vouchers validated. See a security guard for information.
Congregational Council Update
The new officers for the Congregational Council for 2019-2020 are: Felicia Eve, president; David Ward, vice-president; Alistair Cree, secretary. Standing Committee chairs are: Karla Chee-a-tow, Arts; Gerald Baugh and Martha Graham, Community and Hospitality; William Clark, Education; Sharon Hardy, Membership; Cindy Jay, Witness & Outreach.

Pray for Our Pilgrims
Through April 8, Trinity's pilgrims are traveling to the Holy Land to follow the footsteps of Jesus, visiting the places associated with his birth, ministry, and last days. Please pray for our pilgrims (see their names under the “In Our Prayers” section) and follow their journey on social media at #HolyLandPilgrimage.

Easter Lily Donations
Lilies that will help decorate Trinity Church and St. Paul's Chapel for Easter may be dedicated for a suggested donation of $25. Donor names will be listed in the bulletins, and the flowers will be available for pickup after Easter. Contact flowers@trinitywallstreet.org for donation instructions and to submit your name for printing. The dedication deadline is April 5.

Courageous and Just Video Series
Trinity has launched a new biweekly video series featuring Trinity's Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas. Dr. Douglas is interviewing leaders to explore critical issues facing today's church, our individual identities, and our shared life in society, beginning with author Austin Channing Brown, available now. The video, “A conversation with the Rev. Canon Broderick Greer” is now available for viewing. Watch at trinitywallstreet.org/courageous.

Have a Great Service Project Idea?
Have an idea for an outreach or service project—small or large? Witness & Outreach invites ideas for new initiatives. Current Community Outreach programs include AIDS Walk, Kianga House, and Environmental Justice. Please see David Ward (djward71@yahoo.com) or Sharon Hardy (hardysha@gmail.com) to share your ideas and to get involved. We'll help you think it through and make it a reality. We're excited to hear from you!

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Lenten Meditations
Lenten Meditations booklets containing reflections and art contributed by parishioners, clergy, and staff have been mailed to parishioners. Additional copies are available in Trinity's Chapel of All Saints and St. Paul's Chapel. A reading is planned for Palm Sunday, April 14.

This service of Holy Eucharist contains elements of A Penitential Order, Rite II, beginning on page 351 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts come from the St. Helena Psalter. The bulletin cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP), proposed by the Consultation on Common Texts. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.

In an effort to reach a broad audience, Trinity Wall Street records its services and events for broadcast on the internet. Your attendance at a service or event constitutes your consent to be included in any filming, photographing, audio recording, or broadcast and for any other use in whole or in part, including publicity and promotion. If you prefer to avoid being filmed, please sit in the back pews on the side aisles.

As part of Trinity Wall Street’s commitment to responsible stewardship of the earth’s resources, this publication is printed on paper that is manufactured with 100% post-consumer fibers.

Assistive Listening devices are available for this service and are located at the welcome table.
