MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area for prayers at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The English word “Lent” has Teutonic roots meaning the “spring season.” Since Anglo-Saxon times it has been used to refer to the forty days of fasting and self-denial which precede the celebration of Easter, and which fall in the season of spring. The early Church knew many such preparatory fasts: before Christmas, before Easter, before the feast of St. John the Baptist. The forty-day fast before Easter—Quadragesima as it was formerly known, from the Latin for “forty days”—is mentioned in the Canons of the Council of Nicea, so the Lenten observance was common practice by the fourth century.

Introduced by Ash Wednesday 46 days before Easter, Lent is a season of self-examination and repentance, prayer, fasting, and self-denial. Following the pattern of our Lord’s “forty days and forty nights” sojourn in the wilderness and also the 40 years of the Exodus, Lent lasts for precisely 40 days. Because Sundays are the weekly festivals of our Lord’s resurrection, the six Sundays that fall after Ash Wednesday including Palm Sunday are not included in the 40 days of Lent and are therefore called “Sundays in Lent” not “Sundays of Lent.”

Lent is preparation for the celebration of Easter when the Church reaffirms the baptismal promises by which it is incorporated into the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. This reaffirmation is a profoundly serious undertaking. It is commitment to life in Christ, dedication to faithful obedience to God’s will, and a promise to love and serve the world in the name of Jesus Christ. So earnest an undertaking needs the spiritual preparation of prayer and fasting, repentance and self-denial, self-examination and the disciplined reading of Scripture. This is the vocation of a holy Lent which the Church lays upon all the faithful.

The Sundays in Lent do not share this more solemn and penitential focus of the weekdays of Lent. Rather the lessons and especially the Gospels appointed for the five Sundays in Lent are a bold proclamation of the gift of redemption, new life, and salvation which the passion and suffering of our Lord wins for us.

However, for most of us the demands of our workaday world make it very difficult for us to maintain regular daily worship as a priority. Since Lent is a weekday experience, the meaning and grace of Lent would be lost to us if there were not some Lenten notes to our Sunday celebrations. For this reason, our Sunday morning worship begins with a Penitential Order and the music of the Eucharist will be more solemn and reflective than usual.

May God grant us a holy Lent and bring us from the ashes of the beginning of Lent to the glory of a joyful Eastertide.

Invitation to Keep a Holy Lent

BCP p. 265, adapted/BCP p. 351

Celebrant Dear People of God, in the name of the Church, as we give thanks to God for our redemption through our Lord Jesus Christ, I urge you to keep a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God’s holy Word.

Jesus said, “The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these.” (Mark 12:29-31)

Therefore, with penitent hearts, and as a mark of our mortal nature, let us now bow our heads before the Lord, our maker and redeemer.

Silence

Please continue standing as you are able.
Prayer

Celebrant God is here.
People The Spirit of God is with us.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, you are the source of life and love. The sacrifice that pleases you is a broken spirit, a broken and contrite heart you do not despise. We therefore come to you in sorrow for our sins, for you are full of compassion.

Litany of Penitence

Deacon For turning away from you, and ignoring your will for our lives;
People Forgive us;
save us and help us, O God.
Deacon For behaving thoughtlessly and selfishly, without thinking of you;
People Forgive us;
save us and help us, O God.
Deacon For failing you by what we do, and think, and say;
People Forgive us;
save us and help us, O God.
Deacon For living as if we are ashamed to belong to Jesus Christ;
People Forgive us;
save us and help us, O God.
Deacon We have our fill of sorrow.
In the midst of life, we are in death;
where can we turn for help?
People Only to you, O Lord,
who are justly angered by our sins.

Confession

Deacon Eternal and merciful judge,
both in life and when we come to die,
let us not fall away from you.
People We wholeheartedly repent of the evil we have done,
and of the evil done on our behalf;
We look for your grace to offer forgiveness,
and to know that we are forgiven.

Declaration of Pardon

Celebrant May God who dearly loves the world, and sent Jesus Christ, the Onlybegotten and Beloved One to be our Savior, forgive your sins and make you holy to serve God in the world, through Jesus Christ our Liberator and Friend.
All Amen.
Holy God, Holy and Mighty

Sung three times.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

Thus says the Lord, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick: Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. The wild animals will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People

Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 126

Reader

Let us read Psalm 126 in unison.

All

When God restored the fortunes of Zion,*
then were we like those who dream.

Then was our mouth filled with laughter,*
and our tongue with shouts of joy.

Then they said among the nations,*
“God has done great things for them.”

God has done great things for us,*
and we are glad indeed.

Restore our fortunes, O God,*
like the watercourses of the Negev.

Those who sowed with tears *
will reap with songs of joy.

Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed,*
will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.
If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.

Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith.

I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus’ feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, “Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?” (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, “Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me.”

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan
Christ, who on the cross for the sake, like a lamb to slaughter led,
We believe in God the Spirit; in one Church, below, above:
earth and heaven sprang to being, all created things began.
suffered under Pontius Pilate, he descended to the dead.
saints of God in one communion, one in holiness and love.

We believe in Christ the Savior, Son of God in human frame,
We believe in Jesus risen, heaven's king to rule and reign,
So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Savior, Lord and friend, virgin-born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came.
we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

The Prayers of the People

Reader As we continue our Lenten pilgrimage, preparing for the joyful celebration of Easter let us return to our God who is slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

God of renewal, remember your church throughout the world: especially Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our Bishops; and all those who shepherd your people: those ordained to serve, those called to leadership, and all your faithful people.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.

Reader God of forgiveness, remember people and nations everywhere: communities and nations threatened by violence and terror, cities devastated by war, peoples plagued with hunger and afflicted by diseases; and our own blessed land, struggling to break free from all that threatens and diminishes our common humanity. Guide our leaders—Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor—to make wise decisions for the common good.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.
Reader God of rest, remember your people: those overburdened by anxiety and stress, those imprisoned by fear, and those who have lost their way to you.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.

Reader God of salvation, remember our parish: that we may have the grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship; and the wisdom to discern where you are leading us in our commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership, and Capacity.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.

Reader God of wisdom and grace, remember us on our Lenten pilgrimage: those who long to know you, those who hunger for your bread of life, those who thirst for your cup of salvation; and especially those preparing for Baptism and our Confirmands as they prepare to make an adult profession of faith.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.

Reader God of resurrection, remember those who have died, especially those whom we still love but see no longer: receive them into the joy of eternal life with you.

For this, remember your mercy, Lord:

People Take us as we are and make us your faithful people.

Reader We commit and commend to you our Trinity Pilgrims in the Holy Land. Guide and direct them, O God, gently, irresistibly, increasingly, so that they will walk their pilgrim way steadily, and in a sure light; and never dally or slip aside, or stand still, or sink down. Move them, O God, by the pulse of your presence, by the spur of spiritual longing for closer intimacy with Jesus Christ, your Onlybegotten and Beloved One; so that in Holy Places they will be filled with Holy Grace to move onward and upward into your presence.

People Guide and direct them by your grace, O God.

Celebrant O God, haven for the weary and home for the lost, in your great mercy sustain us with your grace, that walking with Jesus Christ our Lord, we will find our way home to live in the abundant grace you offer.

All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

You bid your faithful people cleanse their hearts, and prepare with joy for the Paschal feast; that, fervent in prayer and in works of mercy, and renewed by your Word and Sacraments, they may come to the fullness of grace which you have prepared for those who love you.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Hymnal S 124, adapted

Music: from New Plainsong; David Hurd (b. 1950)

Celebrant Holy and gracious God, you created the universe and all that is in it, and humankind in your image. In compassion and mercy, your face is turned towards your world. In love you gave Jesus your Onlybegotten and Beloved One to rescue us from sin and death.

Maker and giver of all, we give you thanks for every gift that comes from your love.

To those who dwell in darkness Jesus came as your light. With words of hope he touched untouchables with love, and with signs of faith he washed the guilty clean. The crowds came out to see him, yet at the end they turned against him.

On the night Jesus was betrayed he was at table with his friends to celebrate the freedom of your people. He blessed you for the food, took the bread, gave thanks, broke it and said: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you and for all. Do this to remember me.

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave thanks and gave it to them and said: Take and drink; this is my blood, shed for you and for all. Do this to remember me.

With this bread and this cup, we celebrate the cross on which he died to set us free. Defying death he rose again and is alive with you to plead for us and all the world.
Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All
Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant Send your Holy Spirit on us, that we will faithfully obey our Lord’s command, and upon these gifts, to make them holy.

Gather into one in your kingdom all who share this bread and cup, so that we, in the company of [______________ and] all the saints, may praise you for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory are yours, now and for ever.

All
AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All
Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,your kingdom come,your will be done,on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sinsas we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,and the glory are yours,now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant The bread which we break is a sharing in the Body of Christ.

People We being many are one bread, one body,for we all share in the one bread.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.
If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please come to the communion rail at the end of the service and a prayer minister will meet you.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.
All Loving God,
we give you thanks
for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ’s Body and Blood.
Now send us forth
a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May God look on you with compassion so that, rightly observing this holy season, you may learn to know God more fully, and to serve Christ with a more perfect will;
And the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity be with you and remain with you for ever.
All Amen.
Closing Hymn

1. When all thy mercies, O my God, my rising soul surveys,
2. O how shall words with equal warmth the gratitude declare,
3. Ten thousand thousand precious gifts my daily thanks employ;

transported with the view, I'm lost in wonder, love, and praise.
that glows within my fervent heart? But thou canst read it there.
nor is the least a cheerful heart that tastes those gifts with joy.

Words: Joseph Addison (1672-1719), vv. 1-3; Music: Richmond, melody Thomas Haweis (1734-1820); adapt. Samuel Webbe, Jr. (1770-1843)

Dismissal

Deacon Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

Pray for our Pilgrims

March 28-April 8, Trinity’s pilgrims will travel to the Holy Land will follow the footsteps of Jesus, visiting the places associated with his birth, ministry, and last days. Pilgrimage transforms us as our physical journey parallels and reveals deeper spiritual discoveries within us. Pilgrimage changes the way we listen to and read the world, and the way it changes us also changes the communities to which we return.

Events Recap

Mental Health First Aid Trainings

The trainings, facilitated by Marti Zlatechin, M.A., Ph.D., Elliott Madison, Program Director at Fountain House and peer counselor Mark Joseph, focused on mental wellness and how to respond when a loved one or community member is experiencing mental illness. Discussion groups listened and learned about mental disorders and their impact, how to access professional resources, and how to respond to a range of mental health episodes and behaviors.

Timebank Enrollment Session

The ArchCare TimeBank is a free community resource Trinity partners with; members share their time by helping each other. It’s a fun and flexible way to get involved in the community, meet people and learn new skills. Chinese and Spanish speakers are welcomed! Omaya and Winnie joined us on March 6th at Parish center to accept membership applications. For more information contact Omaya Torres at 646.356.8407 or ask any of the Trinity Brown Bag staff for help with enrollment.

Lunar New Year

The Lunar New Year celebrations started with a community meal on February 9th where volunteers and other community members shared a Year of The Pig themed meal together. Helen Lau and Jackie Wong brought small red envelopes for everyone later in the same week. In Lunar New Year, it’s a tradition in Chinese and other Southeast Asian societies to gift a red packet or envelope, called hongbao, symbolizing good luck and protection from evil spirits.

Community Voices

"The greater the struggle the greater the triumph," makes me think of that quote looking at this photo on my birthday. BBL has been through so much with me, it's great to finally be on the other side.

Fresh Information

What are Health Bucks?
Health Bucks are $2 coupons that can be used to purchase fresh fruits and vegetables at participating farmers’ markets. We plan on distributing Health Bucks in programming at Brown Bag as part of our commitment to residents of low-income neighborhoods to increase their consumption of fresh fruits and vegetables.

Community Supported Agriculture
A CSA is a local type of “cooperative,” where buyers (like Trinity) financially commit to a full season of produce months in advance of the start of the growing season. CSAs provide the farmer not only with fair living wages, but also, with several practical advantages including the resources to buy seeds and other supplies before the growing season instead of fretting over sales and delivery schedules. Our community sources its fresh items for Brown Bag only from organic Community Supported Agriculture Farms in NY, NJ and CT. Look for our programs harvest 3-4 days a week.

Upcoming Events

Pipes at One
Friday, 1pm
Saint Paul’s Chapel
Trinity offers Pipes at One concerts year-round in St. Paul’s Chapel, featuring the celebrated three-manual Nook organ that was inaugurated in the spring of 2018. These innovative programs showcase leading organists and rising stars from around the country.

Bach + One
Monday, 1pm | Saint Paul’s Chapel
Each week, performances feature one Bach cantata paired with a complementary work from composers early to modern. Trinity’s presentation of Bach’s entire monumental output of vocal sacred music has been praised by The New York Times for its ‘dramatic vigor.’

8pm, Chorister prelude begins at 7:15pm
Find peace and stillness as you end one week and begin the next. Come as you are, find a seat, and hold a candle. For thirty minutes let mantra-like, chant-based improvised music by The Choir of Trinity Wall Street wash over you. Today, there is a special prelude by the Trinity Youth Chorus featuring French works for organ and choir. Avi Stein, organ; Melissa Attebury, conductor. Today for Compline: Maurice Duruflé, Ubi caritas.

RSVPs are appreciated to Janet MacMillan at macmilj@yahoo.com or 201.915.9814.

Core Values
In April we focus on the Core Value of Compassion

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.
Brown Bag Lunch

Information: trinitywallstreet.org/brownbag.

NEXT SUNDAY
See box on next page or visit trinitywallstreet.org/holyweek.

Palm Sunday Cross-Making Tutorial
1pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Would you like to learn how to make a cross from a palm? Artist Al di Raffaele leads this multi-generational cross-making tutorial.

Lenten Meditations Reading
1pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Theater at Trinity presents the annual Palm Sunday reading of the parish Lenten Meditations, written and illustrated by the congregation, staff, and clergy past and present. Begin your Holy Week with prayer, reflection, and contemplation. Light refreshments will be served. Information: rafoy@hotmail.com.

COMING SOON
Tamid: The Downtown Synagogue Seder
6pm, April 19, St. Paul’s Chapel
On the first night of Passover, join a “family style” Seder led by Rabbi Darren Levine and Musical Director Matt Turk. The Seder will include all the traditional Passover foods followed by Israeli dancing and fun and it’s very family-friendly! Tamid has 15 seats for Trinity parishioners. If you’d like to join, RSVP to Melissa Hayes at mhayes@trinitywallstreet.org by 6pm, Monday, April 15. There is no charge for the 15 places.

Alchemy
7:30pm, April 25, May 2 and 22, St. Paul’s Chapel
New York Baroque Incorporated presents Alchemy, a specially curated four-part series based on the classical elements earth, water, air, and fire. Programs feature a widespread selection of works by 17th- and 18th-century pan-European composers who are both the usual and unusual suspects. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit nybaroque.org.

Breaking Bread
1:15pm, Sunday, April 28, Parish Center
Breaking Bread expands to hear our recently returned pilgrims share their journey to the Holy Land that culminated in Emmaus. The story of the disciples encountering Christ on the road to Emmaus is central to Breaking Bread. As pilgrims, we walk our individual, continuous journey; as Christians, we will explore together how abiding in Christ sustains our day-to-day pilgrimage.

Antonín Dvořák Mass in D Major
3pm, Sunday, April 28, St. Paul’s Chapel
Downtown Voices’ April concert presents the opportunity to hear rarely performed works by Dvořák, Britten, and Janáček. The centerpiece of the concert is Dvořák’s stunning hidden gem Mass in D Major, performed according to the original arrangement for organ and mixed choir. The mass is complemented by Britten’s Hymn to St. Cecelia and Janáček’s Otče Náš. The concert features soloists from The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and organist Janet Yieh. Stephen Sands conducts. Free. Information: ssands@trinitywallstreet.org.

Riverkeepers Sweep
9am-2pm, Saturday, May 4, Offsite
Join Trinity congregation members and friends for the 8th annual Riverkeeper Sweep, a day of service for the Hudson River, its tributaries and our city waterfront parks! It is a fun way to learn about this watery city and the care it needs. A great activity

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are removing paint and plaster, installing conduit, and performing electrical work; excavating for the ADA lift on the north side of the chancel; excavating for the limited use/limited application lift at the west side of the church; planning for sheetrock in the new sacristy; and digging test pits for the external canopy. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Sunday Parking Validation
Parishioners who park for 3 hours or less at the Barclay Street garage on Sundays while attending services at St. Paul’s Chapel may have their parking vouchers validated. See a security guard for information.

Congregational Council Update
The new officers for the Congregational Council for 2019-2020 are: Felicia Eve, president; David Ward, vice president; Alistair Cree, secretary. Standing Committee chairs are: Karla Chee-a-tow, Arts; Gerald Baugh and Martha Graham, Community and Hospitality; William Clark, Education; Sharon Hardy, Membership; Cindy Jay, Witness & Outreach.

Pray for Our Pilgrims
Through April 8, Trinity’s pilgrims are traveling to the Holy Land to follow the footsteps of Jesus, visiting the places associated with his birth, ministry, and last days. Please pray for our pilgrims (see their names under the “In Our Prayers” section) and follow their journey on social media at #HolyLandPilgrimage.
Courageous and Just Video Series
Trinity has launched a new biweekly video series featuring Trinity’s Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas. Dr. Douglas is interviewing leaders to explore critical issues facing today’s church, our individual identities, and our shared life in society, including author Austin Channing Brown and the Rev. Canon Broderick Greer. Watch existing and new episodes at trinitywallstreet.org/courageous.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Reich Richter Pärt
Through June 2, The Shed, 545 W. 30th St.
Reich Richter Pärt plumbs the depths of a shared language between painting and music, exploring how each medium might affect our sensory experience of the other. The Choir of Trinity Wall Street performs Drei Hirtenkinder aus Fátima, Arvo Pärt’s chorale piece composed in response to paintings by Richter. Tickets at theshed.org.

This service of Holy Eucharist is based on A Penitential Order: Rite II, beginning on page 351 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), All Desires Known (ADK) by Janet Morley, and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
