FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT

APRIL 7, 2019, 9:15AM

ST. PAUL’S CHAPEL
BROADWAY AND FULTON STREET, NEW YORK CITY
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The season of Lent—from an Old English word that means “Spring”—lasts 40 days, from Ash Wednesday through Holy Saturday.

Traditionally, this time of year has been a period of solemn preparation, self-examination, and repentance. Remembering the time Jesus spent in the wilderness before beginning his ministry, some Christians adopt Lenten “disciplines”: giving up an item of food, taking on a prayer or devotional practice, taking a technology fast, or simply setting aside time each day to be present with God and those they love.

Although each Sunday is considered a “little Easter”—a time of joy and a rest from our fasting—services in this season take on a more thoughtful and quiet tone. We begin with a confession of all the ways we know we stand in need of God’s never-failing mercy.

We’re glad to have you here with us as we walk the road to Jerusalem together.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.
The ministers process in silence.

Celebrant Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.
People God’s mercy endures for ever.
Summary of the Law

Celebrant
Jesus said, “The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these.” (Mark 12:29-31)

Therefore, with penitent hearts, let us now bow our heads before the Lord, our maker and redeemer.

Silence

Litany of Penitence

Celebrant
Let us pray.

God of mercy and love, we confess to you and to each other that we have sinned against you, and opposed your will in our lives.

We are truly sorry, and we ask you to forgive us;

People
Create in us clean hearts, O God.

Celebrant
We have not always loved you; we have not always loved or forgiven our neighbors.

We are truly sorry, and we ask you to forgive us;

People
Create in us clean hearts, O God.

Celebrant
We’ve been proud, impatient, and angry. We’ve been jealous of those who have more than we do.

We are truly sorry, and we ask you to forgive us;

People
Create in us clean hearts, O God.

Celebrant
We’ve turned away when others needed our help. We’ve been unkind.

We are truly sorry, and we ask you to forgive us;

People
Create in us clean hearts, O God, and renew right spirits within us.

Celebrant
Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

People
Amen.
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant
God be with you.

People
And also with you.

Celebrant
Let us pray.

Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All
Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader
A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

Thus says the Lord, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick: Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. The wild animals will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The acclamation will be sung twice.

Words: Latin, 8th c.; Music: Jacques Berthier (1923-1994)

The Holy Gospel

Deacon
The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon
Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, "Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?" (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

We believe in God the Father, God almight-y, by whose plan
Christ, who on the cross for-saken, like a lamb to slaugh-ter led,
We believe in God the Spi-rit; in one Church, be-low, a-bove:
earth and heav-en sprang to be-ing, all cre-at-ed things be-gan.
suf-fered un-der Pon-tius Pi-late, he de-s-cend-ed to the dead.
saints of God in one com-mu-nion, one in ho-li-ness and love.

We believe in Christ the Sa-vior, Son of God in hu-man frame,
We believe in Je-sus ri-son, hea-ven’s king to rule and reign,
So by faith, our sins for-giv-en, Christ our Sa-vior, Lord and friend, vir-gin-born, the child of Mary up-on whom the Spi-rit came.

to the Fa-ther’s side as-cend-ed till as judge he comes a-gain.
we shall rise with him in glo-ry to the life that knows no end.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813
The Prayers of the People

The choir sings the refrain, then all repeat the refrain and sing as indicated.

Reader Jesus, remember us. Hear us as we pray.

For your Church around the world, we ask new life.
For all who minister faithfully to your people, we ask grace and wisdom.
For governors and rulers in this and every land, we ask your guidance.

All REFRAIN

Reader For Christians everywhere, we ask new unity in your name.
For our sisters and brothers of other faiths, we ask your divine blessing.
For people who have accepted spiritual disciplines in this holy season, and for our Trinity pilgrims, walking in your footsteps in the Holy Land, we ask your guidance and inspiration.
For those who cannot believe, we ask your faithful love.

All REFRAIN

Reader For this congregation, that we may have the courage and grace to live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship.
For people who suffer—who are hungry, lonely, oppressed, or in trouble—we ask your presence, healing, and protection.
For those who have died, and all those who mourn, we ask your mercy and comfort.

The People may add their own petitions.

Celebrant Jesus, our only Savior, you renounced the way of ease for the way of truth and life. Draw us to seek God’s kingdom whatever the cost, for the sake of the true treasure in heaven.

All Amen.

REFRAIN
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering. Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant Almighty God, you created the universe and all that is in it, and humankind in your image. In compassion and mercy, your face is turned towards your world. In love you gave Jesus your Onlybegotten and Beloved One to rescue us from sin and death.

And now we give you thanks because you give us the spirit of discipline, that we may triumph over evil and grow in grace, as we prepare to celebrate the paschal mystery with mind and heart renewed.

Therefore, we join the hosts of heaven in the everlasting song of your glory:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Sung twice by all.

To those who dwell in darkness Jesus came as your light. With words of hope he touched untouchables with love, and with signs of faith he washed the guilty clean.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this to remember me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this to remember me.”
Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant Send your Holy Spirit upon us, that we will faithfully obey our Lord’s command, and upon these gifts, to make them holy. Gather into one in your kingdom all who share this bread and cup, so that we, in the company of all the saints, may praise you for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory are yours, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.
People We who are many are one body, for we all share in the one bread.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please come to the high altar through the chancel gate and a prayer minister will meet you.

Please come forward by row to receive communion. If you need communion brought to you, please let a sacristan know.
Special Music

Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.

Words: Frederick William Faber (1814-1863), alt.; Music: St. Helena, Calvin Hampton (1938-1984)
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Loving God,
we give you thanks
for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
Now send us forth
a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May Christ, who calls you to take up your cross, give you strength to bear your own and one another's burdens; and the blessing of God almighty, holy and undivided Trinity,
God in community, be with you and remain with you for ever.

All Amen.

Flowers

To highlight our Lenten pilgrimage, arrangements of curly willow have been placed in the sanctuary. Their subtle rooting and gentle sprouting remind us of our commitment to spiritual growth in anticipation of the bursting forth of new life at Easter.

To donate flowers in Eastertide, e-mail flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.
Pray for our Pilgrims

March 28-April 8, Trinity’s pilgrims will travel to the Holy Land will follow the footsteps of Jesus, visiting the places associated with his birth, ministry, and last days. Pilgrimage transforms us as our physical journey parallels and reveals deeper spiritual discoveries within us. Pilgrimage changes the way we listen to and read the world, and the way it changes us also changes the communities to which we return.

Events Recap

Mental Health First Aid Trainings

The trainings, facilitated by Marti Zlatechin, M.A., Ph.D., Elliott Madison, Program Director at Fountain House and peer counselor Mark Joseph, focused on mental wellness and how to respond when a loved one or community member is experiencing mental illness. Discussion groups listened and learned about mental disorders and their impact, how to access professional resources, and how to respond to a range of mental health episodes and behaviors.

Timebank Enrollment Session

The ArchCare TimeBank is a free community resource Trinity partners with; members share their time by helping each other. It’s a fun and flexible way to get involved in the community, meet people and learn new skills. Chinese and Spanish speakers are welcomed! Omyra and Winnie joined us on March 6th at Parish center to accept membership applications. For more information contact Omyra Torres at 646.356.8407 or ask any of the Trinity Brown Bag staff for help with enrollment.

Lunar New Year

The Lunar New Year celebrations started with a community meal on February 5th where volunteers and other community members shared a Year of The Pig themed meal together. Helen Lau and Jackie Wong brought small red envelopes for everyone later in the same week. In Lunar New Year, it’s a tradition in Chinese and other Southeast Asian societies to gift a red packet or envelope, called hongbao, symbolizing good luck and protection from evil spirits.

Community Voices

“The greater the struggle the greater the triumph,” makes me think of that quote looking at this photo on my birthday. BBL has been through so much with me, it’s great to finally be on the other side.

Fresh Information

What are Health Bucks?

Health Bucks are $2 coupons that can be used to purchase fresh fruits and vegetables at participating farmers’ markets. We plan on distributing Health Bucks in programming at Brown Bag as part of our commitment to residents of low-income neighborhoods to increase their consumption of fresh fruits and vegetables.

Community Supported Agriculture

A CSA is a local type of “cooperative,” where buyers (like Trinity) financially commit to a full season of produce months in advance of the start of the growing season. CSAs provide the farmer not only with fair living wages, but also, with several practical advantages including the resources to buy seeds and other supplies before the growing season instead of fretting over sales and delivery schedules. Our community sources its fresh items for Brown Bag only from organic Community Supported Agriculture Farms in NY, NJ and CT. Look for our programs harvest 3-4 days a week.

Core Values
In April we focus on the Core Value of Compassion

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity's core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You'll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley

Lenten Meditations Reading
1pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Theater at Trinity presents the annual Palm Sunday reading of the parish Lenten Meditations, written and illustrated by the congregation, staff, and clergy past and present. Begin your Holy Week with prayer, reflection, and contemplation. Light refreshments will be served. Information: rafoy@hotmail.com.

COMING SOON
Tamid: The Downtown Synagogue Seder
6pm, April 19, St. Paul’s Chapel
On the first night of Passover, join a “family style” Seder led by Rabbi Darren Levine and Musical Director Matt Turk. The Seder will include all the traditional Passover foods followed by Israeli dancing and fun and it’s very family-friendly! Tamid has 15 seats for Trinity parishioners. If you’d like to join, RSVP to Melissa Hayes at mhayes@trinitywallstreet.org by 6pm, Monday, April 15. There is no charge for the 15 places.

Alchemy
7:30pm, April 25, May 2 and 22, St. Paul’s Chapel
New York Baroque Incorporated presents Alchemy, a specially curated four-part series based on the classical elements earth, water, air, and fire. Programs feature a widespread selection of works by 17th- and 18th-century pan-European composers who are both the usual and unusual suspects. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit nybaroque.org.

Breaking Bread
1:15pm, Sunday, April 28, Parish Center
Breaking Bread expands to hear our recently returned pilgrims share their journey to the Holy Land that culminated in Emmaus. The story of the disciples encountering Christ on the road to Emmaus is central to Breaking Bread. As pilgrims, we walk our individual, continuous journey; as Christians, we will explore together how abiding in Christ sustains our day-to-day pilgrimage.

Antonín Dvořák Mass in D Major
3pm, Sunday, April 28, St. Paul’s Chapel
Downtown Voices’ April concert presents the opportunity to hear rarely performed works by Dvořák, Britten, and Janáček. The centerpiece of the concert is Dvořák’s stunning hidden gem Mass in D Major, performed according to the original arrangement for organ and mixed choir. The mass is complemented by Britten’s Hymn to St. Cecelia and Janáček’s Otec Nás. The concert features soloists from The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and organist Janet Yieh. Stephen Sands conducts. Free. Information: ssands@trinitywallstreet.org.

Riverkeepers Sweep
9am-2pm, Saturday, May 4, Offsite
Join Trinity congregation members and friends for the 8th annual Riverkeeper Sweep, a day of service for the Hudson River, its tributaries and our city waterfront parks! It is a fun way to learn about this watery city and the care it needs. A great activity

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are removing paint and plaster, installing conduit, and performing electrical work; excavating for the ADA lift on the north side of the chancel; excavating for the limited use/limited application lift at the west side of the church; planning for sheetrock in the new sacristy; and digging test pits for the external canopy. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Sunday Parking Validation
Parishioners who park for 3 hours or less at the Barclay Street garage on Sundays while attending services at St. Paul’s Chapel may have their parking vouchers validated. See a security guard for information.

Congregational Council Update
The new officers for the Congregational Council for 2019-2020 are: Felicia Eve, president; David Ward, vice president; Alistair Cree, secretary. Standing Committee chairs are: Karla Chee-a-tow, Arts; Gerald Baugh and Martha Graham, Community and Hospitality; William Clark, Education; Sharon Hardy, Membership; Cindy Jay, Witness & Outreach.

Pray for Our Pilgrims
Through April 8, Trinity’s pilgrims are traveling to the Holy Land to follow the footsteps of Jesus, visiting the places associated with his birth, ministry, and last days. Please pray for our pilgrims (see their names under the “In Our Prayers” section) and follow their journey on social media at #HolyLandPilgrimage.
Courageous and Just Video Series
Trinity has launched a new biweekly video series featuring Trinity’s Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas. Dr. Douglas is interviewing leaders to explore critical issues facing today’s church, our individual identities, and our shared life in society, including author Austin Channing Brown and the Rev. Canon Broderick Greer. Watch existing and new episodes at trinitywallstreet.org/courageous.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Reich Richter Pärt
Through June 2, The Shed, 545 W. 30th St.
Reich Richter Pärt plumbs the depths of a shared language between painting and music, exploring how each medium might affect our sensory experience of the other. The Choir of Trinity Wall Street performs Drei Hirtenkinder aus Fátima, Arvo Pärt’s chorale piece composed in response to paintings by Richter. Tickets at theshed.org.

IN OUR PRAYERS
This prayer list is cleared at the end of each month. To add names to the list, email worshipbulletin@trinitywallstreet.org or call 212.602.0800.

This service of Holy Eucharist is based on A Penitential Order: Rite II, beginning on page 351 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
