O God, the true Mother as well as the Father of all, from whom we come and to whose breast we return at last; keep always before us the witness of holy women and grant us the same faith and power of love, that we will follow in their steps, loving you, and others for your sake; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Lent is the period of 40 days, not counting Sundays, beginning on Ash Wednesday and is a season of earnest self-examination and disciplined realignment in preparation for the celebrations of Easter. “Lent” comes from the Anglo-Saxon word lencten, which means “spring,” the season when life burst forth from the chains of winter and new life springs up everywhere.

By observing the 40 days of Lent, we prayerfully enter into Jesus Christ’s faithful commitment to his ministry in the face of the temptations he experienced during his withdrawal into the desert for 40 days. By our disciplined observance of Lent we seek to imitate Christ by symbolically withdrawing from the world that tempts and seduces us by our commitment to self-examination, prayer, almsgiving and fasting. In the early centuries fasting rules were strict: one meal a day was allowed in the evening, and meat, fish, eggs, and butter were forbidden. Although these fasting rules have gradually been relaxed, the emphasis on penitential practice and almsgiving remains, together with a continuing commitment to fasting—from food, destructive behaviors and habits, and from all manner of feasting. One can think of the discipline of Lent as an invitation to give up habits and behaviors that break down and also to take on habits and behaviors that build up.

Sundays in Lent are not counted in the 40 days of Lent because every Sunday is a thanksgiving and celebration of the resurrection of our Lord, a “mini-Easter,” so to speak. On Sundays the weekday discipline and contrite spirit of Lent is tempered with joyful anticipation of the Resurrection.

Following the directions of the Episcopal Church in Lesser Feasts and Fasts 2006, our weekday celebrations of the Holy Eucharist will use the Collect, Lessons, and Psalm appointed for the Weekdays of Lent.

Collects and Readings

Monday in the Fifth Week of Lent

April 8

Be gracious to your people, we entreat you, O Lord, that they, repenting day by day of the things that displease you, may be more and more filled with love of you and of your commandments; and, being supported by your grace in this life, may come to the full enjoyment of eternal life in your everlasting kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 23; Susanna 41-62; John 8:1-11

Tuesday in the Fifth Week of Lent

April 9

Almighty God, through the incarnate Word you have caused us to be born anew of an imperishable and eternal seed: Look with compassion upon those who are being prepared for Holy Baptism, and grant that they may be built as living stones into a spiritual temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 102:15-22; Numbers 21:4-9; John 8:21-30

Wednesday in the Fifth Week of Lent

April 10

Almighty God our heavenly Father, renew in us the gifts of your mercy; increase our faith, strengthen our hope, enlighten our understanding, widen our charity, and make us ready to serve you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Canticle 13; Daniel 3:14-20, 24-28; John 8:31-42

Thursday in the Fifth Week of Lent

April 11

O God, you have called us to be your children, and have promised that those who suffer with Christ will be heirs with him of your glory: Arm us with such trust in him that we may ask no rest from his demands and have no fear in his service; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 105:4-11; Genesis 17:1-8; John 8:51-59

Friday in the Fifth Week of Lent

April 12

O Lord, you relieve our necessity out of the abundance of your great riches: Grant that we may accept with joy the salvation you bestow, and manifest it to all the world by the quality of our lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Psalm Texts

Psalm 23

Reader Let us read Psalm 23 responsively by half-verse.

O God, you are my shepherd; *
I shall not be in want.

You make me lie down in green pastures *
and lead me beside still waters.

You revive my soul *
and guide me along right pathways for the sake of your Name.

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I shall fear no evil; *
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; *
you have anointed my head with oil,
and my cup is running over.

Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, * and I will dwell in the house of God for ever.

Psalm 102:15-22

Reader Let us read from Psalm 102 responsively by half-verse.

The nations shall fear your Name, O God, *
and all the rulers of the earth your glory.

You, O God, will build up Zion, *
and your glory will appear.

You will look with favor on the prayer of the homeless *
and will not despise their plea.

Let this be written for a future generation, *
so that a people yet unborn may praise you, O God.

For you looked down from your holy place on high; *
from the heavens you beheld the earth,

That you might hear the groan of the captive *
and set free those condemned to die,

That they may declare in Zion your Name, O God, *
and your praise in Jerusalem,

When the peoples are gathered together *
and the nations also, to serve you.
Canticle 13

Reader Let us read Canticle 13 responsively by half-verse.

Glory to you, Lord God of our forbears; *
People you are worthy of praise; glory to you.

Reader Glory to you for the radiance of your holy Name; *
People we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

Reader Glory to you in the splendor of your temple; *
People on the throne of your majesty, glory to you.

Reader Glory to you, seated between the Cherubim; *
People we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

Reader Glory to you, beholding the depths; *
People in the high vault of heaven, glory to you.

Reader Glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; *
People we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

Psalm 105:4–11

Reader Let us read from Psalm 105 responsively by half-verse.

We search for you and your strength; *
People we continue to seek your face;

Reader We remember the marvels you have done, *
People the wonders and the judgments of your mouth:

Reader We, the offspring of Abraham, your servant, *
People we, the children of Jacob, the chosen ones.

Reader You are our God indeed; *
People your judgments prevail in all the world.

Reader You have always been mindful of your covenant, *
People the promise you made for a thousand generations:

Reader The covenant you made with Abraham, *
People the oath that you swore to Isaac,

Reader Which you established as a statute for Jacob, *
People an everlasting covenant for Israel,

Reader Saying, “To them will I give the land of Canaan *
People to be their allotted inheritance.”
Psalm 18:1-7

Reader Let us read from Psalm 18 responsively by half-verse.

I love you, O God, my strength, *

People my stronghold, my crag, and my haven,

Reader My God, my rock in whom I put my trust, *

People my shield, the horn of my salvation, and my refuge;
you are worthy of praise.

Reader I will call upon you, O God, *

People and so shall I be saved from my enemies.

Reader The breakers of death rolled over me, *

People and the torrents of oblivion made me afraid.

Reader The cords of hell entangled me, *

People and the snares of death were set for me.

Reader I called upon you, O God, in my distress; *

People I cried out to you for help.

Reader You heard my voice from your heavenly dwelling; *

People my cry of anguish came to your ears.

The Entrance Rite

Procession

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.
The ministers enter in silence.

Acclamation

Celebrant Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.

People God's mercy endures for ever.

Prayer of Preparation

Celebrant Almighty and everlasting God, you despise nothing you have made and forgive the sins of all who are penitent.

All Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins
and acknowledging our brokenness,
may obtain of you,
the God of all mercy,
perfect redemption and forgiveness.

Celebrant Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.
Invitation to Keep a Holy Lent
BCP p. 265, adapted

Celebrant Dear People of God, in the name of the Church, as we give thanks to God for our redemption through our Lord Jesus Christ, I urge you to keep a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word.

Therefore, with penitent hearts, and as a mark of our mortal nature, let us now bow our heads before the Lord, our maker and redeemer.

Silence

Prayer
based on Psalm 51:17
CW p. 79, adapted

Celebrant God is here.
People The Spirit of God is with us.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, you are the source of life and love. The sacrifice that pleases you is a broken spirit, a broken and contrite heart you do not despise. We therefore come to you in sorrow for our sins, for you are full of compassion.

Silence

Confession and Absolution
EOW p. 56

All God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opusing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.
Canticle

from Canticle 14: A Song of Penitence

All

O Lord and Ruler of the hosts of heaven,
all things quake with fear at your presence;
they tremble because of your power.

But your merciful promise is beyond all measure;
it surpasses all that our minds can fathom.

You hold back your hand;
you do not punish as we deserve.

And now, O Lord, I bend the knee of my heart,
and make my appeal, sure of your gracious goodness.

I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned,
and I know my wickedness only too well.
Forgive me, Lord, forgive me.

Do not let me perish in my sin,
for you, O Lord, are the God of those who repent.

Unworthy as I am, you will save me,
and I will praise you without ceasing all the days of my life.
Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant prays the Collect, a prayer appointed for the day. See p. 4 for Collect texts.

The Holy Gospel

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to...
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Celebrant reads the Gospel appointed for the day.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

Silence follows the homily.

The Prayers of the People

Please stand as you are able.

Reader O God of compassion and mercy, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
People That we all may be one.

Reader For those preparing for baptism and confirmation, for their teachers and sponsors, and for our parish community as we prepare to receive them into the household of faith;
People That they and we will be filled with your Holy Spirit.

Reader Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
People That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Reader We pray for Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary our bishops; and for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
People That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Reader We pray for Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, Bill our Mayor, and for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Reader Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Reader Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
People That they may be delivered from their distress.

Reader Give to the departed eternal rest;
People Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Reader We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Reader Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

The People add their own thanksgivings and petitions.
Celebrant

Lord Jesus Christ, you came to call not the righteous but sinners to repentance: help us in this season of Lent to hear and respond to your call: that by your grace we may turn from whatever in our lives does not accord with your will, and walk in the ways of holiness and love, to the glory of God, our Rock and our Salvation.

All

Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant
The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People
And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering.
The organist plays an improvisation.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant
The Lord be with you.

People
And also with you.

Celebrant
Lift up your hearts.

People
We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant
It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

You bid your faithful people cleanse their hearts, and prepare with joy for the Paschal feast; that, fervent in prayer and in works of mercy, and renewed by your Word and Sacraments, they may come to the fullness of grace which you have prepared for those who love you.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Holy and gracious God, you created the universe and all that is in it, and humankind in your image. In compassion and mercy, your face is turned towards your world. In love you gave Jesus your Onlybegotten and Beloved One to rescue us from sin and death.

Maker and giver of all, we give you thanks for every gift that comes from your love. To those who dwell in darkness Jesus came as your light. With words of hope he touched untouchables with love, and with signs of faith he washed the guilty clean. The crowds came out to see him, yet at the end they turned against him.

On the night Jesus was betrayed he was at table with his friends to celebrate the freedom of your people. He blessed you for the food, took the bread, gave thanks, broke it and said: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you and for all. Do this to remember me.

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave thanks and gave it to them and said: Take and drink; this is my blood, shed for you and for all. Do this to remember me.

With this bread and this cup, we celebrate the cross on which he died to set us free. Defying death he rose again and is alive with you to plead for us and all the world.

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Send your Holy Spirit on us, that we will faithfully obey our Lord’s command, and upon these gifts, to make them holy.

Gather into one in your kingdom all who share this bread and cup, so that we, in the company of [______________ and] all the saints, may praise you for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory are yours, now and for ever.

AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant The bread which we break is a sharing in the Body of Christ.
People We being many are one bread, one body,
    for we all share in the one bread.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.
Concluding Rite

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.
All God of grace and glory,
you have given Jesus Christ
your Onlybegotten and Anointed One to be for us a sacrifice for sin
and an example of godly life.
Empower us
by the grace of this Holy Communion to know Christ more clearly,
love Christ more dearly,
and follow Christ more nearly,
day by day.
Amen.

The Blessing  BOS p. 26, adapted

Celebrant May God look on you with compassion so that, rightly observing this holy season, you may learn to know God more fully, and to serve Christ with a more perfect will;
And the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity be with you and remain with you for ever.
All Amen.

Dismissal  BCP p. 366

Celebrant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The ministers and people exit in silence.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area.

Flowers

To highlight our Lenten pilgrimage, arrangements of curly willow have been placed in the sanctuary.
Their subtle rooting and gentle sprouting remind us of our commitment to spiritual growth in anticipation of the bursting forth of new life at Easter.

Core Values

In April we focus on the Core Value of Compassion

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats

Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing
$50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

COMING SOON

Tamid: The Downtown Synagogue Seder
6pm, April 19, St. Paul’s Chapel
On the first night of Passover, join a “family style” Seder led by Rabbi Darren Levine and Musical Director Matt Turk. The Seder will include all the traditional Passover foods followed by Israeli dancing and fun and it’s very family-friendly! Tamid has 15 seats for Trinity parishioners. If you’d like to join, RSVP to Melissa Hayes at mhayes@trinitywallstreet.org by 6pm, Monday, April 15. There is no charge for the 15 places.

Alchemy
7:30pm, April 25, May 2 and 22, St. Paul’s Chapel
New York Baroque Incorporated presents Alchemy, a specially curated four-part series based on the classical elements earth, water, air, and fire. Programs feature a widespread selection of works by 17th- and 18th-century pan-European composers who are both the usual and unusual suspects. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit nybaroque.org.

Breaking Bread
1:15pm, Sunday, April 28, Parish Center
Breaking Bread expands to hear our recently returned pilgrims share their journey to the Holy Land that culminated in Emmaus. The story of the disciples encountering Christ on the road to Emmaus is central to Breaking Bread. As pilgrims, we walk our individual, continuous journey; as Christians, we will explore together how abiding in Christ sustains our day-to-day pilgrimage.

Antonín Dvořák Mass in D Major
3pm, Sunday, April 28, St. Paul’s Chapel
Downtown Voices’ April concert presents the opportunity to hear rarely performed works by Dvořák, Britten, and Janáček. The centerpiece of the concert is Dvořák’s stunning hidden gem Mass in D Major, performed according to the original arrangement for organ and mixed choir. The mass is complemented by Britten’s Hymn to St. Cecelia and Janáček’s Otče Náš. The concert features soloists from The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and organist Janet Yieh. Stephen Sands conducts. Free. Information: ssands@trinitywallstreet.org.

Riverkeepers Sweep
9am-2pm, Saturday, May 4, Offsite
Join Trinity congregation members and friends for the 8th annual Riverkeeper Sweep, a day of service for the Hudson River, its tributaries and our city waterfront parks! It is a fun way to learn about this watery city and the care it needs. A great activity for all ages from elementary school (with adult supervision) and up. To assure a place, register by April 8 with David Ward at djward71@yahoo.com. Please include your email address and t-shirt size. Adult volunteers needed to help supervise.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update

Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are removing paint and plaster, installing conduit, and performing electrical work; excavating for the ADA lift on the north side of the chancel; excavating for the limited use/limited application lift at the west side of the church; planning for sheetrock in the new sacristy; and digging test pits for the external canopy. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Sunday Parking Validation

Parishioners who park for 3 hours or less at the Barclay Street garage on Sundays while attending services at St. Paul's Chapel may have their parking vouchers validated. See a security guard for information.

Vestry Election

The Annual Vestry Election will be held on April 23, 2019, Easter Tuesday, as specified under the 1697 Charter. All members of the congregation who are 18 years or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, have taken Holy Communion within the preceding year (April 2018-April 2019) and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year (April 2018-April 2019) are eligible to vote in Vestry Election. The register of eligible voters is available for inspection in the Office of the Rector, 120 Broadway, 38th floor, and a member of the congregation may confirm that his or her name is included on the register by emailing mhogan@trinitywallstreet.org. Registration can also be done on election day upon application to the Rector upon proving the above-mentioned qualifications.

In-person voting will be from 4pm to 8pm in St. Paul's Chapel. The ballots may also be submitted by mail. (Mail instructions are posted in the Chapel of All Saints and St. Paul's Chapel). Mail ballots must be received before 8pm on Tuesday, April 23.

The persons about whom information is given on this announcement are the nominated candidates for Church Wardens and Vestrymen made by the Parish Nominating Committee.

Pray for Our Pilgrims
Through April 8, Trinity's pilgrims are traveling to the Holy Land to follow the footsteps of Jesus, visiting the places associated with his birth, ministry, and last days. Please pray for our pilgrims (see their names under the “In Our Prayers” section) and follow their journey on social media at #HolyLandPilgrimage.

Courageous and Just Video Series
Trinity has launched a new biweekly video series featuring Trinity's Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas. Dr. Douglas is interviewing leaders to explore critical issues facing today's church, our individual identities, and our shared life in society, including author Austin Channing Brown and the Rev. Canon Broderick Greer. Watch existing and new episodes at trinitywallstreet.org/courageous.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Reich Richter Pärt
Through June 2, The Shed, 545 W. 30th St.
Reich Richter Pärt plumbs the depths of a shared language between painting and music, exploring how each medium might affect our sensory experience of the other. The Choir of Trinity Wall Street performs Drei Hirtenkinder aus Fátima, Arvo Pärt's chorale piece composed in response to paintings by Richter. Tickets at theshed.org.

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church.

This service of Holy Eucharist contains elements of A Penitential Order, Rite II, beginning on page 351 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts come from the St. Helena Psalter (SHP). The bulletin cover prayer is adapted from Leslie D. Weatherhead, from New Parish Prayers, p. 51 (Frank Colquhoun, editor), and the Oxford Diocesan Service Book, from Prayers for Every Occasion, p. 144 (Frank Colquhoun, editor). Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.

In an effort to reach a broad audience, Trinity Wall Street records its services and events for broadcast on the internet. Your attendance at a service or event constitutes your consent to be included in any filming, photographing, audio recording, or broadcast and for any other use in whole or in part, including publicity and promotion. If you prefer to avoid being filmed, please sit in the back pews on the side aisles.
