TRINITY CHURCH
THE CHAPEL OF ALL SAINTS
BROADWAY AT WALL STREET, NEW YORK CITY
MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The Great Fifty Days of Easter

After forty days of fasting and self-discipline, like marathon runners, exhausted, breathless and weary now, we make one final effort to reach the finish line. “It is Easter, we say. Alleluia, it’s over.” And yet, it is not over at all, it is just beginning. Now is the time of festival—a festival that lasts for 50 days, until the Day of Pentecost.

There are two seasons—one before Easter and the other after. The season before Easter signifies the troubles in which we live here and now, while the time after Easter which we are celebrating at present signifies the happiness that will be ours in the future. Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia!

—from an Eastertide sermon of St. Augustine of Hippo

Eastertide—The Season of Sundays of Easter

Easter is a season, not a day—rather, a Great Fifty days, a Week of Weeks, 7 the perfect number seven multiplied by its own perfection plus one day more to make perfection perfect. The First Week of Easter has Collects, Psalms, and Readings provided in the Book of Common Prayer Lectionary. The Weekdays of Easter begin after the Second Sunday of Easter.

Since the triumphs of the saints and Major Feasts are a continuation and manifestation of the Paschal victory of Christ, the following are observed during Eastertide:

Saint Mark the Evangelist: April 29
Saint Philip and St. James, Apostles: May 1
Eastertide Rogation Days: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, May 27-29
Ascension Day: May 30
Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary: May 31

The Acts of the Apostles

Following the ancient tradition of the Church, the First Lessons provide of a semi-continuous reading of the Acts of the Apostles. We begin reading this account on the Weekdays of Easter Week.

The Readings from the Gospel of John are chosen for their appropriateness to the season and complement the readings from John assigned to the Weekdays of Lent.

The Paschal Candle

The large candle from the Great Vigil of Easter burns in a prominent place in the Church at every service during Eastertide. In the ancient Christian basilicas, some of which still exist in Italy, the stand for the Paschal Candle was built into the pulpit as a permanent feature of the building’s architecture. In the Middle Ages, Winchester Cathedral had a Paschal Candle that was sixty feet tall!
ALLELUIA
This word, derived from the Hebrew _hallelujah_, means “praise to Yahweh.” In Jewish worship, it is particularly characteristic of Passover. As early as the time of the writing of the book of Revelation (probably by the 2nd century), “Hallelujah” was already established as an important word in the Church’s liturgical vocabulary.

BAPTISMAL FONT
The Baptismal Font remains in the Sanctuary for the duration of Eastertide—the principal Baptismal Season of the Church Year. After you have received Communion, you are invited to dip your finger into the water in the Font and make the sign of the cross in recognition of the blessings you have received in your Baptism.

Collects and Readings

Monday in Easter Week
April 22

Grant, we pray, Almighty God, that we who celebrate with awe the Paschal feast may be found worthy to attain to everlasting joys; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 16:8-11; Acts 2:14, 22b-32; Matthew 28:9-15

Tuesday in Easter Week
April 23

O God, who by the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light: Grant that we, who have been raised with him, may abide in his presence and rejoice in the hope of eternal glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be dominion and praise for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 33:18-22; Acts 2:36-41; John 20:11-18

Wednesday in Easter Week
April 24

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Thursday in Easter Week
April 25

Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ’s Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 8; Acts 3:11-26; Luke 24:36b-48

Friday in Easter Week
April 26

Almighty Father, who gave your only Son to die for our sins and to rise for our justification: Give us grace so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness, that we may always serve you in pureness of living and truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Psalm Texts

Psalm 16:8-11
_reader_ Let us read from Psalm 16 responsively by half-verse.
_reader_ I have set you always before me; *
_people_ because you are at my right hand I shall not fall.
_reader_ My heart, therefore, is glad and my spirit rejoices; *
_people_ my body also shall rest in hope.
_reader_ For you will not abandon me to the grave; *
_people_ nor let your holy one see the Pit.
_reader_ You will show me the path of life; *
_people_ in your presence there is fullness of joy,
and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore.

Psalm 33:18-22
_reader_ Let us read from Psalm 33 responsively by half-verse.
_reader_ But your eye, O God, is upon those who fear you, *
_people_ on those who wait upon your love,
_reader_ To pluck their lives from death, *
_people_ and to feed them in time of famine.
_reader_ Our soul waits for you; *
_people_ you are our help and our shield.
_reader_ Indeed, our heart rejoices in you, *
_people_ for in your holy Name we put our trust.
_reader_ Let your loving-kindness, O God, be upon us, *
_people_ as we have put our trust in you.

Psalm 105:1-8
_reader_ Let us read from Psalm 105 responsively by half-verse.
_reader_ We give you thanks, O God, and call upon your Name, *
_people_ we make known your deeds among the peoples, _reader_ We sing to you; we sing your praise *
_people_ and speak of all your marvelous works.
_reader_ We glory in your holy Name; *
_people_ let the hearts of those who seek you rejoice.
_reader_ We search for you and your strength; *
_people_ we continue to seek your face.
_reader_ We remember the marvels you have done, *
_people_ the wonders and the judgments of your mouth,
_reader_ We, the offspring of Abraham, your servant, *
_people_ we, the children of Jacob, the chosen ones.
Reader You are our God indeed; *
People your judgments prevail in all the world.
Reader You have always been mindful of your covenant, *
People the promise you made for a thousand generations.

Psalm 8

Psalm 8

Reader Let us read Psalm 8 responsively by half-verse.

O God our Governor, *
People how exalted is your Name in all the world!
Reader Out of the mouths of infants and children,*
People your majesty is praised above the heavens.
Reader You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, *
People to quell the enemy and the avenger.
Reader When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers,*
People the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,
Reader What are we that you should be mindful of us,*
People mere mortals that you should seek us out?
Reader You have made us but little lower than the angels; *
People you adorn us with glory and honor;
Reader You give us dominion over the works of your hands; *
People you put all things under our feet:
Reader All sheep and oxen,*
People even the wild beasts of the field,
Reader The birds of the air, the fish of the sea,*
People and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea.
Reader O God, our Governor,*
People how exalted is your Name in all the world!

Psalm 116:1-8

Psalm 116:1-8

Reader Let us read from Psalm 116 responsively by half-verse.

I love you, O God, because you have heard the voice of my supplication,*
People because you have inclined your ear to me whenever I called upon you.
Reader The cords of death entangled me;
People I came to grief and sorrow.
Reader Then I called upon your holy Name:*
People “O God, I pray you, save my life.”
Reader Gracious are you and righteous;*
People you are full of compassion.
Reader You watch over the innocent;*
People I was brought very low, and you helped me.

The psalm continues on the next page.
Reader       Turn again to your rest, O my soul, *
People      for God has treated you well.
Reader       For you, O God, have rescued my life from death, *
People      my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling.
Reader       I will walk in the presence of God, *
People      in the land of the living.

The Entrance Rite

Prelude
At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Acclamation
Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People  Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Bidding
based on 1 Peter 1:3
Celebrant Let us give thanks to our God who in great mercy and abounding love has given us new life by raising Jesus Christ from death. This fills us with a living hope.
People  Alleluia!

Responsory
CW:TS p. 168, adapted/Psalm 67:3
Celebrant Christ has defeated the powers of death.
People  Alleluia!
Celebrant In Christ our sins are forgiven and we live a new life of grace.
People  Alleluia!
Celebrant Christ turns our sorrow into dancing.
People  Alleluia!
Celebrant Let the peoples praise you, O God;
People  Let all the peoples praise you.

Prayer
C. N. R. Wallwork, NPP
Celebrant God is here.
People  The Spirit of God is with us.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Be present, O Risen Christ, in this your Church’s Easter praise: that its anthems of joy and its proclamation of your victory will worthily celebrate the mystery of your redeeming love and the majesty of your eternal glory.

All  Amen.
Easter Anthems

Celebrant Alleluia!

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us:
therefore let us keep the feast,
Not with the old leaven of corruption and wickedness:
but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

—1 Corinthians 5:7b, 8

All Alleluia!

Christ once raised from the dead dies no more:
death has no more dominion over him.
In dying he died to sin once for all:
in living he lives to God.
See yourselves therefore as dead to sin:
and alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord.

—Romans 6:9-11

Alleluia!

Christ has been raised from the dead:
the first fruits of those who sleep.
For as by one of us came death:
so by one has come also the resurrection of the dead;
for as in Adam all die:
even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
Alleluia!

—1 Corinthians 15:20-22

The Collect of the Day

The Reader reads the lesson appointed for the day.
Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
People Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn
Please stand as you are able.

1 Christ is a live! Let Christians sing. His cross stands
2 In every in-sult, rift, and war where co-lor, 3 Christ is a live! His Spirit burns through this and

1 empty to the sky, Let streets and homes with 2 scorn or wealth di-vide, he suf-fers still, yet
3 every future age, till all cre-a-tion

1 praises ring. His love in death shall never die.
2 loves the more, and lives, though ev-er cru-ci-fied.
3 lives and learns his joy, his jus-tice, love, and praise.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

Silence follows the homily.

The Prayers of the People

Please stand as you are able.

Reader Let us pray to Jesus Christ, our Risen Savior and Lord.
Fill us with the joy of your glorious and life-giving resurrection:

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ, our Risen Savior and Lord, sustain us, that together with Michael our Presiding Bishop, Andrew, Allen, and Mary our Bishops, we will offer ourselves, a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ, our Risen Savior and Lord, make us agents of your justice and goodness, that together with Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor, you will bring justice, faith, we will serve the common good.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ, our Risen Savior and Lord, give us eyes to see the pain and distress all around us, ears to hear the cries of those who are oppressed and exploited, and hands to serve those in need.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ our Risen Savior and Lord, fill us with delight in the world we share with all creation, that we will care for the earth, the sky and the sea, and conserve their resources for those who come after us.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ our Risen Savior and Lord, fill us with compassion, that we will welcome the stranger, speak up for those whose voices go unheeded, and walk in solidarity with those whose paths are rough.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ our Risen Savior and Lord, you offer us eternal life; may we, with all those who have died come to share Christ’s glory in the presence of God through the power of the Holy Spirit.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.
Celebrant Eternal God in whom is all our hope in life, in death, and to all eternity: grant that, rejoicing in the eternal life which is ours in Christ, we may face whatever the future holds in store for us calm and unafraid, always confident that neither death nor life can part us from your love in Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering.

The organist plays an improvisation.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.

You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:
Holy, Holy, Holy

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”
Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All
Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant
Remembering the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with [___________ and] all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All
AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant
As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All
Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those
    who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant
Alleluia. Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us.

People
Therefore, let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant
The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children.
Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.
If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit,
that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever
in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant: Make you perfect in every good work to do God’s will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in God’s sight;
And the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity, Loving Creator, Living Words, and Life-giving Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Dismissal

Celebrant Let us go forth in the name of Christ. Alleluia. Alleluia.

People Thanks be to God. Alleluia. Alleluia.

Postlude

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area.

Core Values

In April we focus on the Core Value of Compassion

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.
Trinity Holy Land Pilgrims’ Talkback
1pm, Parish Center, 56 Trinity Place
Join Trinity's returning pilgrims from the Holy Land as they share their most transformational moments from the journey. They will share in the context of the “Breaking Bread” shared lunch/reflection series.

Breaking Bread
11:15pm, Parish Center, 56 Trinity Place
Breaking Bread expands to hear our recently returned pilgrims share their journey to the Holy Land that culminated in Emmaus. The story of the disciples encountering Christ on the road to Emmaus is central to Breaking Bread. As pilgrims, we walk our individual, continuous journey; as Christians, we will share a light meal and explore how abiding in Christ sustains our day-to-day pilgrimage. Information: christianformation@trinitywallstreet.org.

Antonín Dvořák Mass in D Major
3pm, St. Paul's Chapel
Downtown Voices’ April concert presents the opportunity to hear rarely performed works by Dvořák, Britten, and Janáček. The centerpiece of the concert is Dvořák’s stunning hidden gem Mass in D Major, performed according to the original arrangement for organ and mixed choir. The mass is complemented by Britten’s Hymn to St. Cecelia and Janáček’s Otče Náš. The concert features soloists from The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and organist Janet Yieh. Stephen Sands conducts. Free. Information: ssands@trinitywallstreet.org.

EVERY SUNDAY
Nursery Care (six months through age 5)
11am-1pm, St. Paul's Chapel
The nursery is found in the Chapel of Remembrance, the small room in the southwest corner of the Chapel.

Reich Richter Pärt

Through June 2, The Shed, 545 W. 30th St.
Reich Richter Pärt plumbs the depths of a shared language between painting and music, exploring how each medium might affect our sensory experience of the other. The Choir of Trinity Wall Street performs Drei Hirtenkinder aus Fátima, Arvo Pärt’s chorale piece composed in response to paintings by Richter. Tickets at theshed.org.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are removing paint and plaster, installing conduit, and performing electrical work; excavating for the ADA lift on the north side of the chancel; excavating for the limited use/limited application lift at the west side of the church; planning for sheetrock in the new sacristy; and digging test pits for the external canopy. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Courageous and Just Video Series
Trinity has launched a new biweekly video series featuring Trinity’s Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas. Dr. Douglas is interviewing leaders to explore critical issues facing today’s church, our individual identities, and our shared life in society, including author Austin Channing Brown, the Rev. Canon Broderick Greer, Presbyterian minister Mihee Kim-Kort, and Professor Jeremy Cruz. Watch existing and new episodes at trinitywallstreet.org/courageous.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.
Vestry Election

The Annual Vestry Election will be held on April 23, 2019, Easter Tuesday, as specified under the 1697 Charter. All members of the congregation who are 18 years or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, have taken Holy Communion within the preceding year (April 2018-April 2019) and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year (April 2018-April 2019) are eligible to vote in Vestry Election. The register of eligible voters is available for inspection in the Office of the Rector, 120 Broadway, 38th floor, and a member of the congregation may confirm that his or her name is included on the register by emailing mhog@trinitywallstreet.org. Registration can also be done on election day upon application to the Rector upon proving the above-mentioned qualifications.

In-person voting will be from 4pm to 8pm in St. Paul’s Chapel. The ballots may also be submitted by mail. (Mail instructions are posted in the Chapel of All Saints and St. Paul’s Chapel). Mail ballots must be received before 8pm on Tuesday, April 23.

The persons about whom information is given on this announcement are the nominated candidates for Church Wardens and Vestrymen made by the Parish Nominating Committee.

Congregational Voice

“For nothing will be impossible with God” (Luke 1:37). I have gone through some challenging things in my life and through it all I always believed and had faith that God would pull me through. No matter how impossible the situation appeared, I knew that if he took me through it, I would get through it as well. The word itself says I am possible and with God everything is possible.
—Susan Blaize-Sampeur
This service of Holy Eucharist is based on Rite Two, beginning on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts come from the St. Helena Psalter. The bulletin cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP), proposed by the Consultation on Common Texts. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship: Times and Seasons (CW:TS), Contemporary Parish Prayers (CPP) and New Parish Prayers (NPP) edited and compiled by Frank Colquhoun, and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
