SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER
APRIL 28, 2019, 9:15AM

ST. PAUL’S CHAPEL
BROADWAY AND FULTON STREET, NEW YORK CITY
Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” — Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” — Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” — Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” — Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” — Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” — Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The Great Fifty Days of Easter
After forty days of fasting and self-discipline, like marathon runners, exhausted, breathless and weary now, we make one final effort to reach the finish line. “It is Easter, we say. Alleluia, it’s over.” And yet, it is not over at all, it is just beginning. Now is the time of festival—a festival that lasts for 50 days, until the Day of Pentecost.

There are two seasons—one before Easter and the other after. The season before Easter signifies the troubles in which we live here and now, while the time after Easter which we are celebrating at present signifies the happiness that will be ours in the future. Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia! —from an Eastertide sermon of St. Augustine of Hippo

The Acts of the Apostles
This companion volume to Luke’s Gospel describes the life of the early Christian community, characterized by an intense awareness of the risen Lord’s presence and the apostolic preaching of the Resurrection. From the earliest times it has had an important place in the church’s liturgy. The liturgical revisions among Anglicans, Roman Catholics, and Lutherans have restored the book of Acts to the Easter liturgy. The First Reading for each of the Sundays of Eastertide is taken from the Book of Acts.

The Paschal Candle
The large candle from the Great Vigil of Easter burns in a prominent place in the Church at every service during Eastertide. In the ancient Christian basilicas, some of which still exist in Italy, the stand for the Paschal Candle was built into the pulpit as a permanent feature of the building’s architecture. In the Middle Ages, Winchester Cathedral had a Paschal Candle that was sixty feet tall!

Baptismal Font
The Baptismal Font remains in the sanctuary for the duration of Eastertide—the principal Baptismal Season of the Church Year. After you have received Communion, you are invited to dip your finger into the water in the font and make the sign of the cross in recognition of the blessings you have received in your Baptism.

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant          Christ has defeated the powers of death.
People             Alleluia!
Celebrant          In Christ our sins are forgiven and we live a new life of grace.
People             Alleluia!
Celebrant          Christ turns our sorrow into dancing.
People             Alleluia!
Celebrant          Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People             Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Opening Hymn

Hymnal 180, vv. 1-2

Words: Cecil Frances Alexander (1818-1895), alt.; Music: Unser Herrscher, Joachim Neander (1650-1680)
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When the captain and the temple police had brought the apostles out of the temple, they had them stand before the council. The high priest questioned them, saying, "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you are determined to bring this man's blood on us." But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than any human authority. The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior that he might give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.
Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The acclamation will be sung twice.

Music: Caribbean melody; arr. Hal H. Hopson (b. 1933)
John 20:19-31

Deacon

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.” But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe.”

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe.” Thomas answered him, “My Lord and my God!” Jesus said to him, “Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.” Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles

Silence follows the sermon.
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Hymn to Joy, Ludwig van Beethoven (1770-1827), alt.

The Prayers of the People

NZPB p. 413, adapted/Psalm 3

Reader Christ is risen from the dead; love comes again to call us back to life. God of resurrection, hear us as we pray for the Church and the world:

Almighty Mother, enliven the Church for its mission, that we may be salt of the earth and light to the world. Breathe fresh life into your people; give us power to reveal Christ in word and action, living our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship.

Rise up, O Lord:

People Set us free, O God.

Reader Creator of all, lead us into ways of justice and peace, that we may respect one another in word and deed. Awaken in us a sense of wonder for the earth and all that is in it; teach us to care creatively for its resources.

Rise up, O Lord:

People Set us free, O God.
Reader  God of truth, inspire with your wisdom those whose decisions affect the lives of others: especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor, that they may act with integrity and courage. Give grace to all whose lives are linked with ours. May we serve Christ in one another, and love as he loves us.

Rise up, O Lord:

People  Set us free, O God.

Reader  God of hope, comfort and restore all who suffer in body, mind, or spirit. Help them to know the power of your healing love. Make us and all your people willing agents of your compassion; strengthen us as we share in making people whole.

Rise up, O Lord:

People  Set us free, O God.

Reader  We remember with thanksgiving those who have died in the faith of Christ, and those whose faith is known to you alone; Father, into your hands we commend them. We praise you for all your saints who have entered into your eternal glory; may their example inspire and encourage us.

Rise up, O Lord:

People  Set us free, O God.

Celebrant  Lord, you have called us to serve you. Grant that we may walk in your presence: your love in our hearts, your truth in our minds, your strength in our wills; until, at the end of our journey, we know the joy of our homecoming and the welcome of your embrace, through Jesus Christ our Savior.

All  Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant  The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People  And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering. Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.
At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)

The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.

You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:
Holy, Holy, Holy
Sung twice by all.

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

We failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

In the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.
Celebrant  Remembering the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with [__________ and] all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All  AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer  BCP p. 364

Celebrant  As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All  Our Father in heaven,
     hallowed be your Name,
     your kingdom come,
     your will be done,
     on earth as in heaven.
     Give us today our daily bread.
     Forgive us our sins
     as we forgive those who sin against us.
     Save us from the time of trial,
     and deliver us from evil.
     For the kingdom, the power,
     and the glory are yours,
     now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction  BCP p. 364

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant  Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People  Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant  The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life's journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

Please come forward by row to receive communion. If you need communion brought to you, please let a sacristan know.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please come to the high altar through the chancel gate and a prayer minister will meet you.
Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.

Words: Donald Fishel (b. 1950); Music: Alleluia No. 1, Donald Fishel; arr. Betty Pulkingham (b. 1928), Charles Mallory (b. 1950) and George Mims (b. 1938)

Refrain

Alleluia, alleluia! Give thanks to the risen Lord. Alleluia, alleluia! Give praise to his Name.

1 Jesus is Lord of all the earth.
2 Spread the good news o'er all the earth:
3 We have been crucified with Christ.
4 Come, let us praise the living God,

He is the King of creation.
Jesus has died and has risen.
Now we shall live for ever.
Joyfully sing to our Savior.

Repeat Refrain
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.
All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit,
that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing of Easter

Celebrant May Christ, who by death has destroyed death, give you all courage and joy in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit; and the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity, Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-Giving Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.
All Amen.

Closing Hymn

LEVAS II 42, vv. 1-2

1. I serve a risen Savior, He's in the world today;
2. In all the world around me I see His loving care,

1. I know that He is living, whatever others say;
2. And though my heart grows weary I never will despair,
1. I see His hand of mercy, I hear His voice of cheer.
2. I know that He is leading through all the stormy blast.

1. And just the time I need Him—He's always near.
2. The day of His appearing will come at last.

He lives, He lives, Christ Jesus lives today!

He lives, He lives,

He walks with me and talks with me along life's narrow way.

He lives, He lives, salvation to impart!

He lives, He lives,

You ask me how I know He lives? He lives within my heart.

Words and Music: Alfred H. Ackley (1887-1960)
Dismissal  \(\text{BCP p. 366}\)

Deacon
Let us go forth in the name of Christ. Alleluia, alleluia.

People
Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

Please take this bulletin home with you.

Core Values

In April we focus on the Core Value of Compassion

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.
Reading Night at Family Shelter
6:15-7:30pm, Crown Heights
Volunteers read aloud to children, ages 0-4, at a Brooklyn women's and baby shelter. Help set up a light dinner, eat with the families, and then read aloud to young children in the shelter's recently renovated library. Volunteers are required to undergo a background check. Information: trinity.kianga@gmail.com.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 1
Trauma Response & Treatment
9:45am-Noon, Offsite
The staff of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute (PSI) is partnering with city faith leaders from different traditions for Interfaith conversations addressing how religious traditions influence communities of faith and individuals coping with trauma and what clinicians and helping professionals can learn to better inform their response and treatment. This session will focus on Buddhism and Christianity and will feature a conversation between PSI therapists H. Kimball Jones, PhD, LMHC; Mary Ragan, PhD, LCSW; the Rev. Doyeon Park of Won Buddhist Temple; and the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles of Trinity Church Wall Street. Event will be held at One Spirit Learning Alliance (247 W. 36th St., 6th Floor). Registration: $35. Information: psinyc.org.

Friday Night Book Club
6pm, through June 7, Chapel of All Saints
In this Easter season, we are “doing theology” using McIntosh’s Mysteries of Faith book. We are exploring mysteries—Trinity, creation, revelation, incarnation, salvation and communion—one theme per week, beginning as always with a meal together. Information: Yunjeong Seol at yseol@trinitywallstreet.org.

SATURDAY, MAY 4

Whole Community Learning: Visioning Day
10am-2pm, Club Quarters, 52 William Street
The Education Standing Committee of Trinity’s Congregational Council and the Faith Formation staff invite you to a half-day session to evaluate, brainstorm, and dream about formation activities for all ages as we get ready to move into the Trinity Commons. Whether you already play a leadership role, are a regular attender, or just have an interest, please come share ideas and lunch. Breakfast available at 9:30am. RSVP to christianformation@trinitywallstreet.org.

Brown Bag Lunch
12:45pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Information: trinitywallstreet.org/brownbag.

NEXT SUNDAY

Rector’s Forum
10am, St. Paul’s Chapel
Come hear the Rector provide updates on current and upcoming projects and lead an open forum for parishioners to ask questions. All are welcome. Refreshments will be available.

Member Appreciation Jubilee Tea
1pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Members—longtime and new—will be honored with refreshments, music, and good words. If you’re not a member, you’re welcome, too. Information: Mother Beth at eblunt@trinitywallstreet.org.

Foundations
1pm, Parish Center, 56 Trinity Place
Foundations is a series for those seeking Adult Baptism or Confirmation, Reception, or Reaffirmation of Faith in the Episcopal Church. It is also a great opportunity to acquire a greater understanding of what it means to be an Episcopalian and Anglican for those seeking formal membership at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel. Together we will learn about scripture, theology, prayer and much more. Join Trinity’s Vicar the Rev. Phillip Jackson, the Rev. Elizabeth Blunt, and other clergy and staff for fun, fellowship, and interactive learning. For more information or to RSVP, visit trinitywallstreet.org/foundations.

COMING SOON
Trinity Youth Chorus Concert
5pm, Friday, May 10, St. Paul’s Chapel
This free concert includes selections from Benjamin Britten’s Friday Afternoons. Trinity Youth Chorus Junior Choristers; Trinity Youth Chorus Peppercorn Choristers; Confucius Plaza Chorus; Chrystie Street Chorus; Melissa Attebury and Anne Damassa Graff, conductors.

Living with Loss
6:30-8pm, Fridays, May 10 –June 14, Chapel of All Saints
Chapel service: 6:30pm, June 21, Chapel of All Saints
Grief is a deeply personal process but does not have to be endured alone. This 6-part series will facilitate reflection and creative expression to help us cope with loss. Facilitated by Kathleen Sharkey, LCSW, a therapist with the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute. RSVPs appreciated at trinitywallstreet.org/loss. Information: Amiriz in Pastoral Care at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Care for Caregivers
11:30am-3pm, Saturday, May 11, Parish Center
An afternoon of reflection and replenishment because caregivers need care, too. Join the Rev. Alfred Loua and Kim Schneiderman of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute for an afternoon of care. Be replenished by the sharing of a meal, the catching of your breath, the comfort of prayer, and practices of rest in the presence of God. Please RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/caregiver.

AIDS Walk NY
10am, Sunday, May 19, Central Park
Join Trinity’s interfaith team for the annual AIDS Walk New York in support of AIDS treatment, research, and education. The 10k (6.2 miles) walk begins and ends in Central Park. You can participate by walking with the team or donating/raising funds. Stop by the tables after the 9:15am and 11:15am services May 5 and May 12 to sign up, donate, or volunteer. Information: Al DiRaffaele at ninegraf2@gmail.com.

Trinity Men’s Retreat
May 24-26, Trinity Retreat Center
Join the men of Trinity and the Rev. Alfred Loua as they enjoy the great outdoors and consider what men need spiritually in the midst of busy, urban lives. Registration required by Friday, May 10. Information: Amiriz at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Reich Richter Pärt
Through June 2, The Shed, 545 W. 30th St.
Reich Richter Pärt plumbs the depths of a shared language between painting and music, exploring how each medium might affect our sensory experience of the other. The Choir of Trinity Wall Street performs Drei Hirtenkinder aus Fátima, Arvo Pärt’s chorale piece composed in response to paintings by Richter. Tickets at theshed.org.

Finding Faith in Narnia
July 4-8, Trinity Retreat Center
This summer, come with us to Narnia, home of the White Witch and Aslan, as we explore faith through C. S. Lewis’s classic tale, The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, with activities, crafts, games, and the story on the big screen. Recommended for families with children ages seven and older. Registration deadline: Saturday, June 8. Activity fee: $100 per family. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/summercamp.

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are removing paint and plaster, installing conduit, and performing electrical work; excavating for the ADA lift on the north side of the chancel; excavating for the limited use/limited application lift at the west side of the church; planning for sheetrock in the new sacristy; and digging test pits for the external canopy. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.
Emails from the Rector and Vicar
Recently several parishioners have received fraudulent emails from senders claiming to be the Rector or the Vicar. If you receive an email that asks you to do a favor (e.g., buy a gift card) or otherwise sounds suspicious, please delete the email. You can report the incident to lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Courageous and Just Video Series
Trinity has launched a new biweekly video series featuring Trinity’s Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas. Dr. Douglas is interviewing leaders to explore critical issues facing today’s church, our individual identities, and our shared life in society, including author Austin Channing Brown, the Rev. Canon Broderick Greer, Presbyterian minister Mihee Kim-Kort, and Professor Jeremy Cruz. Watch existing and new episodes at trinitywallstreet.org/courageous.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitygiftshopnyc.com.

Congregational Voice
“Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth” (Psalm 46:10 ASV). I love this verse because it keeps me grounded when everything around us is chaos. I know there is something bigger and better in control.

This service conforms to Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, beginning on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
