O God, you raised up Jesus Christ as your faithful witness and the first-born of the dead. By your Holy Spirit, help us to witness to Christ so that those who have not yet seen may come to believe. who is, and was, and is to come. Amen.

—RCLP p. 115, adapted
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there, and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.’” — Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” — Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” — Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” — Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” — Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” — Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The Great Fifty Days of Easter

After forty days of fasting and self-discipline, like marathon runners, exhausted, breathless and weary now, we make one final effort to reach the finish line. “It is Easter, we say. Alleluia, it's over.” And yet, it is not over at all, it is just beginning. Now is the time of festival—a festival that lasts for 50 days, until the Day of Pentecost.

There are two seasons—one before Easter and the other after. The season before Easter signifies the troubles in which we live here and now, while the time after Easter which we are celebrating at present signifies the happiness that will be ours in the future. Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia!

—from an Eastertide sermon of St. Augustine of Hippo

Eastertide—The Season of Sundays of Easter

Easter is a season, not a day—rather, a Great Fifty days, a Week of Weeks, 7 the perfect number seven multiplied by its own perfection plus one day more to make perfection perfect. The First Week of Easter has Collects, Psalms, and Readings provided in the Book of Common Prayer Lectionary. The Weekdays of Easter begin after the Second Sunday of Easter.

Since the triumphs of the saints and Major Feasts are a continuation and manifestation of the Paschal victory of Christ, the following are observed during Eastertide:

Saint Mark the Evangelist: April 29
Saint Philip and St. James, Apostles: May 1
Eastertide Rogation Days: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, May 27-29
Ascension Day: May 30
Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary: May 31

The Acts of the Apostles

Following the ancient tradition of the Church, the First Lessons provide of a semi-continuous reading of the Acts of the Apostles. We begin reading this account on the Weekdays of Easter Week.

The Readings from the Gospel of John are chosen for their appropriateness to the season and complement the readings from John assigned to the Weekdays of Lent.

The Paschal Candle

The large candle from the Great Vigil of Easter burns in a prominent place in the Church at every service during Eastertide. In the ancient Christian basilicas, some of which still exist in Italy, the stand for the Paschal Candle was built into the pulpit as a permanent feature of the building’s architecture. In the Middle Ages, Winchester Cathedral had a Paschal Candle that was sixty feet tall!
ALLELUIA
This word, derived from the Hebrew hallelujah, means “praise to Yahweh.” In Jewish worship, it is particularly characteristic of Passover. As early as the time of the writing of the book of Revelation (probably by the 2nd century), “Hallelujah” was already established as an important word in the Church's liturgical vocabulary.

BAPTISMAL FONT
The Baptismal Font remains in the Sanctuary for the duration of Eastertide—the principal Baptismal Season of the Church Year. After you have received Communion, you are invited to dip your finger into the water in the Font and make the sign of the cross in recognition of the blessings you have received in your Baptism.

Collects and Readings

Saint Mark the Evangelist (transferred) April 29
Almighty God, by the hand of Mark the evangelist you have given to your Church the Gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God: We thank you for this witness, and pray that we may be firmly grounded in its truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Isaiah 52:7-10; Psalm 2; Ephesians 4:7-8, 11-16; Mark 1:1-15

Tuesday in the Second Week of Easter April 30
O God, by the waters of Baptism you have renewed those who believe in you: Come to the help of those who have been reborn in Christ, that they may overcome the wiles of the devil, and continue faithful to the gifts of grace they have received from you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 93; Acts 4:32-37; John 3:7-15

Saint Philip and Saint James, Apostles May 1
Almighty God, who gave to your apostles Philip and James grace and strength to bear witness to the truth: Grant that we, being mindful of their victory of faith, may glorify in life and death the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Thursday in the Second Week of Easter May 2
O Lord, you have saved us through the Paschal mystery of Christ: Continue to support your people with heavenly gifts, that we may attain true liberty, and enjoy the happiness of heaven which we have begun to taste on earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 34:15-22; Acts 5:27-33; John 3:31-36

Friday in the Second Week of Easter May 3
O Lord, the life of the faithful, the glory of the saints, and the delight of those who trust in you: Hear our supplications, and quench, we pray, the thirst of those who long for your promises; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Psalm 2

Psalm Texts

Psalm 2

Reader Let us read Psalm 2 responsively by half-verse.

Why are the nations in an uproar; *

People why do the peoples mutter empty threats?

Reader Why do the mighty of the earth rise up in revolt and the rulers plot together; *

People against God and against God's Anointed?

Reader “Let us break their yoke,” they say; *

People “let us cast off their bonds from us.”

Reader You whose throne is in heaven are laughing; *

People you have them in derision.

Reader Then you speak to them in your wrath, *

People and your rage fills them with terror.

Reader “I myself have set my monarch *

People upon my holy hill of Zion.”

Reader Let me announce the decree of God, *

People who has said to me, “You are my Son;
this day have I begotten you.

Reader Ask of me, and I will give you the nations for your inheritance *

People and the ends of the earth for your possession.

Reader You shall crush them with an iron rod *

People and shatter them like a piece of pottery.”

Reader And now, you monarchs, be wise; *

People be warned, you rulers of the earth.

Reader Submit to God with fear, *

People and with trembling bow before the Most High,

Reader Lest God be angry and you perish, *

People for divine wrath is quickly kindled.

Reader Happy are they all *

People who take refuge in God!

Psalm 93

Psalm Texts

Psalm 93

Reader Let us read Psalm 93 responsively by half-verse.

God is Sovereign,
clothed in splendid apparel; *

People God is robed in majesty and is girded with strength.

Reader God has made the whole world so sure *

People that it cannot be moved;
Reader Ever since the world began,
your throne has been established; *
People you are from everlasting.
Reader The waters have lifted up, O God,
the waters have lifted up their voice; *
People the waters have lifted up their pounding waves.
Reader Mightier than the sound of many waters,
mightier than the breakers of the sea, *
People mightier is the Holy One who dwells on high.
Reader Your testimonies are very sure, *
People and holiness adorns your house, O God,
for ever and for evermore.

Psalm 119:33-40
Wednesday, May 1

Reader Let us read from Psalm 119 responsively by half-verse.
People Teach me, O God, the way of your statutes, *
Reader and I shall keep it to the end.
People Give me understanding, and I shall keep your law; *
Reader I shall keep it with all my heart.
People Make me go in the path of your commandments, *
Reader for that is my desire.
People Incline my heart to your decrees
Reader and not to unjust gain.
People Turn my eyes from watching what is worthless; *
Reader give me life in your ways.
People Fulfill your promise to your servant, *
Reader which you make to those who fear you.
People Turn away the reproach which I dread, *
Reader because your judgments are good.
People Behold, I long for your commandments; *
Reader in your righteousness preserve my life.

Psalm 34:15-22
Thursday, May 2

Reader Let us read from Psalm 34 responsively by half-verse.
People The eyes of God are upon the righteous, *
Reader and the ears of God are open to their cry.
People The face of God is against those who do evil, *
Reader to root out the remembrance of them from the earth.
People The righteous cry, and God hears them *
Reader and delivers them from all their troubles.

The psalm continues on the next page.
Reader God is near to the brokenhearted *
People and will save those whose spirits are crushed.
Reader Many are the troubles of the righteous, *
People but God will deliver them out of them all.
Reader God will keep safe all their bones; *
People not one of them shall be broken.
Reader Evil shall slay the wicked, *
People and those who hate the righteous will be punished.
Reader O God, you will ransom the life of your servants, *
People and none will be punished who trust in you.

Psalm 27:1-9

Reader Let us read from Psalm 27 responsively by half-verse.

Reader God is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I fear? *
People God is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?
Reader When evildoers came upon me to eat up my flesh, *
People it was they, my foes and my adversaries, who stumbled and fell.
Reader Though an army should encamp against me, *
People yet my heart shall not be afraid;
Reader And though war should rise up against me, *
People yet will I put my trust in God.
Reader One thing have I asked of you, O God; one thing I seek: *
People that I may dwell in your house all the days of my life;
Reader To behold the fair beauty, O God, *
People and to seek you in your temple.
Reader For in the day of trouble you shall keep me safe in your shelter; *
People you shall hide me in the secrecy of your dwelling and set me high upon a rock.
Reader Even now you lift up my head *
People above my enemies round about me.
Reader Therefore I will offer in your dwelling an oblation with sounds of great gladness; *
People I will sing and make music to you.
The Entrance Rite

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Bidding
based on 1 Peter 1:3
Celebrant Let us give thanks to our God who in great mercy and abounding love has given us new life by raising Jesus Christ from death. This fills us with a living hope.
People Alleluia!

Responsory
CW:TS p. 168, adapted/Psalm 67:3
Celebrant Christ has defeated the powers of death.
People Alleluia!
Celebrant In Christ our sins are forgiven and we live a new life of grace.
People Alleluia!
Celebrant Christ turns our sorrow into dancing.
People Alleluia!
Celebrant Let the peoples praise you, O God;
People Let all the peoples praise you.

Prayer
C. N. R. Wallwork, NPP
Celebrant God is here.
People The Spirit of God is with us.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Be present, O Risen Christ, in this your Church’s Easter praise: that its anthems of joy and is proclamation of your victory will worthily celebrate the mystery of your redeeming love and the majesty of your eternal glory.

All Amen.
Easter Anthems

Christ our Passover

Celebrant  Alleluia!
Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us:
therefore let us keep the feast,
Not with the old leaven of corruption and wickedness:
but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

—1 Corinthians 5:7b, 8

All  Alleluia!
Christ once raised from the dead dies no more:
death has no more dominion over him.
In dying he died to sin once for all:
in living he lives to God.
See yourselves therefore as dead to sin:
and alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord.

—Romans 6:9-11

Celebrant  Alleluia!
Christ has been raised from the dead:
the first fruits of those who sleep.
For as by one of us came death:
so by one has come also the resurrection of the dead;
for as in Adam all die:
even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
Alleluia!

—1 Corinthians 15:20-22

The Collect of the Day

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

Silence follows the homily.

The Prayers of the People

Please stand as you are able.

Reader Let us pray to Jesus Christ, our Risen Savior and Lord.

Fill us with the joy of your glorious and life-giving resurrection:

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ, our Risen Savior and Lord, sustain us, that together with Michael our Presiding Bishop, Andrew, Allen, and Mary our Bishops, we will offer ourselves, a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ, our Risen Savior and Lord, make us agents of your justice and goodness, that together with Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor, you will bring justice, faith, we will serve the common good.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ, our Risen Savior and Lord, give us eyes to see the pain and distress all around us, ears to hear the cries of those who are oppressed and exploited, and hands to serve those in need.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ, our Risen Savior and Lord, fill us with delight in the world we share with all creation, that we will care for the earth, the sky and the sea, and conserve their resources for those who come after us.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ our Risen Savior and Lord, fill us with compassion, that we will welcome the stranger, speak up for those whose voices go unheeded, and walk in solidarity with those whose paths are rough.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ our Risen Savior and Lord, you offer us eternal life; may we, with all those who have died come to share Christ’s glory in the presence of God through the power of the Holy Spirit.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.
Celebrant: Eternal God in whom is all our hope in life, in death, and to all eternity: grant that, rejoicing in the eternal life which is ours in Christ, we may face whatever the future holds in store for us calm and unafraid, always confident that neither death nor life can part us from your love in Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

People: And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering.
The organist plays an improvisation.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Celebrant: It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.

You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:
Celebrant

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:
All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant Remembering the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with [_________ and] all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All AMEN.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

FRAGMENT

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us.

People Therefore, let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.
If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing of Easter

Celebrant The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant: Make you perfect in every good work to do God’s will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in God’s sight;

And the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity, Loving Creator, Living Words, and Life-giving Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All Amen.
Dismissal

Celebrant
Let us go forth in the name of Christ. Alleluia. Alleluia.

People
Thanks be to God. Alleluia. Alleluia.

Postlude

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area.

---

Flowers

The flowers are given in loving memory of Walter T. Oerleman and in celebration of what would have been his 90th birthday. Walter, we carry you with us each day, living our lives and raising our children in ways we hope make you proud. Please know you are remembered, loved, and missed every single day.

Love, your family.

After the conclusion of the service on Thursday, parishioners are invited to take home flowers from the chancel arrangement.

To donate flowers, email flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

In April we focus on the Core Value of Compassion 2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats

Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity's core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.

Living with Loss
6:30-8pm, Fridays, May 10 –June 14,
Chapel of All Saints
Chapel service: 6:30pm, June 21, Chapel of All Saints
Grief is a deeply personal process but does not have to be endured alone. This 6-part series will facilitate reflection and creative expression to help us cope with loss. Facilitated by Kathleen Sharkey, LCSW, a therapist with the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute. RSVPs appreciated at trinitywallstreet.org/loss. Information: Amiriz in Pastoral Care at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Care for Caregivers
11:30am-3pm, Saturday, May 11, Parish Center
An afternoon of reflection and replenishment because caregivers need care, too. Join the Rev. Alfred Loua and Kim Schneideman of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute for an afternoon of care. Be replenished by the sharing of a meal, the catching of your breath, the comfort of prayer, and practices of rest in the presence of God. Please RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/caregiver.

AIDS Walk NY
10am, Sunday, May 19, Central Park
Join Trinity’s interfaith team for the annual AIDS Walk New York in support of AIDS treatment, research, and education. The 10k (6.2 miles) walk begins and ends in Central Park. You can participate by walking with the team or donating/raising funds. Stop by the tables after the 9:15am and 11:15am services May 5 and May 12 to sign up, donate, or volunteer. Information: Al DiRaffaele at ninegraff2@gmail.com.

Trinity Men’s Retreat
May 24-26, Trinity Retreat Center
Join the men of Trinity and the Rev. Alfred Loua as they enjoy the great outdoors and consider what men need spiritually in the midst of busy, urban lives. Registration required by Friday, May 10. Information: Amiriz at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Reich Richter Pärt
Through June 2, The Shed, 545 W. 30th St.
Reich Richter Pärt plumbs the depths of a shared language between painting and music, exploring how each medium might affect our sensory experience of the other. The Choir of Trinity Wall Street performs Drei Hirtenkinder aus Fátima, Arvo Pärt’s chorale piece composed in response to paintings by Richter. Tickets at theshed.org.
Finding Faith in Narnia
July 4-8, Trinity Retreat Center
This summer, come with us to Narnia, home of the White Witch and Aslan, as we explore faith through C.S. Lewis’s classic tale, The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, with activities, crafts, games, and the story on the big screen. Recommended for families with children ages seven and older. Registration deadline: Saturday, June 8. Activity fee: $100 per family. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/summercamp.

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are removing paint and plaster, installing conduit, and performing electrical work; excavating for the ADA lift on the north side of the chancel; excavating for the limited use/limited application lift at the west side of the church; planning for sheetrock in the new sacristy; and digging test pits for the external canopy. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Emails from the Rector and Vicar
Recently several parishioners have received fraudulent emails from senders claiming to be the Rector or the Vicar. If you receive an email that asks you to do a favor (e.g., buy a gift card) or otherwise sounds suspicious, please delete the email. You can report the incident to lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Courageous and Just Video Series
Trinity has launched a new biweekly video series featuring Trinity’s Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas. Dr. Douglas is interviewing leaders to explore critical issues facing today’s church, our individual identities, and our shared life in society, including author Austin Channing Brown, the Rev. Canon Broderick Greer, Presbyterian minister Mihee Kim-Kort, and Professor Jeremy Cruz. Watch existing and new episodes at trinitywallstreet.org/courageous.

Congregational Voice
“Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth” (Psalm 46:10 ASV). I love this verse because it keeps me grounded when everything around us is chaos. I know there is something bigger and better in control.

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a "mighty angel" with a "face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire," straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel's feet appear the words "I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay," referring to the urgency of establishing the Church.

This service of Holy Eucharist is based on Rite Two, beginning on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts come from the St. Helena Psalter. The bulletin cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP), proposed by the Consultation on Common Texts. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship: Times and Seasons (CW:TS), Contemporary Parish Prayers (CPP) and New Parish Prayers (NPP) edited and compiled by Frank Colquhoun, and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
