MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”

—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.”—GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The Great Fifty Days of Easter
After forty days of fasting and self-discipline, like marathon runners, exhausted, breathless and weary now, we make one final effort to reach the finish line. “It is Easter, we say. Alleluia, it’s over.” And yet, it is not over at all, it is just beginning. Now is the time of festival—a festival that lasts for 50 days, until the Day of Pentecost.

There are two seasons—one before Easter and the other after. The season before Easter signifies the troubles in which we live here and now, while the time after Easter which we are celebrating at present signifies the happiness that will be ours in the future. Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia! —from an Eastertide sermon of St. Augustine of Hippo

The Acts of the Apostles
This companion volume to Luke’s Gospel describes the life of the early Christian community, characterized by an intense awareness of the risen Lord’s presence and the apostolic preaching of the Resurrection. From the earliest times it has had an important place in the church’s liturgy. The liturgical revisions among Anglicans, Roman Catholics, and Lutherans have restored the book of Acts to the Easter liturgy. The First Reading for each of the Sundays of Eastertide is taken from the Book of Acts.

The Paschal Candle
The large candle from the Great Vigil of Easter burns in a prominent place in the Church at every service during Eastertide. In the ancient Christian basilicas, some of which still exist in Italy, the stand for the Paschal Candle was built into the pulpit as a permanent feature of the building’s architecture. In the Middle Ages, Winchester Cathedral had a Paschal Candle that was sixty feet tall!

Baptismal Font
The Baptismal Font remains in the sanctuary for the duration of Eastertide—the principal Baptismal Season of the Church Year. After you have received Communion, you are invited to dip your finger into the water in the font and make the sign of the cross in recognition of the blessings you have received in your Baptism.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Christ has defeated the powers of death.
People Alleluia!

Celebrant In Christ our sins are forgiven and we live a new life of grace.
People Alleluia!

Celebrant Christ turns our sorrow into dancing.
People Alleluia!

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Hymn in Procession

Hymnal 8, vv. 1-2

Words: Eleanor Farjeon (1881-1965), alt.; Music: Bunessan, Gaelic melody; harm. Alec Wyton (1921-2007)
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant  God be with you.
People  And also with you.
Celebrant  Let us pray.

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calls us each by name, and follow where he leads; who, with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever.

All  Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading  Acts 9:36-43

Reader  A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Now in Joppa there was a disciple whose name was Tabitha, which in Greek is Dorcas. She was devoted to good works and acts of charity. At that time she became ill and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in a room upstairs. Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, who heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the request, “Please come to us without delay.”

So Peter got up and went with them; and when he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was with them. Peter put all of them outside, and then he knelt down and prayed. He turned to the body and said, “Tabitha, get up.” Then she opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then calling the saints and widows, he showed her to be alive. This became known throughout Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. Meanwhile he stayed in Joppa for some time with a certain Simon, a tanner.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People  Thanks be to God.
Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The acclamation will be sung twice.

Music: Caribbean melody; arr. Hal H. Hopson (b. 1933)
The Holy Gospel

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon At that time the festival of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon. So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, “How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.”

Jesus answered, “I have told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father’s name testify to me; but you do not believe, because you do not belong to my sheep. My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand. What my Father has given me is greater than all else, and no one can snatch it out of the Father’s hand. The Father and I are one.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Phillip A. Jackson

The Creed

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Hymn to Joy, Ludwig van Beethoven (1770-1827), alt.
The Prayers of the People

Reader Christ is risen from the dead; love comes again to call us back to life. God of resurrection, hear us as we pray for the Church and the world:

Almighty Mother, enliven the Church for its mission, that we may be salt of the earth and light to the world. Breathe fresh life into your people; give us power to reveal Christ in word and action, living our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship.

Rise up, O Lord:

People Set us free, O God.

Reader Creator of all, lead us into ways of justice and peace, that we may respect one another in word and deed. Awaken in us a sense of wonder for the earth and all that is in it; teach us to care creatively for its resources.

Rise up, O Lord:

People Set us free, O God.

Reader God of truth, inspire with your wisdom those whose decisions affect the lives of others: especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor, that they may act with integrity and courage. Give grace to all whose lives are linked with ours. May we serve Christ in one another, and love as he loves us.

Rise up, O Lord:

People Set us free, O God.

Reader God of hope, comfort and restore all who suffer in body, mind, or spirit. Help them to know the power of your healing love. Make us and all your people willing agents of your compassion; strengthen us as we share in making people whole.

Rise up, O Lord:

People Set us free, O God.

Reader We remember with thanksgiving those who have died in the faith of Christ, and those whose faith is known to you alone; Father, into your hands we commend them. We praise you for all your saints who have entered into your eternal glory; may their example inspire and encourage us.

Rise up, O Lord:

People Set us free, O God.

Celebrant Lord, you have called us to serve you. Grant that we may walk in your presence: your love in our hearts, your truth in our minds, your strength in our wills; until, at the end of our journey, we know the joy of our homecoming and the welcome of your embrace, through Jesus Christ our Savior.

All Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering. Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.
The offering today is designated to Episcopal Charities to help fund the 46 parish-sponsored community kitchens and food pantries it supports.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.

You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Sung twice by all.

Music: Variation on a traditional liturgical text; Music: Composer of melody unknown; arr. based on a two-part version as taught by Pablo D. Sosa (b. 1933)

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

We failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.
In the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant Remembering the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with [___________ and] all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.
Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

Please come forward by row to receive communion. If you need communion brought to you, please let a sacristan know.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please come to the high altar through the chancel gate and a prayer minister will meet you.
Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.

Words: Donald Fishel (b. 1950); Music: Alleluia No. 1, Donald Fishel; arr. Betty Pulkingham (b. 1928), Charles Mallory (b. 1950), and George Mims (b. 1938)
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer
Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant  Let us pray.
All
God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing of Easter

Celebrant  May Christ, who by death has destroyed death, give you all courage and joy in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit; and the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity, Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-Giving Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All  Amen.
There’s a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place, And I know that it’s the Spirit of the Lord.
There are sweet expressions on each face, And I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Sweet Holy Spirit, Sweet Heavenly Dove,
Stay right here with us, filling us with your love.

And for these blessings we lift our hearts in praise; Without a doubt we’ll know that we have been revived when we shall leave this place.

Words and Music: Doris Akers (1923-1995)
Dismissal

Deacon  Let us go forth in the name of Christ. Alleluia, alleluia.

People  Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

Please take this bulletin home with you.

TODAY

Whole Community Learning
10am, 14 Vesey St.
Band of Rebels, Company of Saints. This unit invites us to go beyond thinking of saints as pious, safe historical figures and to discover in them a spark of holy rebellion inherited from Jesus and the Prophets. In each session, faith leaders inside and outside the Trinity community will share good news of those who've inspired their vocation and changed their lives. Today: Rabbi Darren Levine, Founding Rabbi of Tamid: A Downtown Synagogue will share about the impact the great activist, author, and Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel had on his own faith and leadership. Children and youth will meet at 14 Vesey St. for Godly Play and peer groups. Toddlers will meet in the nursery at St. Paul's and youth will meet at the Parish Center.

ParentSpace
10am, through May 19, 14 Vesey St.
Parents are invited to gather on the 4th floor for a time of sharing and support. The gathering is facilitated by Julia Kristeller from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute. Information: Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

Core Values

In May we focus on the Core Value of Social Justice

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

You are invited to attend a training session to learn more about the following topics: Strategies for conflict resolution, best practices for site conduct, and information about other volunteer opportunities at Trinity. For more information or to RSVP contact Fred Bivetto at fjbivetto@gmail.com.

Trinity Men’s Retreat
May 24-26, Trinity Retreat Center
Join the men of Trinity and the Rev. Alfred Loua as they enjoy the great outdoors and consider what men need spiritually in the midst of busy, urban lives. Registration required by Friday, May 10. Information: Amiriz at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Mobile Arts Sculpture Workshop
9am-5pm, May 25, Parish Center, 56 Trinity Place
New York-based artist Max Cohen leads this workshop where you’ll explore and experiment with balancing metal, wire, and paper to create unique, lively sculptures. Sponsored by Trinity’s Congregational Arts/Visual Arts. Class is limited to 20 participants. Fee: $30 for supplies; some scholarships are available. Information: Donato at dmallano@hotmail.com or 646.705.8428.
LGBTQ Pride Month: Raising the Pride Flag
6pm, Saturday, June 1, St. Paul’s Chapel
This year’s flag raising will preface the Keep it Reel Youth Film Festival. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/action.

Keep It Reel Youth Film Festival
6pm, Saturday, June 1, St. Paul’s Chapel
Join us to see how NYC youth use cinema to explore the intersections of race, morality, and their own lived experiences as public high school students in District 2, New York City’s most segregated school district. This dynamic program includes five original short films, a Q&A panel with filmmakers, and the making of the Keep It Reel documentary by Trinity's advocacy apprentices. To RSVP, visit trinitywallstreet.org/keepitreel.

Sunday Afternoon Music
3pm, June 2, St. Paul’s Chapel
This recital will feature violinists Brian Krinke and Sarah Vonsattel performing works by Luciano Berio, Miklós Rózsa, Eugène Ysaÿe, Karol Szymanowski, and Maurice Ravel. Reception follows. Admission is free. All are welcome. Sponsored by Trinity Congregational Arts/Allegro. Information: Deborah Hope at dehope@ix.netcom.com or Mikako Kumagai at mikako.kumagai@gmail.com.

Reich Richter Pärt
Through June 2, The Shed, 545 W. 30th St.
Reich Richter Pärt plumbs the depths of a shared language between painting and music, exploring how each medium might affect our sensory experience of the other. The Choir of Trinity Wall Street performs Drei Hirtenkinder aus Fátima, Arvo Pärt’s chorale piece composed in response to paintings by Richter. Tickets at theshed.org.

Finding Faith in Narnia
July 4-7, Trinity Retreat Center
This summer, come with us to Narnia, home of the White Witch and Aslan, as we explore faith through C.S. Lewis’s classic tale, The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, with activities, crafts, games, and the story on the big screen. Recommended for families with children ages seven and older. Registration deadline: Saturday, June 8. Activity fee: $100 per family. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/summercamp.

Discovery For Families Fishing Trip
9:30am, Saturday, June 8, Offsite
All are welcome. Transportation will be provided to and from the venue. $10 per person suggested donation. The bus will leave the Parish Center (56 Trinity Place) promptly at 9:30am and return at approximately 5pm. To reserve your seat(s) please contact Keith Klein at kklein23@gmail.com or Kevin Grant at kevindds@yahoo.com.

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are removing paint and plaster, installing conduit, and performing electrical work; excavating for the ADA lift on the north side of the chancel; excavating for the limited use/limited application lift at the west side of the church; planning for sheetrock in the new sacristy; and digging test pits for the external canopy. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Emails from the Rector and Vicar
Recently several parishioners have received fraudulent emails from senders claiming to be the Rector or the Vicar. If you receive an email that asks you to do a favor (e.g., buy a gift card) or otherwise sounds suspicious, please delete the email. You can report the incident to lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Courageous and Just Video Series
Trinity has launched a new biweekly video series featuring Trinity’s Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas. Dr. Douglas is interviewing leaders to explore critical issues facing today’s church, our individual identities, and our shared life in society, including author Austin Channing Brown, the Rev. Canon Broderick Greer, Presbyterian minister Mihee Kim-Kort, and Professor Jeremy Cruz. Watch existing and new episodes at trinitywallstreet.org/courageous.
The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone. Please note the Sisters will not be in on May 21, 22, and 23.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitygiftshopnyc.com.

Congregational Voice
“And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God” (Romans 12:2 KJV). I like this verse as it speaks to the mind and thinking being the cause of my experiences and circumstances, and these can be changed by learning to think differently, which is also in the realm of psychology and personal development pathways, which are outside of religion. It brings to mind the thought that science proves religion and religion proves science.
