Alpha and Omega, First and Last,
glory outshining all the lights of heaven:
pour out upon us your Spirit of faithful love and abundant compassion, so that we may rejoice in the splendor of your works while we wait in expectation for the new heaven and the new earth you promise when Christ shall come again. Amen.
MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About This Service

The Great Fifty Days of Easter

After forty days of fasting and self-discipline, like marathon runners, exhausted, breathless and weary now, we make one final effort to reach the finish line. “It is Easter, we say. Alleluia, it’s over.” And yet, it is not over at all, it is just beginning. Now is the time of festival—a festival that lasts for 50 days, until the Day of Pentecost.

There are two seasons—one before Easter and the other after. The season before Easter signifies the troubles in which we live here and now, while the time after Easter which we are celebrating at present signifies the happiness that will be ours in the future. Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia!

—from an Eastertide sermon of St. Augustine of Hippo

Eastertide—The Season of Sundays of Easter

Easter is a season, not a day—rather, a Great Fifty days, a Week of Weeks, 7 the perfect number multiplied by its own perfection plus one day more to make perfection perfect.

In very early times the feasts of Easter Day and Pentecost were moved to the Sundays following the Jewish festivals, because of the early church’s intense reverence for the first day of the week as the Lord’s Day, the Day of Resurrection.

The Acts of the Apostles

This companion volume to Luke’s Gospel describes the life of the early Christian community, characterized by an intense awareness of the risen Lord’s presence and the apostolic preaching of the Resurrection. From the earliest times it has had an important place in the church’s liturgy. The liturgical revisions among Anglicans, Roman Catholics, and Lutherans have restored the book of Acts to the Easter liturgy. The First Reading for each of the Sundays of Eastertide is taken from the Book of Acts.

The Paschal Candle

The large candle from the Great Vigil of Easter burns in a prominent place in the Church at every service during Eastertide. In the ancient Christian basilicas, some of which still exist in Italy, the stand for the Paschal Candle was built into the pulpit as a permanent feature of the building’s architecture. In the Middle Ages, Winchester Cathedral had a Paschal Candle that was sixty feet tall!

Alleluia

This word, derived from the Hebrew hallelujah, means “praise to Yahweh.” In Jewish worship, it is particularly characteristic of Passover. As early as the time of the writing of the book of Revelation (probably by the 2nd century), “Hallelujah” was already established as an important word in the Church’s liturgical vocabulary.
BAPTISMAL FONT
The Baptismal Font remains in the sanctuary for the duration of Eastertide—the principal Baptismal Season of the Church Year. After you have received Communion, you are invited to dip your finger into the water in the font and make the sign of the cross in recognition of the blessings you have received in your Baptism.

People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

BIDDING

based on 1 Peter 1:3

Celebrant Let us give thanks to our God who in great mercy and abounding love has given us new life by raising Jesus Christ from death. This fills us with a living hope.
People Alleluia!

RESPONSORY

CW p. 168, adapted

Celebrant Christ has defeated the powers of death.
People Alleluia!
Celebrant In Christ our sins are forgiven and we live a new life of grace.
People Alleluia!
Celebrant Christ turns our sorrow into dancing.
People Alleluia!
Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia.
Song of Praise

Celebrant This is the feast of victory for our God.
All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Worthy is Christ, the Lamb who was slain,
whose blood set us free to be people of God.

Power, riches, wisdom, and strength, and honor, blessing, and glory are his.

Sing with all the people of God,
and join in the hymn of all creation.

Blessing, honor, glory, and might be to God and the Lamb for ever. Amen.

For the Lamb who was slain has begun his reign. Alleluia!

This is the feast of victory for our God.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, whom truly to know is everlasting life: Grant us so perfectly to know your Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life, that we may steadfastly follow his steps in the way that leads to eternal life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Acts 11:1-18

Reader

Now the apostles and the believers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also accepted the word of God. So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers criticized him, saying, “Why did you go to uncircumcised men and eat with them?”

Then Peter began to explain it to them, step by step, saying, “I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision. There was something like a large sheet coming down from heaven, being lowered by its four corners; and it came close to me. As I looked at it closely I saw four-footed animals, beasts of prey, reptiles, and birds of the air. I also heard a voice saying to me, ‘Get up, Peter; kill and eat.’ But I replied, ‘By no means, Lord; for nothing profane or unclean has ever entered my mouth.’ But a second time the voice answered from heaven, ‘What God has made clean, you must not call profane.’ This happened three times; then everything was pulled up again to heaven.

“At that very moment three men, sent to me from Caesarea, arrived at the house where we were. The Spirit told me to go with them and not to make a distinction between them and us. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered the man’s house. He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, ‘Send to Joppa and bring Simon, who is called Peter; he will give you a message by which you and your entire household will be saved.’

“And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them just as it had upon us at the beginning. And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said, ‘John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’ If then God gave them the same gift that he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could hinder God?” When they heard this, they were silenced. And they praised God, saying, “Then God has given even to the Gentiles the repentance that leads to life.”

People

Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 148:1-3, 7, 9-11, 13

Reader

Let us read from Psalm 148 responsively by half-verse.

sing praise in the heights.*

Reader

Praise God, all you angels; *

People

sing praise, all you heavenly host.

Reader

Praise God, sun and moon; *

People

sing praise, all you shining stars.

Reader

Praise God from the earth, *

People

you sea-monsters and all deeps;

Reader

Mountains and all hills, *

People

fruit trees and all cedars;
Reader Wild beasts and all cattle, *
People creeping things and winged birds;
Reader Sovereigns of the earth and all peoples, *
People leaders and all rulers of the world;
Reader Let them praise your Name, O God, *
People for your Name only is exalted;
your splendor is over earth and heaven.

The Second Reading

Reader A Reading from the Revelation to John.

I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them as their God; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.”

And the one who was seated on the throne said, “See, I am making all things new.” Also he said, “Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.” Then he said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Please stand as you are able.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon At the last supper, when Judas had gone out, Jesus said, “Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come.’ I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. C. Alfred Loua
The Nicene Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant We believe in one God,
All the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is,
seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.
The Prayers of the People

Reader  Jesus Christ, our risen Savior has won the victory and leads us into abundant life.
Let us pray in confidence for the Church and the world.

Jesus Christ our great high priest, you live for ever to intercede for us, make our prayers your own; that we and all the whole world will live in the power of your Easter victory.

People  Alleluia! Christ is risen.

Reader  You are the head of the Church, guide and direct Michael our Presiding Bishop, Andrew;
Allen and Mary our bishops, and all the Bishops and people who serve you in your Church: that your will may be done on earth as it is in heaven.

People  Alleluia! Christ is risen.

Reader  Your victory fills the universe: continue to call us to serve you and empower us with gifts for the work you give us to do in your name. Give us the grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship; and the wisdom to discern where you are leading us in our commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership, and Capacity.

People  Alleluia! Christ is risen.

Reader  You are the first-born of all creation through whom all things are made: make us faithful stewards of the gifts of the earth, the sky and the sea: that we will use them responsibly in our time and conserve them well for those who come after us.

People  Alleluia! Christ is risen.

Reader  Your reign of righteousness has begun; we pray for the nations of the world; inaugurate your gentle rule in them. Bless and guide all who make decisions for the common good, especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor and Bill our Mayor.

People  Alleluia! Christ is risen.

Reader  Jesus Christ, born as one of us, you draw all humankind into the life of God: embrace our sisters and brothers in need, distress, or sorrow, migrant workers and their families, those suffering injustice and persecution, all exiles and refugees, and use us to bless and serve them.

People  Alleluia! Christ is risen.

Reader  You are the pioneer of our salvation, bringing us to glory through your resurrection:
surround with your saints and angels those who have died trusting your promises.

People  Alleluia! Christ is risen.

Celebrant  Be present, be present, O Jesus, our great High Priest, as you were present with your disciples, and be known to us in the breaking of bread; for you live and reign in the unity of the Holy and Blessed Trinity, one God now and for ever.

All  Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

Please stand as you able and gather around the altar, bringing your bulletin with you.
An usher collects the offering.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.

You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we say:

Holy, Holy, Holy

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.
Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant

Remembering the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with [_________ and] all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All

AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your Name,

your kingdom come,

your will be done,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,

and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,

and the glory are yours,

now and for ever. Amen.
The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant  Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People  Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant  The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life's journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant  Let us pray.

All  God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing of Easter

The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant: Make you perfect in every good work to do God’s will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in God’s sight;

And the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity, Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-Giving Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All  Amen.
Dismissal

Deacon  Let us go forth in the name of Christ. Alleluia, alleluia.

People  Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar rail.

Please take this bulletin home with you.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: After months of digging, workers are in a “build back” phase. Workers are pouring concrete in the chancel and the chancel steps have been put in place. Piping for electrical, data, and security conduits are in place and ready to accommodate the organ. Samples for the pendant lighting are being evaluated. Plaster decorations are being created for columns. The altar and reredos are being repaired, finished, and cleaned. Stained glass is expected to be installed soon. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Emails from the Rector and Vicar Recently several parishioners have received fraudulent emails from senders claiming to be the Rector or the Vicar. If you receive an email that asks you to do a favor (e.g., buy a gift card) or otherwise sounds suspicious, please delete the email. You can report the incident to lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Courageous and Just Video Series
Trinity has launched a new biweekly video series featuring Trinity's Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas. Dr. Douglas is interviewing leaders to explore critical issues facing today's church, our individual identities, and our shared life in society, including author Austin Channing Brown, the Rev. Canon Broderick Greer, Presbyterian minister Mihee Kim-Kort, and Professor Jeremy Cruz. Watch existing and new episodes at trinitywallstreet.org/courageous.
The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.
Please note the Sisters will not be in on May 21, 22, and 23.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitygiftshopnyc.com.

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, please call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team. For other pastoral needs, call 212.602.0800 and ask for Pastoral Care.

Congregational Voice
“Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding” (Proverbs 3:5).
This is one of my favorite Bible verses because I believe every word and it’s so self-explanatory when you surrender your life to the Lord. I surrendered thirty years ago and never regretted it. He is the Lord over my life and He will never lead you wrong. Trust and believe.  —Betty Jones

This service is based on The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. The bulletin cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP), proposed by the Consultation on Common Texts. The Prayers of the People were composed by the Rev. Bruce Jenneker; they may not be edited by the Liturgical Desktop Publisher without his explicit written direction. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled at Trinity Church from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
