Alpha and Omega, First and Last,
glory outshining all the lights of heaven:
pour out upon us your Spirit
of faithful love and abundant compassion, so that we may rejoice in the splendor of your works while we wait in expectation for the new heaven and the new earth you promise when Christ shall come again. Amen.

Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

About this Service

The Great Fifty Days of Easter

After forty days of fasting and self-discipline, like marathon runners, exhausted, breathless and weary now, we make one final effort to reach the finish line. “It is Easter, we say. Alleluia, it’s over.” And yet, it is not over at all, it is just beginning. Now is the time of festival—a festival that lasts for 50 days, until the Day of Pentecost.

There are two seasons—one before Easter and the other after. The season before Easter signifies the troubles in which we live here and now, while the time after Easter which we are celebrating at present signifies the happiness that will be ours in the future. Alleluia.

Alleluia. Alleluia!

—from an Eastertide sermon of St. Augustine of Hippo

The Acts of the Apostles

This companion volume to Luke’s Gospel describes the life of the early Christian community, characterized by an intense awareness of the risen Lord’s presence and the apostolic preaching of the Resurrection. From the earliest times it has had an important place in the church’s liturgy. The liturgical revisions among Anglicans, Roman Catholics, and Lutherans have restored the book of Acts to the Easter liturgy. The First Reading for each of the Sundays of Eastertide is taken from the Book of Acts.

The Paschal Candle

The large candle from the Great Vigil of Easter burns in a prominent place in the Church at every service during Eastertide. In the ancient Christian basilicas, some of which still exist in Italy, the stand for the Paschal Candle was built into the pulpit as a permanent feature of the building’s architecture. In the Middle Ages, Winchester Cathedral had a Paschal Candle that was sixty feet tall!

Baptismal Font

The Baptismal Font remains in the sanctuary for the duration of Eastertide—the principal Baptismal Season of the Church Year. After you have received Communion, you are invited to dip your finger into the water in the font and make the sign of the cross in recognition of the blessings you have received in your Baptism.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Acts 11:1-18

Reader A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Now the apostles and the believers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also accepted the word of God. So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers criticized him, saying, “Why did you go to uncircumcised men and eat with them?”

Then Peter began to explain it to them, step by step, saying, “I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision. There was something like a large sheet coming down from heaven, being lowered by its four corners; and it came close to me. As I looked at it closely I saw four-footed animals, beasts of prey, reptiles, and birds of the air. I also heard a voice saying to me, ‘Get up, Peter; kill and eat.’ But I replied, ‘By no means, Lord; for nothing profane or unclean has ever entered my mouth.’ But a second time the voice answered from heaven, ‘What God has made clean, you must not call profane.’ This happened three times; then everything was pulled up again to heaven.

“At that very moment three men, sent to me from Caesarea, arrived at the house where we were. The Spirit told me to go with them and not to make a distinction between them and us. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered the man’s house. He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, ‘Send to Joppa and bring Simon, who is called Peter; he will give you a message by which you and your entire household will be saved.’

“And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them just as it had upon us at the beginning. And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said, ‘John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’ If then God gave them the same gift that he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could hinder God?” When they heard this, they were silenced. And they praised God, saying, “Then God has given even to the Gentiles the repentance that leads to life.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.
Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The acclamation will be sung twice.

Music: Caribbean melody; arr. Hal H. Hopson (b. 1933)
Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon  At the last supper, when Judas had gone out, Jesus said, “Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come.’ I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

The Gospel of the Lord.
People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon
Silence follows the sermon.

The Creed
Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Hymn to Joy, Ludwig van Beethoven (1770-1827), alt.
The Prayers of the People

Reader  Christ is risen from the dead; love comes again to call us back to life. God of resurrection, hear us as we pray for the Church and the world:

Almighty Mother, enliven the Church for its mission, that we may be salt of the earth and light to the world. Breathe fresh life into your people; give us power to reveal Christ in word and action, living our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship.

Rise up, O Lord:

People  Set us free, O God.

Reader  Creator of all, lead us into ways of justice and peace, that we may respect one another in word and deed. Awaken in us a sense of wonder for the earth and all that is in it; teach us to care creatively for its resources.

Rise up, O Lord:

People  Set us free, O God.

Reader  God of truth, inspire with your wisdom those whose decisions affect the lives of others: especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor, that they may act with integrity and courage. Give grace to all whose lives are linked with ours. May we serve Christ in one another, and love as he loves us.

Rise up, O Lord:

People  Set us free, O God.

Reader  God of hope, comfort and restore all who suffer in body, mind, or spirit. Help them to know the power of your healing love. Make us and all your people willing agents of your compassion; strengthen us as we share in making people whole.

Rise up, O Lord:

People  Set us free, O God.

Reader  We remember with thanksgiving those who have died in the faith of Christ, and those whose faith is known to you alone; Father, into your hands we commend them. We praise you for all your saints who have entered into your eternal glory; may their example inspire and encourage us.

Rise up, O Lord:

People  Set us free, O God.

Celebrant  Lord, you have called us to serve you. Grant that we may walk in your presence: your love in our hearts, your truth in our minds, your strength in our wills; until, at the end of our journey, we know the joy of our homecoming and the welcome of your embrace, through Jesus Christ our Savior.

All  Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant  The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People  And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering. Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.

At the Presentation

Hymnal 380, v. 3

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.
You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.
Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Sung twice by all.

Music: Variation on a traditional liturgical text; Music: Composer of melody unknown; arr. based on a two-part version as taught by Pablo D. Sosa (b. 1933)

Celebrant Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.
We failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.
In the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All
Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant Remembering the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with [__________ and] all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All
Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.
Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant  Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People     Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant  The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

Please come forward by row to receive communion. If you need communion brought to you, please let a sacristan know.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please come to the high altar through the chancel gate and a prayer minister will meet you.
Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.

Words: Donald Fishel (b. 1950); Music: Alleluia No. 1, Donald Fishel; arr. Betty Pulkingham (b. 1928), Charles Mallory (b. 1950), and George Mims (b. 1938)
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.
All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing of Easter

Celebrant May Christ, who by death has destroyed death, give you all courage and joy in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit; and the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity, Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-Giving Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.
All Amen.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: After months of digging, workers are in a “build back” phase. Workers are pouring concrete in the chancel and the chancel steps have been put in place. Piping for electrical, data, and security conduits are in place and ready to accommodate the organ. Samples for the pendant lighting are being evaluated. Plaster decorations are being created for columns. The altar and reredos are being repaired, finished, and cleaned. Stained glass is expected to be installed soon. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Congregational Voice
“Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding” (Proverbs 3:5). This is one of my favorite Bible verses because I believe every word and it’s so self-explanatory when you surrender your life to the Lord. I surrendered thirty years ago and never regretted it. He is the Lord over my life and He will never lead you wrong. Trust and believe. —Betty Jones
