FIFTH WEEK OF EASTER
MAY 20-24, 2019, 12:05PM

Alpha and Omega, First and Last,
glory outshining all the lights of heaven:
pour out upon us your Spirit
of faithful love and abundant compassion,
so that we may rejoice in the splendor of your works
while we wait in expectation
for the new heaven and the new earth you promise
when Christ shall come again. Amen.

MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The Great Fifty Days of Easter
After forty days of fasting and self-discipline, like marathon runners, exhausted, breathless and weary now, we make one final effort to reach the finish line. “It is Easter, we say. Alleluia, it’s over.” And yet, it is not over at all, it is just beginning. Now is the time of festival—a festival that lasts for 50 days, until the Day of Pentecost.

There are two seasons—one before Easter and the other after. The season before Easter signifies the troubles in which we live here and now, while the time after Easter which we are celebrating at present signifies the happiness that will be ours in the future. Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia!

—from an Eastertide sermon of St. Augustine of Hippo

Eastertide—The Season of Sundays of Easter
Easter is a season, not a day—rather, a Great Fifty days, a Week of Weeks, 7 the perfect number seven multiplied by its own perfection plus one day more to make perfection perfect. The First Week of Easter has Collects, Psalms, and Readings provided in the Book of Common Prayer Lectionary. The Weekdays of Easter begin after the Second Sunday of Easter.

Since the triumphs of the saints and Major Feasts are a continuation and manifestation of the Paschal victory of Christ, the following are observed during Eastertide:

Saint Mark the Evangelist: April 29
Saint Philip and St. James, Apostles: May 1
Eastertide Rogation Days: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, May 27-29
Ascension Day: May 30
Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary: May 31

The Acts of the Apostles
Following the ancient tradition of the Church, the First Lessons provide of a semi-continuous reading of the Acts of the Apostles. We begin reading this account on the Weekdays of Easter Week.

The Readings from the Gospel of John are chosen for their appropriateness to the season and complement the readings from John assigned to the Weekdays of Lent.

The Paschal Candle
The large candle from the Great Vigil of Easter burns in a prominent place in the Church at every service during Eastertide. In the ancient Christian basilicas, some of which still exist in Italy, the stand for the Paschal Candle was built into the pulpit as a permanent feature of the building’s architecture. In the Middle Ages, Winchester Cathedral had a Paschal Candle that was sixty feet tall!
Alleluia
This word, derived from the Hebrew hallelujah, means “praise to Yahweh.” In Jewish worship, it is particularly characteristic of Passover. As early as the time of the writing of the book of Revelation (probably by the 2nd century), “Hallelujah” was already established as an important word in the Church’s liturgical vocabulary.

Baptismal Font
The Baptismal Font remains in the Sanctuary for the duration of Eastertide—the principal Baptismal Season of the Church Year. After you have received Communion, you are invited to dip your finger into the water in the Font and make the sign of the cross in recognition of the blessings you have received in your Baptism.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.

You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:
Celebrant

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”
Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All
Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant
Remembering the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with [_________ and] all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All
AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant
As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All
Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those
who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.
Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

Core Values

In May we focus on the Core Value of Social Justice

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity's core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You'll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: After months of digging, workers are in a “build back” phase. Workers are pouring concrete in the chancel and the chancel steps have been put in place. Piping for electrical, data, and security conduits are in place and ready to accommodate the organ. Samples for the pendant lighting are being evaluated. Plaster decorations are being created for columns. The altar and reredos are being repaired, finished, and cleaned. Stained glass is expected to be installed soon. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

CONGREGATIONAL VOICE
“Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding” (Proverbs 3:5). This is one of my favorite Bible verses because I believe every word and it’s so self-explanatory when you surrender your life to the Lord. I surrendered thirty years ago and never regretted it. He is the Lord over my life and He will never lead you wrong. Trust and believe. —Betty Jones

Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts come from the St. Helena Psalter. The bulletin cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP), proposed by the Consultation on Common Texts. The Prayers of the People were composed by the Rev. Bruce Jenneker; they may not be edited by the Liturgical Desktop Publisher without his explicit written direction. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled at Trinity Church from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship: Times and Seasons (CW:TS), Contemporary Parish Prayers (CPP) and New Parish Prayers (NPP) edited and compiled by Frank Colquhoun, and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), Voices Found (VF), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
