Gracious God,
through a vision you sent forth Paul to preach the gospel and called the women to the place of prayer on the Sabbath. Grant that we may be like Paul and be found like Lydia, our hearts responsive to your word and open to go where you lead us. Amen.

MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul's Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The Great Fifty Days of Easter
After forty days of fasting and self-discipline, like marathon runners, exhausted, breathless and weary now, we make one final effort to reach the finish line. “It is Easter, we say. Alleluia, it’s over.” And yet, it is not over at all, it is just beginning. Now is the time of festival—a festival that lasts for 50 days, until the Day of Pentecost.

There are two seasons—one before Easter and the other after. The season before Easter signifies the troubles in which we live here and now, while the time after Easter which we are celebrating at present signifies the happiness that will be ours in the future. Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia!

—from an Eastertide sermon of St. Augustine of Hippo

The Acts of the Apostles
This companion volume to Luke’s Gospel describes the life of the early Christian community, characterized by an intense awareness of the risen Lord’s presence and the apostolic preaching of the Resurrection. From the earliest times it has had an important place in the church’s liturgy. The liturgical revisions among Anglicans, Roman Catholics, and Lutherans have restored the book of Acts to the Easter liturgy. The First Reading for each of the Sundays of Eastertide is taken from the Book of Acts.

The Paschal Candle
The large candle from the Great Vigil of Easter burns in a prominent place in the Church at every service during Eastertide. In the ancient Christian basilicas, some of which still exist in Italy, the stand for the Paschal Candle was built into the pulpit as a permanent feature of the building’s architecture. In the Middle Ages, Winchester Cathedral had a Paschal Candle that was sixty feet tall!

Baptismal Font
The Baptismal Font remains in the sanctuary for the duration of Eastertide—the principal Baptismal Season of the Church Year. After you have received Communion, you are invited to dip your finger into the water in the font and make the sign of the cross in recognition of the blessings you have received in your Baptism.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Acts 16:9-15

Reader A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, “Come over to Macedonia and help us.” When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them. We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days.

On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home.” And she prevailed upon us.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.
Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The acclamation will be sung twice.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon
The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon
Jesus said to Judas (not Iscariot), “Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me.

“I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.

“You heard me say to you, ‘I am going away, and I am coming to you.’ If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Prayers of the People

Reader  Christ is risen from the dead; love comes again to call us back to life. God of resurrection, hear us as we pray for the Church and the world:

Almighty Mother, enliven the Church for its mission, that we may be salt of the earth and light to the world. Breathe fresh life into your people; give us power to reveal Christ in word and action, living our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship.

Rise up, O Lord:

People  Set us free, O God.

Reader  Creator of all, lead us into ways of justice and peace, that we may respect one another in word and deed. Awaken in us a sense of wonder for the earth and all that is in it; teach us to care creatively for its resources.

Rise up, O Lord:

People  Set us free, O God.
Reader  God of truth, inspire with your wisdom those whose decisions affect the lives of others: especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor, that they may act with integrity and courage. Give grace to all whose lives are linked with ours. May we serve Christ in one another, and love as he loves us.

Rise up, O Lord:

People Set us free, O God.

Reader  God of hope, comfort and restore all who suffer in body, mind, or spirit. Help them to know the power of your healing love. Make us and all your people willing agents of your compassion; strengthen us as we share in making people whole.

Rise up, O Lord:

People Set us free, O God.

Reader  We remember with thanksgiving those who have died in the faith of Christ, and those whose faith is known to you alone; Father, into your hands we commend them. We praise you for all your saints who have entered into your eternal glory; may their example inspire and encourage us.

Rise up, O Lord:

People Set us free, O God.

Celebrant  Lord, you have called us to serve you. Grant that we may walk in your presence: your love in our hearts, your truth in our minds, your strength in our wills; until, at the end of our journey, we know the joy of our homecoming and the welcome of your embrace, through Jesus Christ our Savior.

All  Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant  The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People  And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering. Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.
At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Psalms octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)

The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.

You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:
Holy, Holy, Holy

Sung twice by all.

Music: Variation on a traditional liturgical text; Music: Composer of melody unknown; arr. based on a two-part version as taught by Pablo D. Sosa (b. 1933)

Celebrant

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

We failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

In the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.
Celebrant Remembering the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with [_________ and] all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
   hallowed be your Name,
   your kingdom come,
   your will be done,
   on earth as in heaven.
   Give us today our daily bread.
   Forgive us our sins
   as we forgive those who sin against us.
   Save us from the time of trial,
   and deliver us from evil.
   For the kingdom, the power,
   and the glory are yours,
   now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life's journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

Please come forward by row to receive communion. If you need communion brought to you, please let a sacristan know. If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please come to the high altar through the chancel gate and a prayer minister will meet you.
Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing of Easter

Celebrant May Christ, who by death has destroyed death, give you all courage and joy in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit; and the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity, Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-Giving Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All Amen.

FOR VISITORS AND NEWCOMERS
Welcome to Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel. We’re glad you’re here. Come connect with us:

CONNECT Introduce yourself to our clergy, ushers, or greeters. To learn more about membership, baptism, or confirmation, or to receive emails about upcoming Trinity events, fill out a welcome card and place it in the offering plate.

FELLOWSHIP HOUR Visit with fellow worshippers over coffee and small bites after all Sunday services.

TAKE A TOUR Learn more about St. Paul’s Chapel following the 11:15am service. Gather by the pulpit where a docent will guide you around our historic building.

TODAY
Whole Community Learning 10am, 14 Vesey St.
Band of Rebels, Company of Saints. This unit invites us to go beyond thinking of saints as pious, safe historical figures and to discover in them a spark of holy rebellion inherited from Jesus and the Prophets. Today: No classes on this holiday weekend. We resume next Sunday when adults and youth are invited to meet together for breakfast and to celebrate and learn more about the student films from our Keep it Reel student film festival on June 1, where Trinity Youth and other local high school students produced and screened short films that explored what it means to do the right thing. Godly Play and 2nd-5th grade will meet with peer groups, toddlers meet in the nursery at SPC, and youth meet at the Parish Center.

Illuminating Core Values Discussion 1pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Join us for our discussion topic: Integrity/Inclusiveness. We will watch a video of Dr. Rachel Naomi Remen telling stories that will help orient and guide us to live better. She shares stories of her grandfather, whom she calls a “flaming mystic,” that were told to her as a very young child and yet still resonate for her today. She speaks of the power and web of connection among people and how that can be evidenced by blessing each other out loud. This video itself is a blessing to be cherished and shared.

Foundations 1pm, Parish Center, 56 Trinity Place
Foundations is a series for those seeking Adult Baptism or Confirmation, Reception, or Reaffirmation of Faith in the Episcopal Church. It is also a great opportunity to acquire a greater understanding of what it means to be an Episcopalian and Anglican for those seeking formal membership at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel. Together we will learn about scripture, theology, prayer, and much more. Join Trinity's Vicar the Rev. Phillip Jackson, the Rev. Elizabeth Blunt, and other clergy and staff for fun, fellowship, and interactive learning. For more information or to RSVP, visit trinitywallstreet.org/foundations.

EVERY SUNDAY
Nursery Care (six months through age 5) 11am-1pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
The nursery is found in the Chapel of Remembrance, the small room in the southwest corner of the Chapel.

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: After months of digging, workers are in a “build back” phase. Workers are pouring concrete in the chancel and the chancel steps have been put in place. Piping for electrical, data, and security conduits are in place and ready to accommodate the organ. Samples for the pendant lighting are being evaluated. Plaster decorations are being created for columns. The altar and reredos are being repaired, finished, and cleaned. Stained glass is expected to be installed soon. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Emails from the Rector and Vicar
Recently several parishioners have received fraudulent emails from senders claiming to be the Rector or the Vicar. If you receive an email that asks you to do a favor (e.g., buy a gift card) or otherwise sounds suspicious, please delete the email. You can report the incident to lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Courageous and Just Video Series
Trinity has launched a new biweekly video series featuring Trinity’s Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas. Dr. Douglas is interviewing leaders to explore critical issues facing today’s church, our individual identities, and our shared life in society, including author Austin Channing Brown, the Rev. Canon Broderick Greer, Presbyterian minister Mihee Kim-Kort, and Professor Jeremy Cruz. Watch existing and new episodes at trinitywallstreet.org/courageous.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Congregational Voice
“I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me” (Philippians 4:13 KJV). I recently posted this on social media to remind us that all the good we go through in our lives is done through our creator. He wakes us up every morning and gives us the health and strength we need to go about our daily lives. —Dennis Wynter

The cover art was conceived and selected by the Rev. Bruce Jenneker for Eastertide at Trinity Church Wall Street.

This service conforms to Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, beginning on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. The bulletin cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP), proposed by the Consultation on Common Texts. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
