Mighty God, in whom we know the power of redemption, you stand among us in the shadows of our time. As we move through every sorrow and trial of this life, uphold us with knowledge of the final morning when, in the glorious presence of your risen Son, we will share in his resurrection, redeemed and restored to the fullness of life and forever freed to be your people. Amen.

MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The Great Fifty Days of Easter
After forty days of fasting and self-discipline, like marathon runners, exhausted, breathless and weary now, we make one final effort to reach the finish line. “It is Easter, we say. Alleluia, it’s over.” And yet, it is not over at all, it is just beginning. Now is the time of festival—a festival that lasts for 50 days, until the Day of Pentecost.

There are two seasons—one before Easter and the other after. The season before Easter signifies the troubles in which we live here and now, while the time after Easter which we are celebrating at present signifies the happiness that will be ours in the future. Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia!

— from an Eastertide sermon of St. Augustine of Hippo

Eastertide—The Season of Sundays of Easter
Easter is a season, not a day—rather, a Great Fifty days, a Week of Weeks, 7 the perfect number seven multiplied by its own perfection plus one day more to make perfection perfect. The First Week of Easter has Collects, Psalms, and Readings provided in the Book of Common Prayer Lectionary. The Weekdays of Easter begin after the Second Sunday of Easter.

Since the triumphs of the saints and Major Feasts are a continuation and manifestation of the Paschal victory of Christ, the following are observed during Eastertide:

Saint Mark the Evangelist: April 29
Saint Philip and St. James, Apostles: May 1
Eastertide Rogation Days: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, May 27-29
Ascension Day: May 30
Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary: May 31

The Acts of the Apostles
Following the ancient tradition of the Church, the First Lessons provide of a semi-continuous reading of the Acts of the Apostles. We begin reading this account on the Weekdays of Easter Week.

The Readings from the Gospel of John are chosen for their appropriateness to the season and complement the readings from John assigned to the Weekdays of Lent.

The Paschal Candle
The large candle from the Great Vigil of Easter burns in a prominent place in the Church at every service during Eastertide. In the ancient Christian basilicas, some of which still exist in Italy, the stand for the Paschal Candle was built into the pulpit as a permanent feature of the building's architecture. In the Middle Ages, Winchester Cathedral had a Paschal Candle that was sixty feet tall!
ALLELUIA
This word, derived from the Hebrew hallelujah, means “praise to Yahweh.” In Jewish worship, it is particularly characteristic of Passover. As early as the time of the writing of the book of Revelation (probably by the 2nd century), “Hallelujah” was already established as an important word in the Church’s liturgical vocabulary.

BAPTISMAL FONT
The Baptismal Font remains in the Sanctuary for the duration of Eastertide—the principal Baptismal Season of the Church Year. After you have received Communion, you are invited to dip your finger into the water in the Font and make the sign of the cross in recognition of the blessings you have received in your Baptism.

Collects and Readings

Monday in the Seventh Week of Easter

O Lord, when your Son ascended into heaven he sent down upon the Apostles the Holy Spirit, as he had promised, that they might comprehend the mysteries of the kingdom: Distribute among us also, we pray, the gifts of the selfsame Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Tuesday in the Seventh Week of Easter

O loving Father, grant that your Church, being gathered by your Holy Spirit, may be dedicated more fully to your service, and live united in love, according to your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Wednesday in the Seventh Week of Easter

O God, by the resurrection of your Son you have given us a new birth into eternal life: Lift our hearts to our Savior, who is seated at your right hand, so that, when he comes again, we who have been reborn in Baptism may be clothed in a glorious immortality; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Thursday in the Seventh Week of Easter

O God, by the glorification of Jesus Christ and the coming of the Holy Spirit you have opened for us the gates of your kingdom: Grant that we, who have received such great gifts, may dedicate ourselves more diligently to your service, and live more fully the riches of our faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Friday in the Seventh Week of Easter

O Lord, when your Son ascended into heaven he sent down upon the Apostles the Holy Spirit, as he had promised, that they might comprehend the mysteries of the kingdom: Distribute among us also, we pray, the gifts of the selfsame Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Psalm Texts

Psalm 68:1-8

Reader  Let us read from Psalm 68 responsively by half-verse.

Reader  Arise, O God, and let your enemies be scattered; *

People  let those who hate you flee before you.

Reader  Let them vanish like smoke when the wind drives it away; *

People  as the wax melts at the fire, so let the wicked perish at your presence, O God.

Reader  But let the righteous be glad and rejoice before you; *

People  let them also be merry and joyful.

Reader  We sing praises to your holy Name;

People  we exalt the One who rides upon the heavens; *

Reader  yours is the Name in which we rejoice!

Reader  Guardian of orphans, defender of widows, *

People  God, in your holy habitation!

Reader  You give the solitary a home and bring forth prisoners into freedom, *

People  but the rebels shall live in dry places.

Reader  O God, when you went forth before your people, *

People  when you marched through the wilderness,

Reader  The earth shook, and the skies poured down rain,

People  at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

Psalm 68:9-10, 17-20

Reader  Let us read from Psalm 68 responsively by half-verse.

Reader  You sent a gracious rain, O God, upon your inheritance; *

People  you refreshed the land when it was weary.

Reader  Your people found their home in it; *

People  in your goodness, O God, you have made provision for the poor.

Reader  Your chariots, O God, are twenty thousand,

People  you come in holiness from Sinai.

Reader  You have gone up on high and led captivity captive;

People  you have received gifts even from your enemies, *

People  that the Holy One might dwell among them.

Reader  Blest are you, O God, day by day, *

People  the God of our salvation, who bears our burdens.

Reader  You are our God, the God of our salvation; *

People  you are the one by whom we escape death.
Psalm 68:28-36

Reader Let us read from Psalm 68 responsively by half-verse.

People Send forth your strength, O God; *

Reader establish, O God, what you have wrought for us.

People Rulers shall bring gifts to you, *

Reader for your temple’s sake at Jerusalem.

People Rebuke the wild beast of the reeds, *

Reader and the peoples, a herd of wild bulls with its calves.

People Trample down those who lust after silver; *

Reader scatter the peoples that delight in war.

People Let tribute be brought out of Egypt; *

Reader let Ethiopia stretch out its hands to you.

People Sing to God, O nations of the earth; *

Reader sing praises to the Holy One,

People Who rides in the heavens, the ancient heavens, *

Reader who sends forth a voice, a mighty voice.

People Ascribe power to God, *

Reader whose majesty is over Israel,

People whose strength is in the skies.

Reader How wonderful is God in the holy places; *

People the God of Israel giving strength and power to the people: blessed be God!

Psalm 16:5-11

Reader Let us read from Psalm 16 responsively by half-verse.

People O God, you are my portion and my cup; *

Reader it is you who uphold my lot.

People My boundaries enclose a pleasant land; *

Reader indeed, I have a goodly heritage.

People I will bless you, O God, who gives me counsel; *

Reader my heart teaches me, night after night.

People I have set you always before me; *

Reader because you are at my right hand I shall not fall.

People My heart, therefore, is glad and my spirit rejoices; *

Reader my body also shall rest in hope.

People For you will not abandon me to the grave, *

Reader nor let your holy one see the Pit.

People You will show me the path of life; *

Reader in your presence there is fullness of joy,

People and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore.
Psalm 103:1-2, 19-22

Friday, June 7

Reader Let us read from Psalm 103 responsively by half-verse.

Bless the Holy One, O my soul, *
People and all that is within me, bless God’s holy Name.

Reader Bless the Holy One, O my soul, *
People and forget not all the gifts of God.

Reader You have set your throne in heaven, *
People and you have dominion over all.

Reader Bless God, all you angels, you mighty ones who do God’s bidding, *
People and hearken to the voice of God’s word.

Reader Sing praise, all you heavenly hosts, *
People you ministers who do God’s will.

Reader Bless God, all creation, in all places of God’s dominion; *
People bless the Holy One, O my soul.

The Entrance Rite

Prelude
At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Acclamation
BCP p. 355, adapted

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Bidding
based on 1 Peter 1:3

Celebrant Let us give thanks to our God who in great mercy and abounding love has given us new life by raising Jesus Christ from death. This fills us with a living hope.
People Alleluia!
Responsory
CW:TS p. 168, adapted/Psalm 67:3

Celebrant Christ has defeated the powers of death.
People Alleluia!

Celebrant In Christ our sins are forgiven and we live a new life of grace.
People Alleluia!

Celebrant Christ turns our sorrow into dancing.
People Alleluia!

Celebrant Let the peoples praise you, O God;
People Let all the peoples praise you.

Prayer
C.N. R. Wallwork, NPP p. 60, adapted

Celebrant God is here.
People The Spirit of God is with us.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Be present, O Risen Christ, in this your Church’s Easter praise: that its anthems of joy and its proclamation of your victory will worthily celebrate the mystery of your redeeming love and the majesty of your eternal glory.

All Amen.

Easter Anthems
Christ our Passover
CW:TS p. 424, adapted

Celebrant Alleluia!
Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us:
therefore let us keep the feast,
Not with the old leaven of corruption and wickedness:
but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

—1 Corinthians 5:7b, 8

All Alleluia!
Christ once raised from the dead dies no more:
death has no more dominion over him.
In dying he died to sin once for all:
in living he lives to God.
See yourselves therefore as dead to sin:
and alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord.

—Romans 6:9-11

Alleluia!
Christ has been raised from the dead:
the first fruits of those who sleep.
For as by one of us came death:
so by one has come also the resurrection of the dead;
for as in Adam all die:
even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
Alleluia!

—1 Corinthians 15:20-22

The Prayers of the People

Please stand as you are able.

Reader Let us pray to Jesus Christ, our Risen Savior and Lord.
Fill us with the joy of your glorious and life-giving resurrection:

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ, our Risen Savior and Lord, sustain us, that together with Michael our Presiding Bishop, Andrew, Allen, and Mary our Bishops, we will offer ourselves, a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ, our Risen Savior and Lord, make us agents of your justice and goodness, that together with Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor, we will serve the common good.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ, our Risen Savior and Lord, give us eyes to see the pain and distress all around us, ears to hear the cries of those who are oppressed and exploited, and hands to serve those in need.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ our Risen Savior and Lord, fill us with delight in the world we share with all creation, that we will care for the earth, the sky and the sea, and conserve their resources for those who come after us.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ our Risen Savior and Lord, fill us with compassion, that we will welcome the stranger, speak up for those whose voices go unheeded, and walk in solidarity with those whose paths are rough.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Reader Jesus Christ our Risen Savior and Lord, you offer us eternal life; may we, with all those who have died come to share Christ’s glory in the presence of God through the power of the Holy Spirit.

People Come to us and bless us, O Risen Savior.

Celebrant Eternal God in whom is all our hope in life, in death, and to all eternity: grant that, rejoicing in the eternal life which is ours in Christ, we may face whatever the future holds in store for us calm and unafraid, always confident that neither death nor life can part us from your love in Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The ushers collect the offering.

The organist plays an improvisation.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant  The Lord be with you.

People  And also with you.

Celebrant  Lift up your hearts.

People  We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People  It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant  It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.

The Celebrant reads the Proper Preface appointed for the day.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:
Holy, Holy, Holy

Celebrant

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.
Celebrant Remembering the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with [___________ and] all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All Our Father in heaven,
  hallowed be your Name,
  your kingdom come,
  your will be done,
  on earth as in heaven.
  Give us today our daily bread.
  Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those who sin against us.
  Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
  For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
  now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer  EOW p. 69

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant  Let us pray.
All  God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing of Easter  BCP p. 503, adapted

Celebrant  The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant: Make you perfect in every good work to do God’s will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in God’s sight;
And the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity, Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-giving Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All  Amen.

Dismissal  BCP p. 366

Celebrant  Let us go forth in the name of Christ. Alleluia. Alleluia.
People  Thanks be to God. Alleluia. Alleluia.

Postlude

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area.

EVERY SUNDAY

Nursery Care (six months through age 5)
11am-1pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
The nursery is found in the Chapel of Remembrance, the small room in the southwest corner of the Chapel.

Core Values

In June we focus on the Core Value of Stewardship

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.

COMING SOON

Voices of Leadership
6pm, Monday, June 10, St. Paul’s Chapel
Join us for a powerful, student-led concert by the gifted musicians of The Voices of Leadership. Under the direction of Victor Clark, these musicians will showcase a wide variety of music including Broadway tunes, gospel music, spirituals, and more. To RSVP, email Jenn Chinn at jchinn@trinitywallstreet.org.

Brown Bag Lunch Intro to Volunteering
4-5pm, Wednesday, June 12, Parish Center
You are invited to attend a training session to learn more about the following topics: Strategies for conflict resolution; best practices for site conduct; and information about other volunteer opportunities at Trinity. Information: Antoinette Emers at aemers@aging.nyc.gov or Kyle Butler at kyle.j.butler@gmail.com.

Weekday Congregation Gathering
5:45-7pm, Thursday, June 13, Chapel of All Saints
Do you attend Morning Prayer, the noon service, Evening Prayer or Evensong? Come meet others who attend weekday services and enjoy fellowship, food, beverages, and music. RSVP: trinitywallstreet.org/weekday.

Global Water Dances
11am, Saturday, June 15, Wagner Park
The Trinity Movement Choir will join a community of dancers from around the world in Global Water Dances, a biannual series since 2011 to promote awareness and a behavioral shift toward solutions for clean water for everyone. Trinity’s dance, with colorful masks, will center on the living things that depend on water to survive. Information: Marilyn Green at marilyngreenart@gmail.com.

Trinity Sunday

11:15am, Sunday, June 16, St. Paul's Chapel

Join us to celebrate our “feast of title” on Trinity Sunday. The picnic will feature a face painter and delicious festive food at St. Paul's Chapel following the 11:15am service. We look forward to seeing you there. Contact Martha Graham or Barbara Inniss with any questions.

Orff's Carmina Burana

3pm, Sunday, June 16, St. Paul's Chapel

In their final concert of the season, Downtown Voices and NOVUS NY perform two folklore-inspired works written in 1937: Orff's epic Carmina Burana and Bartók's Sonata for Two Pianos and Percussion. Carmina Burana is based on 24 poems from the medieval collection of the same title, with themes including the fickleness of fortune and the joy of the return to spring. Inspired by Hungarian folksong rhythms, Bartók's sonata has become a mainstay of piano and percussion repertoire. Free. Stephen Sands conducts. Information: ssands@trinitywallstreet.org.

Imagine Healing Through Story

5:45pm, Mondays, beg. June 17, Chapel of All Saints

All are welcome to a book group and discussion around the strategic area of Low-Income Housing and Homelessness. The conversation will start as we dream for the new Trinity Commons using the book Sacred Shelter: Thirteen Journeys of Homelessness and Healing by Susan Greenfield facilitated by Terrell Moody. Pick up a free book in the Parish Center; note that reading is not required to join! For more information, contact Mandy Culbreath at mculbreath@trinitywallstreet.org.

Finding Faith in Narnia

July 4-7, Trinity Retreat Center

This summer, come with us to Narnia, home of the White Witch and Aslan, as we explore faith through C.S. Lewis's classic tale, The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, with activities, crafts, games, and the story on the big screen. Recommended for families with children ages seven and older. Registration deadline: Saturday, June 8. Activity fee: $100 per family. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/summercamp.

Book An Upcoming Retreat

The Trinity Retreat Center, located in West Cornwall, Connecticut, is a refuge of healing, peace, joy, and spiritual formation for all generations. Upcoming themed retreats:

The Gospel According to Calvin & Hobbes

July 12–14

Thanksgiving Retreat Week

November 26–December 1

Want to bring your group for a retreat? Weekday retreats are still available in 2019, and booking for weekdays and weekends in 2020 is now open.

Learn more and book today at trinityretreatcenter.org.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update

Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: After months of digging, workers are in a “build back” phase. Workers are pouring concrete in the chancel and the chancel steps have been put in place. Piping for electrical, data, and security conduits are in place and ready to accommodate the organ. Plaster decorations are being created for columns. The altar and reredos are being repaired, finished, and cleaned. Stained glass is expected to be installed soon. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

AIDS Walk Results

Congratulations to the Trinity AIDS Walk NY team for a successful 2019 fundraising walk. The 15 walkers, led by Al DiRaffaele and Bill McCue, raised more than $30,000. To donate, visit ny.aidswalk.net/BillMcCue or call 212.807.9255.
Trinity Parish Closing
On October 15, Trinity’s lease for the Parish Center will end and the Parish Center will close. Until Trinity Commons opens on March 1, 2020, regular congregation meetings will change locations, meet less frequently, or go on hiatus. Trinity clergy and staff have held in-depth planning meetings to determine the impact on each program currently hosted at the Parish Center. A detailed schedule will be posted in announcements and online beginning June 9. If you have questions, see your staff representative, members of the Congregational Council, or contact the communications office.

Volunteers Needed—Skills Workshops
June 14, 20, 27, and July 12
Volunteers are needed to share their expertise and provide encouragement to formerly incarcerated women from the Hour Children program in a series of workshops focusing on skills like time management, business etiquette, and communications. Information: Maggy Laraque at mlaraque@trinitywallstreet.org.
