MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul's Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go through the doors closest to the pulpit during communion time. A prayer minister will meet you in the foyer.

About this Service

Our celebration today commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles, fifty days after the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. In the year of our Lord's crucifixion and resurrection that date was also fifty days after Passover and therefore coincided with the Jewish feast of Pentecost (literally “Five Weeks” after—Exodus 34:22; Deuteronomy 16:10) called the Feast of Weeks or Shavuot. Shavuot was originally an agricultural festival giving thanks for the “first fruits” of the early spring harvest (Lev 23; Exodus 23, 34).

By the early New Testament period, the Feast of Weeks had lost its agricultural association for the Jewish people. It had become a celebration of God's creation of God's people and the festival of their unique religious history. After the destruction of Jerusalem in AD 70, the festival focused exclusively on God's gracious gift of the Torah, the Law, on Mount Sinai. This continues to be the focus of the celebration in modern Judaism.

The Christian Feast of Pentecost was celebrated in Apostolic times according to the writings attributed to St. Irenæus and in those of Tertullian. Egeria, the fourth century pilgrim, gives a detailed account of the solemn manner in which Pentecost was observed at Jerusalem. The Apostolic Constitutions (4th century) describe Pentecost in the Eastern Churches as lasting one week, but in the West it was not kept with an octave (a celebration lasting 8 days) until much later.

The Day of Pentecost soon became, along with the Great Vigil of Easter a preferred time for the celebration of Holy Baptism. In England the feast was commonly called Whitsunday because of the white garments worn by those baptized at Pentecost.

Pentecost represents God's gracious, enabling presence actively at work among God's people, calling and enabling us to live out in dynamic ways what we are called to be and do in Jesus Christ. Like the Jewish Feast of Weeks it is a celebration of the history of our salvation and our empowerment to partner with God in it.

So it is that the Feast of Pentecost is celebrated as the birthday of the Church. On this Holy Day we receive those baptized into the Body of Christ, those making an adult profession of faith, those reaffirming their baptismal vows and those being received into the Anglican Communion. With them the whole Body of Christ makes a commitment to go where the Spirit blows, to burn with the fire of the Holy Spirit and to receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit for ministry in Christ's name.

Today the account of the First Pentecost in Acts 2:1-2 is printed in English and is read in English, Spanish, French and Russian, in testimony to the overturning of the curse of the Tower of Babel where everyone spoke in a different language and no one understood anything. On the day of Pentecost many languages were spoken but each person understood in his or her own language.

The Gospel is proclaimed in English and in Koiné Greek—the mother tongue of the early Church.

The Spirit guides and nurtures: Hear the Word of God.

You in your great mercies did not forsake them in the wilderness; the pillar of cloud that led them in the way did not leave them by day, nor the pillar of fire by night that gave them light on the way by which they should go. You gave your good spirit to instruct them, and did not withhold your manna from their mouths, and gave them water for their thirst.

Responsory

And you give them their food in due season.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.” All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.”

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, “Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

“In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord’s great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

Thanks be to God.

Philip said to Jesus, "Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied."

[Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father."

"How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works.

["Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves."

"Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father.

["I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.

Rector: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Rector: We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water.

The Deacon adds water to the baptismal font.

Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit.
Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

At the following words, the Rector blesses the water.

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior.

To Christ, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.
Welcome
Please be seated.

The Offertory
The ushers collect the offering.
Today’s offering is designated to the Bishop’s discretionary fund.

Ev’ry Time I Feel the Spirit
arr. William Dawson (1899-1990)

Every time I feel the Spirit
moving in my heart I will pray.
Yes, every time I feel the Spirit
moving in my heart I will pray.

Upon the mountain, when my Lord spoke,
out of God’s mouth came fire and smoke.
Looked all around me, it looked so fine,
till I asked my Lord if all was mine.

Jordan River, chilly and cold,
it chills the body but not the soul.
There is but one train upon this track.
It runs to heaven and then right back.

At the Presentation
Hymnal 380, v. 3

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down on this day from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them and to lead them into all truth; uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, and giving to your Church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the Gospel to all nations.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Celebrant Worship and praise belong to you, the source of all life, the breath of all being. Your power sustains, your love restores, our broken world. You are unceasingly at work, from chaos bringing order and filling emptiness with life. Your Spirit is fire in us, purging our sin and warming our hearts to love. As children of your redeeming purpose, the seal of Christ is upon us and as a pledge of what is to come Christ has given the Spirit to dwell in our hearts.

Before he was given up to suffering and death, at supper with his disciples, Jesus took bread and offered you thanks. He broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying: “Take, eat. This is my Body: it is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

After supper, Jesus took the cup, offered you thanks, and gave it to them, saying: “Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new covenant; it is poured out for you and for all that sins may be forgiven. Do this in remembrance of me.”

We now obey his command:

All We remember Christ’s death,
We proclaim Christ’s resurrection,
We await the coming of Christ in glory.

Celebrant Send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be the Body and Blood of your Son, and upon us, that we may be kindled with the fire of your love and be renewed for the service of your Kingdom.

Empower all who are baptized into the fellowship of Christ’s Body to live and work to your praise and glory. In your new creation, bring us into our heritage in the company of the Blessed Mary, Blessed Paul, the apostles, and prophets, and all our sisters and brothers living and departed.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those
    who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.

BCP p. 364
The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion. We receive at one station at the front of the center aisle and return to our seats by the side aisles.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please go through the doors closest to the pulpit and a prayer minister will meet you in the foyer.

Communion Anthem

Draw Us in the Spirit’s Tether
Harold Friedell (1905-1958)

Draw us in the Spirit’s tether;
For when humbly, in thy name,
Two or three are met together,
Thou art in the midst of them: Alleluia!
Touch we now thy garment’s hem.
As the brethren used to gather
In the name of Christ to sup,
Then with thanks to God the Father
Break the bread and bless the cup: Alleluia!
So knit thou our friendship up.
All our meals and all our living
Make as sacraments of thee,
That by caring, helping, giving,
We may true disciples be: Alleluia!
We will serve thee faithfully.

—Percy Dearmer (1867-1936)
Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.
At the final verse, please stand as you are able.

As Communicants return from Communion they are offered a bookmark listing the Fruits of the Spirit.

On the reverse side one of the Fruits is printed—Communicants are invited to receive that gift prayerfully as the Holy Spirit’s outpouring on them.

Those not receiving Communion are invited to receive a bookmark as they leave.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

_Celebrant_ Let us pray.

_Silence_

_All_ Loving God,
we give you thanks
for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
Now send us forth
a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

Pontifical Blessing

_Bishop_ Our help is in the Name of the Lord;
_People_ The maker of heaven and earth.
_Bishop_ Blessed be the Name of the Lord;
_People_ From this time forth for evermore.
_Celebrant_ May the Spirit of truth lead you into all truth, giving you grace to confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, and to proclaim the wonderful works of God; and the blessing of the Blessed and Holy Trinity One God, Loving Creator, Living Word and Life-giving Spirit be among you and remain with you always.
_All_ Amen.

Hymn in Procession

_Hymnal 516_

1 Come down, O Love divine, seek thou this soul of mine.
2 O let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn
3 And so the yearning strong, with which the soul will long.

and visit it with thine own ardor glowing;
to dust and ashes in its heat consuming;
shall far outpass the power of human telling;
O Comforter, draw near, within my heart appear,
and let thy glorious light shine ever on my sight,
for none can guess its grace, till Love create a place and kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.

and clothe me round, the while my path illumining.
wherein the Holy Spirit makes a dwelling.

Words: Bianco da Siena (d. 1434?); tr. Richard Frederick Littledale (1833-1890), alt.
Music: Down Ampney, Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: After months of digging, workers are in a “build back” phase. Workers are pouring concrete in the chancel and the chancel steps have been put in place. Piping for electrical, data, and security conduits are in place and ready to accommodate the organ. Plaster decorations are being created for columns. The altar and reredos are being repaired, finished, and cleaned. Stained glass is expected to be installed soon. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

ANGLICAN CYCLE OF PRAYER
Today we pray for the Most Rev. Stephen Than Myint Oo and the Anglican Church of the Province of Myanmar (Burma).

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team. For other pastoral needs, call 212.602.0800 and ask for Pastoral Care.

Congregational Voice
“Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me” (John 14:1 KJV). My husband says this to me whenever I ask questions. I also reflect on it when I am worried about things. My son tells me, “You can’t fret and pray at the same time.” Send it to the Lord in prayer. Leave it in God’s hands and walk away. —Joan Boreland

This service includes The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two with elements of Holy Baptism, which begins on page 299 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings, with the exception of the short readings on pages 5 and 6, are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal); English texts are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. The Greek translation of the Holy Gospel is excerpted from the Nestle-Alans 26th/27 editions. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled at Trinity Church from Contemporary Parish Prayers (CPP), Common Worship: Resources (CW:R), Common Worship: Times and Seasons (CW:TS), Scottish Liturgy 1982 (SL), Enriching Our Worship 1 (EOW 1), The Book of Occasional Services (BOS), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
