Living God,
you have created all that is.
Send forth your Spirit to renew and restore us,
that we may proclaim your good news
in ways and words that all will understand and believe. Amen.

Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The Weekdays of the Week of Pentecost

The Feast of Pentecost marks the culmination of our spiritual pilgrimage that began on Ash Wednesday, and continued through Lent, Holy Week and Eastertide. In medieval times, the practice began to follow the great "days of faith" with a week of focused devotions. Soon the calendar of the Church Year became encumbered by a growing number of "Octaves"—eight days of devotion. As an ever-increasing number of Saints Days was added to the Church Year, there were so many topical emphases that the story of salvation was overshadowed. A period of "pruning" followed. Over the centuries this became more radical—and the "Octaves" have all but disappeared from our calendars.

Contemporary liturgical scholarship has proposed tentative reconsideration of the "Octave of Pentecost" since this great Feast comes as the punctuation of a seven-week long engagement with the Resurrection and disappears almost immediately into "Ordinary Time."

We will keep the descent of the Holy Spirit and the spiritual empowerment for commitment, faith and ministry that come with it in mind in our weekday celebrations this week.

The Psalms, Readings and Gospels are taken from ancient lectionaries. The Collects are taken from contemporary sources.

 Ember Days and Embertide

Ember days are four separate sets of three days within the same week—specifically, the Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday—roughly equidistant in the circuit of the year, distributed across the seasons. These were formerly times set aside for fasting and prayer and were considered especially suitable for the ordination of clergy.

Ember Days are known in Latin as the quattuor anni tempora (the "four seasons of the year"), or earlier as the jejunia quattuor temporum ("fasts of the four seasons").

The Ember Weeks—the weeks in which the Ember Days occur—are the weeks:

- between the third and fourth Sundays of Advent;
- between the first and second Sundays of Lent;
- between Pentecost and Trinity Sunday; and
- the week beginning on the Sunday after Holy Cross Day (September 14)

The origins of the observance of Ember Days are open to considerable debate. Some hold that the concept of the observance predates the Christian era, and that since Ember days have never been observed in the Eastern Churches, any pagan origins must lie in the west. Some scholars point to specific Celtic origins, linked to the Celtic custom of observing various festivals at three-month intervals: Imbolc (Spring), Beltane (Summer), Lughnasadh (Autumn) and Samhain (Winter).
The English name for these days, “Ember”, derives from the Anglo-Saxon ymbren, a circuit or revolution (from ymb, around, and ryne, a course, running), clearly relating to the annual cycle of the year.

Collects and Readings

Monday in the Week of Pentecost

God almighty, source of life, our strength and stay: renew in us the gifts of the Holy Spirit, increase our faith, strengthen our hope, widen our love and make us ever ready to serve you with all that we are and all that we have: through Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 80:14-18; Acts 10:34, 42-48; John 3:16-21

Tuesday in the Week of Pentecost

O God of truth and light: empty us of self and fill us with your Holy Spirit, that we may bring forth abundantly the fruit of love, joy and peace, and glorify you day by day in lives renewed in the beauty of holiness; through Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 78:23-29; Acts 8:14-20; John 10:1-10

 Ember Wednesday in the Week of Pentecost

God almighty, your prophet of old spoke of a day when you would do a new thing for your people and pour out your Spirit on all alike: rouse us to receive that gift; may its power cleanse, inspire and empower our lives and renew the witness of the Church throughout the world; through Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 119:43-48; Acts 2:14-21; John 6:44-52

Thursday in the Week of Pentecost

Holy God, you spoke the world into being: pour your Spirit to the ends of the earth, that your children may return from exile as citizens of your commonwealth, and all our divisions may be healed by your word of love and righteousness; through Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 67; Acts 8:5-8; Luke 9:1-6

 Ember Friday in the Week of Pentecost

Living God, you have created all that is: send forth your Spirit to renew and restore us, that we may proclaim your good news in ways and words that all will understand and believe; through Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Psalm 104:1-5; Joel 2:28-32; Luke 4:38-44

Psalm Texts

Psalm 80:14-18

Reader Let us read from Psalm 80 responsively by half-verse.
   Turn now, O God of hosts, look down from heaven;
   behold and tend this vine; *
   preserve what your right hand has planted.
Reader They burn it with fire like rubbish; *
   at the rebuke of your countenance let them perish.
Reader Let your hand be upon the one at your right hand, *
   the one you have made so strong for yourself.
Reader And so will we never turn away from you, *
   give us life, that we may call upon your Name.
Reader Restore us, O God of hosts; *
   show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

Psalm 78:23-29

Reader Let us read from Psalm 78 responsively by half-verse.
   You commanded the clouds above *
   and opened the doors of heaven.
Reader You rained down manna upon them to eat * and gave them grain from heaven.
Reader So mortals ate the bread of angels; *
   you provided for them food enough.
Reader You caused the east wind to blow in the heavens *
   and led out the south wind by your might.
Reader You rained down flesh upon them like dust *
   and winged birds like the sand of the sea.
Reader You let it fall in the midst of their camp *
   and round about their dwellings.
Reader So they ate and were well filled, *
   for you gave them what they craved.

Psalm 119:43-48

Reader Let us read from Psalm 119 responsively by half-verse.
   Do not take the word of truth out of my mouth, *
   for my hope is in your judgments.
Reader I shall continue to keep your law; *
   I shall keep it for ever and ever.
Reader I will walk at liberty, *
People because I study your commandments.

Reader I will tell of your decrees before rulers *
People and will not be ashamed.

Reader I delight in your commandments, *
People which I have always loved.

Reader I will lift up my hands to your commandments, *
People and I will meditate on your statutes.

Psalm 67

Reader Let us read Psalm 67 responsively by half-verse.
People Be merciful to us, O God, and bless us, *
show us the light of your countenance and come to us.

Reader Let your ways be known upon earth, *
People your saving health among all nations.

Reader Let the peoples praise you, O God; *
People let all the peoples praise you.

Reader Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, *
People for you judge the peoples with equity and guide all the nations upon earth.

Reader Let the peoples praise you, O God; *
People let all the peoples praise you.

Reader The earth has brought forth its increase; *
People may you, our own God, give us your blessing.

Reader May you give us your blessing, *
People and may all the ends of the earth stand in awe of you.

Psalm 104:1-5

Reader Let us read from Psalm 104 responsively by half-verse.
People Bless the Holy One, O my soul; *
O God, how excellent is your greatness;
you are clothed with majesty and splendor.

Reader You wrap yourself with light as with a cloak; *
People you spread out the heavens like a curtain.

Reader You lay the beams of your chambers in the waters above; *
People you make the clouds your chariot;
you ride on the wings of the wind.

Reader You make the winds your messengers *
People and flames of fire your servants.

Reader You have set the earth upon its foundations, *
People so that it never shall move at any time.
The Entrance Rite

Prelude
At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Acclamation
based on 2 Corinthians 13:13

Celebrant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you always.

People And also with you.

Collect for Purity
BCP p. 355

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution
CW:R p. 92, adapted/BCP p. 360

Deacon What God has prepared for those who love God, has been revealed to us through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches everything. Therefore, let us in penitence open our hearts to God, who has prepared good things for those who love God. (based on 1 Corinthians 2:9)

When we are without hope and refuse your living grace, you raise us to new life in the Spirit.

People Lord, have mercy.

Deacon When we are bound by our sadness and imprisoned by our failings, you bring pardon and peace;

People Christ, have mercy.

Deacon When we succumb to prejudice and turn our backs on our neighbors, you make one by your Spirit whatever is torn and divided:

People Lord, have mercy.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant
God be with you.

People

Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Robert Robinson (1735-1790), alt.
Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

1 Come, thou fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace! Streams of mercy never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise.
2 Oh, to grace how great a debt or daily I'm constrained to be! Let thy goodness, like a seal it, seal it for thy courts above.

Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, prone to flaming tongues above. Praise the mount! Oh, fix me on it, mount of God's unchanging love.

The Holy Gospel

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to...
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Celebrant reads the Gospel appointed for the day.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

Silence follows the homily.
The Nicene Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant We believe in one God, all the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Reader Holy Spirit, come upon us with your redeeming and life-giving grace.

Come, Holy Spirit, Creator, renew the earth and make us faithful stewards of all its goodness.

People Holy Spirit, come and bless us.

Reader Come, Holy Spirit, Counsellor, and touch our lips that we may proclaim your word.

People Holy Spirit, come and bless us.

Reader Come, Holy Spirit, Breath of God, give life to the dry bones around us, and make us a living people, holy and free. Bless Michael our Presiding Bishop, Andrew, Allen, and Mary our Bishops, and make us all a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God.

People Holy Spirit, come and bless us.

Reader Come, Holy Spirit, Wisdom from on high, and make us channels of your peace. Guide the leaders of the nations, especially, Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor, to make wise decisions for the common good.

People Holy Spirit, come and bless us.

Reader Come Holy Spirit, gentle healer and gracious comfort of all who suffer in body mind or spirit.

People Holy Spirit, come and bless us.

Reader Come, Holy Spirit, the constant presence of God with us for time and eternity. Receive into the joy of eternal life all who have died, and prepare us so that one day, where you are and they are, we may also be.

People Holy Spirit, come and bless us.
Celebrant Come, Holy Spirit, come. Come as the wind, and cleanse us; come as the fire, and burn; come as the dew, and refresh; convict, convert, and consecrate us and our lives to our great good and to God’s greater glory.

All For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

The Great Thanksgiving

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing.

You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love.

And so today we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:
Holy, Holy, Holy

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God. Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love.

Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation:

We remember Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, and we offer our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.
Celebrant

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ.

Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

In the fullness of time bring us, with [_________ and] all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All

AMEN.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People

Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children.

Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

All

Loving God,
we give you thanks
for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ’s Body and Blood.
Now send us forth
a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.
The Blessing

Celebrant

May the Spirit of truth lead you into all truth, giving you grace to confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, and to proclaim the wonderful works of God;

And the blessing of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Loving Creator, Living Word and Life-giving Spirit be among you, and remain with you always.

All

Amen.

Dismissal

Celebrant

Let us go forth into the world rejoicing in the Spirit.

People

Thanks be to God.

Postlude

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area.

Orff’s Carmina Burana
3pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
On their final concert of the season, Downtown
Voices and NOVUS NY perform two folklore-inspired works written in 1937: Orff’s epic Carmina Burana and Bartók’s Sonata for Two Pianos and Percussion. Carmina Burana is based on 24 poems from the medieval collection of the same title, with themes including the fickleness of fortune and the joy of the return to spring. Inspired by Hungarian folksong rhythms, Bartók’s sonata has become a mainstay of piano and percussion repertoire. Free.

Core Values
In June we focus on the Core Value of Stewardship

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons,
Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel
Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation,
staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at

Song Circle at The Family Table
6:15-7:30pm, June 14, Parish Center
Families with children 10 and under are invited to participate in a guided family singing circle. Come for a light buffet supper and sing with special guest teaching artist, Ana Hernández. RSVP to christianformation@trinitywallstreet.org.

Imagine Healing Through Story
5:45pm, Mondays, June 17–July 15, Chapel of All Saints
All are welcome to a book group and discussion around the strategic area of Low-Income Housing and Homelessness. The conversation will start as we dream for the new Trinity Commons using the book Sacred Shelter: Thirteen Journeys of Homelessness and Healing by Susan Greenfield; facilitated by Terrell Moody. Pick up a free book in the Parish Center; note that reading is not required to join. Information: Mandy Culbreath at mculbreath@trinitywallstreet.org.

Sunday Afternoon Music at St. Paul’s Chapel
3pm, June 23, St. Paul’s Chapel
“Jazz Standards Reimagined: Generations of Her—Women Songwriters and Lyricists of the last 100 years.” This recital features Grammy-nominated arranger Dan Pugach and Grammy-nominated vocalist, pianist, and composer Nicole Zuraitis, and their friends, bassist Inbar Paz and saxophonist Jordan Pettay, performing standards written by women and other songs played with a jazz twist. Reception follows. Admission is free. All are welcome. Sponsored by Trinity’s Congregational Arts Allegro. Information: Deborah Hope at dehope@ix.netcom.com.

St. Paul’s Chapel Choir Auditions
July-August, Chapel of All Saints
The St. Paul’s Chapel Choir welcomes volunteer singers to audition this summer. The Chapel Choir sings for morning services on the first Sunday of each month at St. Paul’s Chapel and leads a congregational hymn-sing each season. All voice parts are welcome and tenors and basses are especially needed. Help us spread the word! Learn more and schedule an audition at trinitywallstreet.org/chapelchoir.

Finding Faith in Narnia
July 4–7, Trinity Retreat Center
This summer, come with us to Narnia, home of the White Witch and Aslan, as we explore faith through C.S. Lewis’s classic tale, The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, with activities, crafts, games, and the story on the big screen. Recommended for families with children ages seven and older. Activity fee: $100 per family. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/summercamp.

Arts Retreat
July 26–28, Trinity Retreat Center
Join fellow artist-parishioners for pottery making, nature walks, landscape painting, cookie decorating, readings, and more. Sponsored by Trinity’s Congregational Arts. Deposit: $50, due by June 30; transportation is provided. Registration: Melissa Hayes at mhayes@trinitywallstreet.org.

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: After months of digging, workers are in a “build back” phase. Workers are pouring concrete in the chancel and the chancel steps have been put in place. Piping for electrical, data, and security conduits are in place and ready to accommodate the organ. Plaster decorations are being created for columns. The altar and reredos are being repaired, finished, and cleaned. Stained glass is expected to be installed soon. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Emails from the Rector and Vicar
Recently several parishioners have received fraudulent emails from senders claiming to be the Rector or the Vicar. If you receive an email that asks you to do a favor (e.g., buy a gift card) or otherwise sounds suspicious, please delete the email. You can report the incident to lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.
Courageous and Just Video Series
Trinity has launched a biweekly video series featuring Trinity's Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas. Dr. Douglas is interviewing leaders to explore critical issues facing today's church, our individual identities, and our shared life in society, including author Austin Channing Brown, the Rev. Canon Broderick Greer, Presbyterian minister Mihee Kim-Kort, and Professor Jeremy Cruz. Watch existing and new episodes at trinitywallstreet.org/courageous.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity's Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity's history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitygiftshopnyc.com.

Greeter Ministry
Parishioners are invited to greet regular worshippers and guests to the 9am, 9:15am, and 11:15am Sunday services. Volunteer commitment is once or twice a month, for 45 minutes (volunteers are asked to arrive 45 minutes before the service). Volunteers are required to undergo a background check. Information: Dane Miller at dmiller@trinitywallstreet.org.

ANGLICAN CYCLE OF PRAYER
Today we pray for the Most Rev. Stephen Than Myint Oo and the Anglican Church of the Province of Myanmar (Burma).

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team. For other pastoral needs, call 212.602.0800 and ask for Pastoral Care.

Congregational Voice
"Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me" (John 14:1 KJV). My husband says this to me whenever I ask questions. I also reflect on it when I am worried about things. My son tells me, “You can’t fret and pray at the same time.” Send it to the Lord in prayer. Leave it in God’s hands and walk away. —Joan Boreland

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church.

This service of Holy Eucharist is based on Rite Two, beginning on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts come from the St. Helena Psalter. The bulletin cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP), proposed by the Consultation on Common Texts. The Prayers of the People and About this Service were composed by the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, and texts marked as adapted have been substantially altered by him from the cited source material: these may not be edited by the Liturgical Desktop Publisher without his explicit written direction. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled at Trinity Church from Enriching Our Worship 1 (EOW 1), Common Worship: Resources (CWR), Contemporary Parish Prayers (CPP) and New Parish Prayers (NPP) edited and compiled by Frank Colquhoun, and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.

In an effort to reach a broad audience, Trinity Wall Street records its services and events for broadcast on the internet. Your attendance at a service or event constitutes your consent to be included in any filming, photographing, audio recording, or broadcast and for any other use in whole or in part, including publicity and promotion. If you prefer to avoid being filmed, please sit in the back pews on the side aisles.

As part of Trinity Wall Street’s commitment to responsible stewardship of the earth’s resources, this publication is printed on paper that is manufactured with 100% post-consumer fibers.

Assistive Listening devices are available for this service and are located at the welcome table.
