God of heaven and earth,
before the foundation of the universe and the beginning of time
you are the triune God:
the Author of creation,
the eternal Word of salvation,
and the life-giving Spirit of wisdom.
Guide us to all truth by your Spirit,
that we may proclaim all that Christ revealed and rejoice in the glory he shared with us.
Glory and praise to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
now and for ever. Amen.
MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.”—GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The Church Year falls into two almost equal halves of about 26-28 weeks each. The Year of Christ begins with Advent, continues through Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Holy Week and Eastertide, and culminates on the Day of Pentecost. The Year of the Church comprises all the Sundays after Pentecost and ends with the Sunday of The Reign of Christ-Christ the King, the Sunday next before the First Sunday of Advent when the new Church Year begins.

During the Weekdays of the Sundays after Pentecost the liturgy will follow a more predictable and regular pattern. No longer shaped by the seasonal emphases of the Year of Christ, this season, sometimes called Ordinary Time, provides the opportunity for singing General Hymns, saying well known prayers and a focus on the witness and ministry of the People of God.

During the Season after Pentecost we will observe three short “Seasons” focusing on our Core Values of Compassion (in the weeks of July 21, 28, August 4), Creation (in the weeks of October 6, 13 and 20) and of course our annual season of Stewardship (in the weeks of October 27, November 3, 10, 17).

Observances

Feríal Day

Weekday

From the Latin fería meaning “free day”: in antiquity a day on which the people, especially the slaves, were not obliged to work. In the liturgical calendar of the Church, a fería is an ordinary weekday that is neither a feast nor a fast; as such it is an extension of the preceding Sunday and is assigned the collect of that Sunday. In recent official liturgical texts in English, the term “weekday” is used instead of fería or “ferial day.”

Collect

Keep, O Lord, your household the Church in your steadfast faith and love, that through your grace we may proclaim your truth with boldness, and minister your justice with compassion; for the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Bernard Mizeki

Catechist and Martyr in Mashonaland, now in Zimbabwe, 1896

Bernard Mizeki, the first Anglican martyr of Southern Africa, began work as a catechist among the Mashona people in northern Zimbabwe in 1891.

When Bernard was about twelve old, he travelled to Cape Town, South Africa, where for the next ten years he worked as a laborer. His growing awareness of the disastrous effects of drunkenness on many workers in the slums—whose meagre pay included rations of wine—made him a conscientious teetotaler. He attended night classes at an Anglican school staffed by monks from the Society of Saint John the Evangelist. He became a Christian and was baptized on 9 March 1886. In addition to the standard curriculum, he mastered English, French, high Dutch, and at least eight local African languages. In time Bernard would prove to be an invaluable assistant when the Anglican church began translating its sacred texts into African languages.

After graduating, he accompanied Bishop Knight-Bruce to Mashonaland as a lay catechist. In 1891 the Bishop assigned him to Nhowe, the village of paramount-chief Mangwende. There he built a mission-complex, prayed the Anglican hours each day, tended his subsistence garden, studied the local language, and cultivated friendships with the villagers. He eventually opened a school and won the hearts of many of the Mashona through his love for their children.

Many black African nationalists regarded all Christian missionaries as agents for the European colonial governments. During an uprising in 1896, Bernard was warned to flee. He refused, since he did not regard himself as working for anyone but Christ, would not desert his converts or his post. On 18 June 1896, he was fatally speared outside his hut while his wife and a helper had gone to get food and blankets for him. They later reported that, from a distance, they saw a blinding light on the hillside where he had been lying, and heard a rushing sound, as though of many wings. When they returned to the spot his body had disappeared.

The place of his death has become a focus of great devotion for Anglicans and other Christians, and one of the greatest of all Christian festivals in Africa takes place there every year around the feast day that marks the anniversary of his martyrdom, June 18.
Almighty and everlasting God, who kindled the flame of your love in the heart of your holy martyr Bernard Mizeki: Grant to us, your humble servants, a like faith and power of love, that we, who rejoice in his triumph, may profit by his example; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Adelaide Teague Case

Teacher, 1948

The first woman to be appointed to full professorial rank in an Anglican seminary, Adelaide Teague was born in St. Louis, Missouri, and raised in New York City. She received her B.A. from Bryn Mawr College in 1908, her M.A. in 1919, and her Ph.D. in 1924 from Columbia University. From 1914 to 1916 she was Librarian in the national headquarters of the Episcopal Church, New York, and from 1917 to 1919 she taught at the New York Training School for Deaconesses. From 1919 to 1941 she taught in the religious education department of Columbia University’s Teachers College.

In 1941, when her professional accomplishments were at their height, the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, Massachusetts, convinced her to leave her distinguished position at Columbia and take up the position of Professor of Christian Education. Although other women had taught occasional courses in the seminaries of the church, Case was the first to be full-time faculty member with the rank of Professor.

Case believed that the point of practicing the Christian faith was to make a difference in the world. As an advocate for peace, she believed that Christianity had a special vocation to call people into transformed, reconciled relationships for the sake of the wholeness of the human family. She declared that she discovered these things not in theology or educational theory, but in a life of common prayer and faithful eucharistic practice.

She served on a number of boards of national religious organizations and was a liberal catholic in her theological and liturgical views. Her two major publications are Liberal Christianity and Religious Education (1924) and As Modern Writers See Jesus: A Descriptive Bibliography of Books about Jesus (1927). She died in Boston.

Everliving God, who raised up your servant Adelaide Case, whose compassion and commitment to peace inspired generations of students: Grant that we, following her example, may serve you in our vocations, laboring for your reign of peace, through the companionship of Jesus Christ, your Saving Word; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Canticle 19

The Song of the Redeemed

All O ruler of the universe, Lord God, great deeds are they that you have done, *
surpassing human understanding.
Your ways are ways of righteousness and truth, *
O King of all the ages.
Who can fail to do you homage, Lord,
and sing the praises of your Name? *
for you only are the Holy One.
All nations will draw near and fall down before you, *
because your just and holy works have been revealed.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant prays the Collect, a prayer appointed for the day. See pp. 4-5 for Collect texts.

The Holy Gospel

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to...
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Celebrant reads the Gospel appointed for the day.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily
Silence follows the homily.

The Nicene Creed
Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant We believe in one God,

All the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.
The Prayers of the People

Reader Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
People That we all may be one.

Reader Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
People That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Reader We pray for Michael our Presiding Bishop, Andrew, Allen and Mary our Bishops, and for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
People That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Reader We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nation of the world, especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor and Bill our Mayor.
People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Reader Order our lives in accordance with your purposes for us, giving us the grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice and Stewardship, and lead us in our commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership and Capacity; give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Reader Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
People That they may be delivered from their distress.

Reader Give to the departed eternal rest;
People Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Reader We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Reader Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.
Silence

Celebrant Lord Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, “Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you”: Regard not our sins, but the faith of your Church, and give to us the peace and unity of that heavenly City, where in the unity of the Blessed Trinity you live and reign, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

The Celebrant reads the Proper Preface appointed for the day.

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Hymnal 8 130, adapted
Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your Onlybegotten and Beloved One, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and loving Creator of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.
On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All
Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant
We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ’s death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Onlybegotten and Beloved One, Jesus Christ:
By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever.

All
AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer
BCP p. 364

Celebrant
As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All
Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.
Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.
All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

Blessing of the Holy Trinity

Celebrant May God the Holy Trinity make you strong in faith and love, defend you on every side, and guide you in truth and peace;

And the blessing of God, Loving Creator, Living Word and Life-giving Spirit be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.
Dismissal

Celebrant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Postlude

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area.

Core Values

In June we focus on the Core Value of Stewardship

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing
$50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.
Join the Trinity Youth Chorus
July-August
This summer, the Trinity Youth Chorus is enrolling new members ages 5 to 18. Choristers receive group and individual training in vocal technique, music theory, sight-reading, and performance skills from a group of dedicated professionals. The chorus is accepting mature students with an interest in singing, the commitment to attend weekly rehearsals, and the ability to sing at a Sunday morning service once per month. Enroll at trinitywallstreet.org/youthchorus.

Downtown Voices Auditions
June and August; 120 Broadway
Downtown Voices, Trinity’s semiprofessional choir, is auditioning new high-level volunteer members for the 2019-2020 season. All applicants are required to submit a video sample of their singing and after a screening process, successful applicants will be invited to audition in person. Downtown Voices rehearses on Wednesday evenings from September to June and performs approximately six concerts each year. To schedule an audition, visit trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

Trinity Book Club
6pm, Mondays, July 1-August 26, 120 Broadway, 39-B
Trinity Book Club invites you to explore Spirituality of the Psalms by Walter Brueggemann. This short, small book will move you into a new world of psalms. We will gather, eat, read, and pray using psalms. Information: yseol@trinitywallstreet.org.

Finding Faith in Narnia
July 4-7, Trinity Retreat Center
This summer, come with us to Narnia, home of the White Witch and Aslan, as we explore faith through C.S. Lewis’s classic tale, The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, with activities, crafts, games, and the story on the big screen. Recommended for families with children ages seven and older. Activity fee: $100 per family. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/summercamp.

Xīnxīàn Shíwù Para Everyone
2pm, July 11, St. Margaret’s House, 49 Fulton St.
This multilingual workshop features a Health Bucks talk led by Food Bank for NYC, followed by a cooking demo with City Beets showcasing recipes incorporating produce available from local farmers markets. A light community meal to follow. Information: Metha Balasquides at mbalasquides@trinitywallstreet.org.

Arts Retreat
July 26-28, Trinity Retreat Center
Join fellow artist-parishioners for pottery making, nature walks, landscape painting, cookie decorating, readings, and more. Sponsored by Trinity’s Congregational Arts. Deposit: $50, due by June 30; transportation is provided. Registration: Melissa Hayes at mhayes@trinitywallstreet.org.

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are building out the Manning Wing. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Emails from the Rector and Vicar
Recently several parishioners have received fraudulent emails from senders claiming to be the Rector or the Vicar. If you receive an email that asks you to do a favor (e.g., buy a gift card) or otherwise sounds suspicious, please delete the email. You can report the incident to lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Book An Upcoming Retreat
The Trinity Retreat Center, located in West Cornwall, Connecticut, is a refuge of healing, peace, joy, and spiritual formation for all generations. Upcoming themed retreats:

ANGLICAN CYCLE OF PRAYER
Today we pray for the Most Rev. Nicholas Okoh and the Anglican Church of Nigeria.

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team. For other pastoral needs, call 212.602.0800 and ask for Pastoral Care.

Congregational Voice
"Real wisdom, God’s wisdom, begins with a holy life and is characterized by getting along with others. It is gentle and reasonable, overflowing with mercy and blessings, not hot one day and cold the next, not two-faced. You can develop a healthy, robust community that lives right with God and enjoy its results only if you do the hard work of getting along with each other, treating each other with dignity and honor" (James 3:17-18 MSG). There is a lot of discord out there which threatens to sabotage the day. I posted this verse because it was the Bible verse from my morning devotion.

This service is based on The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, beginning on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts come from the St. Helena Psalter. The bulletin cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP), proposed by the Consultation on Common Texts. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled at Trinity Church from Enriching Our Worship 1 (EOW 1), Lesser Feasts and Fasts (LFF), A Great Cloud of Witnesses (GCW), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.

In an effort to reach a broad audience, Trinity Wall Street records its services and events for broadcast on the internet. Your attendance at a service or event constitutes your consent to be included in any filming, photographing, audio recording, or broadcast and for any other use in whole or in part, including publicity and promotion. If you prefer to avoid being filmed, please sit in the back pews on the side aisles.

As part of Trinity Wall Street’s commitment to responsible stewardship of the earth’s resources, this publication is printed on paper that is manufactured with 100% post-consumer fibers.
