Compassion

If I can stop one heart from breaking,
I shall not live in vain;
If I can ease one life the aching,
Or cool one pain,
Or help one fainting robin
Unto his nest again,
I shall not live in vain.

Emily Dickinson
MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service:
The Season of Compassion

Bear one another’s burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.

Galatians 6:2

Over the last several years, churches of many denominations, including many within the Anglican Communion, have designated a Season of Compassion. It has usually been observed for a few weeks in the Season after Pentecost, sometime between July and October.

Our Sunday liturgy is always a thanksgiving to God for all the blessings of this life, especially for our creation, redemption, and preservation in Jesus Christ. For the next three Sundays our thanksgiving will be informed by our recognition that we are called to the ministry of compassion. Compassion is one of our Core Values, and in these weeks, we will enter into worship ready to hear again the call to be agents of Christ’s compassion and ministers of Christ’s kindness and care.

The Concluding Collects for the Prayers of the People during the Season of Compassion were composed by participants in the Core Value Retreat on Compassion in May this year.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Hymn in Procession

The hymn will be sung twice.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Letter to the Colossians.

As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving. See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the universe, and not according to Christ.

For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have come to fullness in him, who is the head of every ruler and authority. In him also you were circumcised with a spiritual circumcision, by putting off the body of the flesh in the circumcision of Christ; when you were buried with him in baptism, you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able.

The choir sings the acclamation first, then the congregation joins on the repeat.

Music: Celtic Alleluia, Fintan O’Carroll and Christopher Walker (b. 1947)
Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon  Jesus was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, “Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples.” He said to them, “When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us. And do not bring us to the time of trial.”

And he said to them, “Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him.’ And he answers from within, ‘Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.’ I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs.

“So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish? Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

The Prayers of the People

BCP p. 385, adapted

Reader

We serve a savior who called us to mercy: Jesus came to us and showed us how to heal, love, and forgive. Trusting in the compassion of God, let us pray for the grace to be compassionate.

I ask your prayers for God’s people throughout the world; for bishops and ministers, for all of us gathered here.

Pray for the Church.

God of love,

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

I ask your prayers for the leaders of the nations and all in authority, especially Donald our president, Andrew our governor, and Bill our mayor, that they may obey your Spirit and bless your people.

Pray for sound government.

God of love,

People

Hear our prayer.
Reader  I ask your prayers for goodwill among nations and for the well-being of all people.
      Pray for justice and peace.
      God of love,

People  Hear our prayer.

Reader  I ask your prayers for our parish community.
      Pray that God would grant us the grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship, for the good of our neighborhood and our world.
      God of love,

People  Hear our prayer.

Reader  I ask your prayers for God's creation and for the will and wisdom to care for it.
      Pray for the earth and seas.
      God of love,

People  Hear our prayer.

Reader  I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison.
      Pray for those in any need or trouble.
      God of love,

People  Hear our prayer.

Reader  I ask your prayers for those who have died and those who mourn.
      Pray for God's light to shine upon them.
      God of love,

People  Hear our prayer.

Reader  Praise God for those in every generation who follow Jesus and give glory to God.
      Pray that we will learn to do the same, every day.
      God of love,

People  Hear our prayer.

Celebrant  Loving and merciful God: give us the grace to live out and share your compassion with others as we walk this road of life, that we may praise you for your everlasting and steadfast devotion to all the creatures of your creation; through Jesus Christ our Lord, one God, now and forever.

All  Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Deacon

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence

All

Have mercy upon us, most merciful God;
in your compassion forgive us our sins,
known and unknown,
things done and left undone;
and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All

Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People

And also with you.

The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being. You made humankind in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. We rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us.

And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:
Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Now gathered at your table, O God, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice. Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ.

Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made. In the fullness of time bring us, with [________ and] all your saints, from every people and nation, to the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All

AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

Please come forward by row to receive communion. If you need communion brought to you, please let a sacristan know.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please come to the high altar through the chancel gate and a prayer minister will meet you.
Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.

1. I love to tell the story Of unseen things above,
   Of Jesus and His glory, Of Jesus and His love.

2. I love to tell the story, Because I know it's true;
   And when, in scenes of glory, I sing the new, new song.

1. It satisfies my longings As nothing else would do.
   'Twill be the old, old story That I have loved so long.

2. I love to tell the story; 'Twill be my theme in glory.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant The Wisdom of God, the Love of God, and the Grace of God strengthen you to be Christ’s hands and heart in this world.

And the blessing of the Holy and Undivided Trinity—Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-giving Spirit—be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.
1. Goin' to lay down my burdens,
2. Goin' to meet my loving savior,

Down by the riverside,
Down by the riverside,

Down by the riverside,
To study war no

I ain't goin' more.

study war no more. Ain't goin'
Dismissal

Deacon Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.
People Thanks be to God.

Please take this bulletin home with you.

Flowers

During the Summer months the sanctuary will be decorated To the Glory of God with arrangements of green foliage.

Floral arrangements will return on Celebration Sunday.
Reflecting on Compassion

During this season of Pentecost, Trinity will observe “mini-seasons” to magnify the core values of Compassion, Creation as an aspect of our Core Values of Integrity and Social Justice, and Stewardship. During the worship services on Sundays, July 21, July 28, and August 3, we’re paying particular attention to Compassion, with enhanced prayers of the people and a moment of reflection. The following quotations, poems, and art are intended to provide another gateway to reflection over the next several weeks.

“All major religious traditions carry basically the same message: that is love, compassion, and forgiveness.

The important thing is they should be part of our daily lives.” –Dalai Lama

The Bodhisattva of Infinite Compassion

This sculpture is a treasured image of the Bodhisattva of Compassion (Guanyin in Chinese, Avalokiteshvara in Sanskrit). It possibly dates from the Northern Song (960-1127) dynasty. It is now in The Metropolitan Museum of Art.

A “bodhisattva” is a being so compassionate that it refrains from entering nirvana (a state of sacred peace) so it can stay in this world and save others. A bodhisattva has generated a “bodhicitta”—a wish or a longing to let go of fears and habits and thus be of benefit to all through compassion. Guanyin, the Bodhisattva of Compassion, the divine figure that responds most directly to human prayers, became the most beloved Buddhist deity after Buddhism arrived in China from India in the first century.

In Twelve Steps to a Compassionate Life,” Karen Armstrong highlights the four elements of “immeasurable” love described by the Buddha: “loving kindness”—the desire to bring happiness to all sentient beings; “compassion”—the resolve to liberate all creatures from their pain; “sympathetic joy”—delight in the happiness of others; and “even-mindedness”—the ability to love all beings equally and impartially.

Reflections on the Bodhisattva and “The Return of the Prodigal Son” written by John McCann and Beverly Bell.
“Kindness” by Naomi Shihab Nye

Before you know what kindness really is you must lose things, feel the future dissolve in a moment like salt in a weakened broth. What you held in your hand, what you counted and carefully saved, all this must go so you know how desolate the landscape can be between the regions of kindness. How you ride and ride thinking the bus will never stop, the passengers eating maize and chicken will stare out the window forever.

Before you learn the tender gravity of kindness, you must travel where the Indian in a white poncho lies dead by the side of the road. You must see how this could be you, how he too was someone who journeyed through the night with plans and the simple breath that kept him alive.

Before you know kindness as the deepest thing inside, you must know sorrow as the other deepest thing. You must wake up with sorrow. You must speak to it till your voice catches the thread of all sorrows and you see the size of the cloth.

Then it is only kindness that makes sense anymore, only kindness that ties your shoes and sends you out into the day to mail letters and purchase bread, only kindness that raises its head from the crowd of the world to say It is I you have been looking for, and then goes with you everywhere like a shadow or a friend.

Poem used by written permission of poet. Poets.org notes that “Naomi Shihab Nye gives voice to her experience as an Arab-American through poems about heritage and peace that overflow with a humanitarian spirit.”

“The Return of the Prodigal Son” by Rembrandt van Rijn

Much has been written about this painting, which was probably completed within two years of the artist’s death in 1669. Measuring 6 feet by 8 feet, Rembrandt’s “Prodigal Son” hangs in the State Hermitage Museum in St. Petersburg.

Rembrandt brings the parable (Luke 15: 11-32) to life for us, but over the years observers have pointed to details we might easily miss. For instance, one of the father’s hands seems larger and stronger, while the other is smaller and more tender. The son’s clothes are in shreds, his sandals are worn (and one has fallen from his foot), and his head may have been shaved. Though he has squandered his property, the son has kept his sword—perhaps to hold on to his memories of home. Meanwhile, his older brother stands by in his finery, hands crossed. He is not yet ready to forgive.

The Dutch theologian and writer Henri Nouwen wrote a book on how seeing and studying this masterpiece—first as a poster in France and then later the original in Russia—changed his life. Indeed the art historian Kenneth Clark said, “those who have seen the original in St. Petersburg may be forgiven for claiming [it] as the greatest picture ever painted.” But we do not need to see the original to sense the father’s compassion, which Rembrandt captures so beautifully. The father’s face could be the face of God, offering all of us refuge.
JOIN THE Trinity Youth Chorus

This summer, the Trinity Youth Chorus is enrolling new members ages 5 to 18. Choristers receive group and individual training in vocal technique, music theory, sight-reading, and performance skills from a group of dedicated professionals.

The chorus is accepting mature students with an interest in singing, the commitment to attend weekly rehearsals, and the ability to sing at a Sunday-morning service once per month.

Children in grades K-5 may join regardless of their musical experience or background.

Youth in grades 6-12 enter the choir through a short audition and written music theory assessment.

There is no fee to participate. Learn more and sign up at trinitywallstreet.org/youthchorus

TODAY

Pentecost Season of Compassion
During this season of Pentecost, the liturgy team has planned three mini-seasons to magnify a particular core value or an aspect of our core values. On Sundays through August 4, we'll pay particular attention to Compassion, with special prayers of the people, and a moment of reflection. There may even be opportunities after worship to further explore the values. Other seasons within the season are planned: a season of Creation will be held October 6–20 and include a Fall Fair and Blessing of the Animals; and the season of Stewardship will fall October 27–November 17. For more information, see the Rev. Bruce Jenneker.

Core Values

In July we focus on the Core Value of Faith

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

St. Paul’s Chapel Choir Auditions
July-August, Chapel of All Saints
The St. Paul’s Chapel Choir welcomes volunteer singers to audition this summer. The Chapel Choir sings for morning services on the first Sunday of each month at St. Paul’s Chapel and leads a congregational hymn-sing each season. All voice parts are welcome and tenors and basses are especially needed. Help us spread the word! Learn more and schedule an audition at trinitywallstreet.org/chapelchoir.

Join the Trinity Youth Chorus
July-August
This summer, the Trinity Youth Chorus is enrolling new members ages 5 to 18. Choristers receive group and individual training in vocal technique, music theory, sight-reading, and performance skills from a group of dedicated professionals. The chorus is accepting mature students with an interest in singing, the commitment to attend weekly rehearsals, and the ability to sing at a Sunday morning service once per month. Enroll at trinitywallstreet.org/youthchorus.
Downtown Voices Auditions
June and August; 120 Broadway
Downtown Voices, Trinity’s semiprofessional choir, is auditioning new high-level volunteer members for the 2019-2020 season. All applicants are required to submit a video sample of their singing and after a screening process, successful applicants will be invited to audition in person. Downtown Voices rehearses on Wednesday evenings from September to June and performs approximately six concerts each year. To schedule an audition, visit trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are installing stained glass on the south aisle and painting and sealing. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Emails from the Rector, Vicar, or Staff
Recently several parishioners have received fraudulent emails from senders claiming to be the Rector, the Vicar, or another member of Trinity’s staff. If you receive an email from anyone asking you to listen to a forwarded voice mail, do a favor (e.g., buy a gift card), or otherwise engage in an activity that sounds suspicious, please delete the email. You can report the incident to lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitygiftshopnyc.com.

Congregational Voice

“I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore” (Psalm 121 KJV). This is my favorite verse because it reminds me where the source of everything I need can be found and that I am protected. —Joyce E. Young

This service conforms to The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff and volunteers, as well as publications including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), My Heart Sings Out (MHSO), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
