If I can stop one heart from breaking,
I shall not live in vain;
If I can ease one life the aching,
Or cool one pain,
Or help one fainting robin
Unto his nest again,
I shall not live in vain.

Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The Church Year falls into two almost equal halves of about 26-28 weeks each. The Year of Christ begins with Advent, continues through Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Holy Week and Eastertide, and culminates on the Day of Pentecost. The Year of the Church comprises all the Sundays after Pentecost and ends with the Sunday of The Reign of Christ—Christ the King, the last Sunday before Advent.

During the Weekdays of the Sundays after Pentecost the liturgy will follow a more predictable and regular pattern. No longer shaped by the seasonal emphases of the Year of Christ, this period, sometimes called Ordinary Time, provides the opportunity for singing General Hymns, saying well-known prayers, and exploring the witness and ministry of the People of God.

During the Season after Pentecost, we will observe three short "Seasons" focusing on our Core Values of Compassion (in the weeks of July 21, 28, August 4), then on Creation as an aspect of our Core Values of Integrity and Social Justice (in the weeks of October 6, 13 and 20) and finally on our Core Value of Stewardship (in the weeks of October 27, November 3, 10, 17).

Albrecht Dürer, Matthias Grünewald, and Lucas Cranach the Elder

Artists, 1528, 1529, 1553

Monday, August 5

Art of all forms offers revealing windows into the life and culture of the period in which it emerges and which it reflects. In the turbulent 16th century, as the Renaissance and the Reformation changed the cultural, social, political, and religious face of northern Europe from medieval to modern, three artists, among several, stand as witnesses of those revolutions.

Albrecht Dürer was born in 1471 at Nuremberg and is generally regarded as the greatest German artist of the Renaissance. While he produced exquisite, life-like paintings, he is best known for his woodcuts and copperplate engravings. This art form enabled numbers of prints to be made of each work, which could then be sold to satisfy the rising middle class's new demand for affordable art. This development was a sign of the shift in early modern society, especially in Protestant areas, from the church to the home as the center of life and religion.

Matthias Grünewald, whose date of birth and name is not known, was one of the greatest German painters of his age. His works on religious themes achieve a visionary expressiveness through intense color and agitated line. Little is known of his early years; the name by which we know him was given to him by his seventeenth-century biographer. He is known to have been in Strasburg in 1479, already accomplished at portraits and woodcuts. He went to Basel in 1490, where Dürer was his pupil. Later, he moved to what is now Alsace, where he painted his famous Isenheim Altarpiece between 1512 and 1516. Grünewald was a deeply religious man who was particularly fascinated by the crucifixion as witnessed by the combination of raw physicality and mysticism that can be observed in the Isenheim Altarpiece.

Lucas Cranach the Elder was born in 1472 in south Germany. In his twenties he moved to Vienna, where he became known in humanist circles. He later moved to Wittenberg, where he became court painter to Frederick III, who was Martin Luther's protector. Cranach was on friendly terms with Luther and painted portraits of Luther, his wife Katharina von Bora, and his parents. Through these and other portraits, he helped form today's image of Luther's circle. Cranach's work enjoyed great popularity in his day, but history best remembers him for his several portraits of Luther and for the exquisite woodcuts he provided for the first German New Testament in 1522.

Collect

We give thanks to you, O Lord, for the vision and skill of Albrecht Dürer, Matthias Grünewald, and Lucas Cranach the Elder, whose artistic depictions helped the peoples of their age understand the full suffering and glory of your incarnate Son; and we pray that their work may strengthen our faith in Jesus Christ and the mystery of the Holy Trinity; for you live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Transfiguration of our Lord

Tuesday, August 6

Major Feast

Three of the four Gospel writers recount an incident in which Jesus appears to his disciples Peter, James, and John in dazzling, otherworldly glory on a mountaintop, accompanied by the revered prophets Moses and Elijah, and affirmed by a divine voice as the Son of God.
Now observed by most Christian denominations throughout the world, this Feast of Christ has its origins in the Eastern Church. Since the late fourth century it has been celebrated as one of the Twelve Great Festivals in Eastern Orthodox calendars. However, it is not mentioned in the West before 850. In 1456, news of the victory of Hungary over the Ottoman Empire arrived in Rome on August 6. Given the importance to international politics at that time of such battles between Christian and Muslim nations, in celebration of the victory, Pope Callixtus III elevated the Transfiguration to a feast to be celebrated by the entire Church.

The liturgical vestments used on this day are, appropriately, white.

COLLECT

O God, who on the holy mount revealed to chosen witness your well-beloved Son, wonderfully transfigured, in raiment white and glistening: Mercifully grant that we, being delivered from the disquietude of this world, may by faith behold the King in his beauty; who with you, O Father, and you, O Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Exodus 34:29-35; Psalm 99:5-9; 2 Peter 1:13-21; Luke 9:28-36

John Mason Neale

Priest, 1866

“He is trying to sneak Roman Catholic traditions back into the English Church!” This charge was levelled again and again against the English priest John Mason Neale. He was one of the first Anglican priests to wear full eucharistic vestments and to make a rule of celebrating the eucharist facing eastwards. He excelled at translating ancient Christian hymns from Latin for modern use in English.

Ordained in the Church of England in 1842, he was so sickly that instead of parish ministry he was assigned to be warden of a home for elderly pensioners. In the course of his duties, John confronted the misery of the poor in rural villages, some of whom died unattended. In 1854 he founded the Sisterhood of St. Margaret to care for the sick. To other church of England clergy, this looked like a return to nuns; they were furious. It was during this time that John began his career as a translator, hymn-writer and spiritual director.

Among the hymns he translated, many have become classics not only of the Anglican repertoire but with most Christian denominations: “All glory, laud, and honor,” “Come, ye faithful, raise the strain,” “O come, O come, Emmanuel,” “Of the Father’s love begotten,” “Christ is made the sure foundation,” “Sing, my tongue, the glorious battle,” “Jerusalem the golden”—all of them translations of ancient Latin hymns. He also wrote a large number of carols, the best-known being “Good Christian men, rejoice” and “Good King Wenceslas.”

John’s favoring of the Latin Church and pre-Reformation ceremonial infuriated his diocesan bishop, who withdrew Neale’s license and for fifteen years refused to let him celebrate the Eucharist. The anguish this judgement caused him, together with his heavy commitments as spiritual director and writer, contributed to his death at the age of 48 on August 6, 1866.

COLLECT

Grant, O God, that in all time of our testing we may know your presence and obey your will; that, following the example of your servant John Mason Neale, we may with integrity and courage accomplish what you give us to do, and endure what you give us to bear; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: 2 Chronicles 20:20-21; Matthew 13:44-52
Dominic

Priest and Friar, 1221

Dominic was born in Spain about 1170. He had great sympathy for those who criticized the wealth and corruption of the Church. He felt called to preach to those who wanted to abandon the church for the popular new spiritual teachings of the time. The Albigensians taught that the universe was a battleground between good, which was spirit, and evil, which was matter; human beings were believed to be spirits trapped in physical bodies. The Waldensians sought to follow Christ in radical poverty and simplicity. This movement is viewed as an early forerunner of the Reformation for its rejection of some of the tenets of the Roman Catholic Church: some of the seven sacraments were excluded; confession of sins was guided by their leaders but did not require a priest; the use of indulgences was condemned; baptism was by full immersion in water and was not administered to infants; the bread and wine of the Eucharist were understood as symbols only, thus denying the doctrine of transubstantiation. They also rejected the notion of purgatory and of prayers offered for the dead.

In response to these radical and popular challenges, Dominic formed the Order of Preachers, now called the Dominicans, a group committed to serious study and poverty as necessary tools for the proper preaching of the gospel, explicitly giving priority to intellectual work. They established major houses in most university centers, to which they contributed such notable teachers as Thomas Aquinas.

The Dominican Constitutions, first formulated in 1216, place a strong emphasis on learning, preaching, and teaching, expressing the priority this way: “In the cells, moreover, they can write, read, pray, sleep, and even stay awake at night, if they desire, on account of study.” Partly through the influence of Francis of Assisi, the Constitutions insist on absolute poverty.

Dominic died in Bologna in 1221.

Collect

O God of the prophets, you opened the eyes of your servant Dominic to perceive a famine of hearing the word of the Lord, and moved him, and those he drew about him, to satisfy that hunger with sound preaching and fervent devotion: Make your Church, dear Lord, in this and every age, attentive to the hunger of the world, and quick to respond in love to those who are perishing; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Herman of Alaska

Missionary to the Aleut, 1837

Herman of Alaska, known in the Russian Orthodox Church as “St. Herman: Wonderworker of All America,” was the first saint to be canonized by the Orthodox Church in America.

Herman was born in the town of Serpukhov near Moscow around 1756. At 17, he entered the Russian Orthodox monastic life. He was never ordained to the priesthood. For many years he secured permission to live as a hermit, attending the liturgies of the monastery only on holy days. In 1973 Herman, along with seven other monks, was sent to do missionary work in Alaska. They settled on Spruce Island, near Kodiak. Herman lived and worked in the area for the remainder of his life.

The monks encountered the Aleuts, came to know them and converted them to Christianity. As time progressed, they found themselves protecting the First Nations People from oppression, exploitation and abuse. Because of this moral stance the monks themselves were abused, arrested and physically threatened. They endured persecution and hardship, inclement weather, illness and much more. Through these trials
Herman remained steadfast, the only survivor from the original band of missionaries, the others either having been martyred, or died of natural causes, or returned to Russia.

Even though Herman had minimal education outside the monastic life, he was regarded among the native Alaskans as a great and compelling teacher. Over time he also developed a reputation as a teacher and possessor of wisdom among the more educated Russian and European settlers in the area. He so captivated his listeners that many would listen to him through the long hours of the night and not leave his company until morning. The people he served often referred to Herman as their North Star.

In the spring of 1969, the Synod of Bishops of the Orthodox Church in America proclaimed Herman a saint. He died at Spruce Island on December 25, 1837.

Collect

Holy God, we bless your Name for Herman, joyful North Star of Christ’s Church, who brought the Good News of Christ’s love to your people in Alaska; and we pray that, following his example and admonition, we may love you, God, above all; through Jesus Christ, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, throughout all ages. Amen.

Celebrant
We believe in one God,
All the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

When appointed the Celebrant prays the Proper Preface.

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Hymnal S 130, adapted
Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your Onlybegotten and Beloved One, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and loving Creator of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”
Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ’s death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All Our Father in heaven,
   hallowed be your Name,
   your kingdom come,
   your will be done,
   on earth as in heaven.
   Give us today our daily bread.
   Forgive us our sins
   as we forgive those who sin against us.
   Save us from the time of trial,
   and deliver us from evil.
   For the kingdom, the power,
   and the glory are yours,
   now and for ever. Amen.

Core Values

In August we focus on the Core Value of Integrity

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity's core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You'll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel
Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation,
staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are installing stained glass on the south aisle and painting and sealing. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Emails from the Rector, Vicar, or Staff
Recently several parishioners have received fraudulent emails from senders claiming to be the Rector, the Vicar, or another member of Trinity’s staff. If you receive an email from anyone asking you to listen to a forwarded voice mail, do a favor (e.g., buy a gift card), or otherwise engage in an activity that sounds suspicious, please delete the email. You can report the incident to lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Congregational Voice
“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it” (Matthew 10:34-40). Just when we thought we had it figured out, Jesus hits us with this. I love this quote because if we embrace it, then it means it’s counter to what many of us think about love of God versus love of our lives, friends, and family. I like it because it raises more questions than it gives answers and forces us to think outside the box and seek God even more for answers and interpretation. —Pearl Chin
