MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.”—Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go through the doors closest to the pulpit during communion time. A prayer minister will meet you in the foyer.

About this Service

Mary, the Mother of our Lord, has been venerated in the Christian church since the apostolic age and has inspired countless works of art, literature, theology, hymnody, and spirituality. According to Rowan Williams,

What we call holy in this world—a person, a place, a set of words or pictures—is so because it is a transitional place, a borderland, where the completely foreign is brought together with the familiar... That [Mary] can be represented in so many ways, thought about and imagined in so many forms, is an indication of how deeply she speaks to us about the hope for the world’s transfiguration through Jesus; how she stands for the making strange of what is familiar and the homeliness of what is strange. After all, it is she who literally makes a home for the Creator of all things, the strangest reality we can conceive, in her own body and in her own house... ¹

From as early as the third century Mary has been called Theotokos, the God-bearer. She is honored because she was the Mother of Jesus Christ, the Son of God—and because she is indeed the first of the disciples, the paragon of Christian life and witness. In Anglican theology she is known as the willing and obedient partner of God in the history of our salvation.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my whole being shall exult in my God; for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. For as the earth brings forth its shoots, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up, so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 34:1-9

The choir sings the refrain, then all repeat the refrain and sing as indicated.

Refrain

I will bless God at all times,*
and praise shall ever be in my mouth.
I will glory in the Most High;*
let the humble hear and rejoice.
Proclaim with me the greatness of God;*
let us exalt God's Name together.
I sought, and God answered me*
and delivered me out of all my terror.

All REFRAIN

The Psalm continues on the next page.
Choir

Look upon the Most High and be radiant, * and let not your faces be ashamed.
I called in my affliction, and God heard me *
and saved me from all my troubles.
The angels encompass those who fear God, *
and God will deliver them.
Taste and see that God is good; *
happy are they who trust in the Most High!
Fear the Most High, you that are God’s saints, *
for those who fear God lack nothing.

REFRAIN: Brother James’ Air, J.L. Macbeth Bain (1840-1925)

The Second Reading

Reader

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Galatians.

When the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, in order to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as children. And because you are children, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, “Abba! Father!” So you are no longer a slave but a child, and if a child then also an heir, through God.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People

Thanks be to God.

Reader

After the reading of the Gospel, all children are invited to follow the cross to Children’s Chapel. They will return at the Peace.
Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able.

My soul proclaims your greatness, Lord; I sing my Savior's praise!
To all who live in holy fear your mercy ever flows.
To Israel, your servant blest, your help is ever sure:

You looked upon my lowliness, and I am full of grace.
With mighty arm you dash the proud, their scheming hearts expose.
The promise to our parents made their children will secure.

Now every land and every age this blessing shall proclaim:
The ruthless you have cast aside, the lowly throned instead;
Sing glory to the Holy One, give honor to the Word,

Great wonders you have done for me, and holy is your name.
The hungry filled with all good things, the rich sent off unfed.
And praise the power of the Most High, one God, by all adored.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon  Mary said, “My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has looked with favor on the lowliness of his servant. Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed; for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name. His mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation.

“He has shown strength with his arm; he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts. He has brought down the powerful from their thrones, and lifted up the lowly; he has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty. He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, according to the promise he made to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his descendants forever.”

We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan Christ, who on the cross for-saken, like a lamb to slaughter led,

We believe in God the Spirit; in one Church, below, above:

earth and heaven sprang to being, all created things began,

suffered under Pontius Pilate, he descended to the dead.

saints of God in one communion, one in holiness and love.

We believe in Christ the Savior, Son of God in human frame,

We believe in Jesus risen, heaven’s king to rule and reign,

So by faith, our sins for-given, Christ our Sav-ior, Lord and friend, virgin born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came.

to the Father’s side ascended till as judge he comes again.

we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813
The Prayers of the People

Reader  In the confidence we share with Mary, let us pray to our God, the Mighty One who has done great things for us.

Your prophet of old foretold a day when a virgin would conceive and bear a son who would be called God-with-us. Give us courage to accept the deliverance you offer and to seek the fullness of your kingdom.

Lord, in your mercy,

People  Hear our prayer.

Reader  Your angel declared to Mary that she was to be the mother of the Savior. Bless Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary our own Bishops; all the Bishops and clergy, and all the people of God. Inspire us to be open to your word and obedient to your will.

Lord, in your mercy,

People  Hear our prayer.

Reader  Mary rejoiced with Elizabeth and proclaimed your greatness. Help us to see your hand at work in the world around us, and to live joyful lives that sing your praise.

Lord, in your mercy,

People  Hear our prayer.

Reader  In the joy of the Spirit, Mary the prophet foresaw God’s kingdom of justice and mercy. Guide our leaders, especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor, and bless all the nations of the world with Christ’s gift of peace.

Lord, in your mercy,

People  Hear our prayer.

Reader  The child Jesus grew in wisdom and stature in the home of Mary and Joseph. We give you thanks for Joseph who shared the nurture of Jesus with Mary his mother. Strengthen our homes and families, and keep in your protection all refugees and those who are displaced, all migrant workers and their families, and all children at risk of violence and abuse.

Lord, in your mercy,

People  Hear our prayer.

Reader  At the foot of the cross of Jesus stood his mother, and from the cross she received his body in her arms. Give comfort and healing to all who suffer, and to all who watch the suffering of those they love.

Lord, in your mercy,

People  Hear our prayer.

Reader  Bring us with those who have died in the faith of Christ to share the joy of heaven with Blessed Mary and all the saints.

Lord, in your mercy,

People  Hear our prayer.
Celebrant Almighty and everlasting God, you raised fallen humanity through the child-bearing of Blessed Mary: grant that we, who have seen your glory revealed and your love made perfect in our human nature, may daily be renewed in your image and conformed to the pattern of your Onlybegotten and Beloved One, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Deacon We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence

All God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.
There’s A Wideness in God’s Mercy

There’s a wideness in God’s mercy,
like the wideness of the sea.
There’s a kindness in his justice,
which is more than liberty.
There is welcome for the sinner,
and more graces for the good;
there is mercy with the Savior;
there is healing in his blood.

There is no place where earth’s sorrows are more felt than up in heaven.
There is no place where earth’s failings have such kindly judgment given.
There is plentiful redemption in the blood that has been shed;
there is joy for all the members in the sorrows of the Head.

For the love of God is broader than the measures of the mind;
and the heart of the Eternal is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more faithful,
we should take him at his word,
and our lives would be thanksgiving
for the goodness of our Lord.

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP p. 367, adapted/p. 378, adapted

Celebrant
It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; because you gave Jesus Christ, your Onlybegotten and Beloved One, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children. Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,

Holy, holy, holy Lord,

God of power and might,

heaven and earth are full,

full of your glory.

in the highest. Bless’d is the One who comes.

Hymnal S 130, adapted
Music: from Deutsche Messe, Franz Peter Schubert (1797-1828); arr. Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Celebrant

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Onlybegotten and Beloved One.

For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Blessed Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.
By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose. Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion. We receive at one station at the front of the center aisle and return to our seats by the side aisles.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please go through the doors closest to the pulpit and a prayer minister will meet you in the foyer.

Draw Us in the Spirit’s Tether

Harold Friedell (1905-1958)

Draw us in the Spirit’s tether;
For when humbly, in thy name,
Two or three are met together,
Thou art in the midst of them: Alleluia!
Touch we now thy garment’s hem.

As the brethren used to gather
In the name of Christ to sup,
Then with thanks to God the Father
Break the bread and bless the cup: Alleluia!
So knit thou our friendship up.

All our meals and all our living
Make as sacraments of thee,
That by caring, helping, giving,
We may true disciples be: Alleluia!
We will serve thee faithfully.

—Percy Dearmer (1867-1936)

Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.
At the final verse, please stand as you are able.

1. Great is thy faithfulness, O God my Father,
2. Summer and winter, and spring-time and harvest,
3. Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth,

1. There is no shadow of turning with thee;
2. Sun, moon and stars in their courses above,
3. Thine own dear presence to cheer and to guide;

1. Thou changest not, thy compassion, they fail not,
2. Join with all nature in manifold witness,
3. Strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow,
1. As thou hast been thou forever wilt be.
2. To thy great faithfulness, mercy and love.
3. Blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside!

Great is thy faithfulness! Great is thy faithfulness!

Morning by morning new mercies I see;

All I have needed thy hand hath provided,

Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord unto me!

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are installing stained glass on the south aisle and painting the ceiling, and the infrastructure work continues. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Emails from the Rector, Vicar, or Staff
Recently several parishioners have received fraudulent emails from senders claiming to be the Rector, the Vicar, or another member of Trinity's staff. If you receive an email from anyone asking you to listen to a forwarded voice mail, do a favor (e.g., buy a gift card), or otherwise engage in an activity that sounds suspicious, please delete the email. You can report the incident to lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Core Values
In August we focus on the Core Value of Integrity

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

Congregational Voice
"Where can I go from your Spirit? Where can I flee from your presence?" (Psalm 139:7 NIV). No matter how far I have thought I strayed, a renewed awareness of God has always been as near as my next thought. When I have felt stuck or even lost on my spiritual journey, many times the thought of God has helped me find my way again. Unity.

—Donna Morancie
