When joy is gone and hearts are sick, O God, you give us Christ as our healing balm.

He came in human flesh that he might give himself as a ransom for our salvation and anoint us with the Spirit of consolation and joy.

Hear the cry of your people, that we may rejoice in the richness of your love and be faithful stewards of your many gifts. Amen.

Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to the Chapel of All Saints

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area for prayers at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The Church Year falls into two almost equal halves of about 26-28 weeks each. The Year of Christ begins with Advent, continues through Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Holy Week, and Eastertide, and culminates on the Day of Pentecost. The Year of the Church comprises all the Sundays after Pentecost and ends with Christ the King, the last Sunday before Advent.

Sundays after Pentecost follow a more predictable and regular liturgical pattern. No longer shaped by the emphases of the Year of Christ, this period, sometimes called Ordinary Time, provides the opportunity to sing and say well-known hymns and prayers, and to explore the witness and ministry of the people of God.

During Ordinary Time, we will observe three shorter “Seasons.” This summer, we focused on our Core Value of Compassion (Sundays July 21, 28, August 4); soon we will consider Creation as an aspect of our Core Values of Integrity and Social Justice (Sundays October 6, 13, and 20) and the spiritual implications of our Core Value of Stewardship (Sundays October 27, November 3, 10, 17).

Today, on Celebration Sunday, we return to our regular fall schedule of programs and events.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
Glory to God

1. Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

2. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

3. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;

4. You are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

5. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord.

6. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant  God be with you.
People    And also with you.
Celebrant  Let us pray.

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All    Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading  Jeremiah 8:18—9:1

Reader    A Reading from the Book of Jeremiah.

My joy is gone, grief is upon me, my heart is sick. Hark, the cry of my poor people from far and wide in the land: “Is the Lord not in Zion? Is her King not in her?” (“Why have they provoked me to anger with their images, with their foreign idols?”) “The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.” For the hurt of my poor people I am hurt, I mourn, and dismay has taken hold of me.

Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then has the health of my poor people not been restored? O that my head were a spring of water, and my eyes a fountain of tears, so that I might weep day and night for the slain of my poor people!

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People    Thanks be to God.
The Psalm

Psalm 79:1-9

Reader Let us read from Psalm 79 responsively by half-verse.

O God, the nations have come into your inheritance;
they have profaned your holy temple; *

People they have made Jerusalem a heap of rubble.

Reader They have given the bodies of your servants as food for the birds of the air, *

People and the flesh of your faithful ones to the beasts of the field.

Reader They have shed their blood like water on every side of Jerusalem, *

People and there was no one to bury them.

Reader We have become a reproach to our neighbors, *

People an object of scorn and derision to those around us.

Reader How long will you be angry, O God; *

People will your fury blaze like fire for ever?

Reader Pour out your wrath upon the nations who have not known you *

People and upon the realms that have not called upon your Name.

Reader For they have devoured Jacob *

People and made his dwelling a ruin.

Reader Remember not our past sins;
let your compassion be swift to meet us; *

People for we have been brought very low.

Reader Help us, O God our Savior, for the glory of your Name; *

People deliver us and forgive us our sins, for your Name’s sake.

The Second Reading

1 Timothy 2:1-7

Reader A Reading from the First Letter to Timothy.

First of all, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all—this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.
Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able.

There is a balm in Gilead to make the wounded whole; There is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin-sick soul.

1. Sometimes I feel discouraged, And think my work's in vain, But
2. If you cannot preach like Peter, If you cannot preach like Paul, You can

1. Then the holy spirit Revives my soul again.
2. Tell the love of Jesus, And say He died for all.

The Holy Gospel

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Celebrant

Jesus said to the disciples, “There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, ‘What is this that I hear about you? Give me an accounting of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.’ Then the manager said to himself, ‘What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.’

“So, summoning his master’s debtors one by one, he asked the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’ He answered, ‘A hundred jugs of olive oil.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.’ Then he asked another, ‘And how much do you owe?’ He replied, ‘A hundred containers of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill and make it eighty.’ And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

“Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.”

The Prayers of the People

PBCW p. 107, adapted

Reader

For everything there is a season, yet what God has done endures forever. In thanksgiving that our journeys have brought us to a safe reunion in this place, let us pray for the needs of the Church, the whole human family, and all the world, saying: Lord, hear our prayer.

That churches of all traditions may discover their unity in Christ and exercise their gifts in service of all,

We pray to you, O Lord:

People

Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader

For Michael our Presiding Bishop, Andrew, Allen, and Mary our own bishops, for all bishops and ministers, and all the holy people of God; that they may serve your world faithfully and with courage,

We pray to you, O Lord:

People

Lord, hear our prayer.
Reader That those called to govern and maintain peace in every land—especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor—may exercise their powers in accordance with your will,

We pray to you, O Lord:

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader That you will preserve all who live and work in this city in peace and safety,

We pray to you, O Lord:

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader That the earth may be freed from war, famine, and disease, and that we may seek to safeguard the abundant gifts of your creation for our children and generations yet to come,

We pray to you, O Lord:

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader For this parish: give us grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship, and to grow in our commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership, and Capacity,

We pray to you, O Lord:

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader That, guided by your Spirit, we may comfort and empower those who face any difficulty or trial: the poor, the oppressed, the sick, the lonely, those who grieve, and those in prison,

We pray to you, O Lord:

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader In thanksgiving for all your faithful servants now at rest, who with us await a new heaven and a new earth, your everlasting kingdom,

We pray to you, O Lord:

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant Merciful God, as a potter crafts a vessel from clay, you form us into a new creation. Shape us, day by day, through the cross of your Beloved One, until all our acts are prayer. In the name of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

All Amen.
Confession and Absolution

Celebrant  Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All  Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant  Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All  Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant  The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People  And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The organist plays an improvisation while the ushers collect the offering.
At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, for by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world.

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Onlybegotten and Beloved One.

For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Blessed Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.
On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All
We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant
And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All
AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant
As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All
Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those
    who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.
The Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant: Let us pray.
All: Loving God, we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ’s Body and Blood. Now send us forth a people, forgiven, healed, renewed; that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant: Live without fear: your Creator has made you holy, has always protected you, and loves you as a mother. Go in peace to follow the good road; and the blessing of the Holy and Undivided Trinity—Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-giving Spirit—be among you, and remain with you always.
All: Amen.

CORE VALUES
In September, we focus on the core value of inclusiveness.

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We'll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

November 15–17
STEWARDSHIP with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Thursday, October 3, 6–8pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
In his new book, Christ in Crisis, Sojourners Editor-in-Chief Jim Wallis has a message for Americans living in this polarized time. Join him and Trinity’s Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas, for a thought-provoking conversation, hosted by Vicar Phillip Jackson. All are welcome.

Fall Fair and Blessing of the Animals
Saturday, October 5, 10am–2pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Families and children of all ages are invited to this celebration of creation in honor of St. Francis. Bring your pet to be blessed in a short service (at 10am); enjoy music, crafts, and games; or find a new friend at the petting zoo. Learn about Trinity’s many activities for families with children, youth, and adults. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/fallfair.

When a Loved One Struggles
Mondays, Oct. 7–Nov. 11, 6pm, St. Margaret’s House
When a loved one struggles with a mental or emotional challenges, it’s important for those of us who care for them—family members and friends—to know we are not alone. Come share your struggles, concerns, and joys in this six-week support group aimed to help dispel the isolation we often feel. Dr. Peggy Barnett, psychotherapist at Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute, will facilitate. Information: Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

Skate & Serve
October 9, 3–7pm, Martin F. Tanahey Playground
Join Trinity and Go! Sports USA for an afternoon of free skating, packing Brown Bag lunches, and taking part in a drum circle at the Smith Houses. Fall Youth Retreat
October 11–13, Incarnation Center, Ivoryton, CT
Teens are invited to hang out, relax, and get to know each other and Fr. Matt Welsch, Trinity’s new Priest for Youth and Family, in a woodsy retreat—complete with a ropes course and hiking trails. Jennifer Chinn, Trinity’s Justice & Reconciliation program manager, will join the group as they plan Trinity Youth’s activities for the year. Information: Fr. Matt Welsch at mwelsch@trinitywallstreet.org.

Women’s Retreat
October 25–27, Trinity Retreat Center
What Our Sisters in the Bible Can Teach Us. Mother Kristin Miles and the Pastoral Care team invite you to a weekend of rest and renewal. Mother Beth Blunt and Summerlee Staten will lead explorations of the lives of women in the Bible who can speak to and inspire us today. There will be opportunities to experience knitting as prayer with Felicia Eve, healing prayer with Donna Riley and Ellen Andrews, meditation, yoga, and nature walks. Cost: $100 for shared room; $170 for a single room; includes meals. Register and learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/sisters.

Handel’s Messiah
December 20–22, St. Paul’s Chapel
Messiah and Trinity have a long history—Trinity presented one of the first performances in North America in 1770, and The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and Trinity Baroque Orchestra are still widely regarded as some of the greatest interpreters of the work. The New York Times described Trinity’s presentation as “perhaps the essential New York Messiah.” Tickets are going fast—get yours today at trinitywallstreet.org/messiah.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are beginning work on the reredos, including painting around the reredos and the stained glass above. Workers are also making improvements in the churchyard, including preparing to install the southside exterior walkway. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.
Trinity Youth 2019–20
All 6th–12th graders are invited to join Trinity Youth activities in and around New York City throughout the year. Trinity Youth meet Sunday mornings to grab coffee (or tea, or juice — whatever!) and talk about what’s on our minds and hearts. Most importantly, we’re a community that show up for each other. For more information, visit trinitywallstreet.org/youth.

Fall Fair Volunteers Needed
Saturday, October 5, 10am–2pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Volunteers who love animals, children, families, neighbors, and parishioners (not necessarily in that order) are invited to help produce Trinity’s Fall Fair and Blessing of the Animals. Two shifts are available for teens 12–17 and adults 18 and older. Email Wendy Barrie at wbarrie@trinitywallstreet.org or Fr. Matt Welsch at mwelsch@trinitywallstreet.org.

Emails from the Rector, Vicar, or Staff
Recently several parishioners have received fraudulent emails from senders claiming to be the Rector, the Vicar, or another member of Trinity’s staff. If you receive an email from anyone asking you to listen to a forwarded voice mail, do a favor (e.g., buy a gift card), or otherwise engage in an activity that sounds suspicious, please delete the email. You can report the incident to lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Sisters are In
10:30–11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitygiftshopnyc.com.

Parish Center Closing and Meeting Location Changes

In October, Trinity’s lease for the Parish Center will expire and the Parish Center will close. Until Trinity Commons opens on March 1, 2020, regular congregation meetings will change locations, meet less frequently, or go on hiatus. Trinity clergy and staff have held in-depth planning meetings to determine the impact on each program currently hosted at the Parish Center and have determined the following schedules.

Oct. 15, 2019  Parish Center closes
Dec. 13, 2019  Choir Room and Vestry Room open at Trinity Church
Dec. 24, 2019  First services held at reopened Trinity Church

SUNDAY GROUPS
October 15, 2019–March 1, 2020
• Nursery will be available in the Vestry Room when Trinity Church opens on Dec. 24, 2019 and will move to Trinity Commons on Jan. 2, 2020.
• Whole Community Learning will be held in St. Paul’s Chapel, 10–11am, January–February
• Locations to be determined: Gospel, Times, Journal, and You; Foundations
• On hiatus: Breaking Bread

WEEKDAY GROUPS
October 15, 2019–March 1, 2020
• New Beginnings will meet in the Parish Center on October 10; a meeting location for October 17 and 24 are to be determined; from October 31–December 12, and beginning January 9, 2020 the group will meet in Trinity Commons
• Scripture, Reflection, & Compline Bible Study will be held in Chapel of All Saints from Oct. 15 until Dec. 31, 2019, and then in Trinity Church
• Resource Open Hours (Wednesday afternoons) and SNAP sign-up (Friday afternoons) will be held in the 9/11 Chapel of Remembrance
• Online: Meditation and The Universal Christ
• On hiatus: The Broad Way Bible Study; The Family Table; Married Life; Trinity Cares

Optional Meeting Spaces
To provide meeting times for various congregational groups and committees not listed above, St. Paul’s Chapel is being reserved for congregational use from 6–9 pm on the 2nd and 4th Mondays of each month. The dates are as follows:

• October 14  November 25  January 13  February 24
• October 28  December 9  January 27  March 9
• November 11  December 23  February 10  March 23

Groups meeting on these dates include:
Trinity Knitters; Achieving Racial Equity; Poets Corner; Task Force Against Racism/Prison Ministry; Kianga House Project; LGBT Concerns; Environmental Justice Group; Congregational Arts Leaders; Education Standing Committee and Subcommittees; Hospitality & Community Committee.

If you have questions about these arrangements, see your staff representative, your group leader, members of the Congregational Council, or contact Lynn in the communications office: lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.
Wanted: Friendly Faces!
At Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel, we put welcome out front.

Your friendly face is needed to greet regular worshippers, guests, and visitors to the 9am, 9:15am, and 11:15am services on Sundays.

Greeters say hello, help direct worshippers into the buildings, and answer questions. A short informal training is offered on your first day.

Requirements include a commitment to one or two services a month and a background check.

For more information, contact Dane Miller at dmill@trinitywallstreet.org.

SERVICE PARTICIPANTS

CELEBRANT AND PREACHER: The Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles

MUSICIAN:
Janet Yieh, Associate Organist

This service conforms to The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff from publications including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), the Presbyterian Book of Common Worship (PBCW), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP).

FLOWERS

The flowers today are dedicated to the glory of God and in celebration of the Sisters of St. Margaret.
