God Eternal,
you inspired Jeremiah to buy a piece of land
when no one could see a future in it.
Grant us such commitment to the future of your people that you will always have workers for your vineyard and harvesters for your fields. Amen.

Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity's ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go through the doors closest to the pulpit during communion time. A prayer minister will meet you in the foyer.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The Church Year falls into two almost equal halves of about 26-28 weeks each. The Year of Christ begins with Advent, continues through Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Holy Week, and Eastertide, and culminates on the Day of Pentecost. The Year of the Church comprises all the Sundays after Pentecost and ends with Christ the King, the last Sunday before Advent.

Sundays after Pentecost follow a more predictable and regular liturgical pattern. No longer shaped by the emphases of the Year of Christ, this period, sometimes called Ordinary Time, provides the opportunity to sing and say well-known hymns and prayers, and to explore the witness and ministry of the people of God.

During Ordinary Time, we will observe three shorter “Seasons.” This summer, we focused on our Core Value of Compassion (Sundays July 21, 28, August 4); soon we will consider Creation as an aspect of our Core Values of Integrity and Social Justice (Sundays October 6, 13, and 20), and the spiritual implications of our Core Value of Stewardship (Sundays October 27, November 3, 10, 17).

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader     A Reading from the Book of Jeremiah.

The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of King Zedekiah of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar. At that time the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and the prophet Jeremiah was confined in the court of the guard that was in the palace of the king of Judah, where King Zedekiah of Judah had confined him. Zedekiah had said, “Why do you prophesy and say: Thus says the LORD: I am going to give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it”?

Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came to me: Hanamel son of your uncle Shallum is going to come to you and say, “Buy my field that is at Anathoth, for the right of redemption by purchase is yours.” Then my cousin Hanamel came to me in the court of the guard, in accordance with the word of the LORD, and said to me, “Buy my field that is at Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for the right of possession and redemption is yours; buy it for yourself.” Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

And I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel, and weighed out the money to him, seventeen shekels of silver. I signed the deed, sealed it, got witnesses, and weighed the money on scales. Then I took the sealed deed of purchase, containing the terms and conditions, and the open copy; and I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my cousin Hanamel, in the presence of the witnesses who... signed the deed of purchase, and in the presence of all the Judeans who were sitting in the court of the guard. In their presence I charged Baruch, saying, Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, both this sealed deed of purchase and this open deed, and put them in an earthenware jar, in order that they may last for a long time. For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall again be bought in this land.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

REFRAIN

They who dwell in the shelter of the Most High * abide under the shadow of the Al-mighty.
They shall say to God, “You are my refuge and my stronghold, *
my God in whom I put my trust.”

All
For God shall deliver you from the snare of the hunter *
and from the deadly pestilence.
God’s pinions shall cover you, and under God’s wings you shall find refuge; *
God’s faithfulness shall be a shield and buckler.

REFRAIN

You shall not be afraid of any terror by night, *
or of the arrow that flies by day;
Because you are bound to me in love, therefore will I de-liver you; *
I will protect you, because you know my Name.
You shall call upon me, and I will answer you; *
I am with you in trouble; I will rescue you and bring you honor.
With long life will I satisfy you * and show you my sal-vation.

The Second Reading

Reader
A Reading from the First Letter to Timothy.

Of course, there is great gain in godliness combined with contentment; for we brought nothing into the world, so that we can take nothing out of it; but if we have food and clothing, we will be content with these. But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, and in their eagerness to be rich some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pains.

But as for you, man of God, shun all this; pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses.

In the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you to keep the commandment without spot or blame until the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ, which he will bring about at the right time—he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords. It is he alone who has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see; to him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen.

As for those who in the present age are rich, command them not to be haughty, or to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but rather on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share, thus storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of the life that really is life.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon  Jesus said, “There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man’s table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores. The poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried.

“In Hades, where he was being tormented, he looked up and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus by his side. He called out, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames.’ But Abraham said, ‘Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.’ He said, ‘Then, father, I beg you to send him to my father’s house—for I have five brothers—that he may warn them, so that they will not also come into this place of torment.’ Abraham replied, ‘They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them.’ He said, ‘No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.’ He said to him, ‘If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.’”

The Prayers of the People

PBCW p. 107, adapted

Reader

For everything there is a season, yet what God has done endures forever. In thanksgiving that our journeys have brought us to a safe reunion in this place, let us pray for the needs of the Church, the whole human family, and all the world, saying: Lord, hear our prayer.

That churches of all traditions may discover their unity in Christ and exercise their gifts in service of all,

We pray to you, O Lord:

People

Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader

For Michael our Presiding Bishop, Andrew, Allen, and Mary our own bishops, for all bishops and ministers, and all the holy people of God; that they may serve your world faithfully and with courage,

We pray to you, O Lord:

People

Lord, hear our prayer.
Reader  That those called to govern and maintain peace in every land—especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor—may exercise their powers in accordance with your will,

We pray to you, O Lord:

People  Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader  That you will preserve all who live and work in this city in peace and safety,

We pray to you, O Lord:

People  Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader  That the earth may be freed from war, famine, and disease, and that we may seek to safeguard the abundant gifts of your creation for our children and generations yet to come,

We pray to you, O Lord:

People  Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader  For this parish: give us grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship, and to grow in our commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership, and Capacity,

We pray to you, O Lord:

People  Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader  That, guided by your Spirit, we may comfort and empower those who face any difficulty or trial: the poor, the oppressed, the sick, the lonely, those who grieve, and those in prison,

We pray to you, O Lord:

People  Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader  In thanksgiving for all your faithful servants now at rest, who with us await a new heaven and a new earth, your everlasting kingdom,

We pray to you, O Lord:

People  Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant  Merciful God, as a potter crafts a vessel from clay, you form us into a new creation. Shape us, day by day, through the cross of your Beloved One, until all our acts are prayer. In the name of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

All  Amen.
Confession and Absolution

Deacon
Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All
Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant
Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All
Amen.

Simple Gifts

'Tis the gift to be simple, 'tis the gift to be free,
'Tis the gift to come down where we ought to be,
And when we find ourselves in the place just right,
'Twill be in the valley of love and delight.
When true simplicity is gained,
To bow and to bend we shan't be ashamed,
To turn, turn will be our delight,
Till by turning, turning we come 'round right.

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP p. 367, adapted/p. 378

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, for by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world.

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

People
Holy, Holy, Holy

Celebrant

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Onlybegotten and Beloved One.

For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Blessed Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;
Celebrant: And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All: AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant: As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All: Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children.

Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue.

You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion. We receive at one station at the front of the center aisle and return to our seats by the side aisles. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please go through the doors closest to the pulpit and a prayer minister will meet you in the foyer.

Communion Anthem

The Lord Bless You and Keep You

The Lord bless you and keep you.
The Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you.
The Lord lift up the light of his countenance upon you and give you peace.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Loving God,
we give you thanks
for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ’s Body and Blood.

Now send us forth
a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant Live without fear; your Creator has made you holy, has always protected you, and loves you as a mother. Go in peace to follow the good road; and the blessing of the Holy and Undivided Trinity—Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-giving Spirit—be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.

THIS WEEK
Thursday, October 3
Pipes at One: Conservatory Series
1pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
This series is an educational partnership showcasing leading young organists from around the world and highlights the celebrated three-manual Noack organ at St. Paul’s Chapel. THIS WEEK: Students of Daniel Aune and John Walker from the Peabody Institute, Baltimore, MD.

Christ in Crisis with Jim Wallis
6–8pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
In his new book, Christ in Crisis, Sojourners Editor-in-Chief Jim Wallis has a message for Americans living in this polarized time. Join him and Trinity’s Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas, for a thought-provoking conversation, hosted by Vicar Phillip Jackson. All are welcome.

Saturday, October 5
Fall Fair and Blessing of the Animals
10am–2pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Families and children of all ages are invited to this celebration of creation in honor of St. Francis. Bring your pet to be blessed in a short service at 10am; enjoy music, crafts, and games; or find a new friend at the petting zoo. Learn about Trinity’s many activities for families with children, youth, and adults. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/fallfair.
Season of Creation
Beginning October 6
During this season of Pentecost, the liturgy team has planned three mini-seasons to magnify particular core values or an aspect of our core values. On Sundays, October 6, 13, and 20, we’ll pay particular attention to Creation, with enhanced prayers of the people. There may even be opportunities after worship to further explore the values. One final mini-season is planned: the season of Stewardship will fall October 27–November 17. For more information, see the Rev. Beth Blunt.

Parish Center Community Celebration
October 6, 1pm, Parish Center, 56 Trinity Place
As part of the transition to the opening of Trinity Commons, Trinity’s Parish Center will close on October 15. Join us as we honor and celebrate our five years in community together with refreshments and music! For questions, email Jennifer Chinn at jchinn@trinitywallstreet.org.

When a Loved One Struggles
Oct. 7–Nov. 11, Mondays, 6pm, St. Margaret’s House
When a loved one struggles with mental or emotional challenges, it’s important for those of us who care for them—family members and friends—to know we are not alone. Come share your struggles, concerns, and joys in this six-week support group aimed to help dispel the isolation we often feel. Dr. Peggy Barnett, psychotherapist at the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute, will facilitate. Information: Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

Skate & Serve
October 9, 3–7pm, Martin F. Tanahey Playground
Join Trinity and Go! Sports USA for an afternoon of free skating, packing Brown Bag lunches, and taking part in a drum circle at the Smith Houses. Free skate rentals and lessons available to all participants. All children under 16 years old must be chaperoned by an adult. Information: Metha Balasquides at mbalasquides@trinitywallstreet.org.

Fall Youth Retreat
October 11–13, Incarnation Center, Ivoryton, CT
Teens are invited to hang out, relax, and get to know each other and Fr. Matt Welsch, Trinity’s new Priest for Youth and Family, in a woodsy retreat—complete with a ropes course and hiking trails. Jennifer Chinn, Trinity’s Justice & Reconciliation program manager, will join the group as they plan Trinity Youth’s activities for the year. Information: Fr. Matt Welsch at mwelsch@trinitywallstreet.org.

COMING SOON

CORE VALUES
In September, we focus on the core value of inclusiveness.

LIVING THE VALUES RETREATS
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

Parish Center Closing Day Celebration
October 15, 12–3pm, Parish Center, 56 Trinity Place
As part of the transition to the opening of Trinity Commons, Trinity’s Parish Center will close on October 15. Join us as we honor and celebrate our five years in community together with refreshments and music! For questions, email Jennifer Chinn at jchinn@trinitywallstreet.org.

Visit to the Museum of Jewish Heritage
October 20, 1pm, 36 Battery Place
Auschwitz: Not Long Ago, Not Far Away is the most comprehensive exhibition dedicated to the history of Auschwitz and its role in the Holocaust ever presented in North America, and an unparalleled opportunity to confront the singular face of human evil—one that arose not long ago and not far away. This trip is sponsored by Trinity’s Visual Arts committee. A $5 donation for tickets is required. Details: Donato Mallano at donato.mallano@gmail.com or Bill McCue at wtmccjr@yahoo.com.

Women’s Retreat
October 25–27, Trinity Retreat Center
What Our Sisters in the Bible Can Teach Us. Mother Kristin Miles and the Pastoral Care team invite you to a weekend of rest and renewal. Mother Beth Blunt and Summerlee Staten will lead explorations of the lives of women in the Bible who can speak to and inspire us today. There will be opportunities to experience knitting as prayer with Felicia Eve, healing prayer with Donna Riley and Ellen Andrews, meditation, yoga, and nature walks. Cost: $100 for shared room; $170 for a single room; includes meals. Register and learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/sisters.

Handel’s Messiah
December 20–22, St. Paul’s Chapel
Messiah and Trinity have a long history—Trinity presented one of the first performances in North America in 1770, and The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and Trinity Baroque Orchestra are still widely regarded as some of the greatest interpreters of the work. The New York Times described Trinity’s presentation as “perhaps the essential New York Messiah.” Tickets are going fast—get yours today at trinitywallstreet.org/messiah.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are finishing up the installation of stained glass in the north and south clerestories. Flooring is being placed and painting is ongoing. In the sacristy, dry wall is being framed. The painting of the pews is nearing completion. The glass for the new outdoor canopy is expected to arrive soon. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Trinity Youth 2019–20
All 6th–12th graders are invited to join Trinity Youth activities in and around New York City throughout the year. Trinity Youth meet Sunday mornings to grab coffee (or tea, or juice—whatever!) and talk about what’s on our minds and hearts. Most importantly, we’re a community that shows up for each other. For more information, visit trinitywallstreet.org/youth.
Fall Fair Volunteers Needed
Saturday, October 5, 10am–2pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Volunteers who love animals, children, families, neighbors, and parishioners (not necessarily in that order) are invited to help produce Trinity’s Fall Fair and Blessing of the Animals. Two shifts are available for teens 12–17 and adults 18 and older. Email Wendy Barrie at wbarrie@trinitywallstreet.org or Fr. Matt Welsch at mwelsch@trinitywallstreet.org.

Emails from the Rector, Vicar, or Staff
Recently several parishioners have received fraudulent emails from senders claiming to be the Rector, the Vicar, or another member of Trinity’s staff. If you receive an email from anyone asking you to listen to a forwarded voice mail, do a favor (e.g., buy a gift card), or otherwise engage in an activity that sounds suspicious, please delete the email. You can report the incident to lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Sisters are In
10:30–11:45am, Weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitygiftshopnyc.com.

Congregational Voice
“When they came, he looked on Eliab and thought, ‘Surely the Lord’s anointed is now before the Lord.’ But the Lord said to Samuel, ‘Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him; for the Lord does not see as mortals see; they look on the outward appearance, but the Lord looks on the heart’” (1 Samuel 16:6–7). The next time someone offers you their opinion about what you are doing or even about who you are, remember this, then smile and say, “thank you for sharing.” The opinions others have of you should never override God’s purpose and plan for your life.
—Adrienne Gardner
Parish Center Closing and Meeting Location Changes
