The Seventeenth Sunday after Pentecost

October 6, 2019, 11:15am
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity's Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go through the doors closest to the pulpit during communion time. A prayer minister will meet you in the foyer.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service
First Sunday in the Season of Creation

The Church Year falls into two almost equal halves of about 26-28 weeks each. The Year of Christ begins with Advent, continues through Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Holy Week, and Eastertide, and culminates on the Day of Pentecost. The Year of the Church comprises all the Sundays after Pentecost and ends with Christ the King, the last Sunday before Advent.

Sundays after Pentecost follow a more predictable and regular liturgical pattern. No longer shaped by the emphases of the Year of Christ, this period, sometimes called Ordinary Time, provides the opportunity to sing and say well-known hymns and prayers, and to explore the witness and ministry of the people of God.

During Ordinary Time, we will observe three shorter “Seasons.” This summer, we focused on our Core Value of Compassion (Sundays July 21, 28, August 4); for the next few weeks we will consider Creation as an aspect of our Core Values of Integrity and Social Justice (Sundays October 6, 13, and 20), and soon we will reflect on the spiritual implications of our Core Value of Stewardship (Sundays October 27, November 3, 10, 17).

Introit

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

In voluntate tua, Domine, universa sunt posita, tu enim fecisti omnia, caelum et terram,
et universa quae caeli ambitu continentur.

All things are submitted to your will, O Lord;
you have made all things, heaven and earth,
and all that is contained under the vault of the sky.

—Esther 13:9-11
Acclamation

Celebrant  Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People      And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Hymn in Procession

Collect for Purity

Celebrant

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All

Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve: Pour upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Lamentations.

How lonely sits the city that once was full of people! How like a widow she has become, she that was great among the nations! She that was a princess among the provinces has become a vassal. She weeps bitterly in the night, with tears on her cheeks; among all her lovers she has no one to comfort her; all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they have become her enemies. Judah has gone into exile with suffering and hard servitude; she lives now among the nations, and finds no resting place; her pursuers have all overtaken her in the midst of her distress.

The roads to Zion mourn, for no one comes to the festivals; all her gates are desolate, her priests groan; her young girls grieve, and her lot is bitter. Her foes have become the masters, her enemies prosper, because the LORD has made her suffer for the multitude of her transgressions; her children have gone away, captives before the foe. From daughter Zion has departed all her majesty. Her princes have become like stags that find no pasture; they fled without strength before the pursuer.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People

Thanks be to God.
The Psalm

Psalm 137:1-8

The choir sings the refrain, then all repeat the refrain and sing as indicated. Change notes as indicated by underlined words and at the start of each new line of text.

REFRAIN

By the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept *
when we remembered you, O Zion.
As for our harps, we hung them up * on the trees in the midst of that land.

For those who led us away captive asked us for a song, *
and our oppressors called for mirth: *
“Sing us one of the songs of Zion.”
How shall we sing God’s holy song *
upon a foreign soil?

REFRAIN

If I forget you, O Jerusalem, *
let my right hand forget its skill.
Let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth if I do not re-member you, *
if I do not set Jerusalem above my highest joy.
Remember the day of Jerusalem, O God, against the people of Edom, * who said, “Down with it! Down with it! even to the ground!”
O Offspring of Babylon, doomed to de-struction, * happy the one who pays you back for what you have done to us!

The Second Reading

2 Timothy 1:1-14

Reader

A Reading from the Second Letter to Timothy.

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus, To Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. I am grateful to God—whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did—when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you.

For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands; for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline. Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that day what I have entrusted to him. Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People

Thanks be to God.

Reader

After the reading of the Gospel, all children are invited to follow the cross to Children’s Chapel. They will return at the Peace.
Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able.

1. Great is thy faithfulness, O God my Father,
   Summer and winter, and springtime and harvest,
   Pardon for sin and a peace that endures,

2. There is no shadow of turning with thee;
   Sun, moon and stars in their courses above,
   Thine own dear presence to cheer and to guide,

3. Thou changest not, thy compassions they fail not,
   Join with all nature in manifold witness,
   Strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow,

4. As thou hast been thou for ever wilt be,
   To thy great faithfulness, mercy and love.
   Blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside!

Great is thy faithfulness! Great is thy faithfulness!

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon
The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith!” The Lord replied, “If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.

“Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, ‘Come here at once and take your place at the table’? Would you not rather say to him, ‘Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink’? Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, ‘We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!’ ”

The Prayers of the People

Reader  Loving God, from the beginning, you placed us in the midst of your good earth as stewards and caretakers. In a spirit of courage and commitment, we pray that you would cultivate in us a true reverence for our world and for one another, saying: God, Creator, bring us to life.

People  Jesus, Redeemer, renew us.

Reader  We thank you for your gifts in creation: for the beauty and resources of this land, and for the rich heritage we enjoy.

We pray for the Church: may it faithfully share the message of your goodness to the ends of the earth. We pray especially for Michael, our Presiding Bishop; for Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our own bishops; for all bishops, ministers, and all the people of God. God, Creator, bring us to life.

People  Jesus, Redeemer, renew us.

Reader  We pray for those who work on the land and sea, in city and in industry—that all may enjoy the fruits of their labors; and for artists, scientists, and visionaries, through whose work we see creation afresh. God, Creator, bring us to life.

People  Jesus, Redeemer, renew us.
Reader We pray for those who make decisions about the resources of the earth: especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor. Inspire them to lead us in using your gifts responsibly. God, Creator, bring us to life.

People Jesus, Redeemer, renew us.

Reader We thank you for joining our lives with all who make our journeys rich and fruitful.

We pray for all who through their own or others' actions are deprived of fullness of life: for prisoners, refugees, the sick, the sad, and the lonely. God, Creator, bring us to life.

People Jesus, Redeemer, renew us.

Reader We pray for all who seek to bring life to others: for those in politics, medicine, social and relief work, and ministries of outreach. We pray especially for this parish, that we may be inspired in Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship—the Core Values that define and nourish our shared commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership, and Capacity. God, Creator, bring us to life.

People Jesus, Redeemer, renew us.

Reader You have called us to celebrate your creation in unison with all your saints. We commend to your mercy all who have died, and especially those dear to us:

The People may add their own petitions, either silently or aloud.

We pray that we may come to share with them in your heavenly kingdom. God, Creator, bring us to life.

People Jesus, Redeemer, renew us.

Celebrant Blessed are you, God of growth and discovery; yours is the inspiration that has transformed our lives; yours is the power that has brought us to new challenges and opportunities. Set us, your new creation, to walk through this new world, watching and learning, loving and trusting, until your kingdom comes.

All Amen.
Confession and Absolution

Deacon

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you

in thought, word, and deed,

by what we have done,

and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,

have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will,

and walk in your ways,

to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All

Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP p. 367/p. 378

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, for by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world.

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Celebrant

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Holy, Holy, Holy

Celebrant

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son.

For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Blessed Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All

We remember his death,

We proclaim his resurrection,

We await his coming in glory;
Celebrant  And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All  AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant  As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All  Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,

and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,

and the glory are yours,

now and for ever. Amen.
The Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion. We receive at one station at the front of the center aisle and return to our seats by the side aisles. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please go through the doors closest to the pulpit and a prayer minister will meet you in the foyer.

Communion Anthem

Pilgrims’ Hymn

Stephen Paulus (1949-2014)

Even before we call on Thy name
To ask Thee, O Lord,
When we seek for the words to glorify Thee,
Thou hearest our prayer;
Unceasing love, O unceasing love,
Surpassing all we know.
Glory to the Father,
and to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit.

Even with darkness sealing us in,
We breathe Thy name,
And through all the days that follow so fast,
We trust in Thee;
Endless Thy grace, O endless Thy grace,
Beyond all mortal dream.
Both now and forever,
And unto ages and ages,
Amen.

—Michael Dennis Browne (b. 1940)

Post-Communion Prayer

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Loving God,
    we give you thanks
    for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
    Now send us forth
    a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
    that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant Live without fear: your Creator has made you holy, has always protected you, and loves you as a mother. Go in peace to follow the good road; and the blessing of the Holy and Undivided Trinity—Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-giving Spirit—be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.

WAYS OF NATURE

A student asked Suzuki Roshi why the Japanese make their teacups so thin and delicate that they break easily. “It’s not that they’re too delicate,” he answered, “but that you don’t know how to handle them. You must adjust yourself to the environment, and not vice versa.”

—Zen Buddhist Monastic Apothegm, A Treasury of Monastic Quotations

The plight of animals and humans vulnerable to climate change has awakened the church to the limits of an extractive economy (removing things from the earth like oil and coal). As people of faith, we must consider factors other than short-term benefits, efficiency, or corporate ambition if we are to have a healthy environment now and in generations to come...The ways of nature are ultimately necessary, ultimately victorious, and not for us to manipulate.

EXTINCTION by Christine Albert

Prayer:
Guide us to be good stewards and to protect plant and animal life from harm and extinction, so that the connected systems of life on earth may be sustained for future generations.

Call to action:
A vast number of animals and plants have become extinct in recent centuries due to human activity, especially since the industrial revolution, and even more so in the last 50 years. Many others are in serious decline and threatened with extinction. The primary causes for these extinctions are over-fishing and over-hunting, habitat destruction, careless human development, climate change, and pesticides.

If the population of one species declines, it will no longer be able to perform its role and others in the ecosystem will be harmed as well.
We need to protect the immense diversity of our planet so that it can continue to provide the essential services that we depend on to survive.

As the great wildlife ecologist Aldo Leopold wrote in his 1949 classic, A Sand County Almanac, “To keep every cog and wheel is the first precaution of intelligent tinkering.”

Here are a few questions to ask ourselves:

As the only species with the capability to consciously influence the lives of every other species on earth, do we have a responsibility to protect them?

Is it our responsibility to find a way to harvest plants and animals to meet our needs that is both humane and sustainable for the species in question?

Can we embark on new development without first evaluating and being fully aware of the impacts it will have on the survival of the species around us and to ensure they are not harmed?

Friday, October 11
Fall Youth Retreat
October 11–13, Incarnation Center, Ivoryton, CT
Teens are invited to hang out, relax, and get to know each other and Fr. Matt Welsch, Trinity’s new Priest for Youth and Family, in a woodsy retreat—complete with a ropes course and hiking trails. Jennifer Chinn, Trinity’s Justice and Reconciliation program manager, will join the group as they plan Trinity Youth’s activities for the year. October 6 is the last day to register. Information and registration: trinitywallstreet.org/youthretreat.

COMING SOON
Parish Center Closing Day Celebration
October 15, 12–3pm, Parish Center, 56 Trinity Place
As part of the transition to the opening of Trinity Commons, Trinity’s Parish Center will close on October 15. Join us on closing day as we honor and celebrate our five years in community together with refreshments and music! For questions, email Jennifer Chinn at jchinn@trinitywallstreet.org.

Visit to the Museum of Jewish Heritage
October 20, 1pm, 36 Battery Place
Auschwitz: Not Long Ago, Not Far Away is the most comprehensive exhibition dedicated to the history of Auschwitz and its role in the Holocaust ever presented in North America, and an unparalleled opportunity to confront the singular face of human evil—one that arose not long ago and not far away. This trip is sponsored by Trinity’s Visual Arts committee. A $5 donation for tickets is required. Details: Donato Mallano at donato.mallano@gmail.com or Bill McCue at wtmccjr@yahoo.com.

Court Watch for Faith Communities
October 29, 6pm, Central Synagogue
Join Trinity Church Wall Street, Central Synagogue, First Presbyterian Church of Jamaica, and Middle Collegiate Church for a night of skill building and knowledge sharing with Court Watch NYC. Learn how to act as the public’s eyes and ears and bear witness during the arraignments process. For more information, visit trinitywallstreet.org/action.

CORE VALUES
In October, we focus on the core value of compassion.

LIVING THE VALUES RETREATS
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

The Public Theater's Measure for Measure
November 8, 7:30pm, St. Paul's Chapel
The Public’s acclaimed Mobile Unit will transport the Lower Manhattan community to the vibrant streets of New Orleans in a bold new production of Shakespeare’s Measure for Measure, directed by LA Williams. Free and open to all. Doors open at 7pm. RSVP at tinyurl.com/stpaulshakes. Information: Jenn Chinn at jchinn@trinitywallstreet.org.

Handel's Messiah
December 20–22, St. Paul's Chapel
Messiah and Trinity have a long history—Trinity presented one of the first performances in North America in 1770, and The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and Trinity Baroque Orchestra are still widely regarded as some of the greatest interpreters of the work. The New York Times described Trinity’s presentation as “perhaps the essential New York Messiah.” Tickets are going fast—get yours today at trinitywallstreet.org/messiah.

BULLETIN BOARD

All Faithful Departed: Submitting Names
Please submit names of those who have died during the last year for inclusion in the Prayers of the People at the 12:05pm Eucharist on November 2. Please submit your names directly to departed@trinitywallstreet.org or call Korin at 212.602.0759 by Tuesday, October 15.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are finishing up the installation of stained glass in the north and south clerestories. Flooring is being placed and painting is ongoing. In the sacristy, drywall is being framed. The painting of the pews is nearing completion. The glass for the new outdoor canopy is expected to arrive soon. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Emails from the Rector, Vicar, or Staff
Recently several parishioners have received fraudulent emails from senders claiming to be the Rector, the Vicar, or another member of Trinity’s staff. If you receive an email from anyone asking you to listen to a forwarded voice mail, do a favor (e.g., buy a gift card), or otherwise engage in an activity that sounds suspicious, please delete the email. You can report the incident to lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Sisters are In
10:30–11:45am, Weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.
Parish Center Closing and Meeting Location Changes

In October, Trinity’s lease for the Parish Center will expire and the Parish Center will close. Until Trinity Commons opens, regular congregation meetings will change locations, meet less frequently, or go on hiatus. Congregational Voice “Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude” (1 Corinthians 13:4). This is my favorite Bible verse because it speaks to me about my thoughts on what love is and how it corresponds to God’s love for us. —Nora Ervin

WHEN A LOVED ONE STRUGGLES:
A SUPPORT GROUP

Mondays, October 7–November 11 | 6–7:30pm
St. Margaret’s House Library | 49 Fulton Street

When a loved one struggles with mental or emotional challenges, it’s important for those of us who care for them—family members and friends—to know we are not alone. Come share your struggles, concerns, and joys in this six-week support group aimed to help dispel the isolation we often feel. Dr. Peggy Barnett, psychotherapist at Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute, will facilitate.

Information: Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.
