Week of
The Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost
October 14–18, 2019, 12:05pm
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to the Chapel of All Saints

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service
Second Week in the Season of Creation

The Church Year falls into two almost equal halves of about 26-28 weeks each. The Year of Christ begins with Advent, continues through Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Holy Week, and Eastertide, and culminates on the Day of Pentecost. The Year of the Church comprises all the Sundays after Pentecost and ends with Christ the King, the last Sunday before Advent.

During the weeks after Pentecost the liturgy will follow a more predictable and regular pattern. No longer shaped by the emphases of the Year of Christ, this period, sometimes called Ordinary Time, provides the opportunity to sing and say well-known hymns and prayers, and to explore the witness and ministry of the people of God.

During Ordinary Time, we will observe three shorter “Seasons.” This summer, we focused on our Core Value of Compassion (in the weeks of July 21, 28, August 4); for the next few weeks we will consider Creation as an aspect of our Core Values of Integrity and Social Justice (in the weeks of October 6, 13, and 20) and soon we will reflect on the spiritual implications of our Core Value of Stewardship (in the weeks of October 27, November 3, 10, 17).

Observances

Monday in the Nineteenth Week after Pentecost

Weekday

Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, that we may continually be given to good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Readings: Romans 1:1-7; Luke 11:29-32

Teresa of Avila

Nun, 1582

O God, by your Holy Spirit you moved Teresa of Avila to manifest to your Church the way of perfection: Grant us, we pray, to be nourished by her excellent teaching, and enkindle within us a keen and unquenchable longing for true holiness; through Jesus Christ, the joy of loving hearts, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Romans 8:22-27; Matthew 5:13-16

Wednesday in the Nineteenth Week after Pentecost

Weekday

See Monday, above, for the Collect of the Day.

Ignatius

Bishop of Antioch, and Martyr, c. 115

Almighty God, we praise your Name for your bishop and martyr Ignatius of Antioch, who offered himself as grain to be ground by the teeth of wild beasts that he might present to you the pure bread of sacrifice. Accept, we pray, the willing tribute of our lives and give us a share in the pure and spotless offering of your Son Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Romans 8:35-39; John 12:23-26

Saint Luke the Evangelist

Major Feast

Almighty God, who inspired your servant Luke the physician to set forth in the Gospel the love and healing power of your Son: Graciously continue in your Church this love and power to heal, to the praise and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Readings: Ecclesiasticus 38:1-4, 6-10, 12-14; 2 Timothy 4:5-13; Luke 4:14-21
The Entrance Rite

Prelude

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Acclamation

Celebrant

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People

And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All

Amen.

Canticle 12

A Song of Creation: I. The Cosmic Order

All

Glorify the Lord, you angels and all powers of the Lord, *
Sun and moon and stars of the sky, glorify the Lord, *
Glorify the Lord, every shower of rain and fall of dew, *
Winter and summer, glorify the Lord, *
Glorify the Lord, O chill and cold, *
Frost and cold, ice and sleet, glorify the Lord, *
Glorify the Lord, O nights and days, *
Storm clouds and thunderbolts, glorify the Lord, *
Let us glorify the Lord: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; *
In the high vault of heaven, glorify the Lord, *

Glorify the Lord, you angels and all powers of the Lord, *
O heavens and all waters above the heavens.

Sing praise and give honor for ever.

Sing praise and give honor for ever.
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant prays the Collect, a prayer appointed for the day. See p. 4 for Collect texts.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Please be seated.
The Reader reads the lesson appointed for the day. See p. 4 for scripture citations.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.
Please stand as you are able.

1 Now thank we all our God, with heart, and hands, and voices, who wondrous things hath done, in whom his world rejoices;
with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

2 All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given, the Son, and him who reigns with them in highest heaven,
for thus it was, is now, and shall be, evermore.

Words: Martin Rinckart (1586-1649); tr. Catherine Winkworth (1827-1878), alt.
Music: Nun danket alle Gott, melody Johann Cruger (1598-1662); harm. William Henry Monk (1823-1889), after Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1947)
The Holy Gospel

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to …
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Celebrant reads the Gospel appointed for the day. See p. 4 for scripture citations.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily
Silence follows the homily.

The Nicene Creed
On certain days, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant We believe in one God,
All  the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Please stand or continue standing as you are able.

Reader    Loving God, from the beginning, you placed us in the midst of your good earth as stewards and caretakers. In a spirit of courage and commitment, we pray that you would cultivate in us a true reverence for our world and for one another, saying: God, Creator, bring us to life.

People    Jesus, Redeemer, renew us.

Reader    We thank you for your gifts in creation: for the beauty and resources of this land, and for the rich heritage we enjoy.

We pray for the Church: may it faithfully share the message of your goodness to the ends of the earth. We pray especially for Michael, our Presiding Bishop; for Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our own bishops; for all bishops, ministers, and all the people of God. God, Creator, bring us to life.

People    Jesus, Redeemer, renew us.

Reader    We pray for those who work on the land and sea, in city and in industry—that all may enjoy the fruits of their labors; and for artists, scientists, and visionaries, through whose work we see creation afresh. God, Creator, bring us to life.

People    Jesus, Redeemer, renew us.

Reader    We pray for those who make decisions about the resources of the earth: especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor. Inspire them to lead us in using your gifts responsibly. God, Creator, bring us to life.

People    Jesus, Redeemer, renew us.

Reader    We thank you for joining our lives with all who make our journeys rich and fruitful.

We pray for all who through their own or others' actions are deprived of fullness of life: for prisoners, refugees, the sick, the sad, and the lonely. God, Creator, bring us to life.

People    Jesus, Redeemer, renew us.

Reader    We pray for all who seek to bring life to others: for those in politics, medicine, social and relief work, and ministries of outreach. We pray especially for this parish, that we may be inspired in Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship—the Core Values that define and nourish our shared commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership, and Capacity. God, Creator, bring us to life.

People    Jesus, Redeemer, renew us.
Reader  You have called us to celebrate your creation in unison with all your saints. We commend to your mercy all who have died, and especially those dear to us:

The People may add their own petitions, either silently or aloud.

We pray that we may come to share with them in your heavenly kingdom. God, Creator, bring us to life.

People  Jesus, Redeemer, renew us.

Celebrant  Blessed are you, God of growth and discovery; yours is the inspiration that has transformed our lives; yours is the power that has brought us to new challenges and opportunities. Set us, your new creation, to walk through this world, watching and learning, loving and trusting, until your kingdom comes.

All  Amen.

Confession and Absolution  BCP p. 360

Celebrant  Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All  Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant  Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All  Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace  BCP p. 360

Celebrant  The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People  And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

The Great Thanksgiving

| Celebrant | The Lord be with you.  |
| People | And also with you. |
| Celebrant | Lift up your hearts.  |
| People | We lift them to the Lord. |
| Celebrant | Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.  |
| People | It is right to give God thanks and praise. |
| Celebrant | It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.  |

The Celebrant prays the Proper Preface, if one is appointed for the day.

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son.

For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Blessed Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
       hallowed be your Name,
       your kingdom come,
       your will be done,
       on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
       as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
       and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
       and the glory are yours,
       now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
       Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children.
Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue.
You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion. If you need communion brought to you, please let a sacristan know.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant  Let us pray.
All      Loving God,
         we give you thanks
         for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
         Now send us forth
         a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
         that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant  Live without fear: your Creator has made you holy, has always protected you, and loves you as a mother. Go in peace to follow the good road; and the blessing of the Holy and Undivided Trinity—Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-giving Spirit—be among you, and remain with you always.
All      Amen.

Dismissal

Celebrant  Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.
People     Thanks be to God.

Postlude

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area.

This bulletin is yours to keep.
REVERENCE FOR CREATION
A spirit of reverence for all creation permeates the Rule, together with a sense of oneness with the land, the days and the seasons. Such conscious respect for all created goods makes it impossible to pollute the land, water or air; to waste resources or to forget about the children who will one day inhabit the earth.

—from Of All Good Gifts, a Statement from the Conference of American Benedictine Prioresses, June 1980

FOOD WASTE by Christine Albert

Prayer:
We pray for those who are hungry. We pray that we not waste surplus food but that we use it to help mitigate and eliminate hunger.

Call to action:
Up to 40 percent of the food in the United States is never eaten. But at the same time, one in eight Americans struggles to put enough food on the table. The food wasted in the world contributes so much to man-made greenhouse gas emissions that if food waste were a country, it would rank just behind the United States and China in those emissions.

The National Resource Defense Council in a recent study has estimated that in New York City, 1.3 million of the 8.6 million residents are food insecure, and that this amounts to a need for 225 million meals per year. The potential exists to expand food rescue and donation to provide 51 million meals, or 23 percent of the need.

Here are three ways to reduce food waste in America:
First: Avoid surplus food
At home, plan meals and parties to prepare just what is needed; use up leftovers; store food carefully so it keeps longer.
At work or church, work with the caterer or kitchen to prepare only what is needed.

Second: Rescue surplus food and donate it
Plan to keep food eligible for donation by serving or placing on the buffet smaller portions; guests can return for seconds

Third: Compost at home for your garden, or place scraps and surplus food out for city compost collection.

Reducing wasted food will cut greenhouse gases, and above all, will feed many of those who are hungry.

CORE VALUES

In October, we focus on the core value of compassion.

Living the Values Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

Handel’s Messiah

December 20–22, St. Paul’s Chapel

Messiah and Trinity have a long history—Trinity presented one of the first performances in North America in 1770, and The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and Trinity Baroque Orchestra are still widely regarded as some of the greatest interpreters of the work. The New York Times described Trinity’s presentation as “perhaps the essential New York Messiah.” Tickets are going fast—get yours today at trinitywallstreet.org/messiah.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update

Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are finishing up the installation of stained glass in the north and south clerestories. Flooring is being placed and painting is ongoing. In the sacristy, drywall is being framed. The painting of the pews is nearing completion. The glass for the new outdoor canopy is expected to arrive soon. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Emails from the Rector, Vicar, or Staff

Recently several parishioners have received fraudulent emails from senders claiming to be the Rector, the Vicar, or another member of Trinity’s staff. If you receive an email from anyone asking you to listen to a forwarded voice mail, do a favor (e.g., buy a gift card), or otherwise engage in an activity that sounds suspicious, please delete the email. You can report the incident to lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Sisters are In

10:30–11:45am, Weekdays, Chapel of All Saints

A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Flower Donations

Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop

The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitygiftshopnyc.com.

THURSDAY: The Rev. Robert Herrick
FRIDAY: The Rev. Robert Herrick

This service conforms to The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff from publications including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB), Lesser Feasts and Fasts (LFF), A Great Cloud of Witnesses (GCW), Holy Women, Holy Men (HWHM), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP).

FLOWERS

After the conclusion of the service on Thursday, parishioners are invited to take home flowers from the chancel arrangements.

To donate flowers, email flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.
