The Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

October 27, 2019, 9:00am
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” — Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” — Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” — Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” — Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” — Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” — Genesis 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to the Chapel of All Saints

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area for prayers at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service
First Sunday in the Season of Stewardship

The Church Year falls into two almost equal halves of about 26-28 weeks each. The Year of Christ begins with Advent, continues through Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Holy Week, and Eastertide, and culminates on the Day of Pentecost. The Year of the Church comprises all the Sundays after Pentecost and ends with Christ the King, the last Sunday before Advent.

Sundays after Pentecost follow a more predictable and regular liturgical pattern. No longer shaped by the emphases of the Year of Christ, this period, sometimes called Ordinary Time, provides the opportunity to sing and say well-known hymns and prayers, and to explore the witness and ministry of the people of God.

During Ordinary Time, we will observe three shorter “Seasons.” This summer, we focused on our Core Value of Compassion (Sundays July 21, 28, August 4); earlier this month we considered Creation as an aspect of our Core Values of Integrity and Social Justice (Sundays October 6, 13, and 20), and for the next several weeks we will reflect on the spiritual implications of our Core Value of Stewardship (Sundays October 27, November 3, 10, 17).

The Entrance Rite

Prelude

Passacaglia

Johann Caspar Kerll (1627-1693)

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Hymn in Procession

Words: K. in John Rippon's Selection, 1787, alt.
Music: Foundation, melody from The Sacred Harp, 1844

Hymnal 636, vv. 1, 3

Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
Glory to God

Music: Robert Powell (b. 1932)
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant  God be with you.
People    And also with you.
Celebrant  Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All    Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader  A Reading from the Book of Joel.

O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the LORD your God; for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the later rain, as before. The threshing floors shall be full of grain, the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent against you.

You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame. You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the Lord, am your God and there is no other. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

Then afterward I will pour out my spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions. Even on the male and female slaves, in those days, I will pour out my spirit.

I will show portents in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke. The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and terrible day of the Lord comes. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the Lord has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the Lord calls.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People    Thanks be to God.
The Psalm

Psalm 65:1, 4-9, 14

Reader  Let us read from Psalm 65 responsively by half-verse.

You are to be praised, O God, in Zion; *

People  to you shall vows be performed in Jerusalem.

Reader  Happy are they whom you choose and draw to your courts to dwell there; *

People  they will be satisfied by the beauty of your house,

by the holiness of your temple.

Reader  Awesome things will you show us in your righteousness,

O God of our salvation, *

People  O Hope of all the ends of the earth and of the seas that are far away.

Reader  You make fast the mountains by your power; *

People  they are girded about with might.

Reader  You still the roaring of the seas, *

People  the roaring of their waves,

and the clamor of the peoples.

Reader  Those who dwell at the ends of the earth will tremble at your marvelous signs; *

People  you make the dawn and the dusk to sing for joy.

Reader  You visit the earth and water it abundantly;

you make it very plenteous; *

People  the river of God is full of water.

Reader  May the meadows cover themselves with flocks,

and the valleys cloak themselves with grain; *

People  let them shout for joy and sing.

The Second Reading

2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

Reader  A Reading from the Second Letter to Timothy.

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion’s mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People  Thanks be to God.
The Holy Gospel

Celebrant

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Celebrant

Jesus told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: “Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, ‘God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.’ But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’ I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.”

People

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. C. Alfred Loua

Silence follows the sermon.
The Creed

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926)
Music: Beach Spring, attr. to Benjamin F. White (1800-1879); from The Sacred Harp, 1844
The Prayers of the People

Reader  Generous God, we thank you for the gift of time. Like each day and each night since creation, inspire us to tell the tale of your goodness and glory to the ends of the world. You are the vine, O Lord:

People  We are the branches.

Reader  We thank you for the great gift of our own lives. Inspire us to spend what time we are given investing in mercy, in justice, and in service. You are the vine, O Lord:

People  We are the branches.

Reader  Send a blessing upon human labor. May all find dignity and just reward in their work. Free the exploited and oppressed. Where the earth is parched and the well has run dry, give us generous hearts, and hands to care and heal. You are the vine, O Lord:

People  We are the branches.

Reader  We pray for your holy catholic Church: especially for Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary our diocesan bishops; for all bishops, priests, and deacons, and all the people of God. Give us courage to be your hands and feet in the world. You are the vine, O Lord:

People  We are the branches.

Reader  We pray for those whose decisions affect the lives and well-being of others: especially for Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor. Cultivate in them the gifts of integrity and wisdom. You are the vine, O Lord:

People  We are the branches.

Reader  Let our earth be fruitful and its resources hallowed; guide us into a sustainable future and give us the will to cherish and protect its treasures. You are the vine, O Lord:

People  We are the branches.

Reader  We pray for our parish: fill our minds with Christ’s truth and our hearts with his love, that in his Spirit we may become a true community of faith—a caring people committed to our core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship. You are the vine, O Lord:

People  We are the branches.

Reader  We remember with thanksgiving those who have died, and especially those dear to us:

The People may add their own petitions, either silently or aloud.

Give comfort to those who mourn, and encourage us through the example of your saints who have entered into joy. You are the vine, O Lord:

People  We are the branches.

Celebrant  Abundant God, you made us in your image and breathed in us a spirit of service that is both gift and response. Move us, we pray, to give as we have received—abundantly, generously, and joyfully—that our common ministry may ever bear witness to your unfailing grace.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord,

All  Amen.
Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The organist plays an improvisation while the ushers collect the offering.
At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:
Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,

God of power and might, heaven and earth are full,

San - na in the highest. Ho - san - na in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes
Celebrant

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation.

Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
              hallowed be your Name,
              your kingdom come,
              your will be done,
              on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
              as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
              and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
              and the glory are yours,
              now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life's journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Loving God,

we give you thanks

for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.

Now send us forth

a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;

that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Henri-Frédéric Amiel, adapted

Celebrant Life is short, and we do not have much time to gladden the hearts of those who make the journey with us. So be swift to love, and make haste to be kind. And the blessing of God, who made us, who loves us, and who travels with us, be with you now and for ever.

All Amen.

Hymn in Procession

Hymnal 665, vv. 1, 3

Words: Robert Seymour Bridges (1844-1930), alt.; after Joachim Neander (1650-1680)

Music: Michael, Herbert Howells (1892-1983)

CORE VALUES

In October, we focus on the core value of compassion.

Living the Values Retreats

Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

The Public Theater’s Measure for Measure
November 8, 7:30pm, St. Paul’s Chapel

The Public’s acclaimed Mobile Unit will transport the Lower Manhattan community to the vibrant streets of New Orleans in a bold new production of Shakespeare’s Measure for Measure, directed by LA Williams. Free and open to all. Doors open at 7pm. RSVP at tinyurl.com/stpaulshakes. Information: Jennifer Chinn at jchinn@trinitywallstreet.org.

Fall Poetry Festival
November 10, 1:30pm, St. Paul’s Chapel

You’re invited to Trinity’s Fall Poetry Festival, an afternoon salon of poetry and verse presented by members and friends of Trinity and students from our neighboring schools. Sponsored by Trinity Congregational Arts/Lively Arts. Information: Alan Baxter at abfilm9@gmail.com.

Pärt and Poulenc
November 15, 7:30pm, St. Paul’s Chapel

This concert features iconic works of two of the most compelling and influential composers of the 20th century: Arvo Pärt and Francis Poulenc. The monumental work Passio by Arvo Pärt is a meditative setting of texts from the Passion according to St. John and is considered as the apotheosis of his writing. Poulenc’s Figure Humaine embodies great suffering and oppression, juxtaposed with the hope for freedom from tyranny. Downtown Voices; The Choir of Trinity Wall Street; NOVUS NY; Stephen Sands and Melissa Attebury, conductors. Free. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

Handel’s Messiah

December 20–22, St. Paul’s Chapel

Messiah and Trinity have a long history—Trinity presented one of the first performances in North America in 1770, and The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and Trinity Baroque Orchestra are still widely regarded as some of the greatest interpreters of the work. The New York Times described Trinity’s presentation as “perhaps the essential New York Messiah.” Tickets are going fast—get yours today at trinitywallstreet.org/messiah.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update

Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: The southside exterior canopy is expected to arrive very soon. Scaffolding is being dismantled and is expected to be removed from the nave by the end of November. The pews and altar are expected to be completed by Thanksgiving. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Emails from the Rector, Vicar, or Staff

Recently several parishioners have received fraudulent emails from senders claiming to be the Rector, the Vicar, or another member of Trinity’s staff. If you receive an email from anyone asking you to listen to a forwarded voice mail, do a favor (e.g., buy a gift card), or otherwise engage in an activity that sounds suspicious, please delete the email. You can report the incident to lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Sisters are In

10:30–11:45am, Weekdays, Chapel of All Saints

A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.
Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This service conforms to The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. The Prayers of the People were jointly composed by members of the Trinity Church congregation and staff. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff from publications including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP).
