Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service
First Sunday in the Season of Stewardship

The Church Year falls into two almost equal halves of about 26-28 weeks each. The Year of Christ begins with Advent, continues through Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Holy Week, and Eastertide, and culminates on the Day of Pentecost. The Year of the Church comprises all the Sundays after Pentecost and ends with Christ the King, the last Sunday before Advent.

Sundays after Pentecost follow a more predictable and regular liturgical pattern. No longer shaped by the emphases of the Year of Christ, this period, sometimes called Ordinary Time, provides the opportunity to sing and say well-known hymns and prayers, and to explore the witness and ministry of the people of God.

During Ordinary Time, we will observe three shorter “Seasons.” This summer, we focused on our Core Value of Compassion (Sundays July 21, 28, August 4); earlier this month we considered Creation as an aspect of our Core Values of Integrity and Social Justice (Sundays October 6, 13, and 20), and for the next several weeks we will reflect on the spiritual implications of our Core Value of Stewardship (Sundays October 27, November 3, 10, 17).

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant  God be with you.
People  And also with you.

Celebrant  Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All  Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader  A Reading from the Book of Joel.

O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the Lord your God; for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the later rain, as before. The threshing floors shall be full of grain, the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent against you.

You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame. You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the Lord, am your God and there is no other. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

Then afterward I will pour out my spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions. Even on the male and female slaves, in those days, I will pour out my spirit.

People  Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able.

The acclamation will be sung twice.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon  Jesus told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: “Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, ‘God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.’ But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’ I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.”

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Creed

The Rev. Phillip A. Jackson

Please stand as you are able.

We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan Christ, who on the cross forsaken, like a lamb to slaughter led, We believe in God the Spirit; in one Church, below, above;

earth and heaven sprang to being, all created things began.
suffered under Pontius Pilate, he descended to the dead.
saints of God in one communion, one in holiness and love.

We believe in Christ the Savior, Son of God in human frame,
We believe in Jesus risen, heaven’s king to rule and reign,
So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Savior, Lord and friend, virgin born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came.

to the Father’s side ascended till as judge he comes again.
we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926)
Music: Beach Spring, attr. to Benjamin F. White (1800-1879); from The Sacred Harp, 1844
The Prayers of the People

Reader  Generous God, we thank you for the gift of time. Like each day and each night since creation, inspire us to tell the tale of your goodness and glory to the ends of the world. You are the vine, O Lord:

People  We are the branches.

Reader  We thank you for the great gift of our own lives. Inspire us to spend what time we are given investing in mercy, in justice, and in service. You are the vine, O Lord:

People  We are the branches.

Reader  Send a blessing upon human labor. May all find dignity and just reward in their work. Free the exploited and oppressed. Where the earth is parched and the well has run dry, give us generous hearts, and hands to care and heal. You are the vine, O Lord:

People  We are the branches.

Reader  We pray for your holy catholic Church: especially for Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary our diocesan bishops; for all bishops, priests, and deacons, and all the people of God. Give us courage to be your hands and feet in the world. You are the vine, O Lord:

People  We are the branches.

Reader  We pray for those whose decisions affect the lives and well-being of others: especially for Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor. Cultivate in them the gifts of integrity and wisdom. You are the vine, O Lord:

People  We are the branches.

Reader  Let our earth be fruitful and its resources hallowed; guide us into a sustainable future and give us the will to cherish and protect its treasures. You are the vine, O Lord:

People  We are the branches.

Reader  We pray for our parish: fill our minds with Christ’s truth and our hearts with his love, that in his Spirit we may become a true community of faith—a caring people committed to our core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship. You are the vine, O Lord:

People  We are the branches.

Reader  We remember with thanksgiving those who have died, and especially those dear to us:

The People may add their own petitions, either silently or aloud.

Give comfort to those who mourn, and encourage us through the example of your saints who have entered into joy. You are the vine, O Lord:

People  We are the branches.

Celebrant  Abundant God, you made us in your image and breathed in us a spirit of service that is both gift and response. Move us, we pray, to give as we have received—abundantly, generously, and joyfully—that our common ministry may ever bear witness to your unfailing grace. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord,

All  Amen.
Confession and Absolution

Deacon  Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
Silence

All  Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant  Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
All  Amen.

People  And also with you.

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering. Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.
At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being. You made humankind in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. We rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us.

And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:
Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant: Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Now gathered at your table, O God, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice. Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ.

Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made. In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every people and nation, to the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All: AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant: As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All: Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.

You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue.

You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

Please come forward by row to receive communion. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

Let us pray.

Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ,

The Blessing

Henri-Frédéric Amiel, adapted

Celebrant

Life is short, and we do not have much time to gladden the hearts of those who make the journey with us. So be swift to love, and make haste to be kind. And the blessing of God, who made us, who loves us, and who travels with us, be with you now and for ever.

In October, we focus on the core value of compassion.

Living the Values Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

Pärt and Poulenc
November 15, 7:30pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
This concert features iconic works of two of the most compelling and influential composers of the 20th century: Arvo Pärt and Francis Poulenc. The monumental work Passio by Arvo Pärt is a meditative setting of texts from the Passion according to St. John and is considered as the apotheosis of his writing. Poulenc’s Figure Humaine embodies great suffering and oppression, juxtaposed with the hope for freedom from tyranny. Downtown Voices; The Choir of Trinity Wall Street; NOVUS NY; Stephen Sands and Melissa Attebury, conductors. Free. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

Handel’s Messiah
December 20–22, St. Paul’s Chapel
Messiah and Trinity have a long history—Trinity presented one of the first performances in North America in 1770, and The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and Trinity Baroque Orchestra are still widely regarded as some of the greatest interpreters of the work. The New York Times described Trinity’s presentation as “perhaps the essential New York Messiah.” Tickets are going fast—get yours today at trinitywallstreet.org/messiah.

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: The southside exterior canopy is expected to arrive very soon. Scaffolding is being dismantled and is expected to be removed from the nave by the end of November. The pews and altar are expected to be completed by Thanksgiving. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Emails from the Rector, Vicar, or Staff
Recently several parishioners have received fraudulent emails from senders claiming to be the Rector, the Vicar, or another member of Trinity’s staff. If you receive an email from anyone asking you to listen to a forwarded voice mail, do a favor (e.g., buy a gift card), or otherwise engage in an activity that sounds suspicious, please delete the email. You can report the incident to lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Sisters are In
10:30–11:45am, Weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.
