Praise is our cry, O Holy One of Israel, for you have come among us and borne our burdens.

Give us open hearts, that we might embrace our suffering sisters and brothers, and welcome Jesus in the hospitality we show to exiles. Amen.

Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The Twelve Days of Christmas and the Comites Christi

Christmastide—the twelve days spanning between the Feast of the Nativity (Christmas Day) and the Feast of the Epiphany on January 6th—is comprised of a string of ancient commemorations for saints and martyrs known traditionally as the Comites Christi, or “Companions of Christ.” Christmastide festivals include those in honor of St. Stephen, the first Christian martyr; St. John the Evangelist, credited with authoring the fourth Gospel; St. Thomas à Becket, the martyred Archbishop of Canterbury; St. Sylvester, and the Holy Innocents.

For Christian monastics in antiquity and the Middle Ages, this unbroken string of saints’ days meant an extended reprieve from fasting; for Christians in all times, Christmastide—and particularly its Sunday feasts—is a period of joy, thanksgiving, and wonder at the transcendent love and faithfulness of Emmanuel, God With Us.

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant  Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People         And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Hymn in Procession

Hymnal 100, vv. 1, 4

1 Joy to the world! the Lord is come: let earth receive her King;
2 He rules the world with truth and grace, and makes the nations prove the glories of his righteousness, and receive her King; let every heart prepare him room, and heaven and nature sing, and heaven and nature and heaven and nature sing, and and wonders of his love, and

Wonders of his love.

Wonders of his love.

Words: Isaac Watts (1674-1748), alt.
Music: Antioch, George Frideric Handel (1685-1759); adapt. and arr. Lowell Mason (1792-1872)
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have poured upon us the new light of your incarnate Word: Grant that this light, enkindled in our hearts, may shine forth in our lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my whole being shall exult in my God; for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. For as the earth brings forth its shoots, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up, so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations.

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning torch. The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will give. You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.
Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able.

Music: Gloria, French carol; arr. Edward Shippen Barnes (1887-1958)
The Holy Gospel

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.

He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God.

And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father’s only son, full of grace and truth. (John testified to him and cried out, “This was he of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me ranks ahead of me because he was before me.’”) From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. The law indeed was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God. It is God the only Son, who is close to the Father’s heart, who has made him known.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926)
Music: Hymn to Joy, Ludwig van Beethoven (1770-1827); adapt. Edward Hodges (1796-1867), alt.

The Creed

1. We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan
2. Christ, who on the cross was taken, like a lamb to slaughter led,
3. We believe in God the Spirit; in one Church, below, above:

earth and heaven sprang to being, all created things began.
suffered under Pontius Pilate, he descended to the dead.
saints of God in one communion, one in holiness and love.

We believe in Christ the Savior, Son of God in human frame,
We believe in Jesus risen, heaven's King to rule and reign,
So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Savior, Lord and friend, virgin-born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came.

to the Father's side ascended till as judge he comes again.
we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926)
Music: Hymn to Joy, Ludwig van Beethoven (1770-1827); adapt. Edward Hodges (1796-1867), alt.

The Prayers of the People

CW:TS p. 70, adapted

Reader Let us pray to our incarnate God, who has brought us to a marvelous and bright new day.
Christ born for us, Son of God given for us: help us to know you, to worship you, and to serve you.
Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Wonderful counselor, you order all things with your wisdom: help the Church to reveal the mystery of your love and fill it with the Spirit of truth. We pray especially for Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary our own bishops; and all bishops and other ministers.
Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.
Mighty God, the government is on your shoulders; guide the leaders of the nations and bring in your kingdom of justice and righteousness. We pray especially for Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor.

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Everlasting Father, faithful Mother; you call us to live together in unity; protect by your mercy all your children, bless our families, and renew our communities. Inspire the people of this parish to live our core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship.

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Prince of peace, you bring reconciliation through the cross; by your healing power give to all who suffer—remembering especially Gabriel Bonadie—your gift of wholeness and peace.

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Dear Savior Jesus Christ, beloved of God, hear our prayer, receive our praises, and fill our lives. Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will.

Amen.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Hymnal S 130
Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Blessed Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.
On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All  We remember his death,
      We proclaim his resurrection,
      We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant  And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All  AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer  BCP p. 364

Celebrant  As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All  Our Father in heaven,
       hallowed be your Name,
       your kingdom come,
       your will be done,
       on earth as in heaven.

       Give us today our daily bread.
       Forgive us our sins
       as we forgive those who sin against us.
       Save us from the time of trial,
       and deliver us from evil.
       For the kingdom, the power,
       and the glory are yours,
       now and for ever. Amen.
The Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Please come forward by row to receive communion. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please come to the high altar through the chancel gate and a prayer minister will meet you.
Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.

Words: Phillips Brooks (1835-1893); Music: St. Louis, Lewis H. Redner (1831-1908)
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant

Let us pray.

All

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant

May the joy of the angels, the eagerness of the shepherds, the perseverance of the wise men, the obedience of Joseph and Mary, and the peace of the Christ-child be yours this Christmas; and the blessing of God—Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-Giving Spirit—be among you and remain with you always.

All

Amen.

Retreat: Walking with Sacred Strangers
January 10–12, Trinity Retreat Center

Jesus taught us that hospitality—especially how we welcome the stranger—is at the heart of how we practice our faith. Trinity Retreat Center executive directors Joseph and Heidi Rose will be joined by Nancy Haught, the acclaimed author of Sacred Strangers: What the Bible’s Outsiders Can Teach Christians, to lead a weekend focusing on faith, one of Trinity Church Wall Street’s core values. The retreat will incorporate contemplative prayer, food, art, writing, and music as invitations to the Holy Spirit to walk with us in making our personal encounters meaningful acts of hope and faith. Details and registration at trinityretreatcenter.org.

REV. 23 at the Prototype Festival
January 17 and 18, Gerald W. Lynch Theater

Lauded as an “an endlessly unfolding chain of highly controlled polystylism” (Boston Musical Intelligencer), Julian Wachner’s opera REV. 23 is an exploration of an “unpublished” new chapter of the Book of Revelation. With an audacious libretto by Cerise Lim Jacobs, this new striking production by director James Darrah takes us on a fantastical journey through the myths of our collective unconscious. Tickets at prototypefestival.org.

MLK Monday Poverty Simulation
January 20, 10am–3pm, St. Paul’s Chapel

To continue Martin Luther King Jr.’s mission for social and economic justice, volunteers are invited to experience prepared scenarios based on U.S. Census data to “simulate” a day in the life of someone living in poverty. The task of each family is to provide for food, shelter, and other basic necessities for four 15-minute “weeks.” Families will interact with community resources such as schools, banks, nonprofits, and employment offices for this event. Information: Rase De Los Santos at rdelossantos@trinitywallstreet.org. RSVP: trinitywallstreet.volunteerhub.com.

BULLETIN BOARD

You're Invited: Tour Trinity Commons
Guided tours of Trinity Commons will be open to adult parishioners beginning in March. For information or to reserve space on a tour, email TrinityCommons@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: There’s more work to do, but we’re holding services in Trinity Church on Sunday at 9am and 11:15am. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Emails from the Rector, Vicar, or Staff
Recently several parishioners have received fraudulent emails from senders claiming to be the Rector, the Vicar, or another member of Trinity’s staff. If you receive an email from anyone asking you to listen to a forwarded voice mail, do a favor (e.g., buy a gift card), or otherwise engage in an activity that sounds suspicious, please delete the email. You can report the incident to lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Sisters are In
10:30–11:45am, Weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone. NOTE: The sisters will not be in on December 31 and January 1.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitygiftshopnyc.com.

FLOWERS

To donate flowers, email flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This service conforms to The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. The cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP). Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff from publications including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship: Times and Seasons (CW:TS), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), and other hymnals as cited.
