Divine Gardener,
you give growth to our seeds
and to the towering forest trees;
you raise to abundant life that which seems dead.
Teach us to choose blessing
and life rather than death,
so that we may walk blamelessly,
seeking you
through reconciliation with all of your children. Amen.

Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Epiphanytide

In the Episcopal Church, the season of Epiphany bridges the liturgical seasons of Christmastide (a festive season) and Lent (a penitential season). As with the Season of Pentecost, also known as Ordinary Time, the number of Sundays in Epiphanytide is variable—from five to nine weeks—since the date of Easter changes each year. Also like Ordinary Time, the traditional color of vestments (the robes worn by clergy and the fabric dressings on the altar) is green.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Hymn in Procession

1 How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord,
2 “Fear not, I am with thee; O be not dismayed!

1 is laid for your faith in his excellent word!
2 For I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;

1 What more can he say than to you he hath said,
2 I’ll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,

1 to you that for refuge to Jesus have fled?
2 upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand.”

Words: K. in John Rippon's Selection, 1787, alt.; Music: Foundation, melody from The Sacred Harp, 1844

The Collect of the Day

BCP p. 216

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, the strength of all who put their trust in you: Mercifully accept our prayers; and because in our weakness we can do nothing good without you, give us the help of your grace, that in keeping your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy.

See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity. If you obey the commandments of the LORD your God that I am commanding you today, by loving the LORD your God, walking in his ways, and observing his commandments, decrees, and ordinances, then you shall live and become numerous, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess.

But if your heart turns away and you do not hear, but are led astray to bow down to other gods and serve them, I declare to you today that you shall perish; you shall not live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess. I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live, loving the LORD your God, obeying him, and holding fast to him; for that means life to you and length of days, so that you may live in the land that the LORD swore to give to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon

Jesus said, “You have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, ‘You shall not murder’; and ‘whoever murders shall be liable to judgment.’ But I say to you that if you are angry with a brother or sister, you will be liable to judgment; and if you insult a brother or sister, you will be liable to the council; and if you say, ‘You fool,’ you will be liable to the hell of fire. So when you are offering your gift at the altar, if you remember that your brother or sister has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother or sister, and then come and offer your gift. Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are on the way to court with him, or your accuser may hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you will be thrown into prison.

“Again, you have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, ‘You shall not swear falsely, but carry out the vows you have made to the Lord.’ But I say to you, Do not swear at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. Let your word be ‘Yes, Yes’ or ‘No, No’; anything more than this comes from the evil one.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Matthew A. Welsch

Silence follows the sermon.
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan
Christ, who on the cross for-saken, like a lamb to slaughter led,
We believe in God the Spirit; in one Church, below, above:

earth and heaven sprang to being, all created things began.
suffered under Pontius Pilate, he descended to the dead.
saints of God in one communion, one in holiness and love.

We believe in Christ the Savior, Son of God in human frame,
We believe in Jesus risen, heaven’s king to rule and reign,
So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Savior, Lord and friend, virgin born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came.

to the Father’s side ascended till as judge he comes again.
we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926)
Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

The Prayers of the People

Reader Let us pray for our neighbors, our nation, and all the people of God.

Silence

Lord Jesus, you lived among us and called us to follow you in all we do; you made us your Church. Bless Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our own Bishops; and all the bishops, clergy, and people who love and serve you.

People Help us to walk in your ways.

Reader You cared for the world around you: the farmlands, the animals in the fields, the birds in the air, and the fish in the sea.

People Help us to protect the home you gave us.

Reader You want us to live abundant lives. Guide our leaders—Donald our president, Andrew our governor, and Bill our mayor—to wise decisions on behalf of our nation, our state, and our city.

People Help us to live together in unity.
You sat among the teachers, asking them questions and learning from them. Bless all who teach and all who learn in our schools and universities; and bless all who labor with good work and fair wages.

Help us to do our work well.

When two or three of us gather in your name, you promised to be there. Bless our parish family, that we may live our core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship. Make us eager to be what you call us to be and do what you want us to do, in our neighborhoods and in our world.

Help us to be your heart and voice, hands and feet.

You healed the sick and comforted those in trouble. Hold in your embrace all who suffer and carry heavy burdens.

Help us to be instruments of your peace.

You are the great and loving shepherd. Stay close by all those who mourn. Lead us, with all your saints, to share in the joy of your everlasting kingdom.

Silence

God of grace and glory, you call your Church to shine out in the world. Bless and strengthen us so that we might be people of compassion, courage, and truth, always seeking to bring the good news of Christ to all those we meet, and to every task we undertake.

Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering. Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Sung twice by all.

Music: Variation on a traditional liturgical text; Music: Composer of melody unknown; arr. based on a two-part version as taught by Pablo D. Sosa (b. 1933)

Celebrant: We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Blessed Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world.

In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.
On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.
The Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Please come forward by row to receive communion. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please come to the high altar through the chancel gate and a prayer minister will meet you.
Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.

Words: Brian A. Wren (b. 1936), alt.; Music: Land of Rest, American folk melody; adapt. and harm. Annabel Morris Buchanan (1889-1983)
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant
Let us pray.

All
Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant
May Christ, the Son of God, be manifest in you, that your lives may be a light to the world;
and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you,
and remain with you always.

All
Amen.

Confirmation provides youth in 6th–12th grades the opportunity to publicly affirm their baptismal vows and be blessed by the bishop. It’s not about having all the answers, but about committing to the journey of following Jesus. During class, we’ll explore and live into big questions together, as we consider scripture, tradition, and our role in the community.

Youth interested in confirmation are required to attend the youth retreat, March 13–15.

Youth Retreat
Register by March 1, Trinity Retreat Center
All 6th–12th graders are invited to slow down, hang out, and get to know each other March 13–15. We’ll talk about what we believe as we think and explore together. There will be time for games, hiking, s’mores, and more (spoiler alert: there will be donkeys). Attendance is required for confirmation. Cost is $100, and scholarships are available. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/youthretreat. Information: The Rev. Matt Welsch at MWelsch@trinitywallstreet.org.

Ordination of Sr. Promise Atelon, SSM
March 7, 10:30am, Saint John the Divine
Sr. Promise Atelon, SSM, who has served as a Sister of St. Margaret at Trinity for 11 years, will be ordained to the sacred order of deacons at 10:30am, Saturday, March 7, at the Cathedral Church of Saint John the Divine (Amsterdam Avenue at 112th Street). Your prayers and presence at the celebration are joyfully requested.

A Litany of Atlanta and Other Stories
March 13 at 7pm, March 15 at 2pm, St. Paul's Chapel
A Litany of Atlanta and Other Stories, conceived by parishioner R. A. Foy, is a theatrical work based on narratives and themes captured by W. E. B. Du Bois’ A Litany of Atlanta and poet J. Chester Johnson’s litany Offense and Apology, written for The Episcopal Church’s 2008 apology for complicity in the transatlantic slave trade. Inspired by our American history of racial injustice and the struggle of Africans in America to achieve the American Dream—a dream systematically sabotaged by white power structures and false narratives—R. A. Foy’s interactive piece resonates
Grow in Gratitude with Diana Butler Bass
March 13–15, Trinity Retreat Center
“People are crying out for good conversation and places to explore spiritual questions,” says Diana Butler Bass, best-selling author of Grateful: The Transformative Power of Giving Thanks. Butler Bass and spiritual director Kathy Bozzuti-Jones will lead a weekend of quiet reflection on integrity, one of Trinity’s core values, through the lens of growing our understanding of gratitude. This retreat will incorporate contemplative prayer and photography into our practice of thanks. Register at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Confirmation Class
Beginning March 17
Confirmation provides youth in 6th–12th grades the opportunity to publicly affirm their baptismal vows and be blessed by the bishop. It’s not about having all the answers, but about committing to the journey of following Jesus. During class, we’ll explore and live into big questions together, as we consider scripture, tradition, and our role in the community. Please note: youth interested in confirmation are required to attend the youth retreat, March 13–15. For more information and to register, visit trinitywallstreet.org/confirmation.

Cosmos Camp
July 6–10, 13–17; 9am–4pm; Trinity Commons
This summer, suit your child up for an intergalactic trip of imagination and exploration to the far reaches of space. For two out-of-this-world weeks, children ages 3½ through fifth grade will turn their attention to the heavens as they enjoy arts, science, and storytelling that reflect our fascination with the stars and galaxies beyond our own. Cost: $700 for both weeks, $400 for one week. Scholarships are available; contact Wendy Barrie for details. Students who have completed one year of high school and who obtain working papers are eligible to apply for a position as a paid counselor. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/cosmos.

Trinity Commons Opening and Meeting Location Changes
Until Trinity Commons opens later this year, regular congregational meetings will change locations, meet less frequently, or go on hiatus. Trinity clergy and staff have held in-depth planning meetings to determine the impact on each program previously hosted at the Parish Center and have determined the following schedules.

SUNDAY SERVICE
The 9:15am service will move to the Parish Hall at Trinity Commons on Easter Sunday, April 12.

SUNDAY GROUPS
• Whole Community Learning gathers at St. Paul’s Chapel.
• The Gospel, Times, Journal, and You meets at 76 Trinity Place.
• On hiatus: Breaking Bread

WEEKDAY GROUPS
• New Beginnings meets at 76 Trinity Place.
• The Broad Way Bible Study and Scripture, Reflection, & Compline meet in Trinity Church.
• Resource Open Hours (Wednesday afternoons) and SNAP sign-up (Friday afternoons) will be held at St. Paul’s Chapel in the 9/11 Chapel of Remembrance.
• Online: Meditation and The Universal Christ
• On hiatus: The Family Table; Married Life; Trinity Cares

OPTIONAL MEETING SPACES
To provide meeting times for various congregational groups and committees not listed above, St. Paul’s Chapel is being reserved for congregational use from 6–9pm on February 24, March 9, and March 23.

Groups meeting on these dates include:
Trinity Knitters; Achieving Racial Equity; Poets’ Corner; Task Force Against Racism/Prison Ministry; Kianga House Project; LGBT Concerns; Environmental Justice Group; Congregational Arts Leaders; Education Standing Committee and Subcommittees; Hospitality & Community Committee.

If you have questions about these arrangements, see your staff representative, your group leader, members of the Congregational Council, or contact Lynn Goswick in the communications office: LGoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. Update: The Chapel of All Saints has closed for a period of approximately six months. During that time, lighting in the chapel will be enhanced, new cameras will be installed to improve live-streaming of worship services, and some adjustments will be made in the floor levels to increase accessibility. Worship and events previously held there have moved to the chancel area in the nave or to the Raap Room in Trinity Church. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Worship Bags for Children
11:15am service, Trinity Church
We are delighted to welcome families with children to any of our services and wish to support a positive experience for them and, indeed, all worshippers. Worship bags can be found behind the back pews at the Broadway entrance. The ushers can help you find them. There are different bags for younger and older elementary aged children and parents. Our nursery is best for infants, toddlers, and young preschoolers. Following the Gospel reading, children are invited to follow the cross out of the nave and into the sacristy to hear a story and talk about it in Children’s Chapel. They will return to their seats during the peace. We ask that they leave the bags on their seats or give them to an usher or staff person so that we can refresh them for their and others’ use next Sunday.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitygiftshopnyc.com.
