O God of the covenant, the cloud of your splendor and the fire of your love revealed your Son on the mountain heights. Transform our lives in his image, write your law of love on our hearts, and make us prophets of your glory, that we may lead others into your presence. Amen.

Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Epiphanytide

In the Episcopal Church, the season of Epiphany bridges the liturgical seasons of Christmastide (a festive season) and Lent (a penitential season). As with the Season of Pentecost, also known as Ordinary Time, the number of Sundays in Epiphanytide is variable—from five to nine weeks—since the date of Easter changes each year. Also like Ordinary Time, the traditional color of vestments (the robes worn by clergy and the fabric dressings on the altar) is green.

Observances

Saint Matthias

Apostle

Almighty God, who in the place of Judas chose your faithful servant Matthias to be numbered among the Twelve: Grant that your Church, being delivered from false apostles, may always be guided and governed by faithful and true pastors; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Readings: Acts 1:15-26; Philippians 3:13b-21; John 15:1, 6-16

Tuesday in the Last Week after the Epiphany

Weekday

O God, who before the passion of your only-begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: 2 Peter 3:11-18; Mark 12:13-17
The Entrance Rite

Prelude

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Acclamation

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People: And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.
All: Amen.

A Song of God's Love

All: Beloved, let us love one another, * for love is of God.
Whoever does not love does not know God, * for God is Love.
In this the love of God was revealed among us, * that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through Jesus Christ.
In this is love, not that we loved God but that God loved us * and sent his Son that sins might be forgiven.
Beloved, since God loved us so much, * we ought also to love one another.
For if we love one another, God abides in us, * and God's love will be perfected in us.
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant    God be with you.
People       And also with you.
Celebrant    Let us pray.

The Celebrant prays the Collect, a prayer appointed for the day. See p. 3 for Collect texts.

LEVAS 184, vv. 1, 3

1. Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine! O what a fore-taste of glory divine!
2. Perfect submission, all is at rest. I in my God, Born of His spirit, washed in His blood.

1. Heir of salvation, purchase of savior am happy and blest; Watching and waiting, looking a-
2. For-sighing we come to the place where we shall take our rest; Home to God’s own image, exulting in the blest.

1. This is my story, this is my song, Praising my Savior all the day long;
2. This is my story, this is my song, Glorifying my God, born in love and grace.
The Holy Gospel

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to …

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Celebrant The Celebrant reads the Gospel appointed for the day. See p. 3 for scripture citations.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

Silence follows the homily.
The Nicene Creed

On certain days, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant We believe in one God,

All the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.
The Prayers of the People

Please stand or continue standing as you are able.

Reader

Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world. We pray especially for Michael our Presiding Bishop; for Andrew, Allen, and Mary our diocesan bishops; and for all who share your light.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good. We pray especially for Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor, and for all those who govern in this and every land.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

Give each of us a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us. Grant us grace to live our core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship; that in all our works we may glorify your name.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

People

Hear our prayer.
Reader We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled.
We pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Celebrant Lord Jesus, as we travel far and fast, lead our minds back to the wise men following your star and forward to the day when all will see your shining light, that our lives may be transformed and our work brought to its completion, here and now, in you.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Let us confess our sins to God.

Silence

All God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering.

The organist plays an improvisation.
At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant  The Lord be with you.
People     And also with you.
Celebrant  Lift up your hearts.
People     We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People     It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Celebrant  We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing.
You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us.
Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love.

And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer BCP p. 364

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.
The Fraction

Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion. If you need communion brought to you, please let a sacristan know.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life’s journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant: Let us pray.
All: Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant: May Christ, the Son of God, be manifest in you, that your lives may be a light to the world; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.
All: Amen.
Dismissal

Celebrant  Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia, alleluia.
People     Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

Postlude

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area.

This bulletin is yours to keep.
Care for Caregivers

Caregivers need care, too.

Saturday, February 29 | 12–4pm
St. Paul’s Chapel

Be replenished by sharing a meal, catching your breath, the comfort of prayer, and practicing rest in the presence of God. Anyone who gives care to others is welcome.

Join Dr. Peggy Barnett, psychotherapist from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute, and members of Trinity’s Pastoral Care team for an afternoon of care.

RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/caregiver.
Confirmation provides youth in 6th–12th grades the opportunity to publicly affirm their baptismal vows and be blessed by the bishop. It’s not about having all the answers, but about committing to the journey of following Jesus. During class, we’ll explore and live into big questions together, as we consider scripture, tradition, and our role in the community.

Youth interested in confirmation are required to attend the youth retreat, March 13–15.

Trinity Commons Open House
Sunday, March 1, 2:15–5pm
76 Trinity Place

We are excited to open Trinity Commons to parishioners for the first time with a series of tours and activities for all ages on Sunday, March 1, at 2:15pm after the Annual Meeting at 76 Trinity Place.

A Litany of Atlanta and Other Stories
March 13 at 7pm, March 15 at 2pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
A Litany of Atlanta and Other Stories, conceived by parishioner R. A. Foy, is a theatrical work based on narratives and themes captured by W. E. B. Du Bois’ A Litany of Atlanta and poet J. Chester Johnson’s litany Offense and Apology, written for The Episcopal Church’s 2008 apology for complicity in the transatlantic slave trade. Inspired by our American history of racial injustice and the struggle of Africans in America to achieve the American Dream—a dream systematically sabotaged by white power structures and false narratives—R. A. Foy’s interactive piece resonates today. Litany also incorporates works by the Rev. Dr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., and Langston Hughes. Information: rafoy@hotmail.com.

The Way of Love: Arts Workshop
March 14, 10am–2pm, St. Paul’s Chapel

Beginning March 17
Confirmation provides youth in 6th–12th grades the opportunity to publicly affirm their baptismal vows and be blessed by the bishop. It’s not about having all the answers, but about committing to the journey of following Jesus. During class, we’ll explore and live into big questions together, as we consider scripture, tradition, and our role in the community. Please note: youth interested in confirmation are required to attend the youth retreat, March 13–15. For more information and to register, visit trinitywallstreet.org/confirmation.

Exploring the Inner Addict Conference
April 24, 8:30am–4pm, UJA-Federation of New York
Attend the PSI conference “Exploring the Inner Addict: Addiction, Spirituality, and Internal Family Systems” with IFS founder Richard Schwartz. This is an opportunity to deepen your understanding of addiction and gain new perspectives on healing and growth in recovery. To get the early bird discount, register by February 29 at tinyurl.com/psi-conference-registration.

Cosmos Camp
July 6–10, 13–17; 9am–4pm; Trinity Commons
A Summer Program of Trinity Church Wall Street
This summer, suit your child up for an intergalactic trip of imagination and exploration to the far reaches of space. For two out-of-this-world weeks, children ages 3½ through fifth grade will turn their attention to the heavens as they enjoy arts, science, and storytelling that reflect our fascination with the stars and galaxies beyond our own. Cost: $700 for both weeks, $400 for one week. Scholarships are available; contact Kathryn Carroll at KCarroll@trinitywallstreet.org for details. Students who have completed one year of high school and who obtain working papers are eligible to apply for a position as a paid counselor. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/cosmos.

Trinity Commons Opening and Meeting Location Changes
Until Trinity Commons opens later this year, regular congregational meetings will change locations, meet less frequently, or go on hiatus. Trinity clergy and staff have held in-depth planning meetings to determine the impact on each program previously hosted at the Parish Center and have determined the following schedules.

SUNDAY SERVICE
The 9:15am service will move to the Parish Hall at Trinity Commons on Easter Sunday, April 12.

SUNDAY GROUPS
• Whole Community Learning gathers at St. Paul’s Chapel.
• The Gospel, Times, Journal, and You meets at 76 Trinity Place.
• On hiatus: Breaking Bread

WEEKDAY GROUPS
• New Beginnings meets at 76 Trinity Place.
• The Broadway Bible Study and Scripture, Reflection, & Compline meet in Trinity Church.
• Resource Open Hours (Wednesday afternoons) and SNAP sign-up (Friday afternoons) will be held at St. Paul’s Chapel in the 9/11 Chapel of Remembrance.
• Online: Meditation and The Universal Christ
• On hiatus: The Family Table; Married Life; Trinity Cares

OPTIONAL MEETING SPACES
To provide meeting times for various congregational groups and committees not listed above, St. Paul’s Chapel is being reserved for congregational use from 6–9pm on February 24, March 9, and March 23.

Groups meeting on these dates include:
Trinity Knitters; Achieving Racial Equity; Poets’ Corner; Task Force Against Racism/Prison Ministry; Kianga House Project; LGBT Concerns; Environmental Justice Group; Congregational Arts Leaders; Education Standing Committee and Subcommittees; Hospitality & Community Committee.

If you have questions about these arrangements, see your staff representative, your group leader, members of the Congregational Council, or contact Lynn Goswick in the communications office: LGoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.
NOMINEES TO THE 2020-2023 CONGREGATIONAL COUNCIL

Gerald Baugh
Gerald Baugh is the CEO of a music entertainment company, TLD3 Entertainment Group, which is bringing two powerful music streaming and social networking products to commercialization in StreamBeatz and Inpulze.

Baugh has attended Trinity for the past seven years and has been a member of the Congregational Council the past two years. He has been an active participant in the new and growing Trinity Men group.

Baugh has participated in countless innovative projects, and his two-person economic development team successfully secured $300 million of investment and new mixed-use projects including Hilton’s first LEED-certified hotel.

Baugh is an entrepreneurial leader and innovative and strategic thinker with excellent facilitation skills who gets things done. In addition, he is a private pilot who enjoys playing golf and listening to smooth jazz.

Felicia Eve
Felicia Eve and her family have been attending services at Trinity Church for more than 10 years, particularly the 9:15am service at St. Paul’s Chapel. She is the current president of the Congregational Council and chair of the Stewardship and Membership Standing Committee. Felicia owns String Thing Studio, a yarn shop in Park Slope, Brooklyn.

Regina Jacobs
Spanning more than 25 years at Trinity in diverse roles, including lay liturgical minister, Hospitality Committee chairperson (2011–2014), mission volunteer (12 missions), Holy Land pilgrimage co-leader (plus 5 more pilgrimages), youth ministry leader (Journey to Adulthood program), contributor to the Trinity News magazine, healing minister, prayer partner, and retreat leader, I have discovered the joy of growing into who God created me to be.

In parallel, as a marketing Executive Director at Morgan Stanley, a global financial services organization, I have applied my creative mind, process skills, and consultative approach to deliver strategic marketing guidance to top-level financial advisors and to develop turnkey marketing programs that support them in their ongoing business-driven acquisition efforts.

Abiding in Christ, in ministry and career, my lighted path unfolds, evolves, and yields.

Heather Daly
Heather Daly recently celebrated her 15th year as a part of the Trinity/St. Paul’s community. She works as an Attorney Advisor focused on worker health and safety for the U.S. Occupational Safety and Health Review Commission. Prior to focusing on public service, she practiced environmental, health, and safety law at two international law firms, Davis Polk & Wardwell and Latham & Watkins LLP. She is a graduate of Cornell Law School and Union College. An active advocate for people with disabilities, she assists the Children’s Hospital at Montefiore, the Rett Syndrome Research Trust, and Girl Power 2 Cure with improving inclusion and access to care. She began life as part of the historic parish of St. George’s in Hempstead, NY, and now typically attends the 9:15am service with her family—Peter, Maisy, and Finn Barr Curry, and her mom, Alice Daly.

Jordan Sandridge
Jordan works at Tishman Speyer at Rockefeller Center and has lived in New York since 2013. She most often attends the 9am Sunday service and volunteers as an usher, oblation bearer, and lector.

She graduated from the Georgia Institute of Technology. Jordan and her husband, Shane Sandridge, live in the East Village and enjoy golfing, Citi Biking, and cooking at home.
2020 NOMINEES FOR DELEGATES TO DIOCESAN CONVENTION

Scott Evenbeck
Scott Evenbeck has been a member of the parish since 2011. He has represented Trinity at Diocesan Convention and served many years as a Deputy to General Convention, co-chairing the committee on education. He is president of the Church Club and of U.S. Friends of Gladstone’s Library. He is vice chair of the Executive Council Committee of HBCU and a board member for the Association of Episcopal Colleges. He is president of Guttman Community College, earning his baccalaureate degree at Indiana University and his master’s and doctorate at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Joyce Mondesire
Joyce Coppin Mondesire has been an active member of Trinity Church for more than 35 years. She has served on a host of committees, been involved in educational matters for which Trinity is associated directly, and represented the church as a speaker, organizer, and committee member.

Ms. Mondesire was a member of the Vestry for 10 years and, in former years, president and vice president of the Congregational Council. Most recently, she served again as member of the Congregational Council and chair of the Witness & Outreach Committee. Also, she has been a member of the Diocesan Trustees Council and served on its Congregational Support Plan Committee. In addition, she was a member of The General Theological Seminary Board of Trustees. She was one of the founders of the All Our Children program effort, and has participated in mission trips to New Orleans and Navajoland.

Ms. Mondesire serves actively on the Rising Ground Board of Directors (previously called Leake and Watts), an organization founded by Trinity Church more than 100 years ago to help New York City adults, children, and families, including recent immigrants, to overcome adversity and thrive. She is a lay eucharistic minister and acolyte.

Ms. Mondesire is retired after serving as an assistant professor of Educational Leadership at City College New York and Mercy College, high school superintendent, chief of human resources with the New York City school system, and many years with public schools. I believe that as a leader it is my duty with God’s help to use my energy, skills, and experience to right injustice, help those who struggle, and make a better place for all of God’s children.

Donato Mallano
Donato has attended Trinity Church Wall Street since 1988 and has been active through helping to set up the Brown Bag program, serving two terms on the Congregational Council, acting as representative to the Real Estate Committee, serving on the rejuvenation construction review committee, co-chairing the Visual Arts program, and volunteering at the 9am Sunday service.

Donato has worked in IT software and services for more than 20 years, most recently with Kualitatem, providing strategy and thought leadership for organizations deploying digital transformation programs and enterprise applications modernization and launching new digital services: HBO, CBS, Cablevision, Freddie Mac, Penn Mutual, J.Crew, General Dynamics, and Barclays Bank.

Donato lives on Staten Island with his family—Jennifer, Brielle, Olivia, and Matthew—and enjoys exercising, the outdoors, gardening, visual arts, cinema, music, and cooking. He is an inventor with a utility patent for a vehicle mobile camera mount that is currently being commercialized.

Eligibility to Vote: All members of the parish over the age of 18 who have made any financial contribution in the past year are eligible to vote in this year’s election for Congregational Council and Delegates to Diocesan Convention.

Membership: Anyone interested in becoming a member should contact the Rev. Elizabeth Blunt at eblunt@trinitywallstreet.org.
will be enhanced, new cameras will be installed to improve live-streaming of worship services, and some adjustments will be made in the floor levels to increase accessibility. Worship and events previously held there have moved to the chancel area in the nave or to the Raap Room in Trinity Church. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Worship Bags for Children
11:15am service, Trinity Church
We are delighted to welcome families with children to any of our services and wish to support a positive experience for them and, indeed, all worshippers. Worship bags can be found behind the back pews at the Broadway entrance. The ushers can help you find them. There are different bags for younger and older elementary-aged children and parents. Our nursery is best for infants, toddlers, and young preschoolers. Following the Gospel reading, children are invited to follow the cross out of the nave and into the sacristy to hear a story and talk about it in Children’s Chapel. They will return to their seats during the peace. We ask that they leave the bags on their seats or give them to an usher or staff person so that we can refresh them for their and others’ use next Sunday.

Lenten Meditations
Lenten Meditations, the booklet of reflections produced annually by parishioners, clergy, and staff, is available at the welcome desks in Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel. A reading of meditations is scheduled for Palm Sunday. Details to come soon.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitygiftshopnyc.com.

ANGLICAN CYCLE OF PRAYER
Today we pray for the Iglesia Anglicana de la Region Central de America and the Rt. Rev. Julio Murray Thompson.

Congregational Voice
“You will keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on You, because he trusts in You” (Isaiah 26:3 MEV). This is my favorite verse right now. Throughout my hectic life with school and moving to a new location, I remind myself to stay calm and at peace because I know God’s got me. It may not be at the timing I want it to be or the outcome I want it to be, but with my trust in Him it will all work out.

FLOWERS
No flowers decorate the church during the upcoming liturgical season, except during the week of Laetare Sunday, the fourth Sunday in Lent.
To donate flowers for Easter, email flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This service conforms to The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. The cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP). Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff from publications including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Lesser Feasts and Fasts (LFF), A Great Cloud of Witnesses (GCW), Holy Women, Holy Men (HWHM), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP).
