The Sunday of the Resurrection:
Easter Day
April 12, 2020, 11:15am
Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ.

About this Service

Easter

Easter is the highest holiday of the Christian year—a celebration of the event that defines our Church: the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, fulfilling the scriptural foretelling of the Messiah. Like spring itself, the Paschal feast brings the promise of new life.

After weeks of preparation and reflection, more joyful elements return to the liturgy. The service is restored from the penitential order, and the confession is dormant throughout this jubilant season. Gloria, a song of praise, replaces the Kyrie, a supplication for mercy; and the word alleluia (“Praise the Lord”)—which has not been spoken during the past 40 days of Lent—is proclaimed enthusiastically, and will remain in acclamations, fractions, hymns, and dismissals throughout Eastertide.

People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord’s resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Jeremiah 31:1-6

Reader: A Reading from the Book of Jeremiah.

At that time, says the LORD, I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people. Thus says the LORD: The people who survived the sword found grace in the wilderness; when Israel sought for rest, the LORD appeared to him from far away. I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore I have continued my faithfulness to you. Again I will build you, and you shall be built, O virgin Israel! Again you shall take your tambourines, and go forth in the dance of the merrymakers. Again you shall plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant, and shall enjoy the fruit. For there shall be a day when sentinels will call in the hill country of Ephraim: “Come, let us go up to Zion, to the LORD our God.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People: Thanks be to God.
The Psalm

Psalm 118:1-2, 14-24

Reader Let us read from Psalm 118 responsively by half-verse.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; *
People his mercy endures for ever.

Reader Let Israel now proclaim, *
People “His mercy endures for ever.”

Reader The LORD is my strength and my song, *
People and he has become my salvation.

Reader There is a sound of exultation and victory *
People in the tents of the righteous:

Reader “The right hand of the LORD has triumphed! *
People the right hand of the LORD is exalted!
the right hand of the LORD has triumphed!”

Reader I shall not die, but live, *
People and declare the works of the LORD.

Reader The LORD has punished me sorely, *
People but he did not hand me over to death.

Reader Open for me the gates of righteousness; *
People I will enter them;
I will offer thanks to the LORD.

Reader “This is the gate of the LORD; *
People he who is righteous may enter.”

Reader I will give thanks to you, for you answered me *
People and have become my salvation.

Reader The same stone which the builders rejected *
People has become the chief cornerstone.

Reader This is the LORD’s doing, *
People and it is marvelous in our eyes.

Reader On this day the LORD has acted; *
People we will rejoice and be glad in it.

The Second Reading

Colossians 3:1-4

Reader A Reading from the Letter to the Colossians.

Since you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.
Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able.

Antiphon (at the beginning)

Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia!

1. The strife is o'er, the battle done, the victory won; the song of triumph has begun.
2. The powers of death have done their worst, but Christ their legions hath dispersed: let shout of holy joy outburst.
3. The three sad days are quickly sped, he rises glorious from the dead: all glory to our risen Head!

Antiphon (at the end)

Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia!

Words: Latin, 1695; tr. Francis Pott (1832-1909), alt.
Music: Victory, Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (1525-1594); adapt. and arr. William Henry Monk (1823-1889)
Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon  After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. And suddenly there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men. But the angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, ‘He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.’ This is my message for you.” So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them and said, “Greetings!” And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him. Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me.”

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon
Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Phillip A. Jackson
The Nicene Creed

BCP p. 358

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant We believe in one God,
All the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.
The Prayers of the People

 Reader  Jesus, our risen Savior, has been given all authority. Let us seek his intercession, that our prayers may be perfected by his prayer:

 Jesus Christ, great high priest, pray for the Church, your broken body in the world: remember especially Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary our Diocesan bishops; and all who carry forth the joy of Easter.

 Savior, hear us.

 People  Savior, graciously hear us.

 Reader  Jesus Christ, Sovereign of righteousness, enthroned at the right hand of majesty on high, pray for the world, and make it subject to your gentle rule. We pray your guidance especially for Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor.

 Savior, hear us.

 People  Savior, graciously hear us.

 Reader  Jesus Christ, Son of Man, drawing humanity into the life of God, pray for all members of your family in need, distress, or sorrow. Be present to all those affected by the coronavirus pandemic around the world: heal the sick; strengthen and protect those who care for them; comfort those who love them; and bring us through the time of mourning to reunion.

 Savior, hear us.

 People  Savior, graciously hear us.

 Reader  Jesus Christ, Ruler over all things, ascended far above the heavens and filling the universe, pray for us who receive the gifts you give us for work in your service. Strengthen and encourage our parish as we seek to live our core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship.

 Savior, hear us.

 People  Savior, graciously hear us.

 Reader  Jesus, pioneer of our salvation, bringing us to glory through your death and resurrection, surround with your saints and angels those who have died trusting in your promises.

 Savior, hear us.

 People  Savior, graciously hear us.

 Silence

 Celebrant  Jesus Christ, keep the Church in the unity of the Spirit and in the bond of peace, and bring the whole created order to worship before you; for you are alive and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

 All  Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant  The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People      And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord; in this season, we suggest a bow, wave, or other appropriate gesture.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Censing of the Altar

Dirigatur oratio mea sicut incensum in conspectu tuo.
Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as incense.

—Psalm 141:2
The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Hymnal S 130
Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant  Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering.
Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: “Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: “Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ’s coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

All

Dying, you destroyed our death.
Rising, you restored our life.
Christ Jesus, come in glory!

Celebrant

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit’s power, may be a people of hope, justice and love.

Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All

Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.
The Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Fraction Anthem

Sung by all.

Music: from New Plainsong; David Hurd (b. 1950)

Invitation

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.
Communion Hymn

At the final verse, please stand as you are able.

1 That Easter day with joy was bright, the sun shone out with fairer light, when, to their longing
2 O Lord of all, with us abide in this our joyful Easter-tide; from every weapon
3 All praise, O risen Lord, we give to thee, who, dead, again dost live; to God the Father
4 I eyes restored, the apostles saw their risen Lord.
5 Death can wield thine own redeemed for ever shield.
6 Equal praise, and God the Holy Ghost, we raise.

Words: Latin, 5th cent.; ver. Hymnal 1940
Music: Puer nobis, melody from Trier MS, 15th cent.; adapt. Michael Praetorius (1571-1621)

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Celebrant Let us pray.
All Loving God, we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
Now send us forth
a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant: Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight; and the blessing of God—Creator, Redeemer, and Giver of Life—be among you and remain with you always.
All Amen.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update

Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. Update: The Chapel of All Saints has closed for a period of approximately six months. During that time, lighting in the chapel will be enhanced, new cameras will be installed to improve live-streaming of worship services, and some adjustments will be made in the floor levels to increase accessibility. “Surely he will save you from the fowler’s snare and from the deadly pestilence. You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday” (Psalm 91:3, 5-6 NIV).
I posted this verse on Facebook recently. I felt it is important to shine in the light in these challenging times. For those of you who are feeling fear, panic, overwhelmed, or stressed, I suggest praying this Psalm over your life and your family to give you peace. I believe that God is still in charge. —Dr. Sheila R. Cole
