The Second Sunday of Easter

April 19, 2020, 11:15am
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ.

About this Service

Eastertide

Easter is the highest holiday of the Christian year—a celebration of the event that defines our Church: the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, fulfilling the scriptural foretelling of the Messiah. Like spring itself, the Paschal feast brings the promise of new life.

After weeks of preparation and reflection, more joyful elements return to the liturgy. The service is restored from the penitential order, and the confession is dormant throughout this jubilant season. Gloria, a song of praise, replaces the Kyrie, a supplication for mercy; and the word alleluia (“Praise the Lord”)—which has not been spoken during the past 40 days of Lent—is proclaimed enthusiastically, and will remain in acclamations, fractions, hymns, and dismissals throughout Eastertide.

The Entrance Rite

Prelude

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.
Hymn in Procession

1 Christ is alive! Let Christians sing, His cross stands empty to the sky. Let streets and homes with praises ring. His love in death shall never die.

2 Not throned above, remotely high, untouched, un

3 Christ is alive! His Spirit burns through this and moved by human pains, but daily, in the midst of life, our Savior with the Father reigns. lives and learns his joy, his justice, love, and praise.

Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
Gloria

Music: Robert Powell (b. 1932)

1. Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth. 2. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. 3. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; 5. you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. 6. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, 7. you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Acts 2:14a, 22-32

Reader A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd, “Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with deeds of power, wonders, and signs that God did through him among you, as you yourselves know—this man, handed over to you according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of those outside the law. But God raised him up, having freed him from death, because it was impossible for him to be held in its power. For David says concerning him, 'I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand so that I will not be shaken; therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; moreover my flesh will live in hope. For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One experience corruption. You have made known to me the ways of life; you will make me full of gladness with your presence.'

"Fellow Israelites, I may say to you confidently of our ancestor David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. Since he was a prophet, he knew that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would put one of his descendants on his throne. Foreseeing this, David spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, saying, 'He was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh experience corruption.' This Jesus God raised up, and of that all of us are witnesses.'

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 16

Reader Let us read Psalm 16 responsively by half-verse.

Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you; *

People I have said to the Lord, “You are my Lord, my good above all other.”

Reader All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land, *

People upon those who are noble among the people.
Reader But those who run after other gods *
People shall have their troubles multiplied.
Reader Their libations of blood I will not offer, *
People nor take the names of their gods upon my lips.
Reader O Lord, you are my portion and my cup; *
People it is you who uphold my lot.
Reader My boundaries enclose a pleasant land; *
People indeed, I have a goodly heritage.
Reader I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel; *
People my heart teaches me, night after night.
Reader I have set the Lord always before me; *
People because he is at my right hand I shall not fall.
Reader My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices; *
People my body also shall rest in hope.
Reader For you will not abandon me to the grave, *
People nor let your holy one see the Pit.
Reader You will show me the path of life; *
People in your presence there is fullness of joy,
and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore.

The Second Reading 1 Peter 1:3-9

Reader A Reading from the First Letter of Peter.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith—being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. Although you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.
Please stand as you are able.

Sequence Hymn

Words: Henry Alford (1810-1871), alt.; Music: St. Botolph, Gordon Slater (1896-1979)
The Holy Gospel

Deacon

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”

But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe.”

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe.” Thomas answered him, “My Lord and my God!” Jesus said to him, “Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.”

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles
The Nicene Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant We believe in one God,

All the Father, the Almighty,

maker of heaven and earth,

of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,

eternally begotten of the Father,

God from God, Light from Light,

true God from true God,

begotten, not made,

of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit

he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,

and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again

in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,

and the life of the world to come. Amen.
The Prayers of the People

Reader  Jesus, our risen Savior, has been given all authority. Let us seek his intercession, that our prayers may be perfected by his prayer:

Jesus Christ, great high priest, pray for the Church, your broken body in the world: remember especially Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary our Diocesan bishops; and all who carry forth the joy of Easter.

Savior, hear us.

People  Savior, graciously hear us.

Reader  Jesus Christ, Sovereign of righteousness, enthroned at the right hand of majesty on high, pray for the world, and make it subject to your gentle rule. We pray your guidance especially for Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor.

Savior, hear us.

People  Savior, graciously hear us.

Reader  Jesus Christ, Son of Man, drawing humanity into the life of God, pray for all members of your family in need, distress, or sorrow. Be present to all those affected by the coronavirus pandemic around the world: heal the sick; strengthen and protect those who care for them; comfort those who love them; and bring us through the time of mourning to reunion.

Savior, hear us.

People  Savior, graciously hear us.

Reader  Jesus Christ, Ruler over all things, ascended far above the heavens and filling the universe, pray for us who receive the gifts you give us for work in your service. Strengthen and encourage our parish as we seek to live our core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship.

Savior, hear us.

People  Savior, graciously hear us.

Reader  Jesus, pioneer of our salvation, bringing us to glory through your death and resurrection, surround with your saints and angels those who have died trusting in your promises.

Savior, hear us.

People  Savior, graciously hear us.

Silence

Celebrant  Jesus Christ, keep the Church in the unity of the Spirit and in the bond of peace, and bring the whole created order to worship before you; for you are alive and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All  Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People: And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord; in this season, we suggest a bow, wave, or other appropriate gesture.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)

Censing of the Altar

Dirigatur oratio mea sicut incensum in conspectu tuo.

Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as incense.

—Psalm 141:2
The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

_Hymnal S 130_
Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering.
Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: "Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: "Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me."

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ's coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

_ALL_ Dying, you destroyed our death.
Rising, you restored our life.
Christ Jesus, come in glory!

_Celebrant_ Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice and love.

Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

_ALL_ AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

_Celebrant_ As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

_ALL_ Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.
The Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Fraction Anthem

Sung by all.

Music: from New Plainsong; David Hurd (b. 1950)

Invitation

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.
Communion Hymn

At the final verse, please stand as you are able.

Words: Liturgy of St. James; para. Gerard Moultrie (1829-1885); Music: Picardy, French carol, 17th cent.; melody from Chansons populaires des Provinces de France, 1860
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Celebrant
Let us pray.

All
Loving God,
we give you thanks
for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ’s Body and Blood.
Now send us forth
a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant
The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant: Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight; and the blessing of God—Creator, Redeemer, and Giver of Life—be among you and remain with you always.

All
Amen.
Hymn in Procession

19

Hymnal 199, vv. 1, 4

Words: John of Damascus (8th cent.); tr. John Mason Neale (1818-1866), alt.
Music: St. Kevin, Arthur Seymour Sullivan (1842-1900)

1 Come, ye faithful, raise the strain of triumphant gladness!
2 Neither might the gates of death, nor the tomb’s dark portal,

God hath brought his Israel into joy from sadness;
nor the watchers, nor the seal hold thee as a mortal:
loosed from Pharaoh’s bitter yoke Jacob’s sons and daughters, but today amidst thine own thou didst stand, bestowing led them with unmoistened foot through the Red Sea waters, that thy peace which evermore passeth human knowing.

Dismissal

Deacon Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit. Alleluia, alleluia.
People Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

June 26–28, Trinity Retreat Center
All of us have experienced the inner conflict between busyness and stillness. Mary and Martha are two completely different women who open their home to Jesus and his disciples and undergo a holy transformation: the bold one becomes meek and the mild one becomes courageous. What would you choose to do when faced with the same dilemma—to work or to worship? To be driven or contemplative? The world applauds achievement, but God desires companionship. The world clamors, “Do more!” while God whispers, “Be still and know that I am God.” Let’s explore God’s invitation to intimacy together. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/hospitality.

2020–2021 Discernment Process for the Election of Trinity Church Wall Street Vestry Members

In light of the COVID-19 pandemic and the declaration by the President of a National Emergency and a Major Disaster Declaration for the State of New York, by the Governor of a Disaster Emergency for the State of New York, and by the Mayor of a State of Emergency for New York City, the Vestry has voted to postpone the Annual Vestry Election from April 14, 2020 to a later date to ensure full participation by the parish, including the use of mail ballots and in-person voting if that can be done safely at the time.

The Vestry resolution calls for the annual election to be held as soon as possible after we resume in-person worship. We will complete the nominating process as usual and allow for everyone to have a fair opportunity to cast a vote. If we are not able to resume in-person worship by June 7, the Vestry will revisit its resolution with the goal of safely conducting an election by June 30.

* All members of the parish who are 18 years or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, have taken Holy Communion within the preceding year of the election date and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year of the election date are eligible to make recommendations and vote in the Vestry election. A member of the congregation may confirm that his or her name is included on the register by emailing Mike Hogan at MHogan@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update

Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. Update: The Chapel of All Saints has closed for a period of approximately six months. During that time, lighting in the chapel will be enhanced, new cameras will be installed to improve live-streaming of worship services, and some adjustments will be made in the floor levels to increase accessibility. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

FLOWERS
The flowers are given today in loving memory of Walter T. Oerlemans and in celebration of what would have been his 91st birthday. We carry you with us each day, living our lives in ways we hope make you proud. Please know you are loved and missed every day. Love, your family.
To donate flowers, email Flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This service conforms to Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff from publications including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship: Times and Seasons (CW:TS), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982 and Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS).
