The Third Sunday of Easter

April 26, 2020, 11:15am
Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ.

About this Service

Eastertide

Easter is the highest holiday of the Christian year—a celebration of the event that defines our Church: the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, fulfilling the scriptural foretelling of the Messiah. Like spring itself, the Paschal feast brings the promise of new life.

After weeks of preparation and reflection, more joyful elements return to the liturgy. The service is restored from the penitential order, and the confession is dormant throughout this jubilant season. Gloria, a song of praise, replaces the Kyrie, a supplication for mercy; and the word alleluia (“Praise the Lord”)—which has not been spoken during the past 40 days of Lent—is proclaimed enthusiastically, and will remain in acclamations, fractions, hymns, and dismissals throughout Eastertide.

And also with you.

Celebrant

Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread:

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Acts 2:14a, 36-41

Reader

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd, “Let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified.”

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, “Brothers, what should we do?” Peter said to them, “Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him.” And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, “Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.”
So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People

Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 116:1-3, 10-17

Reader

Let us read from Psalm 116 responsively by half-verse.

I love the LORD, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, *

People

because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I called upon him.

Reader

The cords of death entangled me;
the grip of the grave took hold of me; *

People

I came to grief and sorrow.

Reader

Then I called upon the Name of the LORD: *

People

“O LORD, I pray you, save my life.”

Reader

How shall I repay the LORD *

People

for all the good things he has done for me?

Reader

I will lift up the cup of salvation *

People

and call upon the Name of the LORD.
Reader: I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
People: in the presence of all his people.

Reader: Precious in the sight of the Lord *
People: is the death of his servants.

Reader: O Lord, I am your servant; *
People: I am your servant and the child of your handmaid; you have freed me from my bonds.

Reader: I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving *
People: and call upon the Name of the Lord.

Reader: I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
People: in the presence of all his people,

Reader: In the courts of the Lord's house, *
People: in the midst of you, O Jerusalem.
Hallelujah!

The Second Reading
1 Peter 1:17-23

Reader: A Reading from the First Letter of Peter.

If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile. You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God.

Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart. You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.
Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able.

Words: John Brownlow Geyer (b. 1932), alt.; Music: Engelberg, Charles Villiers Stanford (1852-1924)
Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon  Now on that same day two of Jesus’ disciples were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, “What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?” They stood still, looking sad.

Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, “Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?” He asked them, “What things?” They replied, “The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him.”

Then he said to them, “Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?” Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, “Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.” So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?” That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, “The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!” Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon
Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Winnie Varghese
The Nicene Creed

Celebrant

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceed from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.
The Prayers of the People

Reader

Jesus, our risen Savior, has been given all authority. Let us seek his intercession, that our prayers may be perfected by his prayer:

Jesus Christ, great high priest, pray for the Church, your broken body in the world: remember especially Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary our Diocesan bishops; and all who carry forth the joy of Easter.

Savior, hear us.

People

Savior, graciously hear us.

Reader

Jesus Christ, Sovereign of righteousness, enthroned at the right hand of majesty on high, pray for the world, and make it subject to your gentle rule. We pray your guidance especially for Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor.

Savior, hear us.

People

Savior, graciously hear us.

Reader

Jesus Christ, Son of Man, drawing humanity into the life of God, pray for all members of your family in need, distress, or sorrow. Be present to all those affected by the coronavirus pandemic around the world: heal the sick; strengthen and protect those who care for them; comfort those who love them; and bring us through the time of mourning to reunion.

Savior, hear us.

People

Savior, graciously hear us.

Reader

Jesus Christ, Ruler over all things, ascended far above the heavens and filling the universe, pray for us who receive the gifts you give us for work in your service. Strengthen and encourage our parish as we seek to live our core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship.

Savior, hear us.

People

Savior, graciously hear us.

Reader

Jesus, pioneer of our salvation, bringing us to glory through your death and resurrection, surround with your saints and angels those who have died trusting in your promises.

Savior, hear us.

People

Savior, graciously hear us.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Hymnal S 130
Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant    Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering.
Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: “Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: “Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ's coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

\[\text{All} \quad \text{Dying, you destroyed our death.}\]
\[\text{Rising, you restored our life.}\]
\[\text{Christ Jesus, come in glory!}\]

\[\text{Celebrant} \quad \text{Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice and love.}\]
\[\text{Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.}\]
\[\text{By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.}\]

\[\text{All} \quad \text{AMEN.}\]

\[\text{The Lord's Prayer} \quad \text{BCP p. 364}\]

\[\text{Celebrant} \quad \text{As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,}\]
\[\text{All} \quad \text{Our Father in heaven,}\]
\[\text{hallowed be your Name,}\]
\[\text{your kingdom come,}\]
\[\text{your will be done,}\]
\[\text{on earth as in heaven.}\]
\[\text{Give us today our daily bread.}\]
\[\text{Forgive us our sins}\]
\[\text{as we forgive those}\]
\[\text{who sin against us.}\]
\[\text{Save us from the time of trial,}\]
\[\text{and deliver us from evil.}\]
\[\text{For the kingdom, the power,}\]
\[\text{and the glory are yours,}\]
\[\text{now and for ever. Amen.}\]

ANGLICAN CYCLE OF PRAYER
Pray for the Episcopal Church in Jerusalem and the Middle East and the Most Rev. Michael Lewis.

Congregational Voice
“He said, ‘Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by.’ Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, ‘What are you doing here, Elijah?’ (1 Kings 19:11-13). This is my favorite verse because it’s a reminder that God speaks to us in quiet, wondrous ways, sometimes when we are very down-hearted. So always be listening! —Debbie Packer Mumm

2020–2021 Discernment Process for the Election of Trinity Church Wall Street Vestry Members

In light of the COVID-19 pandemic and the declaration by the President of a National Emergency and a Major Disaster Declaration for the State of New York, by the Governor of a Disaster Emergency for the State of New York, and by the Mayor of a State of Emergency for New York City, the Vestry has voted to postpone the Annual Vestry Election from April 14, 2020 to a later date to ensure full participation by the parish, including the use of mail ballots and in-person voting if that can be done safely at the time.

The Vestry resolution calls for the annual election to be held as soon as possible after we resume in-person worship. We will complete the nominating process as usual and allow for everyone to have a fair opportunity to cast a vote. If we are not able to resume in-person worship by June 7, the Vestry will revisit its resolution with the goal of safely conducting an election by June 30.

* All members of the parish who are 18 years or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, have taken Holy Communion within the preceding year of the election date and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year of the election date are eligible to make recommendations and vote in the Vestry election. A member of the congregation may confirm that his or her name is included on the register by emailing Mike Hogan at MHogan@trinitywallstreet.org.
