Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ.

About this Service

Pentecost

Pentecost, celebrated fifty days after Easter Sunday, is one of the principal feasts of The Episcopal Church, and is commonly regarded as the birthday of the broader Christian Church. On this day, as described in the reading from Acts appointed for the Day of Pentecost, Jesus sent the Holy Spirit—the third person of the Trinity—to his disciples, as he had foretold in his teaching. As is common with many feast days pertaining to Jesus’ apostles, it is customary to wear red vestments to symbolize the “tongues, as of fire” that inspired them to preach the Gospel in other languages.

Pentecost is also one of the four holy days (along with the Easter Vigil, The Baptism of Our Lord, and All Saints’ Day) especially suitable for Holy Baptism; therefore, on this day we are invited to renew our baptismal vows during the service.

Prelude

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People: The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.
Hymn in Procession

Hymnal 516

Words: Bianco da Siena (d. 1434?); tr. Richard Frederick Littledale (1833-1890), alt.
Music: Down Ampney, Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)

1 Come down, O Love divine, seek thou this soul of mine,
2 O let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn
3 And so the yearning strong, with which the soul will long, and visit it with thine own ardor glowing;

to dust and ashes in its heat consuming;
shall far outpass the power of human telling;

O Comforter, draw near, with in my heart appear,
and let thy glorious light shine ever on my sight,
for none can guess its grace, till Love create a place and kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing, and clothe me round, the while my path illumining,

where in the Holy Spirit makes a dwelling.
Baptismal Acclamation

Celebrant
God be with you.

People
And also with you.

Celebrant
Let us pray.

O God, who on this day taught the hearts of your faithful people by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit: Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All
Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Acts 2:1–21
Read by Alistair Cree

Reader

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.” All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.”

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, “Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: ‘In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

The Psalm

Psalm 104:25–35, 37

Let us read from Psalm 104 in unison.

O LORD, how manifold are your works! *
in wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.

Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, *
creatures both small and great.

There move the ships,
and there is that Leviathan, *
which you have made for the sport of it.

All of them look to you * to give them their food in due season.

You give it to them; they gather it; *
you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

You hide your face, and they are terrified; *
you take away their breath,
and they die and return to their dust.

You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; *
and so you renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the LORD endure for ever; *
may the LORD rejoice in all his works.

He looks at the earth and it trembles; *
he touches the mountains and they smoke.

I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; *
I will praise my God while I have my being.

May these words of mine please him; *
I will rejoice in the LORD.

Bless the LORD, O my soul. *
Hallelujah!
The Second Reading

1 Corinthians 12:3b–13

Read by Joyce Mondesire

Reader

A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

No one can say “Jesus is Lord” except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

The Holy Gospel

John 20:19–23

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Renewal of Baptismal Vows

BCP p. 292

Celebrant Through the Paschal mystery, dear friends, we are buried with Christ by Baptism into his death, and raised with him to newness of life. I call upon you, therefore, to renew the solemn promises and vows of Holy Baptism, by which we once renounced Satan and all his works, and promised to serve God faithfully in his holy catholic Church.

Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?

People I do.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
Celebrant  Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?
People  I believe in the Holy Spirit,
   the holy catholic Church,
   the communion of saints,
   the forgiveness of sins,
   the resurrection of the body,
   and the life everlasting.

Celebrant  Will you continue in the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?
People  I will, with God’s help.

Celebrant  Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?
People  I will, with God’s help.

Celebrant  Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?
People  I will, with God’s help.

Celebrant  Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?
People  I will, with God’s help.

Celebrant  Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?
People  I will, with God’s help.

Celebrant  May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

All  Amen.
The Prayers of the People

Reader    Let us pray for God to fill us with the Spirit.

Generous God, we thank you for the power of your Holy Spirit. We ask that we and those who lead among us may be strengthened to serve you better, remembering especially Michael our Presiding Bishop, and Andrew, Allen, and Mary our diocesan Bishops.

Lord, come to bless us

People    and fill us with your Spirit.

Reader    We thank you for the wisdom of your Holy Spirit. We ask you to grant us insight to understand your will. Bless with discernment and moderation those who bear the authority of government: especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor.

Lord, come to bless us

People    and fill us with your Spirit.

Reader    We thank you for the peace of your Holy Spirit. We ask you to keep us confident of your love wherever you call us. Encourage and protect all those working today for the good of their communities and the health of the world.

Lord, come to bless us

People    and fill us with your Spirit.

Reader    We thank you for the healing of your Holy Spirit. We ask you to bring reconciliation and wholeness wherever there is division, sickness, and sorrow. We pray especially this day for all those affected by the coronavirus pandemic, from this city to the farthest reaches of your creation.

Lord, come to bless us

People    and fill us with your Spirit.

Reader    We thank you for the gifts of your Holy Spirit. We ask you to equip us for the work which you have given us. Commit this parish afresh to its core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship.

Lord, come to bless us

People    and fill us with your Spirit.

Reader    We thank you for the fruit of your Holy Spirit. We ask you to reveal in our lives the love of Jesus.

Lord, come to bless us

People    and fill us with your Spirit.

Reader    We thank you for the breath of your Holy Spirit, given us by the risen Lord. We ask you to keep the whole Church, living and departed, in the joy of eternal life.

Lord, come to bless us

People    and fill us with your Spirit.

Silence

Celebrant Generous God, you sent your Holy Spirit upon your Messiah at the river Jordan, and upon the disciples where you found them: in your mercy fill us with your Spirit; hear our prayer, and make us one in heart and mind to serve you with joy for ever.

All      Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant
The Lord be with you. And also with you.

People

Celebrant
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

People
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

Celebrant
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant
It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord. In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down on this day from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them and to lead them into all truth; uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, and giving to your Church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the Gospel to all nations.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Music: Robert Powell (b. 1932)

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.
Celebrant

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All

Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant
May the Spirit, who hovered over the waters at the dawn of creation; who overshadowed Mary when the eternal Son came among us; who set the Church on fire on the first Pentecost make you joyful in service and bring the world alive with the love of the risen Christ. And the blessing of God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—be among you and remain with you always.

All
Amen.

Young Adults: Virtual Come-Together
Saturdays, 6–7:30pm | Adults in their 20s and 30s are invited to come together, check in, and just hang out—every week is different. For more info or to join, email TrinityChurchYoungAdults@gmail.com.

COMING SOON
Prayer & Care
Sundays, beginning June 7, 2–3pm, Online
Spiritual Nourishment on the Recovery Journey
Sundays in June, drop in to connect as we reflect on how the day’s Scripture speaks to us on our recovery journey. All are welcome. Facilitated by Sandy Blaine, organizer of Trinity’s annual Recovery Retreats. To join, please email Ellen Andrews at EAndrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

Damaged Heritage: Reading & Conversation
Sunday, June 14, 2:30pm, Webex
Trinity parishioner J. Chester Johnson reads from his book, Damaged Heritage: The Elaine Race Massacre and a Story of Reconciliation, and discusses the legacy of racism and hope for reconciliation with fellow Arkansas native Catherine Meeks, Executive Director of the Absalom Jones Episcopal Center for Racial Healing in Atlanta. Co-sponsored by Trinity’s Congregational Arts Committee of the Congregational Council. To register for this online event, visit trinitywallstreet.org/damagedheritage.

Online Drawing Workshop
Saturdays, June 20–July 11, 10am–12pm, Online
Learn new skills, develop technique, and explore the process of drawing from life and imagination with artist Max Cohen and inspiration from cellist Jacob.
Cohen. Work with whatever you have on hand—no special supplies required. All ages and skill levels are welcome. For information, contact Donato Mallano at donato.mallano@gmail.com. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/drawingworkshop.

Trinity Community Message Board

If you’d like to join the conversation with other congregation members and learn about church happenings, email Lynn Goswick at LGoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Courses for Being At Home

Available anytime, Online

Trinity’s Faith Formation & Education department has partnered with ChurchNext, a leading provider of online study resources, to create a library of courses that relate to our parish’s core values. The courses are easily accessible and taught by respected instructors. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/ChurchNext.

Comfort at One

Weekdays, 1pm, Online

During trying times, music stills our souls and provides a healing grace. Weekdays at 1pm, we’ll be sharing #ComfortatOne performances on Facebook, Twitter, and trinitywallstreet.org/comfortatone. Follow us and tune in for encore performances of our favorite concerts professionally filmed in HD, along with current at-home performances from Trinity’s extended family of artists. We hope these performances help you find a daily haven of peace and comfort.

Downtown Voices Auditions

Spring 2020

In order to keep our singing community thriving and continuing to make music together, Trinity Church Wall Street’s semi-professional choir, Downtown Voices, has moved entirely online and is now available for new members to join from anywhere. Experiences now include: weekly virtual rehearsals and online masterclasses; guided interactive listening and musicianship sessions; virtual concerts and recording projects; and working with members of Trinity’s professional ensemble, The Choir of Trinity Wall Street. Are you a high-level singer looking to join a choir of talented professionals and volunteers? Learn more and schedule your online audition at trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update

Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. Update: The Chapel of All Saints has closed for a period of approximately six months. During that time, lighting in the chapel will be enhanced, new cameras will be installed to improve live-streaming of worship services, and some adjustments will be made in the floor levels to increase accessibility. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Congregational Voice “Peace I leave with you; My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your heart be troubled, nor let it be fearful” (John 14:27 NASB).
I felt this verse spoke to what a lot of us are feeling, with what’s going on. All we have to do is trust in Him and He will provide (Jehovah-jireh). He is the Prince of Peace. —Wayne Scott
