The Fourth Sunday after Pentecost

June 28, 2020, 11:15am
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ.

About this Service

Pride Sunday

On June 28, 1969, a group of queer women of color, drag queens, lesbians, and gay men resisted a police raid on the Stonewall Inn, a popular gay bar on Christopher Street in the West Village. The ensuing riots lasted for five nights. This act of resistance, led by queer women of color like Marsha P. Johnson and Sylvia Rivera, is now known as the Stonewall Uprising and is widely recognized as the birth of the Gay Liberation movement in the United States. Since then, LGBTQ+ communities around the world have recognized June as Pride Month—a time to celebrate our God-given identities and recommit to the work of liberation for our community.

Here at Trinity Church Wall Street, it has been our tradition for several years to raise Pride Flags outside Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel in June. This year, while our churches remain closed, our pride flags have flown throughout the month as a visible reminder that Trinity Church Wall Street holds social justice and inclusiveness among our core values. The flags serve as a reminder that we are committed to the work of celebrating, inviting, and blessing the lives and gifts of our lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, and queer siblings.

The 6-striped rainbow flag has long been synonymous with Pride. Designed in 1978 and updated in 1979 by activist Gilbert Baker, the pride flag is recognized as a symbol of inclusion for LGBTQ+ people. During today’s Pride Sunday service, our Prayers of the People draw on the reminder that God created humankind in all our wild diversity in the very image and likeness of God—and declared us good. Exactly as we are. Many of the petitions ascribe attributes to God that are drawn from the meanings Baker assigned to each of the flag stripes: red for life, orange for healing, yellow for sunlight, green for nature, indigo for serenity, and purple for spirit.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
1. Glory to you, Lord

God of our fathers; you are worthy of praise;

2. Glory to you for the radiance of your holy Name; we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

3. Glory to you in the splendor of your temple; on the throne of your majesty, glory to you.

4. Glory to you, seated between the Cherubim; we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

5. Glory to you, beholding the depths; in the high vault of heaven, glory to

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have built your Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their teaching, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The First Reading

Reader

Genesis 22:1–14

Read by Jim Hopkins

A Reading from the Book of Genesis.

God tested Abraham. He said to him, “Abraham!” And he said, “Here I am.” He said, “Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I shall show you.” So Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and his son Isaac; he cut the wood for the burnt offering, and set out and went to the place in the distance that God had shown him.

On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place far away. Then Abraham said to his young men, “Stay here with the donkey; the boy and I will go over there; we will worship, and then we will come back to you.” Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. So the two of them walked on together. Isaac said to his father Abraham, “Father!” And he said, “Here I am, my son.” He said, “The fire and the wood are here, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?” Abraham said, “God himself will provide the lamb for a burnt offering, my son.” So the two of them walked on together.

When they came to the place that God had shown him, Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. He bound his son Isaac, and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill his son. But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven, and said, “Abraham, Abraham!” And he said, “Here I am.” He said, “Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me.” And Abraham looked up and saw a ram, caught in a thicket by its horns. Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering instead of his son. So Abraham called that place “The LORD will provide”; as it is said to this day, “On the mount of the LORD it shall be provided.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

The Psalm

Psalm 13

Read by Edita Nsubuga

Reader
Let us read Psalm 13 in unison.

All
How long, O LORD?
will you forget me for ever? *
how long will you hide your face from me?

How long shall I have perplexity in my mind,
and grief in my heart, day after day? *
how long shall my enemy triumph over me?

Look upon me and answer me, O LORD my God; *
give light to my eyes, lest I sleep in death;

Lest my enemy say, “I have prevailed over him,” *
and my foes rejoice that I have fallen.

But I put my trust in your mercy; *
my heart is joyful because of your saving help.

I will sing to the LORD, for he has dealt with me richly; *
I will praise the Name of the Lord Most High.

The Second Reading

Romans 6:12–23

Read by Oliva George

Reader
A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans.

Do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions.
No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means!
Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification.

When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able.

Words and Music: Daniel L. Schutte (b. 1947)
The Holy Gospel

Matthew 10:40–42

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon Jesus said, “Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple—truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.”

The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Phillip A. Jackson
The Nicene Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant: We believe in one God,

All: the Father, the Almighty,

maker of heaven and earth,

of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,

eternally begotten of the Father,

God from God, Light from Light,

ture God from true God,

begotten, not made,

of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit

he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,

and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again

in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,

and the life of the world to come. Amen.
The Prayers of the People

Reader
God-in-community, you created humankind in your image and blessed us with the capacity to love. On this Pride Sunday, we thank you for the gift of diverse sexualities and gender identities, especially those of our Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans, and Queer siblings, which reflect your multi-faceted likeness.

God of power, send your Spirit to lead your Church. We repent of the harm done to our LGBTQ+ siblings, and recommit ourselves to making your church a place of refuge and fulfillment for all people. We pray for Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our diocesan bishops; and all those who minister in your name.

God of love,

People
Hear our prayer.

Reader
God of wisdom, we ask your guidance for all who bear the authority of government throughout the world, this nation, and our neighborhoods, especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor. Inspire us to create communities of justice and inclusion.

God of love,

People
Hear our prayer.

Reader
God who, in Jesus, came among us as one who heals, we ask you to bring reconciliation and healing wherever there is division, sickness, and sorrow. We pray especially this day for all those affected by the coronavirus pandemic, from this city to the farthest reaches of your creation.

God of love,

People
Hear our prayer.

Reader
God of creation, we thank you for the gifts of gender and sexuality. We pray for all who live under the threat of violence, oppression, and intimidation from their families, neighbors, or the state. Open our hearts and our minds to your creative brilliance and help us to transgress the boundaries that prevent us from honoring your goodness in one another.

God of love,

People
Hear our prayer.

Reader
God of harmony, we thank you for the gift of this community. Inspire us to do the work you have called us to do. Help this parish to embody our core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship, that we might reflect your radical love to the world.

God of love,

People
Hear our prayer.

Reader
Eternal God, this Pride Sunday, we especially thank you for the witness of LGBTQ+ leaders who have gone before us, who dared to envision a world of radical inclusion. We remember those who have fought and died to advance equality for the LGBTQ+ community, and for those who continue the work.

God of love,

People
Hear our prayer.
Reader
God of life, we pray for all who have died, that in the glorious company of the saints they may find rest eternal.
God of love,

People
Hear our prayer.

Silence

Celebrant
O God, you created us in your image and blessed us with the capacity to love. Accept the prayers of your people. Teach us to fully and radically love all your children as their true and whole selves and lead us with courage to continually advocate for people of all sexual orientations, gender identities, and gender expressions, just as your Holy Spirit advocates for us. In the name of Jesus, your beloved, we pray.

All
Amen.

Confession and Absolution
EOW p. 56/BCP p. 360

Celebrant
Let us confess our sins to God.

Silence

All
God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant
Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord; in this season, we suggest a bow, wave, or other appropriate gesture.

Welcome

Please be seated.

Censing of the Altar

Dirigatur oratio mea sicut incensum in conspectu tuo.
Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as incense.

—Psalm 141:2
The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; for by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Music: Robert Powell (b. 1932)

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.
Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All We remember his death, We proclaim his resurrection, We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction
The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Fraction Anthem
Sung first by the cantor, then joined by all, as indicated.

Music: Ray W. Urwin (b. 1950)
Invitation

Celebrant
The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

Communion Hymn

At the final verse, please stand as you are able.

Words: Liturgy of St. James; para. Gerard Moultrie (1829-1885)
Music: Picardy, French carol, 17th cent.; melody from Chansons populaires des Provinces de France, 1860
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Celebrant

Let us pray.

All

Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant

Beloved, may God the Creator, who made you in God's multi-faceted image, uphold you.
May God the Christ, who transgressed boundaries for the sake of love, liberate you.
May God the Holy Spirit, who draws all of us together, inspire you.
You are God's and you are loved.
And the blessing of God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—be with you this day and always.

All

Amen.

Spring 2020
In order to keep our singing community thriving and continuing to make music together, Trinity Church Wall Street’s semi-professional choir, Downtown Voices, has moved entirely online and is now available for new members to join from anywhere. Experiences now include: weekly virtual rehearsals and online masterclasses; guided interactive listening and musicianship sessions; virtual concerts and recording projects; and working with members of Trinity's professional ensemble, The Choir of Trinity Wall Street. Are you a high-level singer looking to join a choir of talented professionals and volunteers? Learn more and schedule your online audition at trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. Update: The Chapel of All Saints has closed for a period of approximately six months. During that time, lighting in the chapel will be enhanced, new cameras will be installed to improve live-streaming of worship services, and some adjustments will be made in the floor levels to increase accessibility. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

ANGLICAN CYCLE OF PRAYER
Pray for the Church of North India (United) and the Most Rev. Dr. Prem Chand Singh.

Congregational Voice
“Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you” (Ephesians 4:32). I try very hard to do this. I forgive others quicker than I forgive myself. It is important for me to forgive myself as well for I, too, am a child of God. If I have acted in a manner that I regret, I forgive myself, learn from my mistake, and move forward. By forgiving, I am following the teaching of Jesus, looking ahead instead of behind, and I am at peace. —Debbie Packer Mumm

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team. For other pastoral needs, call 212.602.0800 and leave a detailed message. Someone will reach out as soon as possible.

FLOWERS

To donate flowers, email Flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This service conforms to Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the Book of Common Prayer. The cover prayer comes from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP). Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff from publications including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship: Times and Seasons (CW:TS), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982 and Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS).
