Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. About this Service

Creation and Jubilee

For Christians around the world, the month of September is often set aside as a “season within” the Season after Pentecost: a time to place God’s good creation at the center of our shared spiritual intentions. This devotional focus was suggested some thirty years ago by Orthodox Ecumenical Patriarch Dimitrios I, and has since been embraced by Pope Francis on behalf of the Roman Catholic Church, and by the World Council of Churches. The Season of Creation begins on September 1st and ends on October 4th—the feast of St. Francis of Assisi.

During the Season of Creation, we join our ecumenical family in prayer, praise, and action for our common home. The theme of 2020’s Season of Creation is “Jubilee for the Earth.” The Hebrew Scriptures tell us that God set aside each 50th year as a Jubilee: a time for restoration and return when captives were freed; debts were forgiven; travelers returned home; and fields were left fallow.

“This year, amid crises that have shaken our world, we’re awakened to the urgent need to heal our relationships with creation and each other… We enter a time of restoration and hope that requires radically new ecological, economic, social, and political ways of living.

The need for just and sustainable systems has been revealed by the far-reaching effects of the global COVID-19 pandemic. We yearn for the moral imagination that accompanies the Jubilee. As followers of Christ from around the globe, we share a common role as caretakers of God’s creation. We rejoice in this opportunity to care for our common home and the sisters and brothers who share it.”

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Exodus 16:2–15 Read by Dolores Osborne

Reader A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

The whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. The Israelites said to them, “If only we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots and ate our fill of bread; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.”

Then the LORD said to Moses, “I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and each day the people shall go out and gather enough for that day. In that way I will test them, whether they will follow my instruction or not. On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather on other days.” So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, “In the evening you shall know that it was the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, and in the morning you shall see the glory of the LORD, because he has heard your complaining against the LORD. For what are we, that you complain against us?” And Moses said, “When the LORD gives you meat to eat in the evening and your fill of bread in the morning, because the LORD has heard the complaining that you utter against him—what are we? Your complaining is not against us but against the LORD.”

Then Moses said to Aaron, “Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites, ‘Draw near to the LORD, for he has heard your complaining.’” And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they looked toward the wilderness, and the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud. The LORD spoke to Moses and said, “I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, ‘At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the LORD your God.’”

In the evening quails came up and covered the camp; and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. When the layer of dew lifted, there on the surface of the wilderness was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground. When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, “It is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat.”

Give thanks to the LORD and call upon his Name; *
make known his deeds among the peoples.
Sing to him, sing praises to him, *
and speak of all his marvelous works.
He led out his people with silver and gold; *
in all their tribes there was not one that stumbled.
He spread out a cloud for a covering * and a fire to give light in the night season.
They asked, and quails appeared, *
and he satisfied them with bread from heaven.
He opened the rock, and water flowed, *
so the river ran in the dry places.
For God remembered his holy word *
and Abra-ham his servant.
So he led forth his people with gladness, *
his chosen with shouts of joy. Hal-le-lu-jah!

Music: David Hurd (b. 1950)
The Second Reading

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Philippians.

To me, living is Christ and dying is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me; and I do not know which I prefer. I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better; but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you. Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith, so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again.

Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel, and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God’s doing. For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well—since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 20:1–16

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon Jesus said, “The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with the laborers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. When he went out about nine o’clock, he saw others standing idle in the marketplace; and he said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.’ So they went. When he went out again about noon and about three o’clock, he did the same. And about five o’clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, ‘Why are you standing here idle all day?’ They said to him, ‘Because no one has hired us.’ He said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard.’ When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, ‘Call the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.’

“When those hired about five o’clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage. Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage. And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, saying, ‘These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.’ But he replied to one of them, ‘Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?’

So the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Phillip A. Jackson

Silence follows the sermon.
The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Created in the image of God, our first call was to tend and keep the garden. Let us pray for the courage and wisdom to be fit stewards of this earth under whose skies we live our days;
among whose seasons the Church sojourns in faith; and whose landscapes shape and hold the lives of nations.
God said, “Let there be light.” Eternal God, we thank you for your light and your truth. We praise you for your never-failing care in creating a universe which proclaims your glory. Inspire us to worship you, our source and sustenance, and let your light shine upon our world.

God of life:

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

God said, “Let there be a firmament in the midst of the heavens.” We thank you for the vastness of the universe and the mysteries of space. We pray for all scientists and astronomers who extend the boundaries of our knowledge. As we contemplate the wonder of the heavens, confirm in us the truth that every human being is known and loved by you.

God of life:

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

God said, “Let the waters be gathered together, and let dry land appear.” We thank you for the beauty of earth and seas, and for their resources. Give us the will to cherish this planet and to use its riches for the welfare of all.

God of life:

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

God said, “Let there be lights in the sky to separate the day and the night.” We thank you for the warmth of the sun, the light of the moon, the glory of the stars. We praise you for the formation of clouds, the radiance of dawn and sunset. Save us from squandering the energy on which all life depends. Open our hearts to perceive your beauty, and our lips to praise your name.

God of life:

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

God said, “Let earth and sky and sea bring forth living creatures of every kind.” We rejoice in the teeming life of our earth—in its variety and splendor. Grant us grace to treat all animals with respect and care; to preserve their environments, and to honor the delicate balance of nature.

God of life:

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

God said, “Let us create human beings in our own image.” We pray for the human family, at work or at rest. We exult in its diversity and giftedness; we repent of its sins, divisions, and violence. We ask you to be present in its tragedies and trials. By the power of your Spirit, restore your image within us, through Christ who came to remake us by his death and resurrection.

God of life:

People

Hear our prayer.

Silence

Celebrant

Triune God, you have filled the world with beauty: open our eyes to behold your gracious hand in all your works; that, rejoicing in your whole creation, we may learn to serve you with gladness; for the sake of him through whom all things were made, your Son Jesus Christ.

All

Amen.
Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
Amen.

Sing unto the Lord

Elizabeth Poston (1905-1987)

Sing unto the Lord; Cry, cry out and shout, Thou inhabitant of Zion.
Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth;
For ye shall go out with joy and be led forth with peace:
The mountains and the hills break forth before you into singing,
And all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.
The watchman shall lift up the voice;
With the voice together shall they sing.
Ye shall have a song, a song as in the night.
The earth is at rest, at rest and is quiet:
They break forth into singing.
Break forth into joy, sing together,
Sing, ye waste places of Jerusalem.
The redeemed of the Lord shall come with singing,
Singing unto Zion.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant
It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; for you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”
Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

- Christ has died.
- Christ is risen.
- Christ will come again.

Celebrant

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant
As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All
Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.

Hymn in Procession

1 King of glory, King of peace, I will love thee;
2 Wherefore with my utmost art, I will sing thee;
3 Seven whole days, not one in seven, I will praise thee;

and that love may never cease, I will move thee.
and the cream of all my heart, I will bring thee.
in my heart, though not in heaven, I can raise thee.

Thou hast granted my request, thou hast heard me;
Though my sins against me cried, thou didst clear me;
Small it is in this poor sort to enroll thee;

thou didst note my working breast, thou hast spared me.
and alone, when they replied, thou didst hear me.
e’en eternity’s too short to exalt thee.

This is an opportunity to deepen your understanding of addiction and gain new perspectives on healing and growth in recovery. Register at tinyurl.com/psi-conference-2020.
Trinity Votes

This fall, Trinity is proud to offer programming and resources on civic engagement, voter registration, and managing election-induced stress and anxiety. Join us in taking faithful action!

Voting is an instrumental pillar of our civic and social life. The world is changing fast, and the upcoming elections will elevate new voices, new movements, and reshape our local and national governments for years to come. Voting, along with civic engagement, advocacy, and protest are all important methods of making your voice heard.

In the Episcopal tradition, we promise at baptism to “strive for justice and peace among all people and respect the dignity of every human being.” Part of this promise is to vote for the common good. At Trinity Church Wall Street, we vote for our neighbor so that all have decent housing, food, education, and income.

National Voter Registration Day
Tuesday, September 22

National Voter Registration Day is a nonpartisan civic holiday celebrating our democracy. First observed in 2012, it has quickly gained momentum ever since. Nearly three million voters have registered to vote on the holiday to date. Learn more about how you can register to vote or update your voter information at trinitywallstreet.org/vote2020.

#voiceyourvote Video Challenge
Through Monday, October 19

Trinity and the NYC Department of Youth and Community Development (DYCD) are partnering on a video challenge for young New Yorkers, ages 13–18, to promote civic engagement during the 2020 voting season. The contest will be open from September 17–October 19. The winner will be announced on October 26 and will be featured in Trinity and DYCD’s civic engagement campaign through the fall of 2021. For more information on how to enter, visit trinitywallstreet.org/youth.

Finding Your Civic Voice
Tuesday, October 6

Join youth activists from around the city to discuss how they found their calling in civic leadership and connect to the many ways young New Yorkers can create change locally and nationally. Curated by NYC Youth Civics Initiative and in partnership with the Department of Youth and Community Development, the event will include a forum with youth leaders and hands-on workshops with youth-led organizations. Let’s talk about life #beyonddethevote. For more information, email Jennifer Chinn at JChinn@trinitywallstreet.org.

2020 Women’s Suffrage Series
October 8, 13, and 20

In honor of the 100th Anniversary of the Nineteenth Amendment giving women the right to vote, Trinity is hosting the 2020 Women’s Suffrage Series, which focuses on the role of women of color in the fight for enfranchisement. The series will be hosted and facilitated by Trinity’s Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas, Dean of the Episcopal Divinity School at Union and a leading voice on racial justice. Taking place right before the presidential election, this series invites participants to consider the importance of the vote, the power of racism in the country’s legacy of voting rights, and the sacrifices made to win enfranchisement for all adult citizens. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/vote2020.

Get Out the Vote: Volunteer from Home

 Volunteer to phonebank or write and mail postcards to help get out the vote in the upcoming election. Trinity is joining Reclaim Our Vote’s nonpartisan campaign to empower voters of color and fight voter suppression. Reclaim Our Vote’s phonebanks are a lifeline to voters, providing up-to-date, accurate information. Handwritten postcards provide potential voters, some in rural areas with no internet access, with information on how to register or re-register to vote. To volunteer to phonebank or write postcards (supplies provided), email Maggy Laraque at MLaraque@trinitywallstreet.org.
BOOK A RETREAT
Trinity Retreat Center is excited to welcome guests back to West Cornwall for a time of healing, joy, and reflection. As we journey through these bewildering times together, the need for collective human engagement, to live and love and laugh and pray together, is more powerful than ever. However, as we prepare to gather again in the age of COVID-19, we are implementing several changes with our guests’ health, safety, spiritual well-being, and comfort in mind.

Illuminated Manuscript-Writing
Advent Retreat
December 4–6, 2020
Register now at trinityretreatcenter.org

Individual Retreat
Limited individual retreats (just you, you and your family, or you and a friend) are available throughout the year as we have rooms open during or between group and themed retreats. Individual retreats are self-led and are a great way to re-connect with God’s creation and carve out time for relaxation and contemplation. To inquire about an individual retreat, call 917.594.5800 or email retreat@trinitywallstreet.org and let us know what dates you’re interested in.

Next Sunday
A Conversation with Dylan Marron
Sunday, September 27, 10am, Online
Responding to the Urgency of Now
How can we be responsive to the demands of racial justice and work through the difficult conversations about it? How do we balance history and the experience of those whose reality is not the same as those who are in power? How can we have constructive conversations with those whose views differ from ours, even radically? The Rev. Winnie Varghese speaks with Dylan Marron, activist, comedian, and creator of the Conversations with People Who Hate Me podcast about diverse perspectives in justice. This event is sponsored by Trinity’s Discovery program for adult education. To register, visit trinitywallstreet.org/discovery.

COMING SOON
Care for Caregivers
Saturday, October 3, 10:30am–1pm
A Time of Rest and Renewal
Caregivers need care, too. Take a moment to reset with practices of rest, prayer, and meditation. Join Ann Durant, therapist from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute (PSI), and members of the Pastoral Care team for this time of rest and renewal. Anyone who gives care to others is welcome. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/caregiver.

Sunday Afternoon Music at Home
Sunday, October 4, 2pm, Online
We’re bringing Sunday Afternoon Music to you at home. This afternoon’s live music recital features Jacob Dassa performing works from the masters of capturing emotion on the keyboard: d’Anglebert, J. S. Bach, Froberger, and Handel. The restorative powers of these works are potent and relatable, just as they were centuries ago. Sponsored by Trinity Congregational Arts/Allegro. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/allegro.

Recovering from COVID-19
Mondays, October 5–26, 6:30–7:45pm, Online
Are you someone who has had COVID-19? COVID-19 and its impact are highly individual. Those who have had this virus struggle with the aftermath in myriad ways—body, mind, spirit, work, and relationships. This 4-week series offers a safe space to share your experience and find support in the process of recovery. Co-sponsored by Church of the Heavenly Rest and Trinity Church Wall Street, and facilitated by the Rev. Julia Kristeller from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute (PSI). Register at trinitywallstreet.org/covidrecovery.

Mindfulness for Teens
Wednesdays, Oct. 7–Dec. 15, 4–5pm, Online
Trinity is partnering with The Lineage Project to offer free classes for youth aged 13–19 that weave together movement, facilitated dialogue, and guided meditation. Each class is organized around a theme, such as “determination,” that threads the three parts together, draws out students’ inner wisdom, and fosters connection among participants. For more information and to register, visit trinitywallstreet.org/youth.
Family Worship: Home Edition
Each week, we’re offering a simple service for families to follow at home. There are prayers, videos of scripture and stories being read by some familiar faces, brief 9:15-style video reflections offered by the clergy, and special music, along with coloring sheets and an activity to do together as a family. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/familyworship to see this week’s service.

Faith Formation Resources for All Ages
The Faith Formation & Education team provides weekly reflections and practices for all ages. Use them on Sunday and throughout the week at trinitywallstreet.org/wholecommunity.

Trinity Community Message Board
If you’d like to join the conversation with other congregation members and learn about church happenings, email Lynn Goswick at LGoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Courses for Being At Home
Available anytime, Online
Trinity’s Faith Formation & Education department has partnered with ChurchNext, a leading provider of online study resources, to create a library of courses that relate to our parish’s core values. The courses are easily accessible and taught by respected instructors. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/ChurchNext.

Comfort at One—“Passing Through”
Mondays–Fridays, 1pm, Online
During trying times, music stills our souls and provides a healing grace. This fall, the series features performances on the theme of “Passing Through”—passing through musical styles from early music to world premieres while reflecting a message of hope that “this too shall pass.” Mondays–Fridays at 1pm, we’re sharing #ComfortatOne performances on Facebook, Twitter, and trinitywallstreet.org/comfortatone, where you can easily catch up on anything you may have missed, no matter what time it is. Follow us and tune in for encore performances of our favorite concerts professionally filmed in HD, along with current at-home performances from Trinity’s extended family of artists. We hope these concerts help you find a haven of peace and comfort.

Downtown Voices Auditions
In order to keep our singing community thriving and continuing to make music together, Trinity Church Wall Street’s semi-professional choir, Downtown Voices, has moved entirely online and is now available for new members to join from anywhere. Experiences now include: weekly virtual rehearsals and online masterclasses; guided interactive listening and musicianship sessions; virtual concerts and recording projects; and working with members of Trinity’s professional ensemble, The Choir of Trinity Wall Street. Are you a high-level singer looking to join a choir of talented professionals and volunteers? Learn more and schedule your online audition at trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. Update: The Chapel of All Saints has closed for a period of approximately six months. During that time, lighting in the chapel will be enhanced, new cameras will be installed to improve live-streaming of worship services, and some adjustments will be made in the floor levels to increase accessibility. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

FLOWERS
To donate flowers, email Flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This service conforms to Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the Book of Common Prayer. The cover prayer comes from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP). Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff from publications including Enriching Our Worship (ROW), Common Worship: Times and Seasons (CW:TS), A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP).
