The Eighteenth Week after Pentecost

Season of Creation

September 28—October 2, 2020, 12:05pm
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”

—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”

—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Creation and Jubilee

For Christians around the world, the month of September is often set aside as a “season within” the Season after Pentecost: a time to place God’s good creation at the center of our shared spiritual intentions. This devotional focus was suggested some thirty years ago by Orthodox Ecumenical Patriarch Dimitrios I, and has since been embraced by Pope Francis on behalf of the Roman Catholic Church, and by the World Council of Churches. The Season of Creation begins on September 1st and ends on October 4th—the feast of St. Francis of Assisi.

During the Season of Creation, we join our ecumenical family in prayer, praise, and action for our common home. The theme of 2020’s Season of Creation is “Jubilee for the Earth.” The Hebrew Scriptures tell us that God set aside each 50th year as a Jubilee: a time for restoration and return when captives were freed; debts were forgiven; travelers returned home; and fields were left fallow.

“This year, amid crises that have shaken our world, we’re awakened to the urgent need to heal our relationships with creation and each other. . . We enter a time of restoration and hope that requires radically new ecological, economic, social, and political ways of living.

The need for just and sustainable systems has been revealed by the far-reaching effects of the global COVID-19 pandemic. We yearn for the moral imagination that accompanies the Jubilee. As followers of Christ from around the globe, we share a common role as caretakers of God’s creation. We rejoice in this opportunity to care for our common home and the sisters and brothers who share it.”

Observances

Monday in the Eighteenth Week after Pentecost

Weekday

O God, you declare your almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Grant us the fullness of your grace, that we, running to obtain your promises, may become partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Hymns and Anthems: LEVAS 184, vv. 1, 3; Hymnal 564, vv. 1, 3; Ad te, Domine, levavi animam meam—Alessandro Scarlatti; For the Beauty of the Earth—Philip Stopford; Hold Thy Peace—Judith Baity
Saint Michael and All Angels

Major Feast

Everlasting God, you have ordained and constituted in a wonderful order the ministries of angels and mortals: Mercifully grant that, as your holy angels always serve and worship you in heaven, so by your appointment they may help and defend us here on earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Genesis 28:10–17; Revelation 12:7–12; John 1:47–51

Hymns and Anthems: Hymnal 649, vv. 1, 4; Hymnal 282, vv. 1-2; Bring us, O Lord God—William Harris; A City Called Heaven—Leonard De Paur; Aaronic Benediction—Julian Wachner

Jerome

Priest, and Monk of Bethlehem, 420

O Lord, O God of truth, your Word is a lantern to our feet and a light upon our path: We give you thanks for your servant Jerome, and those who, following in his steps, have labored to render the Holy Scriptures in the language of the people; and we pray that your Holy Spirit will overshadow us as we read the written Word, and that Christ, the living Word, will transform us according to your righteous will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Hymns and Anthems: Hymnal 398, vv. 1-2; LEVAS 43, vv. 1, 3; Witness—Jack Halloran; Qui moderatur sermones suos—Orlando di Lasso; Hold Thy Peace—Judith Baity

Sung by the choir. See pp. 3–4 for anthem titles.

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant

Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

People

Glory to God for ever and ever.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:

Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All

Amen.

The Canticle

Celebrant

Let us say together A Song of Creation.

All

Glorify the Lord, all you works of the Lord, *

sing praise and give honor for ever.

In the high vault of heaven, glorify the Lord, *

sing praise and give honor for ever.

Glorify the Lord, you angels and all powers of the Lord, *

O heavens and all waters above the heavens.

Sun and moon and stars of the sky, glorify the Lord, *

sing praise and give honor for ever.

Glorify the Lord, every shower of rain and fall of dew, *

all winds and fire and heat.

Winter and summer, glorify the Lord, *

sing praise and give honor for ever.

Glorify the Lord, O chill and cold, *

drops of dew and flakes of snow.

Frost and cold, ice and sleet, glorify the Lord, *

sing praise and give honor for ever.

Glorify the Lord, O nights and days, *

O shining light and enfolding dark.

Storm clouds and thunderbolts, glorify the Lord, *

sing praise and give honor for ever.

Let us glorify the Lord: Father, Son and Holy Spirit; *

sing praise and give honor for ever.

In the high vault of heaven, glorify the Lord, *

sing praise and give honor for ever.
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant prays the Collect, a prayer appointed for the day. See pp. 3–4 for Collect texts.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Please be seated.
The Reader reads the lesson appointed for the day. See pp. 3–4 for scripture citations.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able.
Sung by all. See pp. 3–4 for hymn citations.

The Holy Gospel

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to …
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Celebrant reads the Gospel appointed for the day. See pp. 3–4 for scripture citations.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

Silence follows the homily.
The Nicene Creed

Read on certain days. If read, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant

We believe in one God,
All

the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.
The Prayers of the People

Please stand or continue standing as you are able.

Reader

Created in the image of God, our first call was to tend and keep the garden. Let us pray for the courage and wisdom to be fit stewards of this earth under whose skies we live our days; among whose seasons the Church sojourns in faith; and whose landscapes shape and hold the lives of nations.

God said, “Let there be light.” Eternal God, we thank you for your light and your truth. We praise you for your never-failing care in creating a universe which proclaims your glory. Inspire us to worship you, our source and sustenance, and let your light shine upon our world.

God of life:

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

God said, “Let there be a firmament in the midst of the heavens.” We thank you for the vastness of the universe and the mysteries of space. We pray for all scientists and astronomers who extend the boundaries of our knowledge. As we contemplate the wonder of the heavens, confirm in us the truth that every human being is known and loved by you.

God of life:

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

God said, “Let the waters be gathered together, and let dry land appear.” We thank you for the beauty of earth and seas, and for their resources. Give us the will to cherish this planet and to use its riches for the welfare of all.

God of life:

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

God said, “Let there be lights in the sky to separate the day and the night.” We thank you for the warmth of the sun, the light of the moon, the glory of the stars. We praise you for the formation of clouds, the radiance of dawn and sunset. Save us from squandering the energy on which all life depends. Open our hearts to perceive your beauty, and our lips to praise your name.

God of life:

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

God said, “Let earth and sky and sea bring forth living creatures of every kind.” We rejoice in the teeming life of our earth—in its variety and splendor. Grant us grace to treat all animals with respect and care; to preserve their environments, and to honor the delicate balance of nature.

God of life:

People

Hear our prayer.
Reader God said, “Let us create human beings in our own image.” We pray for the human family, at work or at rest. We exult in its diversity and giftedness; we repent of its sins, divisions, and violence. We ask you to be present in its tragedies and trials. By the power of your Spirit, restore your image within us, through Christ who came to remake us by his death and resurrection.

God of life:

People Hear our prayer.

Silence

Celebrant Triune God, you have filled the world with beauty: open our eyes to behold your gracious hand in all your works; that, rejoicing in your whole creation, we may learn to serve you with gladness; for the sake of him through whom all things were made, your Son Jesus Christ.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant  The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People  And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord; in this season, we suggest a bow, wave, or other appropriate gesture.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The altar will be set for the Eucharist.

The Great Thanksgiving

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant  The Lord be with you.
People  And also with you.
Celebrant  Lift up your hearts.
People  We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People  It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant  God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
People  Glory to you for ever and ever.
Celebrant  At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.
People  By your will they were created and have their being.
Celebrant  From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.
People  Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.
Celebrant  Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.
People  By his blood, he reconciled us.
Celebrant  By his wounds, we are healed.
People  And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn.
Holy, Holy, Holy

Music: from New Plainsong; David Hurd (b. 1950)

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

All

We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Celebrant

Lord God of our Fathers; God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

People

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Celebrant

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation.

All

AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Invitation

Celebrant

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

People

Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

Communion Anthem

Sung by the choir. See pp. 3–4 for anthem titles.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

All: Loving God,

we give you thanks
for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.

Now send us forth
a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant: May you be a new creation—Christ for those to whom Christ shall send you;
and the blessing of God our Creator, Redeemer, and Giver of life be with you always.

All: Amen.

Hymn in Procession

Sung by all. See pp. 3–4 for hymn citations.

Dismissal

Celebrant: Let us go forth in the name of Christ.

People: Thanks be to God.

Choral Postlude

Sung by the choir. See pp. 3–4 for anthem titles.

We’ll collect, print, and include your notes in the brown bag lunches we distribute to those in need of food assistance in our neighborhood. Trinity is committed to the Brown Bag Lunch Ministry to help transform our community, our neighbors, and ourselves. To submit your note, visit trinitywallstreet.org/CareMessage.

Let’s Stay in Touch: Parish Directory
Would you like to stay in touch with other parishioners during this unusual time but you don’t have your pew neighbor’s phone number or email address? Trinity’s membership department is compiling a directory to help us all stay connected until we can worship together again. To receive a digital copy of the directory, please contribute your contact information and a photo. Contact information may include any or all of the following:
Trinity Votes

This fall, Trinity is proud to offer programming and resources on civic engagement, voter registration, and managing election-induced stress and anxiety. Join us in taking faithful action!

#voiceyourvote Video Challenge
Through Monday, October 19
Trinity and the NYC Department of Youth and Community Development (DYCD) are partnering on a video challenge for young New Yorkers, ages 13–18, to promote civic engagement during the 2020 voting season. The contest will be open from September 17–October 19. The winner will be announced on October 26 and will be featured in Trinity and DYCD’s civic engagement campaign through the fall of 2021. For more information on how to enter, visit trinitywallstreet.org/youth.

Finding Your Civic Voice
Tuesday, October 6
Join youth activists from around the city to discuss how they found their calling in civic leadership and connect to the many ways young New Yorkers can create change locally and nationally. Curated by NYC Youth Civics Initiative and in partnership with the Department of Youth and Community Development, the event will include a forum with youth leaders and hands-on workshops with youth-led organizations. Let’s talk about life #beyondthevote. For more information, email Jennifer Chinn at JChinn@trinitywallstreet.org.

Women’s Suffrage: Race, Gender, and Power
October 8, 13, and 20
In honor of the 100th Anniversary of the Nineteenth Amendment giving women the right to vote, Trinity is hosting the 2020 Women’s Suffrage Series, which focuses on the role of women of color in the fight for enfranchisement. The series will be hosted and facilitated by Trinity’s Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas, Dean of the Episcopal Divinity School at Union and a leading voice on racial justice. Taking place right before the presidential election, this series invites participants to consider the importance of the vote, the power of racism in the country’s legacy of voting rights, and the sacrifices made to win enfranchisement for all adult citizens. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/womenssuffrage.

Get Out the Vote: Volunteer from Home
Volunteer to phonebank or write and mail postcards to help get out the vote in the upcoming election. Trinity is joining Reclaim Our Vote’s nonpartisan campaign to empower voters of color and fight voter suppression. Reclaim Our Vote’s phonebanks are a lifeline to voters, providing up-to-date, accurate information. Handwritten postcards provide potential voters, some in rural areas with no internet access, with information on how to register or re-register to vote. To volunteer to phonebank or write postcards (supplies provided), email Maggy Laraque at MLaraque@trinitywallstreet.org.

Learn more and take action at trinitywallstreet.org/vote.

family worship: home edition
Each week, we’re offering a simple service for families to follow at home. There are prayers, videos of scripture and stories being read by some familiar faces, brief 9:15-style video reflections offered by the clergy, and special music, along with coloring sheets and an activity to do together as a family. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/familyworship to see this week’s service.

Trinity Community Message Board
If you’d like to join the conversation with other congregation members and learn about church happenings, email Lynn Goswick at LGoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.
Courses for Being At Home
Available anytime, Online
Trinity’s Faith Formation & Education department has partnered with ChurchNext, a leading provider of online study resources, to create a library of courses that relate to our parish’s core values. The courses are easily accessible and taught by respected instructors. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/ChurchNext.

Comfort at One—“Passing Through”
Mondays–Fridays, 1pm, Online
During trying times, music stills our souls and provides a healing grace. This fall, the series features performances on the theme of “Passing Through”—passing through musical styles from early music to world premieres while reflecting a message of hope that “this too shall pass.” Mondays–Fridays at 1pm, we’re sharing #ComfortatOne performances on Facebook, Twitter, and trinitywallstreet.org/comfortatone, where you can easily catch up on anything you may have missed, no matter what time it is. Follow us and tune in for encore performances of our favorite concerts professionally filmed in HD, along with current at-home performances from Trinity’s extended family of artists. We hope these concerts help you find a haven of peace and comfort.

Downtown Voices Auditions
In order to keep our singing community thriving and continuing to make music together, Trinity Church Wall Street’s semi-professional choir, Downtown Voices, has moved entirely online and is now available for new members to join from anywhere. Experiences now include: weekly virtual rehearsals and online masterclasses; guided interactive listening and musicianship sessions; virtual concerts and recording projects; and working with members of Trinity’s professional ensemble, The Choir of Trinity Wall Street. Are you a high-level singer looking to join a choir of talented professionals and volunteers? Learn more and schedule your online audition at trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. Update: The Chapel of All Saints has closed for a period of approximately six months. During that time, lighting in the chapel will be enhanced, new cameras will be installed to improve live-streaming of worship services, and some adjustments will be made in the floor levels to increase accessibility. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

FLOWERS

To donate flowers, email Flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This service conforms to Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff from publications including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Lesser Feasts and Fasts 2006 (LFF), A Great Cloud of Witnesses (GCW), Holy Women, Holy Men (HWHM), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), Common Worship: Times and Seasons (CW:TS), A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), Voices Found (VF), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP).
