Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. About this Service
Creation and Jubilee

For Christians around the world, the month of September is often set aside as a “season within” the Season after Pentecost: a time to place God’s good creation at the center of our shared spiritual intentions. This devotional focus was suggested some thirty years ago by Orthodox Ecumenical Patriarch Dimitrios I, and has since been embraced by Pope Francis on behalf of the Roman Catholic Church, and by the World Council of Churches. The Season of Creation begins on September 1st and ends on October 4th—the feast of St. Francis of Assisi.

During the Season of Creation, we join our ecumenical family in prayer, praise, and action for our common home. The theme of 2020’s Season of Creation is “Jubilee for the Earth.” The Hebrew Scriptures tell us that God set aside each 50th year as a Jubilee: a time for restoration and return when captives were freed; debts were forgiven; travelers returned home; and fields were left fallow.

“This year, amid crises that have shaken our world, we’re awakened to the urgent need to heal our relationships with creation and each other. . . We enter a time of restoration and hope that requires radically new ecological, economic, social, and political ways of living. The need for just and sustainable systems has been revealed by the far-reaching effects of the global COVID-19 pandemic. We yearn for the moral imagination that accompanies the Jubilee. As followers of Christ from around the globe, we share a common role as caretakers of God’s creation. We rejoice in this opportunity to care for our common home and the sisters and brothers who share it.”

God be with you.

People
And also with you.

Celebrant
Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve: Pour upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All
Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Exodus 20:1–4, 7–9, 12–20

Read by Verna Barnett

Reader
A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

God spoke all these words:
I am the L ORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; you shall have no other gods before me.
You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.
You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the L ORD your God, for the L ORD will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.
Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy. Six days you shall labor and do all your work.
Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the L ORD your God is giving you.
You shall not murder.
You shall not commit adultery.
You shall not steal.
You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

When all the people witnessed the thunder and lightning, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking, they were afraid and trembled and stood at a distance, and said to Moses, “You speak to us, and we will listen; but do not let God speak to us, or we will die.” Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid; for God has come only to test you and to put the fear of him upon you so that you do not sin.”

The statutes of the Lord are just and re-joice the | heart; *

the commandment of the Lord is clear and gives | light | to the | eyes.

The fear of the Lord is clean and en-dures for | ever; *

the judgments of the Lord are true and | right-eous | al-to-gether.

More to be desired are they than gold, more than | much fine | gold, *

sweeter far than honey, than | ho-ney | in the | comb.

Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins;

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable | in your | sight, *

O Lord, my | strength and | my re-deemer.

Music: Samuel Sebastian Wesley (1810-1876)
A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Philippians.

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.

Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 21:33–46

Deacon
The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon
Jesus said, “Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to tenants and went to another country. When the harvest time had come, he sent his slaves to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his slaves and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other slaves, more than the first; and they treated them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’ But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, ‘This is the heir; come, let us kill him and get his inheritance.’ So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?” They said to him, “He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the harvest time.”

Jesus said to them, “Have you never read in the scriptures:

‘The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone;
this was the Lord’s doing,
and it is amazing in our eyes?’

Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that produces the fruits of the kingdom. The one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and it will crush anyone on whom it falls.”

When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they realized that he was speaking about them. They wanted to arrest him, but they feared the crowds, because they regarded him as a prophet.

The Rev. Phillip A. Jackson
The Nicene Creed

Please stand as you are able.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended
Into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Reader

Created in the image of God, our first call was to tend and keep the garden. Let us pray for the courage and wisdom to be fit stewards of this earth under whose skies we live our days; among whose seasons the Church sojourns in faith; and whose landscapes shape and hold the lives of nations.

God said, “Let there be light.” Eternal God, we thank you for your light and your truth. We praise you for your never-failing care in creating a universe which proclaims your glory. Inspire us to worship you, our source and sustenance, and let your light shine upon our world.

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

God said, “Let there be a firmament in the midst of the heavens.” We thank you for the vastness of the universe and the mysteries of space. We pray for all scientists and astronomers who extend the boundaries of our knowledge. As we contemplate the wonder of the heavens, confirm in us the truth that every human being is known and loved by you.

God of life:

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

God said, “Let the waters be gathered together, and let dry land appear.” We thank you for the beauty of earth and seas, and for their resources. Give us the will to cherish this planet and to use its riches for the welfare of all.

God of life:

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

God said, “Let there be lights in the sky to separate the day and the night.” We thank you for the warmth of the sun, the light of the moon, the glory of the stars. We praise you for the formation of clouds, the radiance of dawn and sunset. Save us from squandering the energy on which all life depends. Open our hearts to perceive your beauty, and our lips to praise your name.

God of life:

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

God said, “Let earth and sky and sea bring forth living creatures of every kind.” We rejoice in the teeming life of our earth—in its variety and splendor. Grant us grace to treat all animals with respect and care; to preserve their environments, and to honor the delicate balance of nature.

God of life:

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

God said, “Let us create human beings in our own image.” We pray for the human family, at work or at rest. We exult in its diversity and giftedness; we repent of its sins, divisions, and violence. We ask you to be present in its tragedies and trials. By the power of your Spirit, restore your image within us, through Christ who came to remake us by his death and resurrection.

God of life:

People

Hear our prayer.

Silence
Celebrant Triune God, you have filled the world with beauty: open our eyes to behold your gracious hand in all your works; that, rejoicing in your whole creation, we may learn to serve you with gladness; for the sake of him through whom all things were made, your Son Jesus Christ.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

Amen.

Jubilate Deo in C

Benjamin Britten (1913-1976)

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:
serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.
Be ye sure that the Lord he is God:
it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves;
we are his children and the sheep of his pasture.
O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving,
and into his courts with praise;
be thankful unto him and speak good of his Name.
For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting, and his truth endureth from generation to generation.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; for you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Music: from A Community Mass; Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.
Celebrant

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.
The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant
As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All
Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.

Hail Mary, full of grace,
The Lord is with thee, serene Virgin.
Hail, thou whose Conception,
Full of great joy,
Fills heaven and earth
With new gladness.
Hail, thou whose Nativity
Became our great celebration,
As the light-bearing Morning Star anticipates the true Sun.
Hail, faithful humility,
Fruitful without man,
Whose Annunciation
Was our salvation.
Hail, true virginity,
Immaculate chastity,
Whose Purification
Was our cleansing.
Hail, glorious one
In all angelic virtues,
Whose Assumption
Was our glorification.
O Mother of God,
Remember me. Amen.

Trinity Youth Advisory Call | Tuesdays, 7pm; Online
Join young people from across the city in a weekly Trinity Youth Advisory call to give direct advice and guidance on what resources are needed in your community. Your voice matters! To join the call, email Jennifer Chinn at JChinn@trinitywallstreet.org with your name, email, grade, and current school.

Trinity Youth Drop-in Call | Wednesdays, 7pm; Online
Even though we can’t meet in person, Trinity Youth are still showing up for one another! Each week, Fr. Matt Welsch is hosting a drop-in call and all Trinity Youth are invited to join—whether you can stay for the whole call or just hop on for a few minutes. Please text or email Matt at MWelsch@trinitywallstreet.org for more information or to get the link so you can join the next call.

New Beginnings | Thursdays, 11am; Online
Trinity’s ministry of seniors meets for Bible study. To join, email Ellen Andrews at EAndrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

THIS WEEK
Monday, October 5

Recovering from COVID-19
Mondays through October 26, 6:30–7:45pm, Online
Are you someone who has had COVID-19? COVID-19 and its impact are highly individual. Those who have had this virus struggle with the aftermath in myriad ways—body, mind, spirit, work, and relationships. This 4-week series offers a safe space to share your experience and find support in the process of recovery. Co-sponsored by Church of the Heavenly Rest and Trinity Church Wall Street, and facilitated by the Rev. Julia Kristeller from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute (PSI). Register at trinitywallstreet.org/covidrecovery.

Wednesday, October 7

Mindfulness for Teens
Wednesdays through December 15, 4–5pm, Online
Trinity is partnering with The Lineage Project to offer free classes for youth ages 13–19 that weave together movement, facilitated dialogue, and guided meditation. Each class is organized around a theme, such as “determination,” that threads the three parts together, draws out students’ inner wisdom, and fosters connection among participants. To register, visit trinitywallstreet.org/youth.

Coping During the Time of COVID-19

Wednesdays through Oct. 28, 6:30–7:45pm, Online

Living through a global pandemic is unprecedented for all of us. Join us for one or all sessions as we address the challenge of this time and explore ways to cope. Facilitated by H. Kimball Jones from the Psychotherapy and Spirituality Institute (PSI). Register at trinitywallstreet.org/covidsupport.

Next Sunday

Breaking Bread

Sunday, October 11, 1pm, Online

We typically gather around the table to break bread, share a communal meal, and have a reflective conversation. In these social-distance times, we will gather virtually with bread in our homes and talk about an aspect of our shared spiritual journey. Our conversation will be enriched by your presence, so please join us. Registrants will be sent a packet of materials for baking their own bread before the event, while supplies last. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/celebrate.

Coming Soon

Trinity Recovery Group

Saturday, October 17, 10am, Online

Travel together along the 12 Steps spiritual journey. We meet the third Saturday of each month to check in and discuss spiritual topics to integrate our faith life with our recovery journey. Open to members of all 12 Step fellowships, including but not limited to AA, Al-Anon, ACA, CoDA, DA, NA, OA, SLAA, etc. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/recovery.

Sunday Afternoon Music at Home

Sunday, October 18, 3pm, Online

We’re bringing Sunday Afternoon Music to your home. This afternoon’s live music recital features classical keyboard works performed by Nathan Monday, harpsichordist, organist, fortepianist, and acclaimed improviser and composer. To hear your favorite classical piece performed improvisationally, submit requests to farris.thomas521@gmail.com by noon on October 18. Sponsored by Trinity Congregational Arts/Allegro. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/allegro.

Trinity Youth Fall Retreat

Saturday, October 24, 10:30am–4pm, Online

Looking ahead to All Saints’ Day, we’ll spend time together reflecting on saints—the people who inspire us to be the people we’re called to be. Throughout the day, we’ll have a mixture of online group sessions and offline self-guided activities. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/youthretreat.

Bulletin Board

All Faithful Departed: Submitting Names

Due October 22

Please submit names of those who have died during the past year whom you would like to have remembered in the Prayers of the People during the 12:05pm Holy Eucharist on November 2. Email Departed@trinitywallstreet.org by Thursday, October 22 with your names for remembrance.

Music Ministry This Fall

Trinity’s online worship services are now further enhanced as of Labor Day, as more members of The Choir of Trinity Wall Street join our organists to lead music at our weekday 12:05pm and Sunday 11:15am services. Six members of the choir will be singing at safe distances while wearing masks in Trinity Church, and we hope you’ll join them from home, lifting our voices in song together.

Fall Fitness & Healthy Cooking Classes

Through December 18, Online

Join Trinity and Gym Kelly Fitness for free online health and wellness classes this fall! These sessions are a chance to meet new people and offer ways to have healthy fun with friends and family in an accessible, inclusive format. Pick from aerobics, healthy cooking, and bilingual yoga classes offered multiple times a week. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/wellbeing for the full schedule, class descriptions, and how to register. For questions, email Terrell L. Moody at TMoody@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity Commons Knowledge Bites

Now through December

Trinity Commons Knowledge Bites offer accessible and engaging conversations and learning opportunities for all ages on a range of topics, such as immigration, education, mindfulness, and healthy aging. RSVP for these one-hour webinars at trinitywallstreet.org/commonsprograms.
Lenten Meditations
Every spring, Trinity parishioners and staff write reflections or contribute art or a photo for each day in the season of Lent. These are gathered in a small booklet that is mailed to parishioners and made available to friends. If you’d like to contribute a meditation or artwork for 2021, please contact Luke Petrinovic at lukehpetrinovic@gmail.com or LentenMeditations@trinitywallstreet.org.

Brown Bag Care Messages
Share uplifting messages of care and hope with Brown Bag Lunch recipients. We’ll collect, print, and include your notes in the brown bag lunches we distribute to those in need of food assistance in our neighborhood. Trinity is committed to the Brown Bag Lunch Ministry to help transform our community, our neighbors, and ourselves. To submit your note, visit trinitywallstreet.org/CareMessage.

Let’s Stay in Touch: Parish Directory
Would you like to stay in touch with other parishioners during this unusual time but you don’t have your pew neighbor’s phone number or email address? Trinity’s membership department is compiling a directory to help us all stay connected until we can worship together again. To receive a digital copy of the directory, please contribute your contact information and a photo. Contact information may include any or all of the following: email address, mailing address, telephone number, and/or social media handle. To contribute or for more information, email Melissa Mistry at MMistry@trinitywallstreet.org.

Family Worship: Home Edition
Each week, we’re offering a simple service for families to follow at home. There are prayers, videos of scripture and stories being read by some familiar faces, brief 9:15-style video reflections offered by the clergy, and special music, along with coloring sheets and an activity to do together as a family. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/familyworship to see this week’s service.

Trinity Community Message Board
If you’d like to join the conversation with other congregation members and learn about church happenings, email Lynn Goswick at LGoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Courses for Being At Home
Available anytime, Online
Trinity’s Faith Formation & Education department has partnered with ChurchNext, a leading provider of online study resources, to create a library of courses that relate to our parish’s core values. The courses are easily accessible and taught by respected instructors. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/ChurchNext.

Comfort at One—“Passing Through”
Mondays–Fridays, 1pm, Online
During trying times, music stills our souls and provides a healing grace. This fall, the series features performances on the theme of “Passing Through”—passing through musical styles from early music to world premieres while reflecting a message of hope that “this too shall pass.” Mondays–Fridays at 1pm, we’re sharing #ComfortatOne performances on Facebook, Twitter, and trinitywallstreet.org/comfortatone, where you can easily catch up on anything you may have missed, no matter what time it is. Follow us and tune in for encore performances of our favorite concerts professionally filmed in HD, along with current at-home performances from Trinity’s extended family of artists. We hope these concerts help you find a haven of peace and comfort.

Downtown Voices Auditions
In order to keep our singing community thriving and continuing to make music together, Trinity Church Wall Street’s semi-professional choir, Downtown Voices, has moved entirely online and is now available for new members to join from anywhere. Experiences now include: weekly virtual rehearsals and online masterclasses; guided interactive listening and musicianship sessions; virtual concerts and recording projects; and working with members of Trinity’s professional ensemble, The Choir of Trinity Wall Street. Are you a high-level singer looking to join a choir of talented professionals and volunteers? Learn more and schedule your online audition at trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. Update: The Chapel of All Saints has closed for a period of approximately six months. During that time, lighting in the chapel will be enhanced, new cameras will be installed to improve live-streaming of worship services, and some adjustments will be made in the floor levels to increase accessibility. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.
Trinity Votes

This fall, Trinity is proud to offer programming and resources on civic engagement, voter registration, and managing election-induced stress and anxiety. Join us in taking faithful action!

Learn more and take action at trinitywallstreet.org/vote.

#voiceyourvote Video Challenge
Through Monday, October 19
Trinity and the NYC Department of Youth and Community Development (DYCD) are partnering on a video challenge for young New Yorkers, ages 13–18, to promote civic engagement during the 2020 voting season. The contest will be open from September 17–October 19. The winner will be announced on October 26 and will be featured in Trinity and DYCD’s civic engagement campaign through the fall of 2021. For more information on how to enter, visit trinitywallstreet.org/youth.

Finding Your Civic Voice
Tuesday, October 6
Join youth activists from around the city to discuss how they found their calling in civic leadership and connect to the many ways young New Yorkers can create change locally and nationally. Curated by NYC Youth Civics Initiative and in partnership with the Department of Youth and Community Development, the event will include a forum with youth leaders and hands-on workshops with youth-led organizations. Let’s talk about life #beyondthevote. For more information, email Jennifer Chinn at JChinn@trinitywallstreet.org.

Women’s Suffrage: Race, Gender, and Power
October 8, 13, and 20
In honor of the 100th Anniversary of the Nineteenth Amendment giving women the right to vote, Trinity is hosting the 2020 Women’s Suffrage Series, which focuses on the role of women of color in the fight for enfranchisement. The series will be hosted and facilitated by Trinity’s Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas, Dean of the Episcopal Divinity School at Union and a leading voice on racial justice. Taking place right before the presidential election, this series invites participants to consider the importance of the vote, the power of racism in the country’s legacy of voting rights, and the sacrifices made to win enfranchisement for all adult citizens. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/womenssuffrage.

Volunteer: Reclaim Our Vote
Volunteer to phonebank to help get out the vote in the upcoming election. Trinity is joining Reclaim Our Vote’s nonpartisan campaign to empower voters of color and fight voter suppression. Reclaim Our Vote’s phonebanks are a lifeline to voters, providing up-to-date, accurate information. To volunteer, email Maggy Laraque at MLaraque@trinitywallstreet.org.

Volunteer: Voter Hotline
Volunteer for the NYC League of Women Voters Hotline and help New Yorkers with questions about registering to vote, finding a polling site, and absentee ballots. Volunteers work remotely with calls forwarded through the League’s phone. For more information and to sign up for the training, email Maggy Laraque at MLaraque@trinitywallstreet.org.

Congregational Voice
“When tempted, no one should say, ‘God is tempting me.’ For God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does he tempt anyone” (James 1:13 NIV). People mistakenly believe that God is “giving” them temptations to test their faithfulness or strength. That is simply not true. We are tempted through our own weaknesses by putting ourselves in situations to be tempted. What the Lord does do is to give us the opportunity to dig deep within ourselves to see if we have the resolve not to give in to the temptation. He does not lead us to temptation, He guides us through temptation. It is up to us to decide if we are going to yield to the evil or resist! —Neilia Trimmingham

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team. For other pastoral needs, call 212.602.0800 and leave a detailed message. Someone will reach out as soon as possible.

FLOWERS
To donate flowers, email Flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This service conforms to Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. The cover prayer comes from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP). Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff from publications including Enriching Our Worship (ROW), Common Worship: Times and Seasons (CW:TS), A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP).
