The Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost
Season of Stewardship
October 18, 2020, 11:15am
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”

—Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”

—Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ.

About this Service
The Season of Stewardship

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is by far the longest of the Episcopal church year. It is also called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from Roman Catholic tradition. The beginning of the season is determined by the date of Easter, and its conclusion by the date of the first Sunday of Advent.

At Trinity Parish, we have traditionally observed a “season within a season” near the end of Ordinary Time to focus together, prayerfully and intentionally, on Stewardship—one of our core values and a deeply orthodox Christian discipline.

Humanity’s call to be good stewards of the resources entrusted to us by God has direct bearing on nearly every aspect of our modern lives: our relationships; our finances; our schedules; our ways of walking responsibly through God’s good earth; the causes we take up and the partnerships we forge.

In 2019, Trinity’s congregation undertook an initiative to apply their financial contributions—their tithes and offerings—directly to the needs of their New York City neighbors and those who serve them. In the coming weeks, you will hear more about this initiative during services and in activities accessible through our website.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Exodus 33:12–23

Read by Tom Thomas

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

Moses said to the LORD, “See, you have said to me, ‘Bring up this people’; but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, ‘I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.’ Now if I have found favor in your sight, show me your ways, so that I may know you and find favor in your sight. Consider too that this nation is your people.” He said, “My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.” And he said to him, “If your presence will not go, do not carry us up from here. For how shall it be known that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people, unless you go with us? In this way, we shall be distinct, I and your people, from every people on the face of the earth.”

The LORD said to Moses, “I will do the very thing that you have asked; for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name.” The LORD said, “Show me your glory, I pray.” And he said, “I will make all my goodness pass before you, and will proclaim before you the name, ‘The LORD’; and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy. But,” he said, “you cannot see my face; for no one shall see me and live.” And the LORD continued, “See, there is a place by me where you shall stand on the rock; and while my glory passes by I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and I will cover you... with my hand until I have passed by; then I will take away my hand, and you shall see my back; but my face shall not be seen.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

The Second Reading

Reader

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians.

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace.

We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you, because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of persons we proved to be among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit, so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to speak about it. For the people of those regions report about us what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon
The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon
The Pharisees went and plotted to entrap Jesus in what he said. So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality. Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?” But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, “Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites? Show me the coin used for the tax.” And they brought him a denarius. Then he said to them, “Whose head is this, and whose title?” They answered, “The emperor’s.” Then he said to them, “Give therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” When they heard this, they were amazed; and they left him and went away.

People
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Nicene Creed

Hymnal S 105

Please stand as you are able.
Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in

The Prayers of the People

Reader

In peace, we pray to you, Lord God.

Silence

For all people in their daily life and work;

People

For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

Reader

For this community, the nation, and the world;

People

For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

Reader

For the just and proper use of your creation;

People

For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

Reader

For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;

People

For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy.

Reader

For the peace and unity of the Church of God;

People

For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the Truth.

Reader

For Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our diocesan Bishops; and for all bishops and other ministers;

People

For all who serve God in his Church.

Reader

For the special needs and concerns of this congregation.

Silence

The People may add their own petitions.

We pray especially that the Spirit might grant us wisdom and perseverance as we seek together to live our core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship.

Reader

Hear us, Lord;

People

For your mercy is great.
Reader  We thank you, Lord, for all the blessings of this life.

Silence

The People may add their own thanksgivings.

People  And praise your Name for ever and ever.

Reader  We will exalt you, O God our King;

People  We pray for all who have died, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom.

Silence

The People may add their own petitions.

People  Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;

Celebrant  Almighty God, whose loving hand has given us all that we possess: Grant us grace that we may honor you with our substance, and, remembering the account which we must one day give, may be faithful stewards of your bounty, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All  Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant  Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant  Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Offertory

By an’ By

Oh, by an’ by, I’m going to lay down my heavy load.
I’m sure my robe’s going to fit me well.
I’m going to lay down my heavy load.
I tried it on at the gates of hell.
I’m going to lay down my heavy load.
Oh, hell is deep and a dark despair;
I’m going to lay down my heavy load.
Oh, stop, poor sinner and don’t go there.
Stop, stop! I’m going to lay down my heavy load.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Music: from A Community Mass; Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.
Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

AMEN.
The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant
As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All
Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.

Invitation

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

In the Episcopal tradition, we believe that when circumstances make it impossible to consume the Eucharistic elements, our desire is enough for God to grant all the benefits of communion.

Leader

I invite all those who are unable to receive the consecrated bread and wine this day, but who long for the grace and blessing of God through our Savior Jesus Christ, to join me in this Prayer for Spiritual Communion:

People

In union, Blessed Jesus, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I offer my praise and thanksgiving. Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Please be seated.

Communion Anthem

O How Amiable Are Thy Dwellings

O how amiable are thy dwellings, thou Lord of hosts!
My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord.
My heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.
Yea, the sparrow hath found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young:
even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King, and my God.
Blessed are they that dwell in thy house.
They will be alway praising thee.
The glorious majesty of the Lord our God be upon us;
prosper thou the work of our hands upon us.
O prosper thou our handiwork.
O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.

—Psalms 84 and 90
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant

Let us pray.

All

Loving God,
we give you thanks
for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
Now send us forth
a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant

May God, who spoke the world into being, give you grace to be wise stewards of creation;
may the Son, who redeemed the world, inspire you to go out as laborers into the harvest;
and may the Holy Spirit, whose breath fills the whole of creation, help you to bear fruits of love, joy, and peace. And the blessing of God—creating, redeeming, and sustaining—be among you and remain with you always.

All

Amen.

Trinity Knitters Online Gathering
5:30–6:30pm, Online
Are you an experienced knitter, new to the craft, or somewhere in between? Trinity Knitters welcomes you to gather online and knit or crochet together, discuss projects, share help or advice, and enjoy each other’s company. Open to all. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/knitters.

Recovering from COVID-19
6:30–7:45pm, Online
COVID-19 and its impact are highly individual. Those who have had this virus struggle with the aftermath in myriad ways—body, mind, spirit, work, and relationships. Through October 26, this weekly series offers a safe space to share your experience and find support in the process of recovery. Co-sponsored by Church of the Heavenly Rest and Trinity Church Wall Street, and facilitated by the Rev. Julia Kristeller from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute (PSI). Register at trinitywallstreet.org/covidrecovery.

Tuesday, October 20
Women's Suffrage Series: Brent Staples
6:30pm, Online
The New York Times editorial board writer Brent Staples will speak with the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas about the complex relationship between the Nineteenth Amendment and white supremacy. Staples has won the Pulitzer Prize for his writing on race and racism in America and is author of the article “How the Suffrage Movement Betrayed Black Women.” He and Dean Douglas will discuss the racial power dynamics at play during the women’s suffrage movement in the years after the Civil War and how it continues today. RSVP: trinitywallstreet.org/womenssuffrage.

Wednesday, October 21
Coping During the Time of COVID-19
6:30–7:45pm, Online
Living through a global pandemic is unprecedented for all of us. Join us one or all Wednesdays through October 28 as we address the challenge of this time and explore ways to cope. Facilitated by H. Kimball Jones from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute (PSI). Register at trinitywallstreet.org/covidsupport.

Thursday, October 22
Trinity Men: Soup, Sandwich, & Spirituality
6:30pm, Online
Join men from Trinity for discussion on various topics related to living a life of faith and service in the city. The Rev. Phillip A. Jackson joins as guest speaker. RSVP and information: TrinityChurchMen@gmail.com.

Career 101 with Pace University
6–7:30pm, Online
These free drop-in workshops for young adults ages 20–24 will help participants build job readiness skills and explore different career paths. Young people can choose which workshops they’d like to attend, with topics spanning resume and cover letter writing, interview skills, and managing professional profiles. Participants will also have the opportunity to learn about returning to college as an adult and nontraditional college options. To register, visit trinitywallstreet.org/career101.

Meet Ibram X. Kendi
7pm, Online
Participate with hundreds of other Episcopalians in an exclusive online event as Ibram X. Kendi, author of How to Be An Antiracist, discusses his journey of discovery, answers your questions, and reflects on the nationwide movement toward antiracism that his writings have helped to fuel. Registration is required: dioceseny.org.

NEXT SUNDAY
Discovery
Sunday, October 25, 10am, Online
Join Discovery online for a guest presentation and conversation about the African Burial Ground National Monument in Lower Manhattan, site of New York’s earliest known African-American cemetery. It highlights the forgotten history of enslaved Africans in New York City and commemorates the role of African Americans in colonial and federal New York City and United States history. Learn about Trinity’s concurrent history relating to burials for freed and enslaved Africans. Moderated by Roz Hall of Trinity’s Task Force Against Racism. See the full Discovery schedule and register at trinitywallstreet.org/discovery.

How to Ground Your Vote
Sunday, October 25, 1–2:30pm, Online
What values inform your vote? Which of these values have been challenged in this time of political upheaval? Has your faith been challenged? How has your faith grounded or motivated you? Come for a time of reflection and sharing. Learn some spiritual practices to keep you grounded and connected in the approaching election season and aftermath. Facilitated by Ruth Frey and Kathy Bozzuti-Jones. To register, email RSVP@trinitywallstreet.org.

COMING SOON
College 101 with Pace University
Beginning Monday, October 26, 3–5pm, Online
These free workshops for youth ages 16–19 will explain how to navigate the college application process, with special attention to what has changed since COVID-19. Topics include essay writing, scholarship resources, and college admissions criteria. The sessions will also introduce students and their families to accessible college prep tools offered across New York City and various higher education institutions. Participants will have the opportunity to be mentored by current Pace University undergraduate students. We strongly encourage students to participate in all classes in the series to get the full benefit of the sessions. To register, visit trinitywallstreet.org/college101.

Trinity Cares in Action
Thursday, October 29, 6:30pm, Online
In response to recent racial violence and turmoil, Trinity Cares met this summer to share their stories, reflect together, and discuss ways to take action together for social justice. In August and September, the group decided to focus their efforts in three areas: Trinity Church Transformative Truth-Telling Affinity Group; Racial Justice in Education Affinity Group; Racial Justice in Policing Policy Reform & Mental Health. A meeting to introduce these groups to the congregation will be held October 29. Please join us. To learn more, visit trinitywallstreet.org/trinitycaresinaction.

Social (In)Justice with Pádraig Ó Tuama
Saturday, October 31, 10am–3pm
In today’s world—with today’s concerns and injustices—what does it mean for a faith community to hold fast to a practice, belief, and value of social justice, one of Trinity Church Wall Street’s core values? During this retreat we will look at contemporary poems and stories, biblical texts, and examples of individuals who are trying—inspired by their faith, their pain, and their hope—to ensure systemic change and meaningful improvement in the lives of those affected by social injustice. Led by Pádraig Ó Tuama, a poet and a theologian from Ireland. From 2014–2019 he led Corrymeela, Ireland’s oldest peace and reconciliation organization. Since 2020 he has been presenting On Being’s poetry program Poetry Unbound. He lives in Ireland and writes, speaks, and teaches about conflict, poetry, and religion. Register by October 25 at trinitywallstreet.org/justice$retreat.

When A Loved One Struggles
Mondays beginning November 2, 6:30pm, Online
Having a loved one who struggles with their mental and emotional health can be lonely and stressful. Come be in shared company for a six-week support group to help dispel the isolation. Dr. Peggy Barnett, psychotherapist at Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute, will facilitate. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/supportgroup.

Election Day Community Gathering
Tuesday, November 3, 12pm and 7pm, Online
A free virtual convening space for people to connect on election day, these sessions will be facilitated by the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute’s Julia Kristeller. Each session will provide an opportunity for participants to step out of the election fray and find some calm in the chaos by taking time to talk about their feelings and take care of themselves. Participants can expect to take part in mindfulness activities, engage in conversation with others, and learn about self-care and well-being techniques. Register: trinitywallstreet.org/vote.

Talking Drum, Global Heartbeat
First Wednesdays beginning Nov. 4, 4:30pm, Online
One of the great opportunities of our time is to recognize the sacredness of everyone and everything—and to celebrate our interconnectedness! Talking Drum, Global Heartbeat is a 45-minute online opportunity for families with children in preschool to fifth grade to build a set of world rhythms and diverse spiritual practices to do right at home. Each session has three parts: a drumming lesson from an expert teacher, a spiritual practice to try together, and an introduction to family traditions from around the world. Register for this online gathering at trinitywallstreet.org/talkingdrum.

Sunday Afternoon Music at Home
Sunday, November 8, 3pm, Online
We’re bringing Sunday Afternoon Music to your home. Classical music scholar and musician David Belkovski performs J. S. Bach’s Toccata and W. F. Bach’s Polonaise in this live music recital. Widely recognized for his artistry on both historical and modern keyboards, David has performed concerts with Juilliard415, the American Classical Orchestra, and the Eastman School Symphony Orchestra, among others. Sponsored by Trinity Congregational Arts/Allegro. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/allegro.

Let’s Talk: How Do We Move Forward…?
Tuesday, November 10, 7pm, Online
Co-facilitated by Julia Kristeller and Wayne Cato, this virtual support group serves as a place for people to connect and reflect on how to move forward with hope and purpose, regardless of who is elected president. Participants can expect to take part in mindfulness activities, engage in conversation with others, and learn about self-care and well-being techniques. For this final session, Trinity’s Program Manager for Action and Advocacy, Lucas Pershing, will join us to talk about the upcoming 2021 elections.
in New York City and broader civic engagement. Register: trinitywallstreet.org/vote.

Trinity Movement Choir: Creation
Sunday, November 15, 2pm, Online
Trinity Movement Choir offers reverence for and resolve to take care of physical creation in an online dance performance of Elements of Creation, followed by a live Q&A with the performers. Trinity Movement Choir’s structured improvisation, inspired by the dreamlike intensity of Japanese butoh dance and the work of dance artist Rudolf Laban, transforms performers and audiences alike. Sponsored by Trinity Congregational Arts/Lively Arts. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/movementchoir.

#voiceyourvote Video Challenge
Through Monday, October 19
Trinity and the NYC Department of Youth and Community Development (DYCD) are partnering on a video challenge for young New Yorkers, ages 13–18, to promote civic engagement during the 2020 voting season. The winner will be announced on October 26 and will be featured in Trinity and DYCD’s civic engagement campaign through the fall of 2021. For more information on how to enter, visit trinitywallstreet.org/youth.

All Faithful Departed: Submitting Names
Due October 22
Please submit names of those who have died during the past year whom you would like to have remembered in the Prayers of the People during the 12:05pm Holy Eucharist on November 2. Email Departed@trinitywallstreet.org by Thursday, October 22 with your names for remembrance.

Volunteer: Reclaim Our Vote
Volunteer to phonebank to help get out the vote in the upcoming election. Trinity is joining Reclaim Our Vote’s nonpartisan campaign to empower voters of color and fight voter suppression. Reclaim Our Vote’s phonebanks are a lifeline to voters, providing up-to-date, accurate information. To volunteer, email Maggy Laraque at MLaraque@trinitywallstreet.org.

Volunteer: Voter Hotline
Volunteer for the NYC League of Women Voters Hotline and help New Yorkers with questions about registering to vote, finding a polling site, and absentee ballots. Volunteers work remotely with calls forwarded through the League’s phone. For more information and to sign up for the training, email Maggy Laraque at MLaraque@trinitywallstreet.org.

Fall Fitness & Healthy Cooking Classes
Through December 18, Online
Join Trinity and Gym Kelly Fitness for free online health and wellness classes this fall! These sessions are a chance to meet new people and offer ways to have healthy fun with friends and family in an accessible, inclusive format. Pick from aerobics, healthy cooking, and bilingual yoga classes offered multiple times a week. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/wellbeing for the full schedule, class descriptions, and how to register. For questions, email Terrell L. Moody at TMoody@trinitywallstreet.org.

Lenten Meditations
Every spring, Trinity parishioners and staff write reflections or contribute art or a photo for each day in the season of Lent. These are gathered in a small booklet that is mailed to parishioners and made available to friends. If you’d like to contribute a meditation or artwork for 2021, please contact Luke Petrinoic at lukehpetrinovic@gmail.com or LentenMeditations@trinitywallstreet.org.

Let’s Stay in Touch: Parish Directory
Would you like to stay in touch with other parishioners during this unusual time but you don’t have your pew neighbor’s phone number or email address? Trinity’s membership department is compiling a directory to help us all stay connected until we can worship together again. To receive a digital copy of the directory, please contribute your contact information and a photo. Contact information may include any or all of the following: email address, mailing address, telephone number, and/or social media handle. To contribute or for more information, email Melissa Mistry at MMistry@trinitywallstreet.org.

Family Worship: Home Edition
Each week, we’re offering a simple service for families to follow at home. There are prayers, videos of scripture and stories being read by some familiar faces, brief 9:15-style video reflections offered by the clergy, and special music, along with coloring sheets and an activity to do together as a family. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/familyworship to see this week’s service.

Trinity Community Message Board
If you’d like to join the conversation with other congregation members and learn about church happenings, email Lynn Goswick at LGoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Courses for Being At Home
Available anytime, Online
Trinity’s Faith Formation & Education department has partnered with ChurchNext, a leading provider of online study resources, to create a library of courses that relate to our parish’s core values. The courses are easily accessible and taught by respected instructors. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/ChurchNext.

Comfort at One—“Passing Through”
Mondays–Fridays, 1pm, Online
During trying times, music stills our souls and provides a healing grace. This fall, the series features performances on the theme of “Passing Through”—passing through musical styles from early music to world premieres while reflecting a message of hope that “this too shall pass.” Mondays–Fridays at 1pm, we’re sharing #ComfortatOne performances on Facebook, Twitter, and trinitywallstreet.org/comfortatone, where you can easily catch up on anything you may have missed, no matter what time it is. Follow us and tune in for encore performances of our favorite concerts professionally filmed in HD, along with current at-home performances from Trinity’s extended family of artists. We hope these concerts help you find a haven of peace and comfort.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. Update: The Chapel of All Saints has closed for a period of approximately six months. During that time, lighting in the chapel will be enhanced, new cameras will be installed to improve live-streaming of worship services, and some adjustments will be made in the floor levels to increase accessibility. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

FLOWERS

To donate flowers, email Flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This service conforms to Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the Book of Common Prayer. The cover prayer comes from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP). Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff from publications including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship: Times and Seasons (CW:TS), St. Augustine’s Prayer Book (SAPIB), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP).
